

Education Council To Administer Teacher Exams

The American Council on Education will prepare and administer its ninth annual program of examinations which are designed to measure certain abilities, knowledges, and interests associated with teaching as a professional activity. New examinations are prepared annually by prominent educators so that the materials will be sensitive to new developments in education and representative of outstanding professional thinking.

Teachers and teachers-in-training may apply to take these examinations for purpose of self-evaluation, and to meet the requirements of school systems and colleges that participate in the program. All inquiries and applications should be made before Christmas vacation. Arrangements for setting up examining centers are being made at the present time. Individuals who wish to apply to take the National Teacher Examinations, or who is interested in securing further information about the program may consult Dr. Elizabeth Morris in Room 10.

RPI To Award Degrees In Cooperation With State

RPI, in cooperation with State College and the State Department of Education, has devised a plan to help meet the nation's needs for more and better teachers in Science, technology, Mathematics, and vocational education. Livingston W. Houston, President of RPI, thinks this plan will fit in with the national government's program for the development of atomic energy and other scientific advance.

Under this plan, which is described as the only one of its kind, RPI will confer two degrees which have not been offered before: Bachelor of Science in Vocational Education and Master of Science in Education.

Students will take courses in engineering, applied science, mathematics, drawing, industrial and technical education and in general subjects by attending evening, Saturday and summer courses set up at RPI for that purpose.

Brief Notes

Mrs. John M. Sayles has given the Alumni Association a framed photograph of Dr. Sayles, former President of the College, which has been placed in the Pine Room in Pierce Hall.

The Pine Room was furnished in 1935 by the faculty and students of Milne School in honor of Dr. Sayles, then principal of Milne School.

Beverly Bistoff, '48, President of Press Bureau, has announced that the Bureau will sponsor a radio program November 11, from 3:45 to 4:00 P. M. on Station WROW. The subject under discussion will be "Strengthening the Teaching Profession Today."

According to Nancy Walsh, '48, Business Manager of the Pedagogue, today will be positively the last day to purchase a yearbook.

The program is in honor of National Teacher Education Week and will be the second of a series. Those on the panel are Dr. Robert Frederick, Director of Teacher Education; Dr. Vivian C. Hopkins, Instructor in English; Mr. Paul Bulger, Coordinator of Field Services; and Catherine Donnelly, Phyllis Wittpen and Stuart Campbell, Juniors.

Petition Council For Recount Of "Who's Who" Ballots

The director shall count all ballots. All ballots must be kept until one week after the ballots have been made public. According to this item if any of the ballots have been destroyed, the election automatically becomes void.

Activity Records Due Soon

Dean Stokes has requested that all students who were not in assembly last Friday and did not fill out the activities sheet come to her office and fill one out as soon as possible. These sheets are important as they are used for reference by the faculty, by Myskania and for teacher applications.

Directory Cover By Donnelly

Beverly Pree, '48, Editor of the Directory, has announced that the cover submitted by Catherine Donnelly, '49, was chosen for this year's edition. The proofs will be posted next week and students are urged to check the list for corrections.

Albany Schools Open To Public

During the week of November 9 to 15, the Albany public schools in observance of American Education Week, will open their doors to the public and invite everyone to visit them on this occasion. Special programs have been arranged and every parent and prospective teacher may take advantage of this opportunity to obtain a bird's eye view of the American educational system.

American Education Week has received the highest cooperation from Albany merchants who have provided window space for exhibits in the down-town area. Radio programs have been scheduled throughout the week over stations WROW and WABY one of which will be devoted to a panel discussion with members of the State College Faculty.

By bringing education to the fore this occasion serves to remind the public "The Schools are Yours"—the theme for American Education Week.

MUSIC COUNCIL TO SPONSOR CONCERT TONIGHT

Eddy To Discuss Marshall Plan In Assembly

Change Big-8 Program; Add List To Directory

Assembly this morning will feature Dr. Sherwood Eddy, author, lecturer and world traveler, who will speak on "The United States and the Marshall Plan." Dr. Eddy, author of thirty-five volumes on international, social and religious questions, has first-hand knowledge of many of the battlefields and leaders of the two World Wars. Graduated from Yale in 1891, he went to India at his own expense, and worked among students there for fifteen years; he has spoken in several hundred colleges in all parts of the United States, Europe and Asia.

