Attendance Rules, Grievance Machinery Looms For Nassau; Chapter Fetes Politicos

Long Island politicos — including State legislators and county officials — were recent luncheon guests of the Nassau County chapter of the Civil Service Employees Association.

The result, according to Irving Flaumenbaum, chapter president, was indication that the chapter's long-standing desire for a set of attendance rules and a modernized grievance machinery was now getting serious consideration from Nassau County administrators.

Chapter officials also outlined the need for correction of salary inequities; a better arrangement on longevity pay; vacation schedules and payroll deduction of Association dues to their guests.

Mr. Flaumenbaum said the appeal for support of the chapter's program apparently fell on sympathetic ears.

"Our legislators and county officials showed a lively and judicious interest in the improvements to local civil service our program could bring and many indicated their support of our goals," Mr. Flaumenbaum said.

Among those present were Assemblymen Francis P. McCloskey and Genesta Strong; Senators Daniel G. Albert and Edward J. Speno, with Senate Majority Leader Joseph Carlino being represented by his counsel, Ralph Edsell, Jr.

County Executive A. Holly Patterson was represented at the meeting by Edward P. Larkin, presiding supervisor of the Town of Hempstead. Other town supervisors included, John J. Burna, Oyster Bay; George B. Costigan, Long Beach; Robert C. Richter, Hempstead; and Joseph Suozzi, Glen Cove.

Harry Albright, Jr., CSEA counsel, and Harold Herzstein, CSEA regional attorney, also attended.

Mr. Flaumenbaum reported also that a 26 pay day period was expected for County employees and that action was hoped for on unemployment insurance.

Governor's Staff, CSEA Reps. Meet

Members of the Governor's staff and representatives of the Civil Service Employees Association met last week to discuss CSEA allegations of excessive political firings in the Rockefeller Administration and other matters pending between the Governor's office and the Association.

Both sides termed the talks "satisfactory" and said further discussions were pending.

William Ronan, secretary to the Governor; Budget Director T. Norman Hurd and Sol Corwin, assistant counsel to the Governor, met with Joseph Folly, CSEA first vice president; John T. DeGraff and Harry Albright, counsel to the Association.

Mrs. Fischer, TB Nursing Director, Has Retired

Mrs. Jean H. Fischer, Director of Nursing at Homer Polk's Tuberculosis Hospital for the past 12 years, retired from State service on September 23, 1959.

Mrs. Fischer has been an active member of the Zonta Club of Oneonta and the Tri-County Stamp Club. Her stamp collection is a varied and interesting one.

The hospital staff presented a bowl and candlesticks of Steuben glass and a lovely hybrid Cattleya orchid corsage as a farewell remembrance.

Mrs. Jane Costa, former Assistant Director of Nursing, has been appointed to succeed Mrs. Fischer.

Bulletin:

Schenectady Aides Win Raise

In a meeting with the Finance Committee of the Schenectady County Board of Supervisors late last week, representatives of the Schenectady County chapter of the Civil Service Employees Association were assured that a general raise would be forthcoming for all employees.

James Navarette, chapter president, reported that the raise would probably be in the form of an extra increment.

This increment would be in addition to any increment regularly due to an employee, Mr. Navarette said.

Monroe Chapter Wins Personal Leave; Salary and Other Benefits Under Negotiations

Monroe County employees have been granted five days personal leave annually as the result of efforts by the Monroe County chapter of the Civil Service Employees Association, Mrs. Ruth McFee, chapter president, announced.

Mrs. McFee told The Leader that the chapter is continuing to negotiate several salary and personnel practice improvements in the coming year.

Here are the main points, presented to the County's Board of Supervisors:

1. The need for upward revision of all salaries is apparent. An increase of $500 per employee across the board is recommended, plus appropriate adjustment of inequities in certain classifications already known to you.

2. The establishment without delay of agreements between the County of Monroe and Traveler's Insurance Company, for group health and accident insurance coverage on a payroll deduction basis as sponsored by the CSEA. Studies of various group insurance plans indicate conclusively that the coverage offered by this plan far surpasses any other group plan of which we have knowledge.

Deduction of Dues

3. Incorporation of payroll deduction of CSEA dues to implement the securing of the above insurance coverage.

4. Inclusion in the personal rules of permission for employees to take up to five days for personal leave, not chargeable to sick leave or vacation, as the need may arise. This leave is now permitted all state employees.

