Biographical / Historical

Erich Von Kahler was born on October 14, 1885 in Prague. Kahler studied at the University of Munich, the University of Berlin, the University of Heidelberg, and the University of Freiburg. Kahler received his doctorate from the University of Vienna in 1911. He was stripped of his German citizenship in 1933 because he was Jewish. Kahler eventually emigrated to the United States in 1938. He became a U.S. citizen in 1944.

Kahler taught at a variety of universities in the United States including The New School, Black Mountain College, Cornell University, and Princeton University. Kahler was a member of the Institute for Advanced Study and wrote many books on politics, technology, and science. Kahler was married to Josephine Sobotka, and later to Alice (Lili) Loewy. Kahler died on June 28, 1970, in Princeton, New Jersey and was survived by his wife and stepdaughter.

Revision Description

Collection level finding aid created by Sheri Sarnoff 2020

Processing Information

The Kahler Papers are not fully processed but a detailed inventory was created for boxes 1-10 by David Abril Torres in 2022. It is based upon an earlier arrangement scheme. Jodi Boyle provided dates for materials/files that were not previously dated.

Immediate Source of Acquisition

This majority of the collection was donated by Alice Loewy Kahler in the late 1970s with a small amount of material donated by Janit Roberts in 1991.

Conditions Governing Access

Access to the processed material in boxes 1-10 of this collection is unrestricted. Access to the unprocessed material in the remaining portion of the collection is restricted. Please contact an archivist for more information.

Conditions Governing Use

The researcher assumes full responsibility for conforming with the laws of copyright. Whenever possible, the M.E. Grenander Department of Special Collections and Archives will provide information about copyright owners and other restrictions, but the legal determination ultimately rests with the researcher. Requests for permission to publish material from this collection should be discussed with the Head of Special Collections and Archives
