STUDENT COUNCIL DISCUSSES INCREASE IN MEMBERSHIP AT LAST MEETING

Home room representatives will number two as result of council decision; to use conduct cards

The members of the student council have decided to enlarge the present membership of the council. At the present time there is only one representative from each home-room. This makes a membership of nine students on the council at this time. It was decided that one other person should be elected from each home-room. If a boy was elected in the first part of the year, a girl will be elected for this new representative, and vice-versa. The new council representatives will be ushered into office on February 8.

At this meeting it was also decided to give out conduct tickets, as was done last year, for those students who refuse to obey the very few and simple rules that Milne High school has in effect. It seems some of the boys and girls are very unruly both in the home-rooms, in the halls passing between classes, and also in the cafeteria

"We find the only way to make them behave is to give these tickets", Sara Kessler, a member of the student council, said today. Those who receive tickets will be punished severely. This may seem a very childish method to some of our students, but we find it is the only solution to our problem. We hope you will not do anything that is not considered proper in the eyes of the Council, Miss Kessler added. Remember the council representatives do not enjoy giving these tickets!

STUDENTS USE LOST AND FOUND BOX

The lost and found box which was established this year under the supervision of the Student Council has been used quite a bit by the students this semester. However, many things have been found which have not been posted on the bulletin board in the lost and found section. All persons who find any articles have been requested to leave these in the office of Miss Nicós so that students may claim them.

NEXT STUDENT ASSEMBLY WILL BE WEDNESDAY IN PAGE AUDITORIUM

Members of senior journalism class to present newspaper play

The next student assembly for the Milne Senior and Junior High Schools will be on Next Wednesday, January 20, in the auditorium of Pagehall, Miss Helen Halter, supervisor of social science, and director of extra-curricular activities, announced today.

The entire program has not been definitely decided as yet. The senior journalism class of the high school will present a one act play on the subject of newspapers and journalism. Ruth Milas, '32, a member of the senior class, is directing the play.

Last Wednesday morning an assembly was conducted. An official of the Union Pacific Railways was present and gave a talk on the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, and the beauties of the canyons and mountains in Utah. He illustrated his talk with many colored slides, showing the places through which a traveler would pass in enjoying the scenery along the route of the railway.

The High school orchestra played at the beginning of this assembly.

NEWSPAPER CLUB PLAYS INTERESTING GAME AS PART OF THURSDAY PROGRAM

By Helen Gibson, reporter

Last Thursday, the Newspaper club in charge of Miss Lewis had a very enjoyable meeting. The sponsor passed around blank pieces of copy paper and then gave directions:

First, everyone writes at the top of their page "who" and then someone's name. Then the papers are exchanged and the next part "what", some descriptive phrase about "who", is written and the papers exchanged again.

The third item is "where", the place where the action takes place. The next, "when" is written giving the time when the action took place. The fifth thing is "why", giving the reason for the incident.

NOW IS THE TIME TO STUDY .
#-----

Now is the time to study. Don't wait until the night before exams and then take home a stack of books and stay up late and cram. You will be too late and sleepy the next day to do good work and all your ideas will be confused.

Begin now to prepare. Each night do your home work. Not just good enough to get by but so you understand it and know about it. Remember "Slow and steady wins the race." We shouldn't complain because we have only two or three days to study before examinations if we do our work well each day we will only need to brush up on it.

Do your work every day,
You will surely pass that way.

PRIZE SPEAKING.

Prize speaking is a contest that the pupils of our school do not take to. Your teachers try their best to co-operate and make it seem nice to you. Every person must have a book report once a year and you pick the book you like. Why not pick the poem you like? Try to do your prize speaking. You'll like it.

Jean Webster writes of Orphan Asylum- Whole book is made up of letters.

The book, "Dear Enemy" was written by Jean Webster. The author of this book is also the author of the book "Daddy Long Legs."