5. Extension of 4 weeks vacation to all employees with 15 years in County service.

6. Continue the 4 weeks vacation for all employees with 20 years of service with the County of Monroe.

7. Continue the present plan of the County paying one-half of the Blue Shield and Blue Cross Insurance.

The latest letter of Mr. Powers to the Budget Director relative to this matter follows:

"On July 1st, 1959 we wrote to you on behalf of our members employed on the Barge Canal, many of whom were denied vacations. We asked for the necessary appropriation to correct the situation so that these employees may be properly compensated for their lost vacation time.

"Under date of July 6th we received a letter from Mr. Lauber advising that our letter of July 1st was received while you were out of town but that he was asking his staff to look into the situation.

"So far as we know, we have heard nothing further relative to this matter and we are asking for advice as to whether the Division will arrange for an appropriation to compensate the employees involved for lost vacation time.

"We have written to the Superintendent of Public Works, Mr. McMorran, to advise him of our request to you for action or consideration of this matter and Mr. McMorran has assured us that all necessary data has been and will be forwarded to your Division in an effort to win approval of this request.

"We would appreciate your advice in this matter, so that we may advise the representatives of our Barge Canal Chapter who will be in Albany on October 13th for our Annual Convention at which time we are sure that the members involved will be bringing up inquiries concerning this matter."

Schechter Calls for Closer Ties Between Government And Private Industry

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12 — A strong plea for closer cooperation in personnel matters between government and industry was made here recently by New York City Personnel Director Joseph Schechter, who is also chairman of the New York City Civil Service Commission.

Mr. Schechter proposed the interchange of employees between government and industry as a new and effective means of promoting cooperation, and increasing the managerial and technical competence of both groups.

The proposal was made in an address delivered to delegates attending the 1959 International Conference on Public Personnel Administration sponsored by the Public Personnel Association and held at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel, October 4th through the 9th.

Mr. Schechter said the major function of a progressive personnel program is the recruitment, retention and development of qualified employees. He stressed the need for cooperation between public and private organizations in recruiting college undergraduates in shortage categories.

Referring to the keen competition between government and industry in college recruiting drives, Mr. Schechter said, "We cannot eliminate or even limit this competition in a free economy in time of peace, nor is it desirable that we do so. However, let me hasten to add that it is possible through voluntary agreements to turn this rivalry into ethical and reasonable competition. I believe that a reasonable set of ground rules and an attitude of mutual consideration will tend to 'civilize the battle'."

He also called for cooperative efforts in the development of a plan which would satisfy the present and future manpower needs of the country without having to high-pressure college undergraduates into making job commitments before reaching their senior year.

Wants Interchange

In his proposal for the interchange of employees between government agencies and private industry, Mr. Schechter recommended the transfer or exchanges of employees with specialized skills for an extended period of a year or more. In the case of government employees, a leave of absence without pay should be granted and their salaries should be paid by the firms to which they are assigned.

The same procedure would apply to employees of industry who are assigned to government agencies. The differences in salaries should be equitably adjusted and precautions taken to protect employees' pensions, seniority rights and other benefits.

"There is no doubt in my mind that an interchange of employees in personnel administration — recruitment, planning and research, public relations, classification, training and safety — would be beneficial to my organization, and to our industrial counterparts," Mr. Schechter added. He mentioned many other areas where such an exchange would be desirable, such as, the field of social work, hospital administration, engineering and architectural planning, accounting and auditing, and housing management.

City Largest Employer

New York City is the largest municipal employer of government workers in the world. It employs approximately 250,000 persons in over 2,000 job categories.

Mr. Schechter was appointed as the City's first Personnel Director and Chairman of the Civil Service Commission in 1954. Previously, he was counsel to the New York State Civil Service Commission and civil Service Department since 1941.

Kaplan Calls Closer Executive Tie Key to Good Civil Service

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12—A closer and more responsive relationship between the chief executive and the government personnel agency was advocated as the key to more effective civil service administration by H. Elliot Kaplan, President of the New York State Civil Service Commission.

"Sound and impartial administration of the civil service system depends more on the attitude of the executive than on the personnel agency itself," Mr. Kaplan said.

He spoke at the International Conference on Public Personnel Administration in San Francisco in the role of commentator following delivery of a paper by Dr. Frederick Mosher. Dr. Mosher is a professor at the Maxwell Graduate School of Citizenship and Public Affairs, Syracuse University. Immediately before his appointment last spring by Governor Nelson Rockefeller as head of New York State's central personnel agency, Mr. Kaplan headed a firm of management consultants and was a professor of public administration at New York University. He has served government at all levels over a long span of years.

