Bills to Aid Social Security Operation on Special Session Agenda; Passage Held Certain

ALBANY, June 3—Two bills to facilitate operation of the recently passed Social Security bill will be on the agenda of the special session of the State Legislature called by Governor Averell Harriman.

Informed sources say that neither bill is controversial and that Democratic and Republican leaders have already agreed on their passage.

One subject asks for legislation to amend the local finance law to permit the local subdivisions to borrow sufficient funds when necessary to provide their share of retroactive Social Security coverage for their employees.

The other subject asks for legislation to enable the local subdivisions to grant seven quarters of retroactivity instead of the maximum of six now permitted in covering their employees under the Social Security law.

Purpose

The purpose of this amendment is to prevent any municipal employee being deprived of the same benefits of Social Security as the state employees will receive. The crux of the problem lies in a special provision of the Federal Social Security Law which would permit any public employee attaining their sixty fifth or sixty second birthday this year to collect Social Security retirement after the agreement is signed.

The special provision of the Social Security Law provides that any male employee reaching 65 or any female employee reaching 62 after 1954 will be fully insured if he has quarters of coverage in all but four of the calendar quarters after 1954. The state employees under the State Social Security Law will, when the agreement is signed in September of this year, receive retroactive coverage taking them back to March 15, 1956. Those males or females who are 65 or 62 will then be able to retire under Social Security, if they wish to, immediately after the agreement is signed since they will be fully covered under this special provision of the Social Security Law.

Need Municipalities

However, this is not true for the municipal employees because of the necessary delay in signing the agreements with the Federal government because of an added administrative step. The first step in covering the municipal employees under Social Security necessitates the filing of a resolution passed by the local legislative bodies indicating how much Social Security they are going to afford their employees. These resolutions must be in the hands of the State Social Security Agency by May 13, 1957. After

Decision Pending On Hotaling Case

A decision in the case of Mae Hotaling, filed on her behalf by the Civil Service Employees Assn., is pending in the Appellate Division — Third Department of the Supreme Court.

A brief on the test case, argued by John T. DeGraff, CSEA counsel has been filed.

The Association counsel contended that Mrs. Hotaling was retroactively downgraded from her position of principal statistics clerk in the Department of Agriculture and Markets and that such retroactive downgrading is illegal.

A favorable opinion from the court would, of course, effect all persons similarly downgraded.

The decision is expected by the end of this month.

Nassau Votes 6 Quarters Coverage In Social Security

Nassau County Board of Supervisors last week voted six quarters retroactive Social Security coverage, for county employees. Irving Flaumenbaum, Nassau County Chapter, Civil Service Employees Association, reported.

Mr. Flaumenbaum said that the towns of Oyster Bay, North Hempstead and South Hempstead; the Village of Freeport and several school districts also approved six quarters coverage, indicating the general trend throughout the county was to give public employees full coverage.

"Nassau County chapter is extremely happy to see its long effort on Social Security bear such fruit," Mr. Flaumenbaum said.

We have worked hard to gain this important retirement benefit for our members and for all public employees," he declared.

Mr. Flaumenbaum expressed the thanks of the chapter to the many county and village officials through whose cooperation the Social Security coverage was obtained.

Experts Stress Need To Take Training for Sanitation Physical

Where one stands on the eligible list for sanitationman will depend on the attainment in the physical test. That is the only competitive part of the examination, the only part in which the score earned counts as a percentage. The written and medical tests are qualifying, meaning that they determine whether you are in or out, with no percentage scores used for averaging with the mark one establishes in the physical test. Of course, if one does not equal or exceed the pass mark in the written test, he's out, too.

The importance of the physical test, and the need to train for it, are stressed by all the experts. Experience has shown that those who train for the physical get a much higher mark than they could expect if they failed to undergo such training. While one may do home training, or use a gym on his own, physical education today is a science. Preparation for a civil service physical test is a separate branch of that science. It is considered most worthwhile to take such training under expert guidance.

