Scope and Contents

Collection is made up of the annual reports from the school dating from the years 1844-2005. These encompass the full existence of the school, though some years are missing, such as the majority of the 1850s. The reports include the state of the school, number of graduates, financial reports, and enrollment lists.

Additional reports from the 1990s provided to the President's Office on topics including affirmative and academic outcomes are included in this collection as well.
