

222
✓
subject and the reading of several communications recommending Mr. Edward F. N. Orton as possessing high qualifications for the position, he was unanimously appointed to the vacant Professorship to enter on the duties at the earliest possible day.

The Secretary was directed to notify Mr. Orton of his appointment, and the committee adjourned.

June 30, 1856.

The Committee met at the call of the Chairman.

Present The Sup. of Pub. Instruction.

Mr. Townsend,

Mr. Woolworth.

After free conversation in regard to the continuance of the school, notwithstanding the failure of the passage of the appropriation bill by the last Legislature, the committee adjourned to Saturday next at 4 P. M.

July 5, 1856.

The Committee met pursuant to adjournment.

Present, The Sup. of Pub. Instruction

Mr. Townsend

Mr. Woolworth.

✓
On matters resolved that the salary of Mr. Killogg, Superintendent of the Experimental Department, be increased to Twelve Hundred dollars, commencing with the next term of the school.

✓
Resolved that the salary of Miss Rice be increased to Five Hundred dollars, commencing with the next term, it being understood that her entire services are to be given to the school.