At the Student Council meeting in the Lounge Wednesday night, a new item was decided to be added to the Directory. The item will be known as "Who To See" and will consist of a list of the names of persons to be contacted for various reasons necessary for State functions.

Thus far they are: Insurance, Donald Langsley, '48; use of the public address system, Dr. Floyd Henrickson, Assistant Professor of Education; rivalry rules and dates, Maria Mieras, '48, or Myskania; Assembly absences, Anthony Prochillo, '50; Lost and Found, Renee Harris, '50; prior approval, Pearl Pless, '49; activities dates, Ellen C. Stokes, Dean of Women, or Mrs. Annette Malseed; class dues, the class treasurer; lost student tax tickets, Nancy Walsh, '48, or Dr. Edward L. Cooper, Assistant Professor of Commerce; Assembly announcements, place announcement on sheet on Husted bulletin board; motions brought before Assembly, Student Council meeting on Wednesday nights; to speak in Student Council or bring matter before the Council, class presidents or Alice Prindle Walsh, '48; mimeograph, Susan Miller, '50; orphan work, Charles Miller, '49; and use of rooms, Mrs. Annette Malseed.

Instead of the "Big-8" productions performed in previous years, there will now be "Big-4" productions, all under the auspices of Student Council. The Big-4 program will consist of productions by Sophomore and freshmen classes, the Christmas program and State Fair.

Four Houses Reach Quota In Chest Drive

The contest among group houses sponsored by Campus Chest ended Monday noon with a tie between four group houses. Alpha Epsilon Phi, Kappa Delta, St. Thomas More, and Syddum Hall were the first to get their quota of one hundred percent donation filled at $1.00 per person. Prizes will be awarded by Helmut Engel, '56, this morning in Assembly.

The emphasis this week will be on the Commuters' Drive. Commuters, which include in this case anyone not living in a group house, include over 650 students. A group of canvassers, each with a list of twenty-five commuters, is making individual contacts. The drive will continue until Friday, November 21.

Today from 12 to 12:30 in the Commons, Campus Chest will sponsor a Chinese auction. Cliff Thorne, '49, will auction off the "Campus Chest."

On Thursday, November 20, at 3:30 P. M. in Room 20, the Academy Award winning movie, "Seeds of Destiny," will be shown. The movie outlines the work of the World Student Service Fund in Europe and Asia, and shows education as it now exists abroad.

Twink Surprises College With Brand New Husband

Monday night the phones started buzzing, and suddenly astonished gasps broke forth all over Albany. "Twink! Not you? When did it happen? Well, where will you be living?" It's not Twink anymore though. It's Mrs. Don Walsh... a few feet of personality and President of Student Association. "It seems that married Presidents are getting to be a habit at State College."

In response to all the queries that greeted her, Twink replied, "October 18... in Peekskill." As for a place to live, Mr. and Mrs. Walsh are now keeping house in their own apartment as of Tuesday. It may not be very big, but in this case, does it really matter?

News To Enlarge Reporting Staff With Jrs., Srs.

Definite action to enlarge the editorial staff of the NEWS was taken by the NEWS Board at a meeting last Wednesday.

In order to clarify the situation, a new plan will become effective this year. Three reporters will be chosen from the Junior class and three from the Senior class. These people will act as advisors to the Sophomore reporters, and cover special assignments. In past years, people who have worked on the News for two years were dropped when the Junior editors were chosen. The new system will eliminate this waste of experience through the appointment of Junior reporters.

The NEWS Board will select the six special reporters and six Sophomore Desk editors next week. Any Junior or Senior interested in reporting, should submit his name to the Editor of the State College NEWS, if possible, before Wednesday of this week. The editor may be contacted by dropping a note in the NEWS mailbox, opposite the women's locker rooms.

To Hold Clinic For Chest X-rays

Compulsory chest x-rays will be given by the Albany County Tuberculosis Association on November 20 and 21, in Room 107, Draper, according to Milton G. Nelson, Dean and Acting President.

It is required that within these two days, all students in the college appear for their x-rays. In order to accomplish this, it will be necessary to report to Room 107 during their first free period. There will be no fee, as the examination is considered an essential part of the State program to eradicate tuberculosis.

A request has been made for girls to wear plain sweaters without buttons or jewelry and the fellows to wear shirts without buttons on the pockets.

