Absence Rules Undergo Change From Last Year

Honor Students Obtain Special Considerations

New regulations regarding absences from college classes have been released by Dr. Evan R. Collins, President of the College. Students are asked to note these rules since they constitute a change from last year's system. The regulations are as follows:

1. The faculty will report, each Friday, to the Registrar's Office, all absences for freshmen, transfers in their first semester at State, veterans, and students on probation.
2. The faculty will not report absences for graduate students, or for undergraduates who were on the Dean's list for the preceding semester.
3. The faculty will report, at the instructor's discretion, any absences which appear to the instructor to be excessive, for those students not in either of the above categories. This includes upperclass undergraduates not on the Dean's list or on probation and non-veterans.
4. Total absences will be reported by the faculty for every student at the close of each semester.
5. Undergraduates on the Dean's list and graduate students with an average of 2.5 will be exempt from the usual regulation governing the attendance at class on the day preceding and following a college holiday. Double absences will not be charged to their records for absences from class on these days.
6. It will not be necessary for students to file excuses in the Office of the Registrar, following an absence, as was formerly the procedure.

First Assembly Agenda Features Talk By Collins

Honor Students Obtain Special Considerations

The agenda for today's Student Association Assembly at 12:35 p. m. in Page Hall Auditorium was planned in Student Council meeting Wednesday evening and plans were formulated for Activities Day.

Dr. Evan R. Collins, President of the College, will be the main speaker at the first Student Association Assembly today. He will extend a welcome to the class of '56. Introductions of Oscar E. Lanford, Dean of the College, and David Hartley, Dean of Men, as well as the new Myskania members will be made.

At the first meeting of the year, Student Council elected Madeleine Payne '54, Chairman of Activities Day, September 27, Frances Hopkins and Kathleen Oberst, Juniors are her assistants. Activities Day furnishes an opportunity for the freshmen to sign up for their favorite clubs and organizations. However, it will also include presentation of the banner to the Class of '56, a bonfire, skits, a snake dance, and a dance at Brubacher.

John Lannon '53, President of Student Association, stated that the football motion and reconsideration of the Big Four motion will both be taken up in Assembly in the near future.

Louis Von '53, announced that the Alumni Association has offered to furnish the necessary funds for a memorial plaque to the alumni of State College who made the supreme sacrifice in World War II. The Student Council formulated the plans for this plaque last year.

Annual All-College Reception Will Extend Welcome To Frosh

Collins Reports Faculty Increase; Twenty-One Join College Staff

The names of twenty-one additions to the faculty of the College have been released by Dr. Evan R. Collins, President of the college. Appointments include instructors in departments new to State College.

The following are the new faculty members: Dr. Hasan Bey, Instructor, Department of Chemistry; Dr. Kendall A. Birr and Glenn Weaver, Instructors in Social Studies; Dr. Robert F. Creagan, Assistant Professor, Philosophy; Dr. Edgar W. Flinton, Director of Graduate Studies; Miss Elizabeth M. Glass, Miss Alice Russell, and Mr. Hugh MacK. Smith, Instructor, Milne School; Mr. Charles H. Hamblen, Jr., Miss Mary-Catherine Hudson, Dr. Paul A. Lowder, Dr. D. Elton Nelson, and Mr. Michael W. Stein, Instructors, Department of Education; Dr. Katherine H. Heinig, Instructor, and Dr. Hudson S. Winn, Assistant Professor, both Biology; Dr. Violet Hachmeister Larney, Assistant Professor, Department of Mathematics; Mr. L. Walter Schultze, and Dr. William Wall, Jr., Instructors, General Science; Mr. Ell Shouby, Assistant Professor, Psychology; Mr. Clifton C. Thorne, Instructor, Commerce; and Mr. Robert E. Thorsensen, Instructor, English.

The annual All-College Reception will be held Saturday evening beginning at 7:30 p. m., according to Palmina Calabrese '54, general chairman of the event. All freshmen are invited to attend this traditional part of freshman week at State. The entertainment, under the co-chairmanship of Marvin Chernoff and Neil Brown, Juniors, will be a Variety Show in Page Auditorium. The show will feature Chernoff as Master of Ceremonies, songs by Rosemary Keller, Evelyn Paulus and Richard Jacobson, Seniors; Mary Ann Frascatore '54; Joan Carlin '55, and Joan Lopat '56. Roberta Stein '56, will dance and Robert Lundergan '55, will provide an interlude of comedy.

