MILNE TEAM TO MEET VINCENTIAN TOMORROW IN PAGE HALL GYM

Milne will play Vincentian on the home court tomorrow night. This is the first game Milne has played with Vincentian in more than two years. V.I. to date has a very impressive record, having lost only two games and being second only to Catholic Central High School in the Catholic league basketball standings.

The Red Raiders to date have lost five and won four, and tomorrow they will go into the fight vying for an even 500 season.

The preliminary game will begin at 7:30. An orchestra with a vocalist will provide music for dancing until 11:00 P.M.

"RED RAIDERS" BEAT COBYMANS 39-22, COBLESKILL 25-23

Turning in its smoothest game of the season to date, the Milne varsity defeated Coeymans 39-22. Working the "figure eight" with telling effect, the "Red Raiders" cut down the middle time and again to score on lay up shots. John Jansing was high scorer with 11 points.

The J.V. team defeated the "Dukes" with a last period assault 21-16.

On the following night Milne traveled to Cobleskill where they defeated the C.H.S. team 25-23. Leading the Milne attack was Captain Charles Locke who accounted for 12 points. Charles has now scored 77 points in nine games to lead in individual scoring for the Capitol District.

QUIN-SIGMA WILL BE IN GYM

FELICITATIONS

The members of the "Crimson and White" staff wish to extend their congratulations to Dr. Wallace W. Taylor, who has recently received his degree of Doctor of Philosophy.

DR. FREDERICK TO TALK OVER RADIO ON MONDAY

Dr. Robert W. Frederick, principal of Milne High School, will speak over the radio station W.G.Y. on the Farm Forum of the air on Monday, February 10th at 12:45 P.M.

Parents should find his topic "So Your Child Won't Eat" both interesting and beneficial.

STUDENTS CONDUCT PEP ASSEMBLY

A pep assembly at 3:50 P.M. on last Wednesday strove to stimulate school spirit at the basketball games.

Martin Edwards, business manager for the team, urged greater turn outs at the games, and William Wily spoke on the coming baseball season.

Five cheerleaders led the songs and cheers in an endeavor to mobilize support for the Vincentian game tomorrow night.

Unfortunately, recent actions of some students necessitated a lecture on behavior by Mr. Paul G. Bulger who is assistant principal.

Quin and Sigma will dance to the music of Bill Gratten's ten piece orchestra from 8 until 11 P.M. tonight in the Page Hall Gym. It is to be a "patriotic dance", and the programs and decorations carry out this theme.

Nancy Hochstrasser and Marianne Adams are the co-chairmen of the dance. The committees are as follows:

Orchestra- Betty Farnan, chairman, Phyllis Reed, Joan Nauweiler, Helen Cooper, Joyce Hoopes, and Marcia Bissikummer.

Decorations- Laura Ann Lyon, chairman, Janet Fletcher, Marilyn Potter, Catherine Morrison, Marion Soule, Sally Hunt, Elaine Becker, Corinne Edwards, Jane Davis, and Ethel Lee Gould.

Publicity- Marjorie Gade, chairman, Lois Wilson, Alice Van Gaasbeek, Valley Paradis, Ruth Peterson, Sally Lavine, Miriam Boice, and Rita Figarsky.

Hospitality- Mary Baker, chairman, Dorothy Ammenhauser, Shirley Smith, Margaret Hodecker, Betty Miller, and Della Carvill.

Programs- Josephine Wilson and Doris Wogatske, co-chairmen, Marian Horton, Marcia Schifferdecker and Glenna Smith.

The chaperons are Miss Grace Martin, Miss Naomi Hannay, and Dr. Thomas Kinsella.

MILNE GIRLS LEARN ZONE GUARDING

By Valley Paradis

In the past two weeks our senior girls' varsity basketball team has had two exciting games with the girls' varsity from Mt. Pleasant High, Schenectady. The Milne girls put up a good fight in both the away game and home one even though Mt. Pleasant came out victorious in both.

A new method called "zone guarding" is being tried by our team, whereby each girl has a definite spot on the floor and it's her job to guard any member on the opposing team that comes onto this spot. In the last game it proved quite effective and the girls think in future games it will be even more so.