Relationship Controversy

Mr. Kaplan recalled his experience in drafting a model civil service law for states some years ago in behalf of the National Civil Service League and the National Municipal League. He said he found then that one of the most controversial issues was the organization of the personnel agency and its relationship with the governor.

"If the governor or mayor is desirous of good administration he will support the efforts of his personnel agency," Mr. Kaplan said. "Without such sympathetic and actively demonstrated support, no personnel agency can hope to carry out its program effectively."

He pointed out that it is the chief executive who must carry the responsibility for leadership of his political party, and it is he who must account to the electorate for any mismanagement of the personnel agency and of other vital agencies of government for which the chief executive must be responsible to the electorate, he said.

Hilleboe Eulogizes Late Dr. Horton

The following statement was made by Dr. Herman E. Hilleboe, State Health Commissioner, after being informed of the death of Dr. Ralph Horton, 58, director of the State Health Department's Homer Folks Tuberculosis Hospital, Oneonta.

I am deeply grieved to hear of the death of my good friend and colleague, Dr. Ralph Horton. A physician who was always devoted to his work in the field of tuberculosis control, Dr. Horton had been director of Homer Folks Tuberculosis Hospital since 1935. He relinquished this post for a year when, in 1946, he was appointed general director of tuberculosis hospitals of the State Health Department. However, Dr. Horton felt he could be of greater help to tuberculosis patients if he could devote his efforts toward clinical aspects of this disease, and after his year of service, he returned as director of Homer Folks.

Dr. Horton was nationally known as an expert in clinical tuberculosis and was recognized as one of the outstanding leaders in the field of tuberculosis control.

During my 12 years as Commissioner of Health of New York State I have had many opportunities to seek the advise and counsel of Dr. Horton. He had always been of great help to me in problems relating to the clinical aspects of tuberculosis control.

I extend my deepest sympathy to his family for their great loss. Dr. Horton's many friends and colleagues also are deeply sorrowed by the loss.

New Bureau Set to Run U. S. Employees' Insurance And Retirement Plans

The Civil Service Commission has announced the establishment of a new Bureau of Retirement and Insurance which will administer the new Federal Employees Health Benefits Act, signed by President Eisenhower on September 28.

The bureau also will be responsible for administration of the Civil Service Retirement system and the Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance program, both previously part of the Bureau of Departmental Operations.

For the benefit of Federal employees in doubt as to the workings of the new law, the U. S. Civil Service Commission has released the following information. The details are not yet complete, as certain regulations remain to be drafted and arrangements with the various health plans have not been made.

More information will be released as soon as details are worked out. Federal employees will be fully informed in time to enroll for benefits before the law becomes effective in July, 1960.

Eligibility

Generally, all employees who are eligible for Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance are eligible for the new benefits, though the two are completely separate and the group life insurance is not required under the new law. Coverage will not be automatic, and employees will have to apply — the program is not compulsory.

Employees may enroll their families under the new program, and if they do it at the first opportunity there will be no age limits for either employees or families, and physical examinations will not be required. The employing offices will supply information regarding the exact date applications may be made.

There will be two different plans offered, the main difference between them being that one plan will cost less and offer fewer benefits. Employees will have their choice of plans, with many employees being offered a third choice, which will consist of joining employee-organization, group-practice prepayment, or individual-practice prepayment plans.

Cost of Plan

The new plans will cost less than present health plans offering similar benefits because the Government will be contributing part of the cost. In most cases the Government will pay approximately half the cost of the plan. The employees' cost of the plan will be paid through payroll deductions each pay period.

Under certain conditions the plan may be continued after retirement, and also, in case of the death of the employee, his family may continue the plan. The cost of the plan would remain the same, and the government would continue to contribute its share.

It is estimated that the Government's first-year contribution to employee health benefits under the new law will total about $115,000,000.

DENTISTS NAMED TO WELFARE POSITIONS

Welfare Commissioner James R. Dumpson has announced the appointment of Dr. Charles S. Fairclough and Dr. Meyer Hoffman to the Dental Advisory Board of the New York City Department of Welfare.

Dr. Fairclough practices in Manhattan and has previously been a clinic supervisor in the Department, and is well-known in the field of public health dentistry.

Dr. Hoffman, who practices in Brooklyn, has an outstanding reputation for his work in preventive dentistry, having specialized in Orthodontia for more than 30 years.

Secretaries In Demand At Colleges

Applications are now being taken for the position of college secretarial assistant, a job with the City of New York paying from $3,250 to $4,450 per year, with six annual increments of $200 each. Most jobs are in the borough of Manhattan.