Promotion Opportunities

Since there was such an outpouring candidates, 28,875 all told, competition may be considered unusually sharp. The job has many attractions. The starting pay is at least fair, and after three years the salary becomes pretty good, nearly $100 a week. Besides, there are promotion opportunities. What these are may be seen last week in the listing of the successive steps to attaining the highest title in the Sanitation Department's competitive uniformed service. Paul R. Screvane, the present Commissioner, and two immediate predecessors, started as sanitationmen. The Commissioner'ship, however, is not filled through competitive examination, and the chances of becoming Commissioner. It must be admitted, are 10,000-to-1 against a sanitationman. But they're even larger against a non-sanitationman.

Since the physical test is so important, the official rules governing it are published herewith. Before one is admitted to the physical he must pass the written test, scheduled for Saturday, October 19. While percentages would naturally be used, to determine how the candidates fare in the written test, this is done solely for administrative convenience, and has no effect whatever on the actual score credited to the competitor. No combining or averaging of any scores applies in the sanitationman examination. This fact makes the sanitationman test considerably different from the run of examinations.

PAUL R. SCREVANE

Sanitation Commissioner, who himself started as a sanitationman, as did his two preceding Commissioners.

Reason for the Stress

The reason for the departure is that work requires arduous physical exertion. The stress on the physical therefore does not mean, as some members of the general public seem to believe, that a sanitationman doesn't need a head on his shoulders. A good many of the competitors are high school graduates, and the public will be surprised when it learns of the percentage of competitors who have had some college training, many of them two years of college. Sanitation is a science, too, and men with some formal education stand a better opportunity for promotion than the others, particularly as the written test is then the deciding factor, thus reversing the situation that ob-

Montgomery Unit Act on Social Security

The following is the result of the efforts made by Montgomery Chapter, CSEA, in the Social Security Coverage program:

On May 7, the Common Council of the City of Amsterdam passed a resolution granting retroactive coverage for all city employees back to June, 1956.

On May 8 the Board of Education of the Amsterdam School District passed a similar resolution.

On May 14, the Montgomery County Board of Supervisors granted retroactive coverage to all county employees with an effective date of June 16, 1956.

At all three meetings, employees were represented by Richard Tarmey, president of the Montgomery Chapter, CSEA.

Solving the Traffic Problem

Each year the problem of what to do about Manhattan traffic comes up. And each year I vow I'm going to do something about it. So before I get busy with other things and put it off, I'd like to offer the City my traffic plan.

It's called the Wethbee Funnel System. And it's quite simple. You just make all the avenues one way, going south to Canal Street. I call it the Funnel System because it very cleverly funnels all cars and trucks into the Lincoln and Holland Tunnels. Then it's New Jersey's traffic problem!

But, seriously, in a growing city like New York, traffic is a real problem. To Con Edison, too. Their men have to work in the streets to maintain and expand the 61,000 miles of cables and mains that bring you electricity, gas and steam. And any street work (by Con Edison or anyone else) can't help but add to the traffic problem. So Con Edison continues to make every effort to mark work areas clearly... use the least possible space... and to do the job - fast.

Yes, Con Edison works closely with the Police Department to keep traffic moving. It's a big job—and one that's increasing in importance every year.

Your Action Needed on Social Security

By the time this column appears, every personnel officer in the state service should have received a quantity of brochures on Social Security, and also questionnaires for the informal polling of members of the State Retirement System on whether or not they want Social Security. The brochures and questionnaires are being distributed by the State Social Security Agency. The personnel officers in Albany will receive the material by messenger, and the personnel officers of agencies outside of Albany will receive the questionnaires and brochures by Special Delivery. The personnel officers will immediately distribute these documents to all of the employees in their agencies.

The above documents can be described briefly as follows:

1. The brochure is an eight page white folder with cover with the title "An Important Decision," and
2. The questionnaire is a single white card form called "Declaration of Intention to Accept or Reject Social Security Coverage."

Deadline Is June 20

The questionnaires, which are the informal polls, ask two simple questions—Do you or do you not want Social Security? The employee should write his answer immediately and return the questionnaire to the personnel officer to send to the State Social Security Agency in Albany. It is important that this be done at one—as the questionnaires must be returned to Albany by June 20, 1957. This date is important. Unless this questionnaire or "Declaration of Intention" is in the hands of the Albany Agency by that date, the necessary further mechanics cannot be accomplished to have the agreement signed by the earliest possible date—the end of the third quarter or September 30, 1957. You will also be denied the right to vote in the formal referendum which will be held in September. This will jeopardize your chances of being covered by Social Security.