Bulger Visits High Schools

Paul Bulger, Coordinator of Public Relations, has announced that he will travel to several high schools throughout the state in a program designed to stimulate interest in State College.

Today, Mr. Bulger is at Katonah High School, where he is showing the film "State College." On November 20, he will have the same program at Oneida. Nyack will be visited November 24.

Stokes', Peterson To Entertain In Piano, Violin Concert Tonight

Program Offers English Melodies, "Herodiate" Aria

Page Hall will be the scene of a concert sponsored by Music Council, tonight at 8:30 P. M. The concert will feature Dr. Charles F. Stokes, violinist; Margaret Anderson Stokes, pianist; and Mr. Karl A. B. Peterson, bass-baritone. This will be the fourth annual appearance of the Stokes' in an ensemble program locally, whereas Mr. Peterson will be making his first public appearance in Albany at this event. No admission will be charged.

The program will consist of a group of old English melodies and the famous aria "Vision Fugitive," from the opera "Herodiate," by Massenet, rendered by Mr. Peterson; Grieg's F major sonata, Opus 8, and the Sibelius Sonata, Opus 80, performed by Dr. Stokes; and five songs of Schubert given by Mrs. Stokes. The violin sonatas performed by Dr. Stokes are chamber music works and consequently rarely performed in Albany; they are Scandinavian pieces.

Previous to his position as Professor of Music at State, Dr. Stokes was Director of the Instrumental Department, Musical Education at the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, Cincinnati, Ohio; he also attended the University of Cincinnati. At present he is first violin player and also assistant conductor of the Albany Symphony Orchestra. Mrs. Stokes has graduated from the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music and also attended the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia. For one year prior to her marriage she was Director of Music at the El Paso School for Girls in El Paso, Texas. Both Dr. and Mrs. Stokes appeared in many concerts before and after their marriage both in the West and in the South. Mr. Peterson was an undergraduate at Washburn University, Kansas, and took his master's degree and doctorate work at Columbia University.

Moreno Reveals Psychodrama To Capacity Audience In Page

By SARAH CARUSO "Paris was supposedly my objective for tonight, but I'm very glad I'm here," said Dr. J. L. Moreno as he addressed a capacity audience of State College students, IGC conference delegates, and Albanyans at the presentation of the sociodrama in Page Hall last Saturday night.

According to Miss Zerka Torem, Dr. Moreno's assistant, the sociodrama is a form of the psychodrama; yet it is more general and deals with the corrective aspects of a person's life. There are three types of the sociodrama: exploratory, diagnostic and therapeutic. The exploratory type was presented Saturday night in order to find out if the participant had a problem. The diagnostic type is used to determine the nature of the problem while the therapeutic method solves the problem. The latter is used very often with people who are neurotic.

The proof that the conference was a success lies in the fact that each delegate returned to his respective college with specific plans.

Frats To Sponsor Weekend Parties

"Club 51" and "Kappa Delta Rho Manor" will be the themes for the informal dances to be sponsored this weekend by Potter Club and KDR, respectively. Potter Club's dance will take place at the Scully American Legion Post tonight at 8 P. M. KDR will hold its dance Saturday night in the Ingle Room from 8 to 12 P. M.

John King, '50, General Chairman of the Potter Club dance, has announced that girls who plan to attend the Stokes-Peterson concert first should sign out for the party, in order that they may have 2:00 hours.

Committees for the KDR dance have been released by Robertson Baker, '49, Chairman. They are as follows: Refreshments, Raymond Verrey, Graduate; Dale Wood and Glen DeLong, Seniors; Music, James Brophy, '49; Decorations, William Baldwin, '48; Favors, Jack Brophy, '49; Entertainment, Clifton Thorne, '49.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton A. Butler will act as chaperones.

AD To Present Plays Tuesday

Plays directed by Everson Kinn and Harold Mills, Juniors, will be featured Tuesday, at 8:30 P. M. in Page Hall. The offerings of the Advanced Dramatics Class will include the Elizabethan tragedy "Dr. Faustus" by Christopher Marlowe, and a one act melodrama.

The cast of "Dr. Faustus," directed by Mills, includes: Faustus, Gifford Wingate, '49; Mephistophills, Warren Reich, '49; Valdes, Donald Ely, '51; Cornelius, Frederick Knoezer, '51; Wagner, Robert Wilcox, '49; Old Man, Richard Clark, '50; Helen of Troy, Phyllis Witt Penn, '50.