Employees holding this title are eligible for promotion by examination to positions paying from $4,250 to $5,550 per year. There shall be a probationary period of one year for all appointees, during which they may be dismissed.

Applicants must be high school graduates with either four years of college or four years experience in general office work. Applicants who will meet the requirements by June 30, 1960, will be admitted to the examination. Duties will consist of specialized secretarial work and some general office work.

Although the job is with the City, applications will be made to the Commercial Office of the N.Y. State Employment Service, 1 East 19th Street, Manhattan, before October 27, the closing date. Applicants who apply in person will be given the test as soon as possible after reporting. Those who apply by mail should write to N.Y. State Employment Service, Unit 6G, 1 East 19th Street, New York 3, N.Y.

ST GEORGE FIRE DEPT. GROUP TO HOLD MEETING

The St. George Association of employees of the New York City Fire Department will hold its next regular meeting Tuesday, October 20, at 8:00 P.M., at the Tough Club, 243 West 14 Street, New York City.

The group has also announced its Annual Scholarship Dance, to be held Friday October 16, at 8:30 P.M., at Astorian Manor, 25-22 Astoria Blvd., Astoria, N. Y. Members are urged to attend the dance, the group's only fund raising affair of the year.

City is Hiring Stenos at $3,000

New York City needs stenographers and will pay them $3,000 a year to start. Applications will be accepted until the many positions open are filled, and this is not likely to happen soon.

Stenographers can earn up to $3,900 and there are many opportunities for advancement from that position to higher ones in the City Civil Service.

There are no formal education or experience requirements; applicants need only apply at the Commercial Office of the State Employment Service, 1 East 19th St., Manhattan, from 9:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M. weekdays, and arrange for interviews and the written and performance tests. The test may also be taken in high schools in New York City. The fee is $2.

After having passed the test applicants fill out a City application form, and file it, with the fee, in person at the Filing Section of the City Department of Personnel, 96 Duane Street, Manhattan, across the street from The Leader office.

Two Weeks to File For TA Prom. Exam

The examination for promotion to assistant foreman of structures, group E, in the New York City Transit Authority will be open for filing of applications until October 27.

The job pays $2.73 an hour, and will increase to $2.79.

Further information and application blanks may be obtained at the application section, City Department of Personnel, 96 Duane St., New York 7, N. Y., just west of Broadway, across from The Leader, two blocks north of City Hall.

Employees Eye Improved State Pension System

MEMBERS OF the State Retirement System are looking with increased interest toward possible improvements in the System next year through legislation.

Two important changes may get really active consideration this year — vested rights and the use of a variable annuity system.

The Civil Service Employees Association has been promoting the cause of vested rights for some years and there is a great possibility that their efforts will bear fruit in the forthcoming session of the Legislature. Important State officers and legislators are lending more willing ears to the argument that an employee earns the right to share in the State's portion of contribution to the System even though he should leave the service after a certain number of years.

Obtaining a variable annuity income that would ride the financial waves of economics more accurately is a matter that is in the consideration stage at present. It may be the answer to prevent shrinking of pension value during times of inflation. At any rate, the idea is highly interesting and public employees are giving it full study.

Grievance Machinery Is Policemen's Top Problem

NEW YORK CITY policemen have won their first round — via a court decision — to allow organization dues deducted from their paychecks. Final victory, now being sought by the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association, would enormously strengthen the policeman's position in insisting on certain improvements in his career.

Items such as higher salaries, greater uniform allowances and fringe benefits rate highly among the blue-coats but the number one issue every patrolman really wants settled is a matter of good grievance machinery supplemented by an effective right for appeal.

Police Commissioner Kennedy can be expected to stick to his stand on the quasi-military nature of the police force. The more entrenched his position becomes the more determined a strengthened employee organization will be to rid the police of this paternal attitude toward and handling of grievances.

A continued, hard-headed attitude towards impartial handling of grievances will eventually cause outside unions to consider organizing the police because they will have a real product to sell to prospective police members — the right to a fair hearing without prejudice.

We fear that Commissioner Kennedy will do nothing but lend support to their arguments by maintaining his current attitude on the issue.

"Handicapped an Asset" Says Army Chief

The director of civilian personnel for the First Army, Allen E. May, has helped signal the start of National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week, through Oct. 30, by pointing out that the Army, like big business, had found handicapped persons competent employees.

"Our experience," he said, "has been that such workers surpass the average non-handicapped persons in regularity of attendance, punctuality and cooperation."

