Elaine Drooz and the junior high orchestra will supply the music.

Jean Layman is in charge of props, and Priscilla Simpson, the program.

On or around June 1 the principal of Junior High, Dr. Frederick, and his family will leave for a trip across the country. Dr. Frederick is going to teach at Eastern Washington College of Education at Cheney, Washington. Dr. Frederick is going to be gone with his family for about three and one half months.

"I am not taking the trailer, but just my car", said Dr. Frederick.

"I plan to take in the Rush Memorial in the Black Hills, Yellowstone National Park, Glacier National Park and the famous Grand Coulee Dam on the Columbia River." Dr. Frederick will be back at Milne in September.

SOCIAL STUDIES SPONSORS JUNIOR HIGH TEA DANCE

Social Science class 7-4 is sponsoring a tea dance. It will be held in the Little Gym, Tuesday, May twenty-fourth from 3:30 to 5:00 P. M. The purpose of this dance is to raise money in order to plan a party for an orphanage. The admission is ten cents for one and fifteen cents for a couple. Refreshments will be served.

Miss Halter will act as chaperone. You don't have to dress up, the main idea is to come and enjoy yourself. You can let yourself go, do the big apple or just dance quietly. Don't forget to come. Everyone is welcome.

THE OTHER 60 PERCENT

In a recent survey made by a committee of eighth grade Social Studies pupils it was revealed that only 36% in Milne Jr. High were taking advantage of banking their pennies every Wednesday morning. There were no reasons offered by the 60% for not banking. This committee believes the figures in this survey are a reflection on the spirit of some of the pupils in Milne. What do you do with those coins?

STUDENT COUNCIL REPORT

Jessie J. Cornplanter [p.2]
(conts. from column 1)

The nominees for student council president are James Kirk, Marvin Postenstein, John Peale and Joe Hunting. Homerooms voted on when they wanted next year's parties. The average vote was October, March and June; these were not yet determined. The student Council representatives were asked to find out if Junior High wants 2 or 3 parties next year.

JESSIE J. CORNPLANTER

The junior high Crimson and White secured an exclusive Milne interview Wednesday with Jessie J. Cornplanter on his visit to State College. He is the last descendant of the Cornplanters of Washington's time.

We set out pencil and notebook in hand and found a large man (six feet, two inches) with an excellent vocabulary who speaks rather haltingly.

"What do you think of Albany?" He replied concisely, but politely that it was very nice.

Mr. Cornplanter wore "oose" breech pants and a white shirt. On his head was a red fluted cap with large feathers in it. One feather in the middle stood up straight. He wore a beaded tie, and a silver band across his chest. On his belt were guns. He had silver bands around his arms. His feet were covered with beaded moccasins.

When I asked if he had traveled much outside of the reservation he answered quite a bit. He often went to New York and Georgia.

The Indians on the reservations live practically the same way as the back woodsmen. They are mostly farmers and live in log cabins. A few have radios and cars. The children are driven by bus to neighboring cities for schooling.

Mr. Cornplanter has just written a book, "Legends of the Longhouse". This book is about Indian myths and legends. In this book he is supposed to be writing to a friend Lah-Wee-Weh Mrs. Henricks, who was present at the interview. Mr. Cornplanter and Mrs. Henricks supplied Carl Carmer with information about the Indians for his recent book, "Listen for a Lonesome Drum".

THINK BEFORE VOTING

The coming election of the Junior Student council president, is near. Now is the time to think seriously of who you'd like to see as president next year. When you nominate someone, don't put him up just because you like him, or he is your best friend. First, he should be a responsible person, someone you could rely on, he should know parliamentary procedure, and if possible, should have been on student council and know something about it. He should be rather good in his studies so that he can devote more time to the duties of the president. If you know someone that has these points, and you honestly think he would make a good president, do your best to see that he gets nominated, and then support him.

STUDY

Isn't today, May 13, (and Friday at that), and don't some very important tests come in June? Do you expect to get above 70? Which would you rather take home to your parents, a 95 or a 59?

It's about time we realized that May is here and May brings exams.

MOVIE REVIEW

One of the outstanding movies of the year is "The Adventures of Robin Hood", filmed in technicolor, which is now playing at the Strand Theatre. This picture contains the delights of the book as well as a few added touches. The role of Robin Hood is played almost to perfection by the tall Irishman Errol Flynn while Liiva de Havilland lends a perfect performance as Maid Marion. The other important parts are played by well-known actors. For an exciting evening take "Pop" to see "Robin Hood". He'll love it and so will you.

