Abstract:	The New York Civil Liberties Union (NYCLU) is the preeminent statewide organization dedicated to the protection and enhancement of individual civil liberties and civil rights in New York State. Founded in 1951, the NYCLU's mission is to defend and uphold the basic rights and liberties articulated in the Bill of Rights and to advocate, litigate and educate for the protection of civil liberties. Through litigation, legal counsel, advocacy and legislative lobbying, the NYCLU has, among many issues, protected political freedom during the McCarthy era, argued against the constitutionality of the Vietnam War, created the first project focused on the rights of mentally disabled, and was the first civil liberties organization to advocate for reforming the foster care placement system. Over the last thirty years, the NYCLU has advocated for issues surrounding voting rights and censorship, fought to end gender discrimination and school segregation in New York State schools, and defended the separation of church and state. The collection consists of legal case files, administrative records and other archival materials. The collection is being processed and is currently closed, unless permission to access is granted in writing from the NYCLU Executive Director.

Historical Note

The New York Civil Liberties Union (NYCLU) was founded in November 1951 as the New York affiliate of the American Civil Liberties Union, it is not-for-profit, nonpartisan organization with nearly 50,000 members across New York State. The stated mission of the organization is defend and promote New Yorkers' unalienable rights, including freedom of speech and religion, and the right to privacy, equality and due process of law. NYCLU performs its work through litigation, advocacy, community organizing, and public education.

The NYCLU has eight chapters in New York State: Central New York, the Capital Region, Lower Hudson Valley, Suffolk County, Nassau County, New York City, Genesee Valley and the Western Region. The New York City office is the organization's headquarters and represents all regions that do not have their own local chapter or regional office.

Scope and Contents

This collection predominantly consists of the thousands of legal case files the NYCLU partook in. The legal case files series spans from freedom of speech, religion, press, petition, and assembly, to privacy, to equality before and due process of law. The legal cases show the expansive service the NYCLU performs for underrepresented groups and person of New York State.

The Executive Director files contain the material of past Executive Directors, the NYCLU Board, including board meeting minutes, and chapter news. The legislative Committee series tracks the work of the NYCLU and their impact advocating for New Yorkers through reform. In 1970, a campaign led by the NYCLU's legislative office lead to the repeal of a state law that imposes criminal sanctions for the performance of medical abortions.

The advocacy series represents the tireless work to promote the issues of New Yorkers including, military and selective service, reproductive rights, LBGT rights, racial justice, immigrants' rights, rights of people with disabilities, voting rights, youth and student rights, and women and equality. Subject Files show the day to day aspects of the NYCLU and include memorandum of staff attorneys. As well as general subject based materials. Bulk of material from the 1950's to the 1980's