He further pointed out that responsible positions were filled by handicapped persons in almost all activities except those in which the person could endanger his own safety or that of others.

Mr. May, who supervises the employment of over 8,000 Army civilian employees in the six New England states, New York and New Jersey, said First Army has a year-round policy to employ the handicapped wherever possible.

"In interviewing them," Mr. May continued, "we seek to determine their positive capacities rather than their limitations. We always give first consideration to a disabled veteran. Disabled persons are not looking for charity and have proven themselves when given a chance. One out of every ten persons working in this country is physically disabled."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

ASKS WHY SHE'S NOT ALLOWED TO WORK

Editor, The Leader:

Would anyone who is working for, or has worked for Civil Service, please help me understand the why's and why not's of County Civil Service?

I have recently had quite a surprise in regard to the County (Broome) Civil Service.

Do you necessarily lose your job as the result of an injury received while on the job?

Of course, I had already passed a Civil Service examination put out by New York State, which apparently does not count.

I didn't get fired, I didn't quit, I wasn't asked to resign, I didn't resign, I wasn't asked to sign any paper of resignation. I received no severance pay, but I have no job.

How do you figure that one out?

Mrs. Phoebe Fitch, R.N.
Johnson City, N. Y.

Law Cases

Sidney M. Stern, counsel, submitted to the New York City Civil Service Commission the following report on law cases:

JUDICIAL DECISIONS Appellate Division

Gulotta v Falk. Where there was adequate authority for answers given by civil service commission as the most acceptable answers in a multiple choice question, the court could not substitute its opinion for that of the commission because a difference of opinion might exist as to which of several answers was the most acceptable. (189 NYS 2nd 615)

Special Term

Morton v Murphy (Albany County). Petitioner, a veteran, was discharged from his position of Appraiser in the State Department of Taxation and Finance. The position is in the exempt class. He did not receive a hearing on charges. The court held the position to be that of a Deputy and thus petitioner is not entitled to the protection of Section 22(1) of the civil service law. 188 NYS 2nd 789.

Proceeding Instituted

Supreme Court (Albany County) Steger v Bligh. Petitioner seeks restoration to his position in the Division of Safety, Executive Department. He is an exempt volunteer fireman and claims that he cannot be removed without a hearing on charges. Respondent contends that Section 22 of the civil service law does not apply since his position is a temporary one. The court pointed out that a temporary position is one created for a period not exceeding six months but since petitioner was appointed to a civil defense position and has held this position since February 1, 1958, section 22 is applicable. (decided) 9.12.59.

Proceedings Instituted

Gershtenbleit v Schächter. Petitioners seek to prevent their alleged demotions without charges or hearing from position of Assistant Housing Manager.

Gekebre v Schächter. Petitioners, radio operators, seek to be reclassified into Part 38, Rule X and to receive prevailing rate.

Weissbrod v Felix. An Administrative Assistant in Department of Public Works seeks to be reclassified as Administrative Associate.

Brown v Schächter. An Administrative Assistant in the Law Department seeks reclassification to Administrative Associate.

Questions Answered On Social Security

My doctor won't let me work. I intend to apply for social security disability benefits. What evidence of my disability will I be asked to provide?

You will be given a medical report form to give to your doctor or to any hospitals, clinics, or other agencies where you have been treated for your disability. On the medical report form which the doctor, hospital or other agency fills out, they are asked to give your medical history, what they have found to be wrong, how severe the condition is, what medical tests have shown, what treatment you have received, and the results. Your doctor is not asked to decide whether or not you are "disabled" under the social security law. In deciding whether your disability is severe enough to keep you from engaging in any substantial gainful activity, a team of trained people — doctors and others who have had experience in judging disability — will consider all of the facts in your case, including your background, education, and training in addition to the medical reports.

My husband draws a benefit check of $98.00 per month. He works for a drugstore for $100. per month. In July he served as a juror and received $40. for his services. Will he be entitled to all of his checks for the year?

Yes. His services as a juror will not be counted in determining his total earnings for the year.

If I was involved in an accident and both my legs were broken, would I be considered disabled under the provisions of the Social Security Act?

Generally, you would not, because you would recover sufficiently to return to work.

Who decides whether or not I meet the disability requirements of the Social Security Act?

A team of trained people — doctors and others who have had experience in seeing the effects of disabling conditions upon people's ability to work — will consider all the facts in your case.