(June 20th has been selected as the date when the formal notices of the referendum will be given by Governor Harriman. The law requires that this notice be given 90 days before the referendum is held.—thus it is planned that the formal vote or referendum will be held on or about September 20, 1957).

Keep An Eye Open

The personnel officers may use the dates of the next payroll distribution—June 5 and June 7, 1957—to distribute the questionnaires and brochures. If you do not receive your Social Security material by June 11th, we suggest you get in touch with your personnel officer.

The Civil Service Employees Association has printed many articles about Social Security. There are two very excellent ones in the May 28th edition of the Civil Service Leader—one a history of the legislation by John J. Kelly, Jr., the Assistant Counsel for the Association. Mr. Kelly's article was printed in part last week, and is concluded in this issue. The other article is a reprint of the brochure on Social Security for State employees, which is being distributed by the State Social Security Agency. This agency will publish another brochure relating to the municipal series in the near future. Both of these articles merit full and careful reading by all public employees.

Don't delay, however; if you are a state employee, to fill out your poll questionnaire immediately. Remember they must be in Albany by June 20, 1957.

Music, Skits and Prizes Mark Rockland Dinner

The annual dinner of the Rockland State Hospital Chapter of the New York State Civil Service Employees Association took place at Lund's Riverside Inn the night of May 18.

Guest speaker for the event was Maxwell Lehman, Deputy City Administrator for the City of New York. Others who spoke were John Powers, president of the Civil Service Employees Association, Dr. Alfred M. Stanley, director of Rockland State Hospital, and Lewis C. Van Huben, Chapter president. Emil M. R. Bollman, past Chapter president, was master of ceremonies.

On the evening's program of entertainment were three skits written and acted by a group of Chapter members. They were "The Fantomine Queens," in which the players, all men dressed as women, mimicked the singing of the vocal solos of recordings of popular songs; "Maintenance Moments," a burlesque of the trials and tribulations of the hospital's maintenance crew at work; and "Willie Von Kunze and His Golman Gems," a band with an alto horn, tuba, bass drum, snare drum, and concertina, the last making the only sound that could conceivably be called musical. Master of Ceremonies for the entertainment was John F. Rice, supervisor of the hospital's Maintenance Department.

The door prizes—two travel clocks—were won by Gertrude Krumrei of the occupational therapy department and Peter Lindelbach of the industrial shops. Clark Wilson of Male Reception won a Minolta 35-mm. color camera, Margaret Hodge of the clinical laboratory won an 8-cup Sunbeam electric percolator, and Joseph J. Greaney of Building 37 won a 10" Sunbeam electric skillet.

Officers from the CSEA State headquarters who were guests at the dinner were Charlotte Clap-

Conclusion of Counsel's Social Security Report

By JOHN KELLEY, JR.
Associate Counsel Civil Service Employees Assn.

The report on Social Security legislation by John Kelly, Jr. CSEA Associate Counsel, began last week in The Leader. This week Mr.

Brooklyn State Gets Answers On Social Security

Some 200 members of Brooklyn State Hospital, CSEA got answers to their Social Security questions and heard a general report on the subject when Frank Casey, Association field representative, spoke at the hospital recently.

Chapter President Emil Impresa held the special meeting in the hospital's Assembly Hall, with Richard Amos, second vice president, presiding.

Mr. Casey told the group that Social Security integrated with current pensions would not have been any improvement for State employees and for that reason had never been approved by the CSEA or its membership.

It was following an investigation of the effects of integration, said Mr. Casey, that the CSEA conceived and promoted the full and modified supplementation Social Security plans.

CSEA Proud of Result

Mr. Casey said that "it is with justifiable pride that the Association can point to the fact that its recommendations resulted in full pension benefits with Social Security as an added attraction."

During a lengthy question and answer period, one of Mr. Casey's replies brought both laughter and applause.

A woman had asked Mr. Casey: "I am over 65, have earned more than $4,200 for the past five years and plan to retire as soon as the agreement is signed. What do I get?"

"Madam," said Mr. Casey, "as soon as you've paid your six quarters of retroactivity—well, you hit the jackpot."

Kelly concludes his report on that subject, pointing out CSEA activity on behalf of the Social Security bill.—The Editor).

