IMMIGRANT EDUCATION

Interesting Plans for the Course

The University of the State of New York in co-operation with the State College for Teachers is giving four courses at the State College in immigrant education. The aim of these courses is to prepare the student for teaching the foreign-born and for supervising classes taught by others. These classes are held daily in Room 250 at 11 o'clock.

Dr. Joseph De Porte is giving a very interesting course in Immigrant Backgrounds. The cultural value of this course is very great and the atmosphere which Dr. De Porte is able to bring to the course makes it well worth while.

The Method course, given by Miss Clara B. Springstead, Assistant Supervisor of Immigrant Edu-

SPECIAL EXCURSION FOR SUMMER STUDENTS

Under the auspices of the History Department, a picnic pilgrimage will be taken to the battlefield of Saratoga, or Bemis Heights, locally known as Freeman's Farm. The time is July 16, the second Saturday of the Session. We plan to go by auto bus, and it is therefore necessary to know whether 50 or 500 will go. Sign at a table in the rotunda. The approximate cost will be $2.00.

It is a beautiful trip to our "American Marne." On this historic spot, Professor Risley will explain briefly the Burgoyne campaign from Ticonderoga to the Schuylerville surrender.

The History Department wishes to be a clearing house for historical methods and ideas. It renders service through individual conferences at regular office hours, and also through round table discussions, which are group conferences conducted under the leadership of visiting teachers or State Education Department heads.

Dr. H. W. Thompson

COMING TO-NIGHT

Don't forget the first Community Chorus of the season which takes place to-night in the auditorium at 8:30 o'clock. The sings are free of charge, and it is very desirable that all who can come and bring their friends. We hear much at the present time about singing colleges. We want to make this a "Singing Summer School."

Not only will you have the pleasure of singing yourselves, but there are also some great treats in store for you. Dr. Thompson and Mr. Candlyn are in charge and are very well known in music circles. Dr. Thompson is organist and choir-master at the First Presbyterian Church of Albany and is head of the music department at State. Mr. Candlyn, instructor in the music department, is organist at St. Paul's Episcopal Church of this city and is perhaps best known as a composer.

State is also very fortunate in being able to bring to you Mr. Ernest Hesser, soloist of the First Presbyterian Church.

FOR ENGLISH FOLKS

"All students enrolled in English courses in the Summer Session are invited to meet at 4 o'clock each Tuesday afternoon, Room 250, for the general good of the order. Effort will be made to have some interesting thing to do and to talk about, but better yet, deliberate attention will be given to getting acquainted as English teachers in New York State."

The above notice appears on page 23 of the Summer Session catalogue, but a number of those to whom it is addressed perhaps have had an opportunity only to snatch hasty glances through this college bulletin on registration day. The importance of the announcement deserves more than slight attention.

Maybe you haven't heard Professor Kirtland talk about camping trips, and cameras, and mushrooms; but we have. It will surely be worth your while to become one of the friendly, delightful group that will gather under his leadership.

You never can make too many friends, and the pleasant "give and take" of informal discussions may discover to you some. Drop in to Room 250 at about 4 to-morrow afternoon and hear about the English teacher and his camera. You will like it.

PRINCIPALS MEET

Mr. Morrison to Lead Discussion

The high school principals, supervisors and elementary school principals joined forces last Wednesday evening at their first meeting. An organization was formed under the guiding hand of Dean Horner for the purpose of talking over questions of general interest at a "free for all, round table discussion." A similar organization was successfully carried out at the Summer Session last year.

This "Mutual Benefit Club" was started by each one stating his name, title, and whatever else he might think of interest to insure his election as chairman of the association. Mr. R. H. Miller, supervisor and principal of the Brocton High School, captured this office by appearing late and stating that he could not stay long. It might be added that Mr. Miller was a member of the association last year. The other officers are: Secretary, Mr. Howard S. Butler, principal of Rushford High School; treasurer, Mr. Frank Ratcliff, principal of Warwick grammar school; executive committee: the above mentioned officers, Mr. H. T. Coons, principal of Bloomingdale Union School, and Mr. John C. O'Don-

A PROFESSION

On the first few days at summer school it has been impressed upon us more than ever before that teaching is really a profession. Those who realized it before now appreciate it more fully, and those who did not consider it so before are—many at least—beginning to awaken to that fact. When we see large numbers who are teachers or prospective teachers combining their efforts to find better methods of helping pupils, to solve problems of importance, to increase their personal knowledge for the benefit of the younger generations can we help seeing that teaching truly is a profession?