I will be 72 years of age the 15th of November. I applied for social security benefits in 1957, but I have never received any checks because I have had earnings of over $4,000 each year. Will I get all of my checks for the year I become 72?

No. You will only be entitled to checks for the month you reach age 72 and thereafter. Your total earnings during the entire year must be counted in determining how many checks are due you for the months before your 72nd birthday. If your earnings are over $2,000 for the year, you would not be due 10 checks — the checks for the months of January through October.

Where may I obtain more information about the disability provisions of the Social Security Act?

You may call, write, or visit the nearest office of the Social Security Administration and they will be glad to answer your questions or assist you in filing a claim. Social Security offices also have pamphlets explaining the disability provisions of the law. These pamphlets are free for the asking.

I am receiving social security and have a husband who is younger than I who has never been employed under social security. He gets a small veterans pension but I have been supporting him for 28 years. When he gets to be 65, would he be entitled to benefits on my account?

If your husband has received not less than one-half of his support from you in the year prior to the month you became entitled to social security benefits and has filed proof of such support within 2 years of that same month, he would become eligible for benefits when he becomes 65 years of age. We suggest you call at your local office and discuss the matter with them as soon as possible.

I was injured in an automobile accident. Is there some kind of booklet which explains how the disability part of the social security law operates?

Yes. Write or phone your social security district office, and ask for the pamphlet entitled, "If You Become Disabled." Your local office will be glad to discuss your case with you and to answer any questions you may have.

How long has domestic employment been covered by social security?

The current law has been in effect since January 1, 1955. Domestic employment has been covered since January 1951, however, the requirements necessary for coverage were different prior to January 1, 1955, than they have been since that date.

From Bottom to the Top in 51 Years

More than 100 staff members and former staff members of the Surrogate's Court met at a reception held recently at the Hotel Bossert to honor Benjamin N. Dorman, who has retired after 51 years of service to the court.

Guests included Surrogate Maximilian Moss, former Surrogate Roy M. D. Richardson, City Court Justices-elect Carmine Ventiera and Daniel Connolly, former Supreme Court Justice William R. Wilson, Public Service Commissioner Aaron L. Jacoby, Commissioner Hyman Wank (chairman of the Board of Assessors), Public Administrator Irving R. Rosenthal and Commissioner Albert M. Leavitt (chief clerk of the Surrogate's Court).

Mr. Dorman started in 1908 as a pen-copyist, the lowest clerical position in the Court, and served in every department, after appointment through civil service examination to many titles.

At the time of his retirement he was deputy chief clerk and clerk of the Surrogate's Court, the highest civil service position in the Court.

Members of Mr. Dorman's reception committee included Henrietta Ruderman, Sally Ann Healy, Robert J. Brown, Margaret Travers, Edward V. Dodd and Jesse Krauss.

FIRST TRUST COMPANY OPENS COLONIE BRANCH

Mr. Edward S. Rooney, President and Chairman of the Board announced that First Trust Company has opened its new Colonie Branch. The new larger building, located 1230 Central Avenue, has room for eight tellers and was built to better accommodate the bank's present customers and to keep pace with the active, fast growing community of Colonie, Mr. Rooney said. It replaces the original Colonie Office which has been located at 1160 Central Avenue since September 15, 1949. The new Colonie Branch, designed by Henry L. Blatner, Albany architect, uses steel and glass in a modern style, has year-round air conditioning, carpeting and modern lighting. It is one of six offices in the Albany area and is easily identified by a large clock sign which has become a familiar sight at many First Trust locations. There is customer parking for thirty-five cars adjoining the new structure which was built by Marinello Construction Company, Inc. The branch is headed by John F. Lucey, Assistant Treasurer who has been Manager since it opened in 1949.

New Police Must Have Proper Training

Policemen hired by counties or municipalities in New York State after July 1, 1960 will have to complete a state approved training course, the International City Managers' Association reports.

An eight-member council, composed of representatives of the State Sheriff's Association and the State Association of Police Chiefs, the New York City police commissioner and three others named by the Governor, will recommend standards for training courses needed for promotion as well as initial appointment.

The council's executive director, to be named by the Governor, will certify training courses and advise and assist in their development.

