Historical Note

Steve Hall is currently communications specialist for the Texas Defender Service. From 2000-2015, Hall was the founding director of the StandDown Texas Project, which identified and advocated best practices in the criminal justice system, with a special emphasis on capital punishment in Texas. Earlier he served as chief of staff to the Attorney General of Texas from 1983-1991, and was an administrator of the Texas Resource Center, a nonprofit that recruited and assisted private lawyers handling death penalty cases, from 1993-1995.
