ELECTION ISSUE

THE MILNE SCHOOL, ALBANY, N. Y.

FEBRUARY 28, 1957

Student Council Election Today

President

Bill Warren

President of the Milne senior student council is a very high honor. To the person elected, this office should mean hard work, and it must be done by someone who will follow through to the best of his ability. Why not elect a man of integrity to be your leader!

My candidate, BILL WARREN, is very capable of holding this position. I have known him for many years and during these years he has held many positions of leadership and has never once let a position of popularity go to his head. Bill promises, if elected, he will do this job to the best of his ability. He will surely devote his spare time helping to fulfill all of his promises to you and also the promises of latter years which have never been realized.

Bill has been a leader in the Boy Scouts of America for many years and has advanced as far as an Eagle scout. He has led many scouts up the trail of knowledge and is at the present time an assistant scout master. Two years ago he attended the world jamboree of scouting. Here he met scouts from over 64 different countries represented by more than 20,000 boys. Bill was the secretary-treasurer of Milne's Foreign Relations club as well as a charter member. He also belongs and is a hard worker in Adelphoi. Bill is also the only male officer of his church fellowship (this he enjoys). He attacks this job with full force. Bill is also a good community worker and is a fine athlete. He has played basketball and baseball for Milne for the past four years.

Bob Killough

Experience, knowledge and school spirit is what you want in your student council president. Who's the man for the job? BOB KILLOUGH. Your first question may be why. Well, Bob has been on student council since eighth grade, he was elected president of the junior student council in ninth grade and he has been tops in Milne athletics.

These are the things you will be thinking of when you cast your vote for the presidency. Bob has the experience of four years of student council membership. His knowledge is proven by honor role marks. His Milne athletic record tells us that he will strive for more school spirit. He also has been a member of Theta Nu Literary society and Milne Traffic squad.

Now that you have seen his outstanding school record you will want to know what his objectives are for the future.

It is Bob's aim, during his term, to create a better understanding between the student body and the student council so that incidents like the last assembly won't happen again! To create more school spirit in all school activities, not only athletics but council programs. Bob will do his best to serve the interests of the student body, but the students through school spirit, must take a greater interest in student council affairs.

With these facts in mind, there will be no doubt as to who you should cast your ballot for.

Vice-President

Dick McEwan

Let's take a look at my candidate for vice-president of the student council, Dick McEwan.

In his first year in Milne Dick was elected treasurer of his homeroom. Last year, Dick was chosen president of H.R. 130 and was selected as their representative on the student council.

This year, he has been busy serving his class and the school well. Dick is currently vice-president of his class and doing a fine job. This office, coupled with his second year on the council, give him the necessary experience needed to handle the issues that arise before that body.

Dick also participates in various extra curricular activities. He handles the books for Hi-Y and is a member of Theta Nu. He also worked hard on the alumni ball, helping greatly in its success.

If elected, my candidate will, to the best of his ability, carry out the functions of the vice-presidency. He will work closely with the president on all the issues that confront the fine work on the career series, and assemblies, done by Ellie McNamara, the outgoing veep.

Dick McEwan is not only a good student and hard worker, but a good guy "to boot." He's one of the most popular members of the class of '58. Having served in many offices previously, I feel Dick is the one best qualified for the position of vice-president of the student council.

Stephanie Condon

Q.—What activities have made Stephanie qualified for the job?

A.—In the ninth grade, Stephanie was vice-president of the junior student council, and since that time, she has been president of the Foreign Relations club and president of her church young people's group for the last two years. This year, she is a student writer for the Times-Union. These duties have prepared her well for the job and have made her an experienced officer.

Q.—What improvements does she intend for the student government?

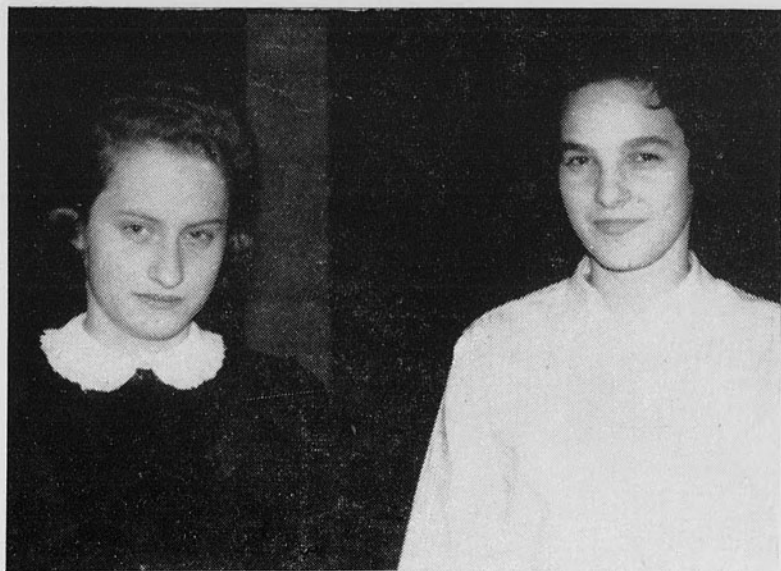

A.—Stephanie feels that the relationship between the student council and the student body can be better. In order for the council to function efficiently, both students and council members must participate in governing the school. The student council has a great task in acquainting the student body with government, thus helping them to become good citizens. Stephanie believes that we should take advantage of the large voice Milne students have in school affairs, and show a live interest in student council proceedings.

