Administrative History

The Office of the Vice President for Research and Dean of Graduate Studies was created in 1971 as a result of the combination of the Offices of Research and Graduate Studies. The Office's duties were two-fold: Firstly, the Dean of Graduate Studies was responsible for overseeing graduate education at the University, including program development, graduate student recruitment and retention, student travel grants and guidelines, academic grievances and the development of graduate programs with international universities. The Vice President of Research's portion of the Office was primarily dedicated to the promotion and facilitation of faculty research, with a focus on reviewing grant requests and overseeing the dispersal of institutional grants and other funding to faculty. Generally, a single person filled both roles. The Office also played a part in the development and financing of research centers and the dispersal of Faculty Research Awards. For a number of years, the role of Vice President of Research and Dean of Graduate Studies was filled by Jeanne Gullahorn, whose tenure of office makes up a large portion of this collection. In 1998, the Division for Research was created and the Vice President for Research was folded into that office, while the Division of Academic Affairs assumed responsibility for graduate education and international graduate programs.

Scope and Contents

The records in this collection were created by various individuals in the Office of the Vice President for Research and Dean of Graduate Studies. Materials include: Vice President search committee records; administrative files relating to other university departments; records of research centers and institutes, including: the Center for Women in Government, the Center for Computing and Disability, the Center for Legislative Development, the Center for Technology and Government, and others; records from various international programs; council and committee files, including: the Council on Research, Committee on Centers and Institutes, Graduate Academic Council, and others; faculty salary information and performance reviews; budget files and account expenditure summaries; files relating to the Research Foundation; files relating to the Office of Laboratory Animal Services; and various other records relating to the administration of graduate education and research.

Arrangement of the Collection

This collection has been broken up into 10 series. Most series have been arranged in the order in which they were transferred to the archives. As collections were not transferred chronologically, items within the collection are not in chronological order. The Articulation Agreements and International Programs series, the Search Committee series, and the Publications series have been created artificially from material found in several other series.

Revision Description

Encoded in EAD by Benjamin Covell Series-level processing completed by Miles Lawlor. 2017 March 27 2018

Processing Information

Processed, with grievance documents out of retention and documents containing social security and other personal information removed and shredded in 2018 by Miles Lawlor.

A number of partially filled boxes in this collection have been consolidated, with original file order maintained throughout. Information regarding original box numbers has been included in series level description. Upon processing it was discovered that boxes 35, 36, 44 and 51 were missing. It is unclear whether these boxes were merged into other collections or whether this was due to the numbering errors upon transfer.

Administrative Records, 2001 addition, 1980-2001

Physical Description: 9.4 cubic ft.

Language of the Material: English.

Arrangement

Files in this series have been maintained in their original order upon transfer. A number of partially full boxes within this series were consolidated with original file order maintained.

Processing Information:

Processing Information

Boxes in this series were originally labeled as boxes 37-52 . Upon processing it was discovered that boxes 35, 36, 44 and 51 were missing. It is unclear whether these boxes were merged into other collections or whether this was due to the numbering errors upon transfer.

While previous series in this collection were designated based upon information written on their original boxes, none of the boxes in this series contained such information. It was therefore decided to maintain these remaining boxes as a single series.

Resumes, vita and student grievances no longer in retention removed and shredded by Miles Lawlor in 2018.

Scope and Contents

Materials in this collection include documents regarding research policies, including documentation on conflicts of interest as well as both human and animal testing. This series also contains correspondence and documentation on University-affiliated research centers and institutes. This series also includes the Research Foundation's documentation on Y2K compliance as well as the University's implementation of Oracle software through the OASIS program.