CSEA Activity

Prior to the enactment of the 1953 legislation the then President of the Association, Jesse B. McFarland, was a member of Comptroller McGovern's committee which studied the problem of Social Security and participated in the recommendations which resulted in the 1953 State legislation permitting coverage under Social Security for public employees who were not eligible for membership in public Retirement Systems.

The Association's Special Committee to Study the Feasibility of Coordination of Social Security Coverage with the Retirement System was the first to devise the concept of full supplementation and modified supplementation which are now unanimously accepted in this State as the key to Social Security coverage for public employees. The first bill introduced in the Legislature which embodied in detail the concept of supplementation was the Association sponsored bill introduced by the then Assemblyman (now Senator) Elisha T. Barrett, Assembly Intro. 3187, Print 3428 and Senator Harry Gittleson, Senate Intro. 2983, Print 3257. This bill provided a referendum of the employees in the Retirement System as to whether or not they wished Social Security in addition to their existing retirement benefits. The bill would have permitted the employee to make the additional contributions over and above his normal retirement contributions and the State to have made similar excess contributions over and above the normal retirement costs. This concept of full supplementation accorded Social Security benefits completely in addition to existing retirement benefits.

If the employee wished he could have elected to have his Social Security contribution paid from his annuity account. The State would have contributed its portion of the Social Security tax in addition to its regular retirement contribution. Under this option of modified supplementation the employee's retirement allowance would be reduced only to the extent that he used his annuity to pay his Social Security tax and his retirement allowance would otherwise remain the same.

Although the Association bill died in the last week of the 1956 session, reportedly because of a high level bi-partisan agreement to delay action until the 1957 session, it indisputably established the formula for supplementation and modified supplementation which was realized in the 1957 legislation.

Shortly after the introduction of the Association bill the Commission on Pensions which had been studying the subject for two or three years issued a report which offered the supplementation and modified supplementation concept as an alternative to the integration proposals also contained in its report. No other employee group, in either 1956 or 1957, sponsored any legislation which would have provided Social Security for public employees. In 1956 neither the Administration nor the Republican leadership in the Legislature sponsored bills with official party approval to effect Social Security coverage for public employees.

In 1957 there were three major Social Security bills which received legislative attention and on which the Legislature held hearings. These bills were the Barrett-Cusick bill sponsored by CSEA the State Administration bill introduced by Senator Zeretzki and Assemblyman Bannigan and the Van Lare-Wilson bill by the Republican leadership in the Legislature. All three of the bills adopted in toto, the full supplementation and modified supplementation concept and rejected the so-called integration plans, the chief characteristic of which would have been to reduce retirement allowances at the time the employee began receiving Social Security.

Two other important features of the 1956 Association legislation were adopted in the Republican leaders' legislation which ultimately became Chapter 778 of the Laws of 1956. These were the provisions that political subdivisions be mandated to furnish Social Security coverage to those of their employees who desired such coverage and to permit retroactive coverage sufficient to guarantee immediately survivors benefits for younger employees and the earliest possible retirement at maximum Social Security benefits for older employees. The successful measure sponsored by the Republican leaders was introduced by Senator Frank Van Lare as Intro. 2236, amended Print 4322 and co-sponsored in the Assembly by Assemblyman Malcolm Wilson, Chairman of the Joint Legislative Committee to Study Employees Retirement System.

WANT TO PASS A CIVIL SERVICE TEST?

During the next twelve months there will be many appointments to U.S. Civil Service jobs in the greater New York area and throughout the country.

These will be jobs paying as high as $340.00 a month to start. They are well paid in comparison with the same kinds of jobs in private industry. They offer far more security than is usual in private employment. Many of these jobs require little or no experience or specialized education. They are available to men and women between 18 and 55.

But in order to get one of these jobs, you must pass a Civil Service test. The competition in these tests is intense. In some cases as few as one out of five applicants pass! Anything you can do to increase your chances of passing is well worth your while.

Franklin Institute is a privately owned school which helps many pass these tests each year. The Institute is the largest and oldest organization of this kind and it is not connected with the Government.

To get full information free of charge on these U.S. Civil Service jobs fill out coupon, stick to postal card, and mail TODAY or call at office—open 9:00 to 5:00 daily including Saturday. The Institute will also show you how you can qualify yourself to pass these tests. Don't delay—act NOW!