OUR WINDOW ART GALLERY

Ever glance into the glass front at PETIT PARIS? It's like a trip to the French capital. Rare old French scenes of the metropolis bordering the Seine, hand-painted plates picturing the famous boulevards and avenues, settings for a dramatization of Flaubert or Anatole France. What has all this to do with a restaurant? Well, nothing if you believe atmosphere is unimportant. But to a lot of people it is important. And that's what brings them to PETIT PARIS. Not only French cuisine, food cooked and flavored as only Monsieur the Chef can prepare it, but environment as French as the Madeleine or the Palais Royale. Deputy Tax Commissioner Arthur S. Hirsch is shown presenting a Certificate of Merit Award to Benjamin Cohen, an employee of the New York State (Brooklyn) Tax Office, for several suggestions on improving the processing of delinquent tax cases and the revision of forms. Looking on are Assistant District Tax Supervisor James A. Scurry (left) and Income Tax Administrative Supervisor Irving Levine.

ACTIVITIES OF EMPLOYEES THROUGHOUT NEW YORK STATE

Insurance Fund

At a recent meeting of the State Insurance Fund Chapter of the Civil Service Employees Association, the executive board voted to endorse and support the candidacy of a chapter member, Abraham Schwartz, for Labor Department representative in the coming statewide elections. It was resolved that President Irwin Schlossberg, who is also Chairman of the Metropolitan Conference, bring Mr. Schwartz's name before that body and request that the Conference also endorse him. After a detailed discussion of all candidates in the forthcoming election of officers, it was voted that the Chapter endorse and recommend to its members to vote for the following: Henry Shemin, President; Dave Schultes, Second Vice-President; Vernon Tapper, Third Vice-President; Grace Nulty, Fourth Vice-President; Angelo Coccaro, Fifth Vice-President; Ken Valentine, Treasurer; and Dolores Fussell, Secretary.

State U. to Install Dr. Hamilton Oct. 29

ALBANY, Oct. 12 — Dr. Thomas H. Hamilton will be officially installed as president of the State University of New York at a ceremony to be held Oct. 29 at 8:30 P.M. The installation will take place at Page Hall, State University College of Education at Albany.

Frank C. Moore, chairman of the University's Board of Trustees, will be the installing officer. The principal speakers will be Governor Rockefeller and Dr. Hamilton.

Greetings will be conveyed to the new president by representatives of the Board of Regents, the local councils and boards of trustees of the University's colleges, the heads of the colleges, the faculties, and the student body.

Among those participating in the academic procession will be representatives of other colleges and universities and educational, scientific, and professional societies.

Dr. Hamilton, who took office on August 1, was formerly Vice President for Academic Affairs at Michigan State University. A native of Marion, Ind., he was graduated from DePauw University, and received his A.M. and Ph.D. degrees at the University of Chicago. He served as a naval officer in World War II.

Syracuse

The Syracuse Chapter of the Civil Service Employees Association held its first fall meeting at the Drumlins Country Club on Sept. 21. A report on the Central Conference at Ithaca was given by Tom Ranger. The Conference was also attended by Ray Castle, Peter Volmes, Catherine O'Connell and Mrs. Tom Ranger. Members heard interesting talks by Henry Shemin and Charlotte Clapper on their respective candidacies for President and Secretary of the Association.

Many of the candidates for statewide organization offices attended the chapter's clambake, which was held on Sept. 13 at Manlius Rod and Gun Club and enjoyed the lavish clambake menu with over 100 members of the chapter. Mary McCarthy of social welfare was general chairman. Michael Vadala of commerce was in charge of tickets, and Arlene Darrow of Labor was in charge of entertainment.

Dr. Philip Lichtenberg, Associate Social Psychologist of the Mental Health Research Unit, has co-authored a book on "Motivation for Child Psychiatry Treatment" due to be published in December.

Agnes Weller, chapter secretary, has transferred from the division of parole to the board of mediation office in Syracuse. Eleanor Egan, formerly of social welfare, has accepted a senior stenographer position in the Labor Department office. Both were honored by their former co-workers. The party for Miss Weller was held at Birches Restaurant in DeWitt on Sept. 28, and the one for Miss Egan at Tubbert's Restaurant in Syracuse on Sept. 22.

Newark State School

Newark State School held a surprise party on September 22 in honor of Mrs. Melanie Purdy of Philadelphia, former head attendant at Newark State School. The party was held at La Cantina, Lyons, New York.

Among those present were: Mrs. Edna Van DeVelde; Mrs. Geraldine Collins and her daughter, Mrs. Mary Collins DeJohn; Mrs. Mary Lane; Mrs. Anna L. Verdow; Mrs. Bessie Darrow; Mrs. Ruth Roberts; Mrs. Helen Banckert; Mrs. Florence Coomber; Mrs. Marie Donaldson; Miss Vera Pallister; and Mrs. Marguerite Mechie. Much pleasure was experienced in exchanging stories of the past. It is interesting to note that the group had an aggregate of 366 years of state service, or an average of 28.2 years per person.