A quartet consisting of three trumpets and a mandolin will also entertain. The singing quartet from last year's Sophomore Big-4 is slated to repeat their numbers from that show.

Also from last year's Sophomore Big-4 are a ballet sequence, songs by Betty Rose and Frank Giannone, and a dance by Arthur Stone and Ann Columbe, Juniors. The chorus for the number will be Kathleen Oberst, Ann Caparis, Dorothy Prescott, Doris Hagen, and Marie Mordelletti, Juniors. Stage manager for the production is Richard Jacobson.

Following the entertainment at Page Hall, refreshments will be served in the main dining room of Brubacher Hall. Chairman of the refreshment committee is Patricia Byrne '54.

A dance in the game room will terminate the evening's activities. Chairmen for the dance are Mary Iacovone and Robert Conly, Sophomores.

Any freshmen who desire information or directions at the reception are invited to ask anyone wearing a white carnation. These are hosts and hostesses, headed by Stuart Macnofsky and Madelyn Meier, Juniors.

In charge of publicity for the reception is Ronald Koster '55.

Lockers are still available for students who have not received assignments. Thomas R. Gibson, Professor of Health, has stated. Equipment clerks will be available in the equipment room located on the balcony of Page Hall gym daily during the following hours: 8 to 9 a. m., 12 noon to 1 p. m., and 3:30 p. m. on.

At these hours students may receive locker assignments or report any difficulty they are having with locks already in their possession.

Those students who did not receive their student tax tickets during registration will have an opportunity to do so Monday or Tuesday, Dr. J. T. Phinney, Professor of Social Studies, has announced. A desk will be located in the main hall of Draper one of these days at which tax cards may be obtained upon presentation of the student's treasurer's receipt.

Cafeteria Prices To Remain Same

The College Cafeteria has been expanded to include the two rooms formerly occupied by the Commons, the Commons having been moved to the Richardson Lounge, although the arrangements for its use have not been completed. The cafeteria will open at 8:45 a. m., begin serving sandwiches at 10:30 a. m., and serve hot meals from 11 a. m. until 1:30 p. m. All four cafeteria rooms will be open from 8:45 a. m. to 1:30 p. m.

W. Thomas Smith, Manager, has announced that the kitchen has been cleaned and had new facilities installed in it, including a walk-in refrigerator. Two soups will be served daily and at least one hot meal, according to Smith. The prices remain unchanged.

The line for the sandwich bar will form at the end nearest the old cafeteria rooms, the reverse of the procedure followed last year. Smith emphasizes that the cafeteria will be open to college students at any time, including the hours when Milne students are present.

Pedagogue portraits of sorority and fraternity members are being completed today, announces Veronica Price '53, editor. The portraits are being taken in the Pedagogue room in the Student Union. Senior portraits are also being taken at this time.

The group pictures printed in last year's Pedagogue of sororities and fraternities are being replaced by individual portraits in this year's issue. Miss Price urges all fraternity and sorority members to cooperate and keep their appointments before the deadline tonight.

Freshman Handbooks will be available today from 12 noon to 4 p. m. outside of the old Commons in Lower Husted. Faith Hanson '54, Editor, says that there are handbooks for all the freshmen who have not received one; any upperclassman who desires a copy can also pick it up at that time.

Focus On Future

The social season at State College will open with the traditional receptions for the freshmen.

Dr. and Mrs. Collins will receive the Class of 1956 at the annual President's Reception in Brubacher Hall at 7:30 p. m. next Friday evening.

Inter-Fraternity Council will hold a smoker in the Commons on October 2 and the Inter-Sorority open houses will take place on October 3. The annual Activities Day will take place on Saturday, October 4. All frosh are urged to attend.

The various area churches will hold their receptions for the frosh Friday, October 19.

Newman Club will hold a smoker Sunday, Oct. 21, time and place to be announced.

The steady hum of the bug was looked a couple of talented singers, but they were not the only ones to provide entertainment. State College Faculty members traveled to welcome the Class of '56, and to do one of their now famous shows.

Faculty and freshmen got together in an entertaining game of charades.

Most helpful to the freshmen were the counselors' shows. Girls who were puzzled about what to wear to the receptions, and what to do on Activities Day were "shown how" via two humorous skits and a fashion show.

Most inspiring events were the torchlight ceremony and the community sings. The frosh this year will really know all of their songs.

