Biographical Sketch

Cornelius "Neal" Robbins was a faculty member in the Department of Educational Administration at the University at Albany, SUNY between 1992 and 2008. Before coming to Albany Robbins was a long-time administrator at colleges throughout the Northeast, including both two- and four-year institutions. He served as President of several different institutions, including Genessee Community College from 1970 through 1975 and SUNY Cobleskill between 1985 and 1992. As a professor at UAlbany, his main areas of academic focus were in Educational Administration and Community College Management.