Mrs. Genevieve Wahl, occupational therapy instructor, left on Sept. 27 for a three-month training course at Marcy State Hospital. All of the personnel of the academic department attended the Wayne County Teachers Conference at Lyons Central School on Sept. 25. John W. Thomas, institution education supervisor, was the chairman of the section for special education teacher.

Mr. Thomas and George E. Bracy, senior institution teacher, were at Rome State School on Sept. 26 to attend a meeting of the executive council of the Association of Mental Hygiene Educators of New York State. The primary purpose of this newly-formed organization is the improvement of the effectiveness of education programs for the mentally retarded through improved communication between personnel engaged in these programs. Its membership is open to the director of mental hygiene educational services and all who are under his supervision, including institution education directors, institution education supervisors, institution teachers and vocational instructors at state schools and state hospitals in New York State.

Cattaraugus

Cattaraugus County Chapter's board of canvassers, Edward Connors, chairman, James Keech, Beatrice Hennessy, Lucille Cheseboro, and Jeanne Aldridge, reported the following officers were elected for the coming year at a meeting held at Salamanca, N. Y.: Margieann Kinney, president; Joseph Sokolowski, first vice-president; Davis G. Bishop, second vice-president; Elsie Beck, secretary; Zella M.

CORRECTION CORNER

By JACK SOLOD

Watch Out For Phony Petitions

A so-called petition is being circulated among new correction employees in our department calling for equalization of pay. This is to alert all officers this is not a petition but authorization for a New York City law firm to represent these officers in court to effect equalization of pay. Any and all lawyers fees resulting from such action become an obligation of the signers of this paper.

The paragraph heading specifically reads: "The undersigned gives authority to this law firm to act as my agent". Know what you sign, don't be taken in by pie-in-the-sky innuendos.

Senator Herb Sorin remembered by Civil Service for his right to counsel law at disciplinary hearings for all state workers, has just been appointed a Magistrate in Kings County. Good luck Judge.

Scuttlebut has Warden Martin retiring and Principal Keeper Wilkins as acting warden pending establishment of a new list.

Tony Miller power house employee at Woodbourne retired last month and passed away before receiving his first retirement check.

Judge Sam Leibowitz of Kings County says the Russians have a good penal system. Decent food and lodging and special quarters for "good" prisoners where their wives can visit them. The judicial system is a real stiff according to the Judge.

Governor Rockefeller's appointment secretary, dynamic Carl Spad, says: "You got civil service problems—bring them up, we'll listen".

Smart political insiders say there will be a reduction in State taxes this coming fiscal year. Budgetary requests from all State agencies are being fine combed.

Don Buchanan, president of Woodbourne Chapter, and his wife are touring Scotland.

Next years annual C.S.E.A. dinner will be held in N.Y. City. Either the Statler or Ambassador hotels.

Notwithstanding that hollering and griping by a few at Napanoch Prison, Supt. Charles McKendrick is as solid as that Prudential Life Insurance rock.

Never before has so much campaign literature gone out for a C.S.E.A. election. Some of it looks like a real professional job. I predict close to 35,000 ballots will be cast.

C.S.E.A. looking for 2 more field representatives, if you think you have what it takes get your application in now. Starting pay is $5,800 with lots of opportunity for travel around New York State.

Happy new year!

Schnell, treasurer and delegate; and Arvilla E. Brown, Roy Campbell, Clara Harris, Myron P. Klink, John Panado, Anna Rae Present, Edward Ward, directors.

A Program Committee, Barbara Pyles, Chairman, Joseph Sokolowski, and Theodore Myers, was appointed to make arrangements for the next general meeting to be held Thursday, Oct. 22, and dinner at the L'Alcove Castle Restaurant, Olean, N. Y. Members may bring guests to this meeting.

Myron Klink, Chairman of the Legislative Committee, informed the group of resolutions pertaining to county groups to be presented to the Delegates at the annual meeting in Albany.

CSEA CANDIDATES WIND UP SPEAKING CAMPAIGN

Moving toward the end of the election campaign for office in the Civil Service Employees Association, these five candidates presented their platforms at a meeting of the Capital District CSEA Conference in Albany. From left are Deloras Fussell, who seeks the secretary post; Ted Wenzl, candidate for treasurer; Charlotte Clapper, running for re-election as secretary, and Joseph Feily and Henry Shemin, candidates for president.