Cobb Releases Library Rules

Information concerning the college library facilities and regulations applying to the use of books by students has been released by Mary E. Cobb, College Librarian. Miss Cobb has also announced the addition of two new library assistants, Jacquelyn Mann and Anna May Lilly, both former State graduates.

The library will be open Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday from the hours of 8 a. m. to 5 p. m., Monday and Wednesday from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. and 7 p. m. to 9:30 p. m., and Saturday from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. A library card may be obtained by any student upon application in the library.

The upper section of the library contains reference books, bound periodicals, current periodicals, books in the 200's and 400's, books of current fiction, and the card catalog for the entire library. In the lower section are located all books in the 300's, principally books in the field of education, on the open shelves, while the remainder of the library's collection may be obtained from the closed stacks.

Regular books may be taken for two weeks when taken out on a card and may also be obtained over night without a card. They may be renewed once for a two week's period. A charge of two cents per day will be assessed for overdue books. Books which are held on reserve must be used in the library as must reference books and bound periodicals.

A student who desires to obtain a book which is out in circulation may have it reserved for him upon its return. He will then be notified through student mail. Library cards are not interchangeable.

A student desiring a part time job should secure a registration card in Draper 107 and fill in the required information. He must then contact the prospective employer himself and notify the P.T.E.B. that he has done so. If he obtains the work, a student must inform the office staff in 107.

The largest freshman class in the one hundred and eight year history of the college has been enrolled this semester, according to Edward J. Sabol, Coordinator of Field Services. The class of 1956, numbering 425, according to latest tabulations, marks an increase of 90 students over last September's freshman enrollment.

The total undergraduate enrollment has been increased approximately 6% over comparable registration figures for first semester last year; however, graduate enrollment shows a slight decrease with approximately 200 students enrolled in that category.

Sabol stated that State's increase was notable since most colleges had been anticipating slight decreases in the number of freshmen matriculating.

Six Korean veterans have registered for the semester, in addition to 70 transfer students. Total enrollment for the college indicates only a slight increase over last year's mark at 1576 students.

The names of twenty-one additions to the faculty of the College have been released by Dr. Evan R. Collins, President of the college. Appointments include instructors in departments new to State College.

The following are the new faculty members: Dr. Hasan Bey, Instructor, Department of Chemistry; Dr. Kendall A. Birr and Glenn Weaver, Instructors in Social Studies; Dr. Robert F. ## PTEB Discloses Job Procedure

Procedure for applying for part time employment has been described and released by Elmer C. Matthews, director of the Part Time Employment Bureau.

Cards describing available jobs are posted on the bulletin board outside the Part Time Employment Bureau's office in room 107, Draper. Each description card carries a job number. These numbers are to be used to locate more information regarding the position in the box file in room 107. The jobs are classified and filed according to the job number.

A student desiring a part time job should secure a registration card in Draper 107 and fill in the required information. He must then contact the prospective employer himself and notify the P.T.E.B. that he has done so. If he obtains the work, a student must inform the office staff in 107.

Sports, Fashion Show, Faculty Skit Highlight Frosh Camp Recreation

The steady hum of the bug was looked a couple of talented singers, but they were not the only ones to provide entertainment. State College Faculty members traveled to welcome the Class of '56, and to do one of their now famous shows.

Most inspiring events were the torchlight ceremony and the community sings. The frosh this year will really know all of their songs.

The last night at camp, the girls gave a preview of their spirit by hiding their counselor's pajamas. If you've been puzzled because some upperclassmen caught pneumonia in the middle of summer, there's the answer.

After an eventful week-end, the frosh enthusiastically agreed that they were welcomed by a "college that makes welcome its trademark."

Hanson Will Distribute Handbooks To Students

Freshman Handbooks will be available today from 12 noon to 4 p. m. outside of the old Commons in Lower Husted. Faith Hanson '54, Editor, says that there are handbooks for all the freshmen who have not received one; any upperclassman who desires a copy can also pick it up at that time.

To '56 . . .