Just as doctors study new devices for working miracles on the human body, so teachers seek new devices that effect the human mind. Just as physicians study that they may diagnose cases correctly, so teachers attempt to diagnose the psychological conditions of pupils.

In all of the professions we find the most capable and able people, and this is no less true in the profession of teaching—at least it should not be.

If there is strength in numbers the profession which State represents should indeed be very strong.

PATRONIZE THE ADVERTISERS

If you have looked through your "News" carefully, you have undoubtedly seen several columns devoted to advertising. The willingness of these business houses to advertise in our paper has made it possible for us to have such a "News" which has probably been a help to you in your first days at State.

If you are a stranger in Albany and don't know where to go for the articles you want to buy, why not give these places a trial? They may have exactly the things you want. When you go to them, tell them you saw their advertisements in the State College News. It will please them and help us at the same time.

CAFETERIA HOURS

The College cafeteria will be open every day throughout the Summer Session. The hours are from 6:30 to 7:30 o'clock in the morning, from 11:30 to 1:00 at noon, and from 5:30 to 6:30 at night.

Supper and breakfast for five days costs $4.50, and for the whole week or seven days, $6.50.

The manager of the cafeteria urges that the summer students patronize this lunch room and help make it a success. It is a fine thing for the College and needs the co-operation and support of everyone.

MOVING-UP DAY

Choosing of Myskania Special Event

Moving-up Day which occurs sometime in May is our biggest annual "All College" day. The entire day is given over to the festivities.

First come the more formal events in the chapel. Dr. Brubacher officiates and our entire faculty are seated on the platform. At this time a representative from each class speaks—sometimes formally, sometimes otherwise. Then occurs the Moving-Up process when each class takes the seats formerly assigned to the preceding one, the seniors taking those vacated by the freshmen—for the "grand old seniors" are new and young in a world by themselves. During this impressive ceremony the Moving-Up Day song is sung.

Next in occurrence is the presentation of pins to the new senior "News" editors in recognition of their services. This will become traditional, the '21 editors having been the first to receive these pins.

By far the most important event is the announcement for the first time of the new Myskania. Each member of the old Myskania, one at a time, descends from his seat of honor on the platform, marches to the place where the selected junior sits, announces the name, pins on him the purple and gold ribbon, and leads him to his position on the platform.

The organization of this council in March, 1917, was one of the most important steps in the development of student spirit and power.

The purpose of Myskania is to serve as a means of communication between the students and the Faculty. It is an honorary body, composed of not more than twelve nor less than ten senior members who have won places of prominence in scholarship, athletics or other college activities, and who have capacity for leadership. Two of the members are elected by secret ballot in student assembly.

The president of the senior class becomes a member ex-officio if he is not one before election to the class presidency.

After the council is chosen the seniors lead the way to the chapel steps, forming an aisle through which the other classes pass, each in their turn lengthening the aisle along the walk. The old and new Myskania then pass through the aisle and lead the line to the planting of the ivy. A feature of last year's program was the planting of seven oak trees on the campus as a memorial to the State College students who gave their lives in the Great War. Dr. Richardson officiated at the dedication ceremony.

Class stunts close the morning activities.

In the afternoon the college marches by classes to Ridgefield Park for the sports. There is considerable rivalry in these contests and this assures a truly exciting afternoon. The baseball game closes these events.

In the evening all assemble on the front steps of the College for the biggest College sing of the year. Class song contests promote much interest since a prize is awarded the winning class. Following this dancing is held on the terrace. Thus ends one of the busiest, most exciting and happy days of the year. The seniors and juniors return home in a rather serious frame of mind for newly acquired dignity is upon them, while the sophomores and freshmen are conscious of a very friendly feeling between them since rivalry is over, and peace is to prevail henceforth.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR SWIMMING

Parties Arranged

It will be of interest to summer students to know that there is an excellent swimming pool at the public bath, on the corner of Central Avenue and Ontario Street. The baths are open to women on Tuesday afternoon, Thursday morning and Friday afternoon. Men's hours are on Monday afternoon, Wednesday afternoon and Saturday afternoon.

