Biographical Note

Harry E. Schultz, Jr. was born in 1922 in Albany, N.Y. and raised in nearby Colonie. He attended Union College. Schultz was employed by the Delaware & Hudson Railroad (D&H) as a civil engineer for 41 years. He rose from an entry level position in North Creek and retired in 1983 as assistant chief engineer of the company. During his career he was stationed in North Creek, Saratoga, Plattsburgh, and Albany. His work often required him to travel to Binghamton, Scranton, and Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Following Schultz's retirement, he worked for several local contractors as a consultant engineer. He was a lifetime member of the American Railway Engineering Association. Schultz passed away in July 2007 and was survived by his wife of 58 years, Ann M. Keon Schultz, four children, and seven grandchildren.