Each year as State's students return to college, they find themselves greeted by a new vitality and freshness of spirit which accompanies each entering freshman class. This year's class is no exception. You, the Class of 1956, are unusual in many respects. Numbering some 425 strong, you are the largest freshman class ever to enter the halls of the college; you are the first class to wear the purple and gold of State's colors on your beanies; you are the first group to matriculate under the new curriculum system. Despite your distinctiveness, you are at present not unlike any group of entering freshmen in the feelings you have for your new surroundings, your reaction to the strangeness of it all, and your confusion at taking on the new responsibilities with which college life presents you. Once you have gotten through the first few weeks and settled down to the routine activities of college life, we hope that you will look around you and realize through all of its welcomes and receptions State has endeavored to make you an integral part of its life and activities; that you have much to offer to the college and more to receive from it. You will undoubtedly find yourself looking up to the upperclassmen for guidance and leadership; however, do not forget that these same upperclassmen who seem so wise and well-informed to you now are looking down to you for the new blood, the freshness of outlook, and the enthusiasm so necessary to the revitalization and successful continuance of State's activities and traditions.

Use And Disuse

By MARV CHERNOFF

According to the old biological theory of "Use and Disuse" formulated by Lamarck, to use one limb to excess would tend to make it larger in size and not to use it would tend to make it smaller until it would gradually disappear. This theory may have been impractical as far as arms and legs were concerned, but when we look at it in the light of the "Use and Misuse" of college life and its opportunities we see that it may apply to the college student in terms of intellectual growth and emotional stability.

When a person comes to college, he is taking a major step ahead in developing the use of his mind. He leaves behind a fairly well beaten track of friends and acquaintances, and comes to a place where he starts anew. One might say that he ends the first phase of his life and starts his second, because he is not entering merely a new place to learn facts, but an institution in which his personality and mind

Juniors' In The Town

By SY SEMMLER

Radio Council along with many others wishes to welcome the Frosh (who still receive everyone's attention).

Each week the Council publishes TUNIN' IN THE TOWN to make a record of events known to Statesmen.

Since classes have just begun, and the fall season of social attractions has not, the current theater billings are holding the spotlight.

The neighborhood Madison Theater is featuring James Stewart in the technician film, "Band of the River", an adventure story of homesteaders settling in California during the Gold Rush. Co-featured are the Bowers Boys in "Here Come the Marines".

Beginning Sunday Helen Hayes and Van Heflin will star in "My Son John" with the technician "Denver and Rio Grande" as a co-feature.

Rita Hayworth is back in "Affair in Trinidad" playing at the Palace downtown until September 24.

The Albany Institute of History and Art is showing the oil paintings of Fletcher Martin, outstanding contemporary artist of America, until September 30. Mr. Martin's work was published by LIFE when that magazine ran a series of war front paintings during World War II.

In the gallery Maxim Kardik's collection of nineteenth century American paintings is on display to inspire the re-discovery of American Art.

For the sports fans Waldorf meets Marciano at the Grand Theater September 23 for a bout that will not be carried by TV or radio.

Common-Stater

By MITCHELL & KORBA

HELLO How are ya? Great to see you back. Did you have a nice summer? Just thought you would like to see this, oh, so familiar greeting in print. Anyway, we're happy to see that all the upperclassmen arrived even though no one was notified of the time.

CONGRATULATIONS Hail off to the leaders and counselors for making such a tremendous success of Frosh Camp. Also, hope that all those captains, lieutenants, and junior guides with the pretty colored ribbons keep up the fine work they are doing throughout the rest of the year. Friendly advice will be just as much appreciated in June as in September.

THE BREAD LINES Well, if anything, registration gave up plenty of time to meet old friends and to prove beyond a doubt that more peoples' names begin with A to L than from M to Z. It proved a few other things, too, but why start slamming the administration so early in the year.

OPEN SPACES Notice that football has suffered a major loss with the spreading of the cafeteria into the old Commons. No longer will we see the "swiveled hip" tray carriers looking for an opening through which to squeeze their grapefruit.

LIVING 1/4's With a fresh enrollment of 425, it seems that living quarters were a little hard to find. This argument proved to be of no avail last June when the men of St. Mary's asked the administration to keep the barracks open. However, we hope the present residents are as hard pressed for the low priced rooms as were the former tenants.

CEMENT MIXERS The road outside of Brubacher (known now as the 38th parallel) is coming slowly but surely. And, how about all the new rooms with the fancy names located on first floor Draper?

IN REGARD TO SPORTS . . . State's soccer team with Joe Garcia once more at the helm is training diligently every day for its first game against College of New England on September 27. Any group of men who are so willing to devote their time during these first few hectic weeks certainly deserve the student body's time at their games.

We also want to see as big a turnout as possible for the IM football. Only with a good league can we convince the administration that State has the men and the spirit for our coming varsity.