Harriman's Good Deed

GOVERNOR Averell Harriman has done the right thing indeed in including on the agenda of the special session of the State Legislature a proposal to release local governments from their present restrictions on borrowing capacity to the extent required for financing the Social Security tax.

Social Security coverage, on the basis of one's job in State or in local government, is on the way. The time limits are demanding, both on the State and the local governments. The State Administration seems to be acting promptly, but some local governments have been sleepy, even New York City to an extent, although that local government has since awakened sharply. Nassau County and Yonkers have voted six retroactive quarters.

Marked in Fairness

The State and New York City have provided money in their budget for financing the tax beginning with the effective date. The State promptly granted the retroactive limit, six quarters. Now the Governor proposes that the quarters of retroactive coverage be extended to seven, not to enlarge the period, but to retain April 1, 1956 as the back date. A month's delay, in processing by local governments, ascribed to "mechanical reasons," would cost employees one month of retroactive benefit were not the Governor's proposal enacted.

The Governor has been prompt and fair throughout all the discussion on facilitating Social Security coverage. Himself a Democrat, he has consulted the leaders of the Republican majority, and at least on the Social Security projects to come up at the special session has gained their agreement. This speaks equally well for the Republicans.

The battle for advantage is an incessant part of the political circus in the American amphitheatre, and has its proper and picturesque place, but there are some subjects to which these gaities are foreign, and Social Security is one of them.

The Governor, a business man and banker, is turning out much the polished politician, outstanding in his new role. Persons who knew him as an international statesman, chairman of the board of directors of a great railroad, and even a harness-racing enthusiast and horse owner, can now look upon him in additional light.

CSEA Membership Soars To Record High of 73,702

At a meeting of the Statewide Membership Committee of the Civil Service Employees Association held in Albany on May 21, Joseph D. Lochner, CSEA Executive Director, reported a total paid membership of 73,702. The paid membership in CSEA on the same date last year was 55,810 and at the end of the last complete membership year on September 30, 1956 was approximately 60,000.

Vito J. Ferro presided as Acting Chairman of the Committee in the absence of Committee Co-Chairmen Lula Williams of the County Division and Alex Greenberg of the State Division, both of whom are ill. The Committee adopted a resolution expressing its regret at the illness of the co-chairman and commended them for their untiring efforts on behalf of building up CSEA membership strength.

Attending the meeting were: CSEA President, John F. Powers; Mr. Lochner; Public Relations Director, Philip Kerker, and Administrative Assistant, Faustine LaGrange. Committee members present were: Emmett J. Durr, Ray Brook State Hospital Chapter; Samuel Emmett, New York City Chapter; Katherine Lawlor, Main Office Public Works Chapter; Helen Lonergan, Buffalo Chapter; Patricia Premo, Willowbrook State School Chapter; Hazel Wixson, Health Department Chapter; Ray Goodridge, Monroe Chapter; Mary Montella, Erie Chapter; Marion Murray, St. Lawrence Chapter; David Rogers, Onondaga Chapter, and James Treuchtlinger,

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

PENNSYLVANIA REPORTS NOTABLE ADVANCES

Because of the efforts of many political science enthusiasts, Governor George M. Leader and his Executive Board have extended civil service to more than 10,000 additional State Government employees. This is the first positive step taken in Pennsylvania for good government practices since enactment of the Civil Service Law in 1941.

The resulting activity within the Commonwealth is a story within itself. Classes now covered by civil service have been increased by 120 percent and agencies serviced by the Commission increased by 170 percent.

Ralph D. Tive, executive director of the Commission, is eager to make our recent progress known to public personnel throughout the country. Each of our Bureaus reports unheard-of progress in public personnel administration.

The Employees Recreational Association of the New York City Housing Authority awarded its four-year scholarship to Alexander T. Liebowitz, son of Hyman Liebowitz, an attorney of the Authority. The winner who ranked highest of the 24 children of Authority employees in the Regents scholarship examination will receive $350 a year to attend school.

The winner, who is 16, also won a State college scholarship, ranking second among 512 in Queens County. During his three years at Stuyvesant High School, he averaged better than 95 percent. He is a recipient of a Certificate of Merit from the National Merit Scholarship Corporation and is a finalist in the General Motors Scholarship Foundation. He plans to major in law.