DRAMATICS CLUB TO GIVE THE MINUET

A new one act play, The Minuet, directed by Leah Einstein will be presented by the senior high dramatics club in an assembly program in the near future. The cast is as follows:

- Cooler: Jerry Levitz.
Marquis: David Conlin.
Marchiones: Joan Manweiler.

Another play for assembly presentation by the senior dramatics club is being considered.

Dramatics club keys have been ordered by Jerry Levitz for all senior members of the club who desire one.

E. TINCHER AT N.J.C.

Elizabeth M. Tinchler, a 1939 graduate of Milne High School, is among the 1015 girls beginning the second semester of the college year at New Jersey College for Women in New Brunswick, N.J.

Elizabeth is a sophomore majoring in economics and sociology. She acted as a guide on N.J.C.'s annual College Day and was chairman of the program committee for the recent Sophomore Hop.

ELY IS HIGH SCORER IN BOWLING MATCH

A few weeks ago Phi Sigma Literary Society held a bowling match at Uptown Rice's. It was the second event held on the society's full schedule. High scorer was Alan Ely.

Those who participated were Alan Ely, Fred Detweiler, David Fuld, Walter Griggs, David Conlin, Kirk Leaning, John Poole, Gerald Plunkett, and Philip Snare.

The next event will be a skiing and tobogganing outing.

RADIO CLUB LEARNS CODE

Since the beginning of the first semester the Radio Club under the direction of Mr. Halvin, have been practicing code.

Recently the club has been studying radio itself and learning various types of radio activity.

The club obtained permission to place a short wave receiver in the visiting team locker room and received many short wave amateurs.

C & W'S NEW MOVIE PREVIEWS
By Bernard Golding

This Week's Film:
* * * WESTERN UNION

Western Union, Twentieth Century-Fox's new film is a picture of the establishing of a telegraph line to California during the Civil War. The cast includes Dean Jagger, who is in charge of the undertaking; Robert Young, an Easterner who is sent out by his father to learn the business, and Randolph Scott, a Southerner working for Western Union who is suspected of helping the South keep the line from reaching the Pacific Ocean.

The story centers around the wagon train, Western Union, and the Confederate soldiers and Indians who are continually attacking and burning the wagons. Feminine interest in the film is supplied by Virginia Gilmore, pretty telegraph operator, who is the sister of Jagger in the picture.

Western Union is well made, exciting, and enjoyable. In the opinion of this writer, it is an A-1 western that will provide excellent entertainment for all who see it.

QUIN SIGMA

Undoubtedly by this time everyone is excited about the forthcoming Quin-Sigma Dance, which will take place this evening, from 8 o'clock to 11. If you are a boy, no doubt your dream girl has invited you long ago. If, on the other hand, you are a girl, you are probably thrilled and delighted because your "Johnnie" and you will step out together this evening.

Of course, you know that the affair is semi-formal so if you choose to wear long sleeves, short sleeves or a jacket dress, it will "go". The well-dressed beau will be seen in a smooth fitting dark suit.

This is just a remembrance for you to be on hand in your best patriotic mood, for the dance is for patriots only.

OPEN LETTER

To Milne's Winter Sport Fans:

Don't you want to know how to improve your skiing? Many Milnites have taken up this interesting sport during the winter, and seem to be having a swell time at it. But why don't we Milnites get up some school spirit and form a skiing club of our own?

The club could meet every Saturday at the Municipal golf course, depending on the weather. Skiing is a good healthy sport with plenty of spills and thrills. Why not take advantage of the snow and get together at Municipal?

THE QUIN-SIGMA'S COMING

Quin-Sigma dance will be in
 Page Hall,
 Beginning at 8 o'clock, come one and all,
 Bill Grattan and his orchestra will play,
 So you can have fun.....
 And the girls will pay!

