HOMEROOM NEWS

Homeroom 233 has started banking this semester. Sixteen members are banking now, but they all plan to bank later in the year.

In addition to this activity, the members of Homeroom 233 are rehearsing three times a week for their minstrel show.

Homeroom 228 is planning a Washington's Birthday Party to be held on February 23.

Homeroom 135 had a Valentine party, Wednesday, with a Valentine box, refreshments, and games.

Homeroom 121 is writing plans showing "How to Make a Successful Homeroom". The results will be handed to Professor Sayles.

Homeroom 127 has planned a debate on the question: "Should we have Junior Licenses?"

Homeroom 129 has decided that they will have no dues for this semester. The class decided to have a party on Valentine's Day.

"ANNUAL ANTICS"

"Annual Antics" is slowly but surely approaching. I am sure we all want it to be a success. However, we must have the cooperation of all the students.

If we all attend our gym classes regularly and do what is expected of us, we need not be afraid of failure. Every girl could show good sportsmanship by taking part in a dance whether she likes that dance or not.

The "Annual Antics" will certainly be a success if everyone does as he or she is expected to do.

A NEW SEMESTER

Let's all breathe a sigh of relief. I'm sure that everyone is glad that examinations are over. "The day is done, and our work is done." This sounds as if we could all lie down on our jobs, doesn't it? To that quotation above we might add that another day has begun. The second semester is here with a flourish. Let's make this semester an N. R. A. for Milne, by doing better than we did last term.

JUNIOR NEWS TO HAVE LITERARY SUPPLEMENT

Beginning with the next issue, there will be an additional page to the Junior News. This literary section will contain poems and original stories. The members of the Newspaper Club who will edit this page are Milla Hall, Ethel Fasholdt, Sylvia Rypins, Frances Seymour, Virginia Tripp, Elizabeth Simmons, and Billy Saunders.

TEAM EXPRESSES THANKS

Coach Baker, Coach Bush, and members of the Milne Junior High School basketball team wish to express their sincerest thanks to Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hawkins, who paid the bus fare to Scotia for the "Juniors".

HI-Y CLUB TO ORDER EMBLEMS

The Hi-Y Club is planning to order emblems with its insignia for its members, according to John Hawkins, the president of the club. The club, which meets every Tuesday, has been going swimming and is learning new diving tricks. The members are planning new activities for the future.

DANCING CLUB TO START WEDNESDAY

The dancing club sponsored by Miss Mieczek will start Wednesday, February 21. So far the club has about fifteen members. The club is planning to entertain the Junior High School with an assembly program. The members of the club are planning a party to be held during the year.

QUESTION BOX

Question: Does Milne High School have orderly conduct?

Janet Bremer: No, because too much noise is made during lunch hour.

Seldon Knudson: Yes, I think the conduct is rather orderly even though there is a little too much noise at times.