ARMORY GARAGE BUILDS NEAR STATE CAMPUS SITE

What the builders have called the world's largest auto showroom has been added to the Armory Garage acreage, 926 Central Avenue, Albany. The addition extends southward in the direction of the new State Office Campus Site. Opening date, as announced by Tony Metzner, president, and Art Neet, is July 1. Special invitations are being prepared for State employees.

Nassau Chapter.

The Committee devoted several hours to discussion of ways and means of further strengthening CSEA membership including more active publication of Chapter programs, accomplishments and services, preparation of membership appeal material and further consideration of the application of the ten point program of the Statewide CSEA Membership Committee as contained in previous issues of the Civil Service Leader. The Committee discussed future programs to obtain payroll deduction of dues for its members employed by the political subdivisions throughout the State.

President Powers expressed the appreciation of the Association to the Committee for its untiring efforts and its success in strengthening CSEA membership and prophesied a continuing growth in membership strength throughout the balance of the current membership year.

Why Both Husband And Wife Should Have Social Security

NUMEROUS INSTANCES exist of New York City employees whose wives are working in employment covered by Social Security. The question arises, should the City employee accept Social Security, and pay the tax, so that both he and his wife will be paying Social Security taxes? Is the double investment worth while?

If there are young children, it would be definitely worth while, because if the father predeceases the mother, the children would become entitled to monthly payments under Social Security until they reach age 18. The mother would not benefit by the Social Security coverage as long as she keeps on working.

Without the father becoming covered by Social Security, the children would get no benefit unless the wife dies. They would get nothing if he dies, unless he becomes covered by Social Security.

If there are no children, or if the children are 18 or older, the inducement to the father to its pension still exists. When he reaches age 65 he may add the Social Security pension to his retirement allowance, if he pays the tax out of pocket instead of having it deducted from his retirement system annuity contributions. If he prefers the deduction, then from his annuity the part of the retirement allowance financed from his own contributions would be reduced proportionately, but the Social Security pension could more than make up the difference, depending on how long he lives.

With no children, or no children under 18, the question becomes closer, but if the City employee is in his fifties or over, he could be well served by becoming covered by Social Security additionally, and if he is near 65 now, could reach a Social Security windfall, under retroactive coverage.

The benefit to the mother herself is not involved. The same considerations would apply of course to State employees.

Questions Answered

I AM A WOMAN, age 22 I will be married in June and will continue to work in my present job. Do I have to notify the Social Security Administration? S. E.

Since your name will be changed, it is very important that you notify the Social Security Administration. If your employer were to report your earnings with a name for which the Social Security Administration did not have a record, there would be a long delay before you could have credit for your work.

I HAVE BEEN notified that my application for disability insurance benefits has been approved, and that my first check should arrive on or shortly after August 3. I thought I was to be paid beginning July. Please explain? L. E.

Your check which will arrive in August will represent payment for the month of July. All Social Security checks are supposed to reach beneficiaries after the month for which issued, since it is often not possible to tell if you are entitled to the check until after the month is over. For example, the check is not payable for the month in which the person dies.

I AM EMPLOYED by the City of New York and have never had a Social Security card. However, I am in the active Army Reserve and will go on two weeks training duty this summer, which I understand is work newly covered under Social Security. Do I have to get a Social Security number, or will my pay be reported on my Army serial number? P. E.

You must obtain a Social Security number. If your City employment becomes covered by Social Security and if you elect coverage, you may have a Social Security number issued to you before you begin your military training. Make sure you use the same Social Security number for all employment. Never use any Social Security number other than the first one issued to you. If you lose your record of the number, the Social Security Administration will find the number for you.

IN THE MAY 21 issue of The Leader, H. J. Bernard stated in his column, "Looking Inside," that a man who is 65 January next would require only two more quarters of covered employment if granted six quarters of retroactive coverage. On page 7 of the Official Text of "Your New Social Security" there is a table showing that an individual who has never worked in covered employment and who will be 65 in January of 1958, will require 14 quarters to be fully insured, thus eight more quarters if granted six retroactive quarters instead of two? H. G. M.