This is about a girl who is the head of the "John Grier Home" which is an orphan asylum. The whole book is in letter form and all the letters are written by the girl that is head of the home. She writes mostly to a Mr. Jervis Pendleton and his wife. These people are the owners of the John Grier home.

One day this man who is a Dr. is coming to be a doctor at the home. This girl doesn't like him at all and when she writes notes to him she always addresses him as "Dear Enemy." There is another character she writes to. It is this boy who lives in Washington. He used to send lots of things to the children at the home.

QUESTION BOX.

Question- What do you think can be done about the noise people make in assembly?

Ethel Gillespy- I think they should go on in the right order and sit down as soon as they get there and keep still. If they had patience enough to wait until the program begins, the actors and the rest of the pupils will enjoy the entertainment much more.

Walter Simmons- If they make too much noise they should be excluded from assembly for two weeks. Also I think they should sit in grades.

Thomas Parron- I think that the ones that make the noise should be sent out and have points taken from their credit.

Barbara Knox- They should be sent out and not allowed to go to assembly for three meetings.

NEW SYSTEM TO BE TRIED OUT IN BOYS GYM CLASSES.

Classes To Be Divided Into Sections, Each Having a Leader-- Sections To Compete.

A new system has been started in the boys' gymnasium. The class has been divided into different sections. Each section has a number, A, B, C, and so on. Each section has a leader who takes charge of the group.

The different sections will compete against each other in Basket Ball, high jumping and broad jumping.

The system is working out very well so far, according to those in charge.

CLUBS AND HOME ROOMS RESUME
ACTIVITIES AFTER VACATIONS

DRAMATICS CLUB

The students in the Dramatics club are dramatizing small plays taken from the radio plays. One group is giving "The Goldbergs". The cast is: Mrs. Goldberg - Mildred Dootz; Mrs. Bloom - Irene Hawkins; Sammy - Janet Bremer; Rosae - Francis Bremer.

This play is going to be presented before the class.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin club has elected new officers for the second semester. The president is John Winnie. The other officers which have been elected are: vice-president, Doris Shultes; secretary and treasurer, Emily Buchacca.

The members of the club are planning to have a Roman banquet in the future.

HOME ROOM 320

On Wednesday, January 6, Mr. Moose gave the students in home room 320 a very interesting program consisting of two experiments. One was the boiling of water in a paper container. About one half inch of water in a paper container was made to boil.

The other experiment was to burn air by means of a bunsen burner and apparatus by means of which you can have air burning if you have gas all around surrounding the air.

Everyone in the class enjoyed the program very much.

HOME ROOM 135

Home room 135 has organized a debate committee for the period on Tuesdays. William Ford is chairman for this committee. The other members are: William Friedman and Robert Dawes.

Della Call is chairman of this room.

HOME ROOM 224

Home room 224 has elected new officers for the second semester. These are: president, Roger Williams; vice-president, Alvin Neef; secretary - Edith Tozman; The students in this room have been studying in the home-room period recently.

HOME ROOM 123

Home room 123 has been studying most of the week but they have decided on a program. Each student is bringing a book to the class period. The best book will be selected and then read before the class.

HOME ROOM 121

Grover Fayles is president of home room 121. The name of the room is "The Stars". The colors are blue and gold. They also have a newspaper of which Wilbur Barnes is the editor. Anyone in the room can contribute to the paper so they have no definite staff. The name of the paper is "The Star".

The students in the room are planning to elect a new president, secretary and treasurer at the beginning of the new semester.

The sixth thing to be written is the story, using the facts which have been collected together. After the story is written the last thing, the headline, is done, and the story is complete and ready for the printer.

The papers were collected and read. The reading of these kept the class in paroxysms of laughter. Although many of the stories were centered around murders and murderers, the majority of them were very interesting.

One of the most interesting stories was concerning: who, Mickey Mouse; what: a movie; where: at Madison theatre; when: last Saturday; why: to laugh at.

The story: Mickey Mouse, the famous movie actor, attended the Madison theatre in a picture which was very funny and laughable. He was there last Saturday.
