Biographical Sketch

Leonard Farbstein was born on October 12, 1902 in New York City. He graduated from the High School of Commerce. He then attended the City College of New York, as well as Hebrew Union Teachers College. Farbstein served in the United States Coast Guard Reserve during World War I. After his service, he attended and graduated from New York University School of Law in 1924. From there, he began practicing law in New York City. On September 18, 1947, Farbstein married Blossom Langer. The following year, 1948, they had a son named Louis Farbstein.

He became active in the political community of New York, and eventually became an elected member of the New York State Assembly; a position he held from January 1, 1933 to December 31, 1956.

From January 3, 1957 to January 3, 1971, he held office as a Democrat in the 85th, 86th, 87th, 88th, 89th, 90th, and 91st Congresses. Additionally, he became a member of the United States House of Representatives from New York's 19th district during this time. He was politically aligned to President Lyndon B. Johnson's Vietnam War policies. In his attempt at re-nomination in 1970, he was defeated by Bella Abzug.

Farbstein died on November 9, 1993 in New York City. He was interred in Cedar Park Cemetery in Paramus, New Jersey.
