Grenander Department of Special Collections and Archives, University Libraries, University at Albany, State University of New York (hereafter referred to as the The Pride Center of the Capital Region Records).

Biographical History

Founded in 1970 and based in Albany, New York, the Pride Center of the Capital Region promotes the well-being of all lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer-identified people and those affected by discrimination based on gender identity and expression. Its programs, both at the Center as well as held throughout the region, meet the health and human service needs of the LGBTQ community as well as educate and advocate for those needs in the broader Capital Region. As the oldest continuously-operating LGBTQ community center in the country, the Pride Center has worked to build a welcoming and empowering community for all people.

According to its records, the Pride Center formed in 1970 under the name of the Gay Liberation Front. It was renamed the Capital District Gay Community Council in 1972 and later was the Capital District Gay and Lesbian Community Council before becoming the Pride Center in 2011.

Scope and Contents

The collection consists of photographs, correspondence, clippings, publications, subject files, and event materials, including records from the annual Capital Pride celebration. The publications include CommUNITY (1974-2002), Speak Out (1974-1978), Northeast Alive, and Capital District Alive among others.

Arrangement of the Collection

The collection is unprocessed and is likely disorganized. Individual items may be difficult to find. The newsletters are arranged alphabetically.