Mr. Bernard was referring to the effect of retroactive coverage in regard to men in that age category employed by the State. Naturally, if a man was not employed by the State during the retroactive period he could not benefit by retroactive coverage, and, unless otherwise previously covered by Social Security, would have to start from scratch. The State brochure statement deals with a man who never worked in covered employment.

UNDER "Benefit of Retroactive Coverage," John Kelly, Jr., writes in your May 28 issue: "Anyone (State employee) who has reached age 65 at the time the agreement with the federal agency is executed, and who benefits from six quarters retroactive coverage to March 16, 1956, can immediately retire and receive Social Security benefits of $106.50 per month if his retroactive coverage in each of the two calendar years, 1956-1957, amounts to the full $4,200." If I read the Social Security Booklet correctly, then I would need 11 quarters of coverage, and if all goes well and our agreement is signed by December 1957, I still feel I would have to pick up four more quarters in 1958. H.W.P.

It is possible to retire under Social Security immediately after the agreement is signed, if all conditions are met. This arises from a special rule. The quarters after 1954 must be continuous, except for four, hence 1955 may be excluded. Continuous coverage in 1956 and 1957 would then be the requirement for being fully insured, and would depend on the retroactive date. Assuming it is March 16, 1956, a member gets (Continued on Page 7)

Special Tour for CSEA Members Offered in Sept.

A special European tour for Civil Service Employees Association members has been arranged by the Albany Travel Bureau. The tour was submitted to the Board of Directors of the CSEA and was approved for Association members. The Association is responsible in no way for the trip, however.

Leaving by KLM Royal Dutch Airlines airplane from New York on Sunday, Sept. 7, the group will visit major cities and points of interest in six European countries, including Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, Monaco and France. Frankfurt, Rome, Paris and Amsterdam are among the major capitals to be visited.

Included will be sightseeing tours, hotels, meals, tips and taxis on the 21-day tour.

Because of group activity, the price of the 3-week trip will be below that of individual travel, thus resulting in considerable savings.

Full details and a brochure may be had by writing the Albany Travel Bureau, 23 South Pearl St., Albany 7, N.Y.

Social Security

the benefit of the first quarter of 1956, and can achieve fully insured status even in April, 1957, if 65, for a man 62 for a woman. Few employees would probably meet the requirements for such speedy Social Security retirement.

I WAS an employee of the State for 25 years and have been in retirement since 1956. Is it possible for retired woman employees to be re-employed by the State and become eligible for Social Security benefits? If I should be re-employed before September 30, 1957, will I be eligible for benefits at the age of 62 years, which will be on January 16, 1958? K. N.

You can not be covered by Social Security for any period during which you were not in covered employment. Retroactivity applies only to those who were State employees during the retroactive period. While it is possible to be rehired by the State, and thus become covered by Social Security, starting with the effective date, possibly January 1, 1958, or when you're rehired, whichever comes later, you can not be a State employee and a State pensioner at the same time. Your State pension would have to be suspended on your rehiring. You would have to start from scratch to build up enough Social Security Coverage for retirement and couldn't do that by age 62. The Social Security opportunity doesn't apply to persons already pensioned by the State.

HOSPITAL EMPLOYEES GET PAID IN ADVANCE

Local 237, Teamsters, reports that employees of the New York City Department of Hospitals received their pay checks two days earlier than usual, so that they would be paid before the Memorial Day holiday, by action taken by the union through William Lewis, chairman, hospital division.

The request was made to the respective hospitals and was granted, the union added, except by Bellevue and Kings County hospitals. The union then interceded with Deputy Commissioner Maurice H. Matzkin on behalf of employees of those two hospitals. On word from him the roster of assenters became complete.

WAGNER ORDERS CENSUS CANVASS OF EMPLOYEES

Mayor Robert F. Wagner issued an executive order directing the heads of all New York City departments to canvass every employee to determine if he or she and the family members were counted in the special New York City census.

"We are anxious that the City of New York have the most complete count possible," the Mayor asserted, "and that not a single eligible person be missed."

The degree candidates are: Theodore Becker, Kenneth B. DuBois, Jr., William J. Mangine, Jr., Wilfred L. Morin, David S. Price, Dorothea S. Santen, Jack Shapiro, and James B. Webster.