Q.—What views does Stephanie have about "school spirit."

A.—"In a relatively small school, says Stephanie, "like Milne, gatherings which include the whole school are very necessary to keep "school spirit" alive. "School spirit" is an important part of school life. This concern binds the school together. Therefore, Stephanie is in favor of having more assemblies throughout the school year.

Secretary

Katie Simmons

"Here's the thing of it," says Eloise! "Do you want to have the best possible secretary for the senior student council next year? Well the girl for the job is KATIE SIMMONS!"

I suppose you're all wondering just what "Eloise" has to do with this campaign. We chose "Eloise" as the theme of our campaign because she has definite ideas. "Eloise" is also a very intelligent little girl, who knows just what she is talking about, and when she says, "there is absolutely no other person for the important job of secretary, but Katie Simmons."

Katie Simmons has been a very active member of the class of '58. In the seventh grade Katie served as a representative to the junior student council. This was the beginning of Katie's experiences with working for the council. In the ninth grade Katie worked for the junior student council once again. But this time she was the secretary. Since Katie held this important position, it is easy to see that she is well qualified for the job. Her record in working for the junior student council was one to be proud of. When Katie was in her sophomore year, she once again served as secretary. This time being secretary of her class. Aside from her past experiences, Katie received A's in typing, which is an essential qualification for the office of secretary. She also receives A's in English and takes accurate and sensible minutes.

I think that you can easily see just how qualified Katie is. Through her previous jobs, she has made it clear to the faculty and to the student body that she is a very capable worker.

Jane Armstrong

7th Grade—Homeroom president
Choir

8th Grade—Homeroom president
Cheerleader
Hams
Choir

9th Grade—Crimson and White staff
Bricks and Ivy staff
Cheerleader

10th Grade—SECRETARY—
M.G.A.A.
Crimson and White staff
Bricks and Ivy staff
Tri-Hi-Y
F.H.A.
Homeroom alternate to student council

11th Grade—SECRETARY—Quin
Vice-president—G.A.A.
BUSINESS MANAGER for Crimson and White
Cheerleader
Tri-Hi-Y
Homeroom alternate to
student council

At Milne the secretary holds one of the most important jobs on the council. She must be able to keep records neatly and accurately.

I feel that Jane Armstrong is the person for this important job. She has served as secretary of the M.G.A.A. council and also Quin. This means that she has had experience as a secretary. She fulfills all her obligations eagerly, efficiently, and effectively.

Jane can type and also takes shorthand which should help her in taking notes which is so necessary for the efficient running of any business meeting. Since she knows all the whys and wherefores of the job of secretary and knows how the student council functions I'm sure Jane Armstrong is the best for the job.

Place your vote for Jane Armstrong, and remain confident that all the work and events of the student council will reach you quickly, efficiently, and with your wants and interests in mind.

Treasurer

Igor Magier

The treasurer holds one of the most important jobs on the council as he has complete responsibility for all the council's money. He must also pay the council's bills, and be able to keep neat and accurate records.

I feel that you could not find, in the entire Milne school, a person who combined all the attributes of honesty, sincerity, and school spirit with the amount of experience of my candidate, Igor Magier.

Even though Igor entered Milne this year, he has already made so many friends and has been entrusted with so many jobs that he was given the great honor of being nominated for treasurer. Of course, friends were not the sole reason for his being nominated, as he has many, many excellent qualifications and abilities.

Igor was the treasurer for the very profitable alumni ball which entailed the handling of $120, and is at the present, the treasurer for the class of '58; therefore he has responsibility for over $250.00.

He works for, and receives, good marks in mathematics, he has a good sense of money value, and can also be trusted to keep accurate records of all the money that is in his care. These are all essential characteristics needed to be a good treasurer. Besides this he is also the vice-president of Hi-Y, and an active member of Adelphoi, the members of Theta-Nu cannot hold this against him, as Igor can boast a good number of friends in both organizations.

Igor is a sincere and willing worker, and will always work for you, the student body.

These are a few of his qualifications which help to prove that he has the ability and experience necessary to fulfill the obligations of this job.

Roger Dewey, Campaign Mgr.

Larry Kupperberg

Running as a candidate for the position of treasurer of the senior student council is Larry Kupperberg.

Larry has had experience as an officer in various student organizations. In the eighth and ninth grades he was his homeroom president, and was a member of Hi-Y and International Relations club. Now he has spread his time between Adelphoi and the senior student council. In the latter organization, he has been active for two years.

It is because of a fondness for the student council that my candidate is sincerely the best for the office. His fondness will be directed to the particular love that the treasurer must have in collecting, feeling, spending, and even perhaps saving of our lucre. He has maintained an excellent average in mathematics, and is a good connoisseur of figures, or a connoisseur of good figures.

My candidate is most interested in promoting a closer relationship between the faculty and the student body. Since the student council treasurer is also the chairman of the student faculty committee, I feel that Larry is the proper candidate with the most qualifications required for this responsible position. He has been trying to promote better relations with each of his own personal teachers, all along the line. His adjustment marks bear this out.

As for the position of treasurer, I feel that he has all the necessary qualifications. He likes money, knows its color and size, and what it is used for. Larry recognizes the special duties of the office he is seeking, and I know he will do an excellent job if elected.

The next time you see Larry in the halls, look him over and see if he doesn't fit the bill. I know he does.