Throughout the Session swimming parties for women will be arranged. In fact the first one is already planned. All those desiring to have a good time at the pool meet at three o'clock Tuesday at the Co-op. Suits are supplied if you didn't bring yours with you to Albany. Caps may be purchased at the Co-op.

Notices of other parties will be posted later.

PASS THE WORD ALONG

You Need a Ticket

If you have been so neglectful as not to have bought your summer association ticket, don't fail to do so at once. If there isn't a table in the rotunda ask somebody about them. You will be able to find some one of the college students without a doubt. After the fine time you had Friday night you shouldn't hesitate very long. Next Friday night has better things yet in store for you, but this week you can't get in without a ticket or 35 cents. Don't you think a ticket is better than paying at the door?

HOW ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

Tennis tournaments begin to-day at Washington Park. For particulars see Coach Snively. Spectators are urged to attend the games whenever possible.

The Indian Ladder hike takes place on Saturday, July 23. The start will be made in the morning, and each one is to bring his own hunch. This is just a foreword. Be getting ready! There will be other plans given out later.

Anyone seeking recreation will communicate with the coach, and games will be arranged. If you haven't tennis partners, he will find you some.

LOCAL ALBANY TRIPS

On Saturday, June 9, Miss Fay conducted a party to the Historical and Art Museum, the Governor's Mansion, and the renowned Schuyler Mansion. This is the first of a series of local Albany trips. Note the calendar for further announcements.

Miss Agnes E. Futterer

TO READ "QUALITY STREET"

Reading Followed by Step Sing. On Friday evening in the auditorium James Barrie's "Quality Street" will be read by Miss Agnes E. Futterer, instructor in Oral English and Dramatics.

Miss Futterer is a graduate of State College, and after doing graduate work at Columbia University and at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts, she became a member of the College Faculty. She has been especially active in connection with the Students' Dramatic and Fine Arts Association, which among other activities, presents three one-act plays the first semester and one long play, second semester.

Miss Futterer's ability as a reader has always been greatly appreciated by the student body. "Quality Street" is a whimsical comedy that has about it all the fragrance of an old-fashioned English garden. It carries one far away from this work-a-day world, yet succeeds in keeping its readers close to its people that have the appeal of realism softened by the gentle charm that is Barrie's. This is a type of play that Miss Futterer does exceptionally well, perhaps it is because her voice has in it the same sort of charm that Barrie's plays have, or perhaps it is because she is so natural, so unaffected, in all her work. No one should need to be urged to attend the first reading on Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

At the conclusion of the reading everyone will be invited to take part in an activity which is exceedingly popular throughout the year here at College—a step sing. You will have a fine time this evening at the Community Chorus—on Friday there is offered a similar pleasure with the additional attraction of its taking place out-of-doors on the steps.

Whatever time remains will be given over to dancing on the plaza—much after the custom of Moving-Up night.

The committee in charge of the Friday evening programs, consisting of students of the senior class, is as follows: Margaret Meyer, chairman; Robina Moore-Smith, Sylvia Potter, Carol Traver, Marion Brennan, Margaret Smith and Katherine Merchant.

Elizabeth Carey, '22, has charge of the music, and refreshments will be taken care of by Queen Homan, '23; Ethel Hunter, '22; Pauline Baker, '22; Jack Johnson, '23; Mary Hayes, '22, and Winifred Dunn, '22.

Student Association tickets will be required for admittance.

OUR DEAN
(Tune, "Smiles")

There are Deans in every college,
Every one throughout the land.
There are Deans who overflow with knowledge
Which they always have at their command.
There are Deans with nasty dispositions,
There are Deans with foolish
thoughts and ways,
But the Dean who's everything he should be
Is Dean Horner of S. C. T.
Here's a song that we sing to Dean Horner during the regular College session. We usually sing it at basketball games which he very often attends and at which he shows an interest in our sports.
What do you think of the suggestion that we sing it to him this summer?

MISS SILVESTER TO LECTURE

Teaching of Reading Emphasized

On Monday, July 18, at 12 o'clock
noon, Miss M. Genevieve Silvester, demonstrator for story hour
methods of the American Book Company, will give a lecture in the College auditorium on the subject of "A Talk to Teachers on Reading Methods." The lecture will cover the vital points of the content method of the teaching of reading.

