Biographical Sketch

John Hart Terry was a U.S. Representative from New York. Terry was born in Syracuse, NY on November 14, 1924. He attended public and private schools in Syracuse and was a pre-law candidate at the University of Notre Dame in 1945. Terry entered the U.S. Army in September 1943 as a private and served in the European Theater of Operations with the rank of regimental sergeant major. He received the Bronze Star with clusters and the Purple Heart before being discharged with the rank of first lieutenant in 1946.

After his time in the United States Army, Terry received a LL.B. (J.D.) from Syracuse University in 1948. Terry was admitted to the New York Bar in 1948 and commenced practice in Syracuse. He was also admitted to the bar of the United States Supreme Court and the District of Columbia. Terry was elected and reelected to six terms on the Onondaga County Board of Supervisors from 1948-1958. While he was on the Board of Supervisors, he was also the assistant secretary for the New York State Republican Convention in 1958. After this position Terry was appointed assistant secretary to the Governor of New York from 1959-1961. Terry was also a member of the Inter-Group Relations Advisory Council of the New York State Division of Housing and Community Renewal from 1961-1962.

Terry was elected to five terms as a member of the New York State Assembly from 1963-1970. In this position, Terry was chairman of the New York State United Services Organization and served as a delegate for the New York State Republican Convention delegate in 1962. Terry was elected as a Republican to the Ninety-second Congress (January 3, 1971-January 3, 1973); and was not a candidate for reelection in 1972. In his free time, Terry was senior vice president, general counsel and secretary of Niagara Mohawk Power Corp., (1973-1987), and resumed the practice of law in Syracuse after his time in public office. John Hart Terry died on October 20, 2001 in Syracuse, New York. Terry was survived by his wife Catherine Jean and their four daughters, one who he adopted from his wife's first marriage, from which she was a widow.
