THIRTY-FOURTH TERM.

THURSDAY, JULY 11,

1861.

Order of Exercises.

1. ANTHEM—"O, Sing unto the Lord." - - - Dr. John Clarke

2. PRAYER.

3. CHORUS—"On to the field of glory."

4. ESSAY—"Necessity for Earnest Workers."

FRANKLIN HAMILTON, Batavia, Genesee.

5. ESSAY—"Seeking Popular Favor."

SARAH S. FLEWELLIN, Yorktown, Westchester.

6. ESSAY—"The Standard of Taste."

MICHAEL R. COOK, Smyrna, Chenango.

7. ESSAY—"Character is Power."

SARAH B. HUNTINGTON, Minetto, Oswego.

8. CHORUS—"Flag of our glory."

Words by Prof. F. S. JEWELL.

Hail, hail to the standard,
Theme of song and of story,
That sea-ward and land-ward,
Floats o'er us in glory!
Undimmed in thy splendor,
No shame shall be cloud thee;
A host thy defender,
No ruin shall shroud thee.

Though treason assail thee,
Its triumph is never;
Thy fate cannot fail thee,
Thy rule is forever.
Float on then in splendor,
Thou flag of our glory!
No'er shalt thou surrender
Thy proud place in story.

Then hail to the standard!
Theme of song and of story,
That sea-ward and land-ward,
Floats o'er us in glory:
The painter shall limn thee,
• With bright colors blending;
The poet shall hymn thee,
With songs never ending.

The patriot shall swear thee
His heart's best devotion;
And heroes shall bear thee,
O'er land and o'er ocean.
Float on, then, forever,
Thou flag of our glory!
We hail thee as ever,
Pride of song and of story!

13. GRADUATES' SONG—"Toil on!"

Words by Prof. F. S. JEWELL.

Toil on, Toil on!

Thou friend and guide of youth;

Touch thou the heart, and rouse its slum'ring might,

Lead on each soul to glory's radiant height,

On to the crown of wisdom and of truth;

Toil on, toil on!

Toil on, toil on!

With heart as spring-time bright;

Work such as thine might angel-hands employ,

Work bless'd as thine e'en angel-hearts enjoy,

Be then thy lot thy glory and delight;

Toil on, toil on!

Toil on, toil on!

In hope serene as even;

O'er the fair field, shall wave the golden grain,

Thy garner, greet the heavy harvest wain,

Thy soul, foretaste the bless'd reward of heaven;

Toil on, toil on!

Toil on, toil on!

Be faithful to the last;

Soon will the noon, with twilight shadows blend,

Soon o'er the day, night's raven pall descend,

And earthly toil, with mortal life be past;

Toil on, toil on!
