Table of Contents

Summary Information ......................................................................................................................................... 3
Historical Sketch ................................................................................................................................................... 3
Scope and Contents .............................................................................................................................................. 4
Arrangement of the Collection .......................................................................................................................... 4
Administrative Information ............................................................................................................................... 4
Controlled Access Headings ............................................................................................................................... 5
Summary Information

Repository: M.E. Grenander Department of Special Collections & Archives
Title: Nine Partners General Store Records
ID: mss099
Date [inclusive]: 1767-1776
Physical Description: 2 Vol.
Physical Location: The materials are located onsite in the department.
Language of the Material: English
Mixed Materials [Collection]: X
Abstract: Day books kept by the proprietor(s) of a general store selling dry goods and products from the West Indies in the Hudson Valley of New York and Connecticut. The store may have been located in the Nine Partners Tract, in the vicinity of what is now Hyde Park, New York.

Preferred Citation

Preferred citation for this material is as follows: Identification of specific item, series, box, folder, Nine Partners General Store Records, 1767-1776. M.E. Grenander Department of Special Collections and Archives, University Libraries, University at Albany, State University of New York (hereafter referred to as the Nine Partners General Store Records).

^ Return to Table of Contents

Historical Sketch

The store may have been located in the Nine Partners Tract, in the vicinity of what is now Hyde Park, New York. The proprietor(s) sold dry goods including European imports and products from the West Indies (sugar, molasses, and rum) in the Hudson Valley of New York and in Connecticut.
Scope and Contents

This collection contains the day books kept by the proprietor(s) of the general store. The first volume includes page headings labeled "Nine Partners," and the second volume includes the name Neeson on the spine and front cover.

Arrangement of the Collection

The collection is unprocessed and is likely disorganized. Individual items may be difficult to find.

Administrative Information

Publication Statement

M.E. Grenander Department of Special Collections & Archives

Processing Information

Processed by unprocessed.

Access

Access to this collection is restricted because it is unprocessed. Portions of the collection may contain recent administrative records and/or personally identifiable information. While it is likely that portions of the collection may be viewed, access must be managed by an archivist.
Copyright

The researcher assumes full responsibility for conforming with the laws of copyright. Whenever possible, the M.E. Grenander Department of Special Collections and Archives will provide information about copyright owners and other restrictions, but the legal determination ultimately rests with the researcher. Requests for permission to publish material from this collection should be discussed with the Head of Special Collections and Archives.

Acquisition Information

The collection was purchased from dealer Goodspeed in 1968.

Controlled Access Headings

- Nine Partners General Store
- Business and Industry
- Financial Records