OUTSIDE HOPES Wonder whether Student Facilities Board will provide a TV set in the Brubacher lounge this year. Could also go for the long awaited pool table, dart board, and a little repairing on the ping pong tables.

Seeing as nothing has yet been done about the All College Revue, why not try to work it in as part of a winter weekend along with the "Winterlude" formal?

With four real top notch presidents and a stronger Inter-Fraternity Council it would be great to see the State Frosh throw a big IF dance, too. How about that—State girls at State for a weekend?

Probably the most promising addition would be the ARENA THEATRE. This outfit under Dr. Pettit's guidance put on three sellout shows in summer school and gave students real experience in acting.

THIS AND THAT Roughly half the school is lighting candles in gratitude to Art Kapner. Only his notice arrived all summer to assure them they hadn't flunked out. . . Credit to the Snack Bar employees who during these rushed few days worked 12 hour stretches not only serving food but picking up the dishes conveniently left on the tables. . . With the addition of a new fence on Page Field, it looks like only athletes and midgets out campus. . . In a few years, how will you tell what class someone is in at Moving-Up Day—with the new uniform beanies—will they carry different colored canes? . . . See you at the All College Reception

QUESTION OF THE WEEK . . . Did you know that Campus Commission no longer regulates hand holding on campus.

Get Behind It!

Once again this year State students will have opportunity to obtain inexpensive insurance coverage from Art Kapner, local representative of Mutual of Omaha. For several years they have had his opportunity, and for several years the response has been negligent—so much so, in fact, that the company has never made money on the policies and last year stood a loss on student claims. The results of last year's heavy drain on the company have necessitated the changing of the policy to the present form which Student Association endorsed last spring. Kapner has estimated that for the percentages of probable claims to be in favor of the company, 800 subscribers to the policy are needed. It would be to our advantage to support this form of insurance coverage more extensively, since, the more students who participate, the greater the percentages with the insurance company. No company will continue to provide us with moderately priced sickness and accident coverage while losing money. At the time of freshman registration, Kapner reported that approximately 300 students had signed for the policy. This is far from the number of participants needed to insure maintaining the policy at State.

Take It Easy

The new absence system which goes into effect this year constitutes recognition on the part of the administration that the members of Student Association are mature enough to regulate their own attendance at classes. Use the system wisely and with discretion and you will confirm the responsibility the college has placed on you; misuse it, take advantage of it, and you will prove yourself unworthy of the privileges of mature and sensible college students. It's been a long time in coming—let's keep it here!

Oxford Opens Doors To Admit Women Of U.S. New Dramatists

The Illinois Theatre Guild, in connection with the 1953 Festival of Contemporary Arts at the University of Illinois, is sponsoring its second annual new play competition. The winning play will be produced by the Guild as its major contribution to the Festival. Travel expenses and accommodations at the University for the final rehearsal period will be provided for the winning playwright.

All scripts must be submitted to the New Play Committee, Illinois Theatre Guild, University of Illinois, Urbana, Illinois, before October 15, 1952. Only full length, non-musical plays which have not been produced will be accepted. Manuscripts must be typed in standard play form, and each script must be accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

The judges will put the most emphasis upon originality in content and form. They reserve the right to choose no winner if, in their opinion, no script is submitted worthy of production. The committee will not be responsible for the script or other original material. All questions should be submitted to the Chairman of the New Play Committee at the above address.

Interested persons may obtain further information concerning this plan by consulting Vivian C. Hopkins, Assistant Professor of English, Relations office, American Association of University Women, 1634 Eye Street, NW, Washington, D. C.

Kapner Offers Insurance Policy

Any student who has not obtained his insurance policy is requested to see Arthur Kapner, local representative of Mutual of Omaha which sponsors the policy, at a table outside the Commons, any noon hour during the next two weeks. The price of the insurance coverage is $25.

Kapner has explained that the policy now being offered differs from last year's policy in that payments are arranged on a schedule basis. For sickness or accident, the company will pay $3 per doctor's visit starting with the first visit. The policy also covers medical bills and prescriptions and provides $10 for operating room costs and $150 for surgery, $15 for ambulance fees, and up to $100 for damage to sound teeth.

Department Displays Modern Italian Art

The Art Department, headed by Ruth E. Hutchins, Assistant Professor, is offering a display of Italian art in Draper, second floor. Examples of Italian painting of today are featured in the wall display of Citterio's works. This contemporary artist was prominent in the 1920's, and his work typifies modern Italian art.

