This Soturday evening the Milne varsity will juurney to Coblesikill, where thoy will meet, for the sucond time this season, their rivals of cobleskill High School.

Last year Milne terminated their season with a loss on the Cobleskill court. It was a hard-fought game, and sevaral of the "Red Raider's" firststring mon were disqualified. In the first fame between the two teams this season, Milie emargod victorious by a sccre of iffily, Dsspite this overwhelm:ing score, ac close bc.ttle is expected in the game Saturday night.

With the ring of a glorious victory still in their ears, the Crimsonites, on the iirst of rebruary, tanglad with the Cathedral quintet on the home court. The student body was startied to see the Blue and Gold squad forge ahead of the Ramblins Wresks and lead a.t the half time with a $22 \cdots 12$ score, In spite of the ten point hanuicap, the Milne boys came out on the flonr and for the last half cut down the lead to one point. Amid the last minute fight, the whistle blew, giving the Cathedral squad a 30-29 victory.

Over-confidence and a tired squad counted eneatly asainst Milne's chances. The boys had played the night before without a substitutaon and had one sub on the bench.

BEHaVE IN THE LIBRARY, PLEASE

In a recent interview with Miss Thelma Eaton, librarian of Milne High School, she stated that the behavior of the pupils during library periods was growing worse. She said that there was a growing tendency of the students to loiter in the hall before ontering the library,

In our opinion there is no reason for this. The rules of the library have not changed; it is the attitude of the pupils which has changed. Of course, one can offer many excuses for this condition, but they can be refuted. You may say that you hid to see a friend. See him before school or afterwards. You're getting tired of the library? Exams are over, and work with a new semester has begun. You will be busy enough from now on.

Let's have some cooperation with Miss Eaton. She's doing her bost; you do yours Learn to use the library and try to behave better, and it will be a happier and more restful place for all concerned.

L2DVICE TO LOVERS
Dear Voice of Inexperience:
I am a girl who wants to take a boy to a dance but he asked me first. Who should pay for the ticket? Trouble

Dewr In Trouble:
It depends upon the dance. If it is a girls' society dance and the girl belongs to the society, then by all means the girl should pay for the ticket.

If a girl asks a boy who does not go to the same school to any school dance, she should buy the ticket in that case, also.

Lfter all, the boy has to buy the tickets nine times out of ter, so at the sifightest excuse, the girl should pay for it. fits leap year anyway?
