Preferred Citation

Preferred citation for this material is as follows: Identification of specific item, series, box, folder, Manfred George Papers, 1933-1965. M.E. Grenander Department of Special Collections and Archives, University Libraries, University at Albany, State University of New York (hereafter referred to as the George Papers).

Biographical Sketch

Born in Berlin, Manfred George emigrated from Germany after the Nazi Party rose to power in Germany. Upon his arrival in the United States, George became editor-in-chief of the German-language newspaper Aufbau, a position he held from 1939 until his death in 1965. Under George's direction, Aufbau morphed from a monthly newsletter into a weekly publication.
Scope and Contents

This collection contains copies of correspondence with Hannah Arendt, Max Barth, Hans Habe, Ludwig Marcuse, Thomas Mann, Hertha Pauli, and many other émigré scholars and writers (1933–1965); two reel-to-reel tape recordings concerning the New York émigré newspaper Aufbau; copies of press clippings of articles by George in European and American newspapers (1934–1954); and materials pertaining to the German-American Writers’ Association, (1938–1940).

Arrangement

Files in this collection are arranged first with newsclippings and articles by George, followed by correspondence files.