Interested students will also find representative works from the Italian Renaissance, 1500-1800, in the case display. The paintings of Giotto, a famous artist of this period, are featured.

The petite girl in the light blue sari sat poised and ready to tell about Pakistan and her first impressions of America and State.

Ratty Cooper, a graduate student attending State on funds from State Fair and a $100 contribution of the Junior Class, is from Lahore, Pakistan. Ratty attended Cathedral High School in Lahore, Auckland House School, and received her B.A. from Sacred Heart College.

Ratty began studying the piano at the age of six. After taking yearling examinations until the age of fifteen, she took her last exam two years later and became a qualified music teacher.

Upon receiving word that she was to come to America to study, Ratty's first reaction was one of "extreme excitement." She is here on a leave of absence from Lawrence College, where she has taught for three and a half years.

As ABC's It

By ABEL BLATTMAN

This column affords us the first opportunity to fall in line with the other organizations on campus and extend a hearty welcome to the class of '56. It is with a great deal of sincerity that we do this, for in the hands of the frosh class, in a large sense, rests the future success of athletics at State. We are all counting on the 'Bees' to take an active interest in the athletic program, support it, and participate in it, as we know they will.

This year finds us upon the crest of a momentous wave of progress marked by last year's advances. IM football has become a 9-man game, an important preliminary to the fielding of an inter-collegiate football team; the football report is due sometime around Christmas of this year, and will probably lead to more concrete steps and ultimately to the creation of a State College Varsity Football team.

The fine showing of the Varsity Soccer team against tough opposition, the addition of new teams to the schedule last year coupled with a rigorous 10 game slate this year clearly evidences the progress of the squad under the tutelage of Joe Garcia.

Inter-collegiate basketball first started in a formal season for the first time since the sport was re-established at State after the last war with Coach Merlin Hathaway at the reins.

The Varsity Baseball squad, actively building for the future with a young squad, took great strides to this end.

All of these factors evidence the building of the athletic program during the past eight years which has now gained some momentum. It's "feasible" that this year the students at State will help to keep it rolling.

WAA To Welcome New Frosh Members

Once again Women's Athletic Association welcomes its new and old members—all pals together.

Soon the dorm field will reverberate with the whack of hockey sticks and the whang of arrows and maybe the thud of the volleyball.

Here's your chance to earn your award whether you are a frosh or an old worn out Senior. All you need to do is earn 10 hours of credit in four different sports during the school year. The frosh may then win their class numerals suitable for sewing on a shirt or jacket. For second year award is a WAA t-shirt. The next year's participation results in a key, and upon completion of four years of credit, a charm of your favorite sport is awarded.

WAA Features Camp

Of course, you don't want to miss a weekend at Camp Johnston, State's own "female camp." Just a gang of kids and a desire to "rough it" is necessary.

This is just the beginning. Watch the WAA bulletin board and this column for further news. Here's to an active year in WAA, and remember, WAA means YOU!

Fine Weather, Varied Sports Features WFC

Counselors Supervise Freshmen Recreation

Frosh women with upperclassmen as counselors were able to participate in a variety of individual and team sports at Women's Frosh Camp last weekend under the supervision of Audrey Burke, Junior, athletic director. The warm weather contributed to the popularity of the individual sports, hiking, boating, canoeing, swimming, tennis and ping-pong, although a few games of volleyball and softball were played with pick-up teams.

WAA Supplies Equipment

Burke secured all the equipment for the weekend from WAA, while six aluminum canoes and 12 rowboats were left at the disposal of the group by Camp Van Schoonhoven, site of Frosh Camp.

Indoor recreation was held Friday night in the main lodge at an informal reception, planned by Dorothy Schatz, Sophomore, and Kathleen Wright, Senior. The freshmen were divided into teams for competitive games. The winning team was presented with miniature loving cups.

Assisting Burke as sports directors were Judith Van Auken, Junior more, and Barbara Law, Senior front managers, Frances Bethea, Junior hiking leader, and Doris Mehan, Sophomore, in charge of boat and canoeing.

Reds Victorious Over Blue Team In Camp Contests

Capitalizing on extremely fine weather and an abundance of excellent facilities, the incoming freshmen participated in an extensive athletic program at Frosh Camp last week. The "Red" team emerged as victors in total team points over the "Blue" team by a count of 12-6. The victorious squad was under the direction of Hiram Walker and the losers were capably organized by Bob Taber. The four sports that comprised the inter-frosh rivalry were volleyball, basketball, football, and softball.