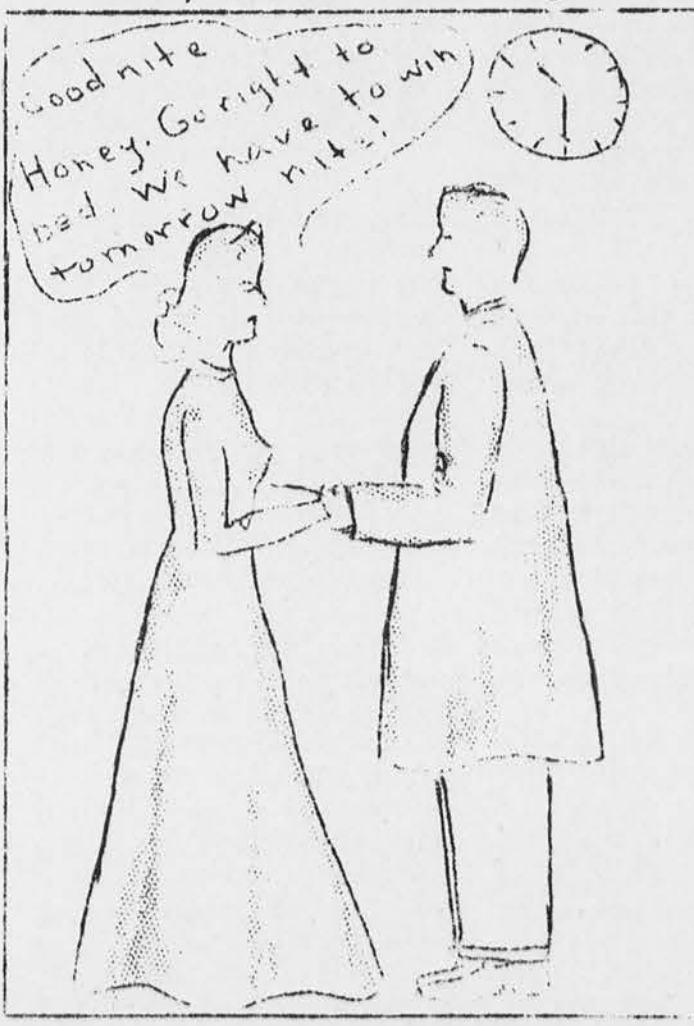

So, come on gals,
 Bring your man,
 Be a pal,
 And do what you can.....

To put the dance over,
 And to have a good time,
 Don't let your man rove,
 But keep him in line.

Dance with whom you want to,
 Remember, it's up to you,
 So have your program all fixed up,
 And just save him a few.

And when 11 o'clock comes 'round,
 And the dancers begin to leave,
 You should go without a sound,
 And your evening wrap retrieve.

Then when the crowd comes 'round and shouts,
 "We're off to see the sights",
 You pipe up, "We're homeward bound....
 Cause, remember tomorrow night!"

EXAMS ARE OVER

How did you come out in your exams?
 Well, that's alright, we all flunk sometime. But, have you heard this one?

"There was a guy in our school,
 And wondrous dumb was he;
 Caught cheating on a history quiz,
 He lost his passing "D".

And when he saw the grade was lost,
 With all his might and main,
 He cheated on the make-up quiz
 And got it back again."

HAVE FUN OVER THE WEEKEND?

It certainly is a big relief to have exams over at last. Just three more months of relaxation until it's time to start studying for exams again.

Those few days of vacation came in handy last week. V.V., Josephine, Phyl, Leah and Joan took advantage of it, and spent one afternoon seeing Kitty Foyle, and dividing a 5¢ bag of candy. It's lucky for Joan that we have such distinguished laughs in our midst, otherwise
 she never would have found them.

Skiing was very popular with everyone. If you looked around Municipal Golf Course, you'd be sure to see some Milnite stuck in a drift (probably head first). Some of the experts even ventured to North Creek, via the Snow train last Sunday. The sophomores were well represented for Melba Levine, Betty Jane Southwell and others, and Art Phinney and company were there too.

Colleges appeared to be having exams too, as everyone seemed to be home.
 Dob Taft, Seeley Funk, Johnnie Fink, Jean
 Ledden, Martha Freytag, and many others were home.