"Robin Hood" is one of the most expensive pictures that Hollywood has made this year.

BESSIE BOOKBUG

Well, vacation is over at last, and we're all back to school with our noses to the grindstone. No more vacations until after exams. I wonder how many of my faithful readers read Peter Rabbit for Easter?

Spring certainly is here to stay. Trees are budding, birds are singing, and with this freakish weather, it's just swell to sit in your favorite apple tree and read Under the Lilacs by Alcott.

You've probably all heard that Judy Garland is going to play "Dorothy" in The Wizard of Oz by Baum, so you'd better borrow a copy and read up about it. If you can't get it, try one of the other Oz books. They're all good if you always had a little space left in your heart for a fairy story.

As long as Spring is here I might as well mention Hepatica Hawks. It's a splendidiferous book about a circus girl and her adventures. This story will appeal especially to girls who are tall and sensitive about it. It's just waiting for you in the Milne Library.

Here's a hint to all Nature lovers, the trailing Arbutus is blooming! In the Spring a young girl's fancy lightly turns to how many wild flowers she can transplant in her back garden. Don't be surprised if you find every body reading seed catalogs. They're really interesting (to some people). Probably the best one would be Burpee's Super Colossal Giant Zinnias or whatever plant you prefer.

I'll leave you now to you're spring planting and hope that the weeds aren't the only things that come up.

The Game Club played Checkers, Chess Charlie McCarthy, and Juries Bar, which are some of their new games, at their last meeting. Swarty won the chess tournament. There is a checker tournament going on now.

The Boy Scout Club is planning a hike to take place on May 14, the weather permitting. They are going out the Fuller Road.

The Boys' Cooking Club made a real spring dish at their last meeting, strawberry shortcake. It tasted excellent.

Snoopy Sally is that odd looking person with the long nose, you see walking down the halls. This week she presents you with some of her biggest snoops. Last week I wonder if you were in the cafeteria when Miss Hafter dropped her tray. Boy, did everyone jump. Even Latin homework was left for a minute while students rushed to see what happened.

I suppose that you have all heard about the accident Shirley Smith had at Beverwyck Park last Wednesday. It seems that the other team was afraid that Shirley's team would win the game so they tried killing off Shirley's team. Their efforts began and ended when Shirley fell and sprained her arm quite badly. All we can say is "More baseball to you Shirley and next time be careful."

ASSEMBLY

Monday, May 9, the seventh grade dramatics club presented a play in assembly entitled, "The Stolen Prince".

Those taking part in the play were Wilma Tubbs, Nancy Eddison, Jean Douglas, Esther Newcomb, Laura Dancy, Barbara Hewes, Jane Curtis, Elizabeth Mapes, Eleanor McFee, and Mureen Schermerhorn. Elaine Drooz announced the play and also played the music for it. Miss Dershimer and Miss Warren had charge of the production.

After the play was over Lois Ambler, and Barbara Russell played a few selections on the piano.

The boyscouts of Milne High School seemed to be out shining itself. John Dyer came off with high honors by winning first prize in the Boy Scout harmonica contest and Robert Mason won third place in the bugling contest.

In our midst we have a great actor. Mr. Neilen Brody, recently appeared on the stage of the Hall during a program by Kuda Box.

GIRLS' SPORTS

Last Wednesday the girls of the seventh, eighth and ninth grades elected baseball captains. Jeanne Selkirk and Ruth Martin were elected captains of the ninth grade teams, Miriam Boice and Katherine Schul, captains of the eighth grade teams, and June Bailey, and Marjorie Wright captains of the seventh grade team. The schedule is posted on the side door of Milne. The teams are quite good this year and we expect a good season.

THIRD ANNUAL SAILBOAT RACE

The Milne eighth grade boys have made sailboats that they will soon race. The races will take place on Washington Park lake, west of the bridge on the bay designated. It will probably take place sometime within the next two weeks.

Each contestant will be allowed to practise one hour before the first race is called, which will start at 4:15 P.M. The winner of the five heats will race in the final heat. A trophy will be awarded the winner of the race of the five heat winners, and all other winners will receive medals.

The course of the race will be from the north to the south shore west of the bridge. The first boat to touch the shore in each race will be declared the winner. In case of a tie boats will rerun the race.

Each eighth grade homeroom may elect one girl to act as one of three judges for the races. The decisions of the judges will be final.