The entire Frosh Camp was divided into two teams, each freshman being either a "Blue" or a "Red." Each of these teams in turn fielded two volleyball teams, two basketball games and one each of football and softball.

"Reds" Sweep Volleyball
Volleyball under the direction of Bud Friedman '55, was swept by the "Red" team two games to none by scores of 21-15, 21-10 and 21-15. 4-11, 11-7. The "Red" team received 6 points toward its team total.

Tough football, supervised by Dave Burroughs, saw the "Blue" team crush their opponents, 24-0, and thereby garner 3 team points.

The softball contest was very close until the top of the first inning when the "Reds" tallied 20 runs. From there on they coasted to a 28-4 victory bringing their points for all events lead to 9-3. Walt Goodell acted as director of this sport, assisted by John Zongrone.

The basketball rivalry saw an even split, the "Reds" copping the initial contest 53-36, and the "Blues" bouncing back with a 25-24 victory. The total in team points reached its final mark of 12-6 after the completion of their contests.

The waterfront provided supervised swimming under the direction of Custer Quick who was assisted by George Smalling.

Frosh Trounce Faculty 12 To 3 With 7 Runs In First Frame

Coach Garcia Sends Out Call For Varsity Soccer Candidates

Soccer coach Joe Garcia, faced with Art Golden and Dick Bailey. Al Cannon and Raoul Nunez, All-State men and sparkplugs of last year's squad, are not cut for soccer this season.

The returning lettermen will form the nucleus of this year's squad, although none have their positions "sewed up." Some of the new freshman and sophomore candidates appear to be real comers. Linfield King, Wood, Adams, Hull, Button, and McCormick; backs Stella, Bills, Ings, and Strickland; and goalie Telfer have had the experience around which a top-notch team can be built.

Large Turnout To Injure JV

Twenty-four men are now out for the team and many more are expected. A large enough turnout will insure a JV team which will play at least a six-game schedule. Also, any freshmen interested in being a trainer, manager, or team reporter are urged to see Garcia.

Board Plans New Constitution; SCAAB To Be Sports Impetus

Now in the process of drawing up a strong working constitution, the newly formed State College Athletic Association Board may prove to be the ones to provide State with a stronger athletic program.

The board will be the policy-making body for all inter-collegiate athletics. The board consists of three members of the student body, elected for a two-year term, the athletic coach, and two members of the faculty, appointed by the administration.

State Soccer Schedule—1952

From reports and observations of Frosh Camp, the Class of '56 appears to have plenty of football material. The freshmen are urged to sign up for the intramural program. As they are well distributed throughout the residence halls, there should be an abundance of red hot football players this year.

The Potter Club, KDR, KB, and SLS are expected to field their usually fine aggregations this year. The Indians, Angels, and Sayles will also supply top notch contention. In all probability, there will be enough teams to form both a Dorm Field and Beverwyck League.

James Fox '54, Manager of the Intramural Football League, announced today that the IM league will start a week from Monday. A sign-up sheet will be placed on the MAA bulletin board Friday morning, and all groups are urged to sign-up promptly. As last year, nine man ball will be played. A list of rules will be published in next week's News.

On the board for the year 1952-1953 are SA members Paul Ward, Pat Carlo, and Jim Finnen. The faculty members are Mr. Jones and Mr. Tibbets. Coach Mer. a. W. Hathaway will serve in an advisory capacity to the board as well as secretary.

Probably the most outstanding order of business for the members of this year's board will be the presentation to the student body as to whether or not an inter-collegiate football program is "feasible."

The Men's Athletic Association is a separate organization and will be concerned primarily with the functioning of the intra-mural program.

All Faculty Runs Come As Result Of Circuit Clouts

'Clem Reverses Decision' Declares Hit A Homer For Final Faculty Tally

Scoring 7 big runs in the first inning paved the way for the Frosh's 12-3 win over this year's edition of the faculty All-Star array at Frosh Camp. All the faculty's runs came as a result of round-trippers. Pitcher Cooper and first sacker Hathaway were the sluggers.

Although the Frosh did not display such power, they showed a more consistent brand of ball pounding out 13 hits. This barrage of base hits sandwiched around a few walks and an "occasional" error on the part of the faculty's defense, was enough to make traffic on the base path quite heavy for the afternoon.