More than 700 students have studied in the Graduate Program during its first 10 years. Included were employees of almost every department and agency of State government, personnel from many federal agencies and employees of business and industry in the area.

The graduate program is operated by Syracuse University and New York University in cooperation with the State University of New York.

Social Security in Legislature

they are received, the State Social Security Agency will canvass all of the employees of the municipal subdivisions to determine who wants Social Security and who does not. The time involved in these administrative mechanical steps will necessarily delay holding the official referenda and the signing of the agreement until the last quarter of 1957.

At best, therefore, six retroactive quarters will only grant coverage to the employee back to June, 1956. Unless the legislative relief sought at the special session is achieved, all municipal employees, males or females, attaining the age 65 or 62 in 1957 would be deprived of the benefits of Social Security retirement coverage granted by the special provision of the Social Security Law. They would have to work additional periods of time before becoming eligible to retire at full coverage. The proposed amendment would add another quarter to the municipal subdivision and allow the retroactive coverage to date back to the first quarter of 1956.

CSEA Comment

John F. Powers, president of the Civil Service Employees Association, which sponsored and had acted Social Security Bill, made the following comment on the upcoming legislation:

"The CSEA is very glad these items have been included on the special session agenda.

"We hope the Legislature will approve this necessary legislation since its passage is essential to the effective administration of Social Security in the local communities and also equalizes the Social Security benefits between public workers on the state level and those employed by local governments."

MENTAL HYGIENE MEMO

By A. J. COCCARO

WHAT YOU MIGHT EXPECT

Since the 1954 statewide reclassification decisions the CSEA and MHEA have renewed their efforts and been very active on behalf of the attendant group within our hospitals.

These progressive organizations appointed two separate committees within the framework of their associations to study classification and allocation of the people who constitute the "backbone" of our mental hygiene system.

Psychiatric Aide

It is not a coincidence that these two separate committees came up with approximately the same ideas and rearrangement of staffing patterns. These committees felt that a set-up as tabulated below would resolve many of the existing problems in this type of employment. This is what you might expect if you play your role in this reclassification request.

Title	Grade Allocation
I. Psychiatric Aide-Trainee	6
II. Psychiatric Aide	8
III. Staff Psychiatric Aide (Staff Attendant)	10

The trainee at the entrance level would be grade 6. The trainee would stay in this position until he has completed an adequate in-service training program and has completed one year of satisfactory service. The training program would consist of approximately 75 to 100 hours training and instruction. After complying with the above requirements the trainee would then be qualified for the next level position, Psychiatric Aide, grade 8. All employees in the ward services would be able to reach this position without a state competitive examination.

At present in the hospital we have only two levels of attendant positions. This new series would create a third level position, the Staff Psychiatric Aide, which will be in the reach of all Psychiatric Aides through competitive examination.

Cost of the Program

In our discussions with our department representatives we have found them to be very sympathetic towards this type program and would most likely initiate a similar reclassification, but the big problem is the budget and the cost of this reclassification to our taxpayers. Then there are also other titles in our state division that also need improvement. You and I agree that if the case is just, the state and the budget director should procure the necessary funds for these purposes. Can we convince other people of these beliefs?

Modus Operandi

The role that we as individuals must take is the most important one of all. The complaint the administrators, legislators and the budget director make is, "Where are we going to get the millions of dollars needed for this worthy program?" The community must be willing to pay for it.

The CSEA and the MHEA will present the facts for us, but it is our job to convince the community to such extent that the state administration and its legislators know that they are backing the program. We must ask community agencies and service clubs which we are members of or which are located nearby to write letters to these people regarding the letter. We must get the active support of our local legislators and the various community mental health groups, the American Legion, the Lions, the Elks, our church groups and any other group to push this program. Without them it is a difficult job. With these people in our corner we cannot miss. They are just waiting for you to ask them.

OFFICERS OF SCHOOL DISTRICT UNIT INSTALLED

During the annual dinner dance of the Suffolk County chapter, Civil Service Employees Association, John F. Powers, Association president, installed the above group as new officers of the Third Supervisory School District Unit. The are, from left, John De Fato unit representative; George Gygax, second vice president; Lois Teufel, secretary; John Steiler, first vice president, and Tracy Pearsal, president.
