HOMEROOM TO EDIT MONTHLY PAPER

Homerom 126 is planning to put out a monthly paper called "The Highlights of 126". The staff is as follows: editor-in-chief, Jerome Levitz; associate editors, Edward Langwig, Anne Loucks; jokes, C. Morrison; printer, Sellick Mintline; and reporters, Joan Hunting, Lawrence Mapes, and Marcus Myers.

Room 124 has elected Bobby Saunders sargeant-at-arms.

ENGLISH CLASSES STUDY IRVING

The seventh grade English classes have been reading stories by Washington Irving. They recently were shown slides of Irving's home and the countryside of which many of his stories are written. One of the classes will edit a newspaper called "The Gossip of Sleepy Hollow". For this David Fuld is the editor-in-chief with Robert Speck as his assistant.

CLUB NEWS

The Dramatics club has elected the following officers: president, Ada Snyder; secretary, Jane Phillips; treasurer, Stanley Swift; and reporter, Anita Hyman.

A committee to select plays to be dramatized in club meeting or assembly is composed of Neilan Brody, chairman and Marjorie Gade, Adele Buchaca, and Edna Corwin.

NEXT WEEK IS BOOK WEEK

BETTER BOOKS FOR LEISURE READING

Book Week gives you a special opportunity to read our best books. You should read more and better books during Book Week. Avoid reading cheap stories. Try reading some more of the books by Edgar Allen Poe, Mark Twain, and Washington Irving which you began in English classes.

Many of the English classes will have special dramatizations and book displays next week. Special effort is being made to secure old and unusual books.

ART CLASSES MAKE DESIGNS

In the art classes in seventh grade the boys are making designs for the serving trays they made in shop. When they finish this, they will paint the ships they have made. The girls are drawing posters to advertise travel in foreign countries.

DORIS WELCH TO BE REPORTER

Doris Welch was appointed school reporter by the Student Council at the meeting on Friday. Doris will report the school activities for the Knickerbocker Press and the Times-Union.

ARMISTICE DAY ASSEMBLY

On Tuesday we had an Armistice day assembly. The speaker was Mr. Oronowitz of the American Legion. He expressed the opinion that he was not a pacifist nor was he a militarist. Instead, he was in favor of a middle course where the army was prepared for defense only. We thought it was very interesting because it was about the affairs of the government. Some of the members of the school did not like it because they were not interested in the subject.

Some of us did not think that the assembly on Monday was very interesting. The talk may have been good, but Mr. Oronowitz did not speak so we could understand him. He seemed to put all the large words in the dictionary in his speech. Many students would have liked him if they had paid attention. Certain pupils always spoil an assembly by being noisy.

BOYS' ATHLETICS

This year Milne sports have improved to a great extent. The sports in the Junior High, so far, are pleasing the boys very much. Tackle football is what they have been wanting for a long time. Now it has been granted. The boys of the Junior High School enjoy working with their new coach. They hope that the gym classes in the gym will be as well arranged as the classes outside on the campus. In order to keep up the enthusiasm the boys should choose the sport they like best and try to show interests in it.

The theme for Book Week is

"READING FOR FUN".

KEEP ANNEX AND CAFETERIA NEAT

Dr. Frederick and the management of the Annex and Cafeteria would appreciate it if everyone would help to keep the rooms clean. That means, "Keep all straws, milk bottle tops, sandwich wrappers, and other refuse off the floor." Everyone should try to keep his voice lowered, also, so there will be as little confusion as possible.

QUESTION BOX

(Q) What is the information desk for?

(A) The information desk is to be used by outsiders or your parents. The person at the desk will direct them to where they want to go, or help them locate somebody.

CHARACTER SKETCH

This week we choose a ninth grader. In the Annex he or she likes to blow up paper bags until they burst. He or she has been hanging around homeroom 121 to see a certain person who has the initials "S.E."

The answer to last week's character sketch was Shirley Burgess.

Don't forget to put your answers in the Crimson and White drawer in Miss Moore's office.

The Excursion club went to the prison last week. They went through the cells and found out what the prisoners do while in the prison. They were unable to see any finger prints.

* * * *

The All-American Athletic club plans to have a game of football every Friday. They plan to play basketball later in the year.

* * * *

In Girls' Shop the club members are making stationery holders of figured gum wood.

CORRECT ERROR

After the news was reported last week that there would be no Junior high boys' basketball team this fall, arrangements were made to have one if the boys elected a manager and planned a schedule. The team will consist of seventh, eighth and ninth grade students.

CAN YOU IMAGINE:

How much candy and gum is taken out of the Annex in one day?

How many girls returned from the Junior High reception with a shine on their shoes?