Frosh Score Early

In the first inning three straight singles gave the Frosh one run and before the "ace of the sand lots," Cooper could retire the side, 7 hits, had scored 7 runs. The faculty members did not score until the third inning when Cooper turned slugger and blasted one of Frosh pitcher Rock's offerings out over the centerfielder's head for a two-run homer. An interesting sidelight here is that Cooper had batted out of turn but the scorekeeper kept mum and none of the freshmen were aware of the fact.

Final Faculty Tally in Fifth

The final faculty tally, although questionable, came in the fifth inning. "Clem" Hathaway who had previously stated that any ball being hit into the bushes was a ground rule double, reversed his field and proclaimed his hit a homer, the first hit in 3 years for the slumping first sacker.

College Equals Fresh Newness

What's new? What's new you ask? Haven't you noticed? New beanies, New Commons. New railing. New—oh yes—statemen.

Beanies are only $.85. Maybe all of us should shake some pennies out of our piggy banks and buy one. Then we'd have an excuse for registration confusion and bewilderment resulting from location changes.

Or maybe we should save our money to invest in the coke machine in the new Commons. All that room to breathe and tables, too. Wow! We're really living!

Any moola left? Go to the co-op. Boy! This is great! (One textbook goes for $.35). There's still a little congestion, but at least more people can get in at one time—shorter and faster lines in the co-op's election year promise.

Beware of broken necks! Campus cutting has been eliminated by a lovely green railing.

Press Bureau To Revise Files

Press Bureau files for the upperclassmen are being checked, and those students who do not have folders will find forms in their student mail. Mary Jane Dewey '53, Director of Press Bureau, requests that these forms be completed and returned via the Bureau's mailbox in Lower Draper. Forms for the freshmen will be passed out in orientation Monday.

SA Book Exchange To Commence Today

A Book Exchange desk will be in operation starting today, announces Frances Allen '54. The desk will be located in Lower Draper. Hall near the Commons and the Exchange will continue through next week. Miss Allen requests students to sign up "or" the books they want and the ones they want to sell.

Temperance Tavern Lists Business Hours

W. Thomas Smith, Director, has stated that the Snack Bar will follow the same schedule of hours employed last year: Mondays through Thursdays, 11:30 a. m. to 10:45 p. m., Fridays, 11:30 a. m. to 12:30 a. m., Saturdays, 12:30 p. m. to 12:30 a. m. and Sundays, 4 p. m. to 10:45 p. m. Smith also reminds students that they are responsible for returning their own dishes to the end of the Snack Bar and for disposing of their waste paper.

NEWS Issues Call For Soph Reporters

Sophomores interested in working on the State College News are requested to attend a meeting at 12 noon today in Draper 101. Those who wish to work on the Business-Advertising staff should contact Jordine Skoff '53, Business-Advertising Manager. No previous experience in journalism is necessary.

Report Openings In Driving Class

Driver Training classes will use a new automobile this year, announces Thomas R. Gibson, Professor of Health. There are still openings in both the beginning class and the student instructor class. Anyone interested in joining either of the classes is requested by Mr. Gibson to be present at the first meeting, which will be held today at 12:35 p. m. in Husted 150. Registration for the classes will be done at the first meeting. Those attending this meeting are asked to bring their completed schedules.

In order to qualify for the instructor class, applicants must have the equivalent of two years driving experience and must be a Junior or Senior.

The beginning class is open to anyone. There is a $5.00 fee for this class. Members of the beginning class will drive in groups of three during double period laboratories each week. Classroom instruction will be held on Friday.

The Hawley Library has an extensive collection of phonograph records which are available to State College students and faculty. Mary E. Cobb, College Librarian, has disclosed. These records are classified in the card catalogue and are mostly symphonic. Folk songs are also available for student teaching.

Psychic Tunes Flow From Juke

Improbable as it may seem, there's still one thing you can get for a nickel—atmosphere. Next time you're down at the Snack Bar, take your mind off the food for a minute and note the appropriate tunes that flow from the Juke Box. "F'r instance, did you ever hear "Slaughter on Tenth Avenue" while in the midst of a ham-burger? And doesn't some joker invariably play "You Go To My Head" just as you're sipping a coke? The same psychic character even presses the number for "Black Bottom" just as you fall at the ping pong table.

Then, as you limp to the counter for reinforcements, you see a fresh girl "Sit Right Down to Write a Letter." Wait! She's getting that far away look in her eye. Oh, no. Here we go again. Wish you wuh he-a-aw-aw, wi-sh you-u-u werrh he-a-aw, wish you—Oh, nuts!