On Tuesday, July 19, at the same time and place, Miss Silvester will give a demonstration of the Story Hour Method of Teaching Reading with a kindergarten or first grade class.

All members of the Summer Session are cordially invited to attend this lecture and demonstration.

Frederick T. H. Candlyn

Here is the man who gave us that splendid recital of organ music at St. Paul's Episcopal Church last Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Candlyn was born in England, but he is now an American having served in the American army and with the
A. E. F. in France. He is best known as a composer, and his compositions have been published by Novello in England. Last year the gold medal for composition was presented to him by the American Guild of Organists of which he is now the dean.

It is hoped that summer students will avail themselves of this opportunity each week to hear the excellent programs that Mr. Candlyn has arranged.

The recital this Wednesday will consist of French music:

- First Movement from Second
Symphony Vierne
- Noel } 17th Century
- Fortane } 17th Century
- Scherzo (Fifth Sonata) .. Guilmant
- Ariel Bonnet
- Grand Chorus Dialogue..... Gigont

CO-OP BULLETIN

Ice Cream and Newspapers Sold

"All those who have not visited the Co-op yet please raise your hands." No response. It is quite as we thought—the book store has been fulfilling its purpose successfully. Now it would be well to glance at its bulletin for the week.

Beginning next week and continuing through the rest of the Session, books published by the American Book Company will be on exhibition. Individual orders for these may be placed at the Co-op.

An exhibit of Bacon Vincent and Company books will be held from July 25 to August 1. Further details will appear in a later issue of the "News."

The Co-op through its manager,
Miss Helen T. Fay, invites suggestions at any time. Orders for anything in the line of sporting goods can be filled within a day. Banners, college stationery, souvenirs,

and general college supplies are always on hand. The store is exceedingly willing to enlarge its stock to meet the demand.

What real college shop would neglect to supply refreshment to students, especially during a summer session? State College's Book Store does not fail in this direction.
Ice cream, bottled soda and candy are on sale. Have some!

Orders for daily newspapers are taken.

Cultivate the bulletin board habit
and then keep up to date by watching both the bulletin board in the rotunda and the one just outside the shop for special sales of second-hand books and supplies.

This is our motto: "Co-operate with the Co-op." Is it yours?

IMMIGRANT EDUCATION

tion, is especially helpful to those who are actually in teaching and desire to become acquainted with the latest methods in this work.

In Dr. Hutchison's course in American Political Institutions and Government the student is being initiated into a piece of work which has never been given before in this country. The syllabus which the course is following has been arranged and prepared by Prof.
Rufus D. Smith of New York University especially for the University of the State of New York.

In the supervisor's course which is being conducted by John L.
Riley of the State staff some special lecturers will assist. The following schedule has been arranged:

- John L. Riley, July 5-9.
- Clara B. Springstead, July 11.
- Robert T. Hill, July 12.
- W. C. Smith, July 13 and 14.
- Mr. Archibald E. Stevenson, a member of the Lusk Committee, July 15th.
- John L. Riley, July 19-26.
- Miss Elizabeth A. Woodward, Supervisor of Home Classes, who will talk on "The Immigrant Woman," July 27.
- Merton E. Sturges, Chief Naturalization Examiner, who will talk on "Naturalization and Naturalization Laws," July 28.
- Miss Caroline A. Whipple, Supervisor of Factory Classes, who will talk on the "Immigrant in Industry," July 29.

Charles E. Finch, Assistant
Principal, Washington-Junior High School at Rochester, and a well known authority on immigrant education, the author of several pamphlets and books will discuss the problems of immigrant education from the public school point of view, August 1-5.

John L. Riley, August 8-12.

Any three of these four courses will give the successful candidate
the necessary credit for a permanent license to teach the foreign-born.

Some of the special features in these courses will consist of trips to immigrant communities; to community centers; to foreign churches; to classes of the foreign-born now in operation; an Italian dinner and several other interesting features.

also director of music in the city schools. Although Mr. Hesser is an American, a native of Ohio, he received most of his training abroad. He is a pupil of Mr. Will-organist of Westminster Abbey.

He is also a pupil of Luckstone of Paris. His concert experience as a baritone in America has been wide.

Be sure to attend ALL of the