The melodrama, directed by Kinn, takes place in prison a short time before an execution. The prisoner about to die refuses to divulge his identity. "The setting," Kinn says, "is very unusual and has not been done previously at State." Members of the cast are: Tony Prochillo, '50; Mary A. Cheatham, '49; Stewart Campbell, '48; George Christie, '49; Thomas Lisker, '49; and Robert Lynch, '48.

Time Will Tell

State College has been the possessor of a unique institution called Rivalry almost as long as it has had freshman and Sophomore classes.

This year a great question has arisen—not as to the form but the spirit—namely, where is it? Rivalry has always been something that Juniors and Seniors look at interestedly and, at the same time, reminisce about their "good old days".

Will this year be different? Definitely, if last Friday in assembly, is to be a typical example. Apparently the only one who knew any of the words to the songs in the entire frosh class was the songleader.

Admittedly, it was near the lunch hour but come now—was it lunch or a cigarette and the Commons that produced the sudden anxiety? Some members of our illustrious student body even went to the pains of almost annihilating the marshals in their haste to get out of the auditorium.

We often sit in history classes here and smirkingly discuss those ignorant masses of humanity who take no interest in their local, state, or national government. We pride ourselves because we are cognizant of the fact that the backbone of democracy is an intelligent and alert electorate.

No? The majority of the members of this Student Association sit in assembly merely because they will have to take a cut if not there. The government with which we have the closest contacts, our own school government is the one in which we apparently take the least interest.

The most common complaint seems to be, "Assemblies are boring to one such as I." Naturally, when you have no interest in them and exert no efforts in their behalf. At the risk of being repetitious of other editorials, you get out of a thing precisely what you put into it.

Dean Nelson allows Student Association the widest latitude in planning and conducting their assemblies. If we did not have such a self-governing body, cries of disapproval and dissension would be heard far and wide.

Whether last week's fiasco with the Rivalry song was a result of boredom in assembly or a lack of spirit on the part of the frosh and Sophomores, no one knows. The two lower classes never lacked spirit in previous years—the two lower classes must have spirit now—somewhere. At any rate, they will have other chances to display it under more favorable circumstances in the near future. Here's hoping!

Blind Man's Bluff

By EUGENE McLAREN

This Reporter is given the widest latitude as author of this column, although his viewpoints do not necessarily reflect those of the STATE COLLEGE NEWS.

Congratulations are in order this week to Inter-Group Council, and Joy Simon in particular, for the extremely successful conference held here last week.

Pertaining to last week's assembly, equal blame goes to the freshmen, for not knowing their songs and poor organization; the student body, for inexcusable rudeness and lack of cooperation; and Student Council for trying to schedule both a speaker of unknown lung capacity and the freshmen sing at the same assembly.

Miscellaneous about the coming Christmas semi-formal should be cleared up. First it is semi-formal. Second, it is for all the college, its main purpose being to hold a dance in which the whole college can participate and attend.

Orchids to Gamma Kap for keeping its open house last week a strictly State College affair. Several men from other colleges were politely refused admittance.

Best wishes to President "Twink", now Alice Prindle Walsh, on her recent marriage. The happy event occurred on October 18 in Peekskill, with the lucky man being Don Walsh, formerly of the class of '45 here at State, and now attending Albany Law School.

There will be a change of managers of the State College Co-op come January first. Mrs. Bull is resigning due to the fact that her husband has received a permanent commission in the Air Forces.

The Who's Who situation has degenerated to such an extent that it's almost impossible to look at it rationally. The importance of being in Who's Who has been blown up all out of proportion to its true value.

Miss Shorday, manager of the cafeteria, feels that the criticism expressed in the NEWS poll last week is unjustified in that she feels that the students polled were for the most part uninformed as to the actual situation which exists.

Miss Shorday, manager of the cafeteria, feels that the criticism expressed in the NEWS poll last week is unjustified in that she feels that the students polled were for the most part uninformed as to the actual situation which exists.

This is in the form of a complaint. For the first time in years, some attention is being given by the administration to the conditions of safety and health in the lower hall of Draper. Smoking has been prohibited, anything that might lead to congestion has been eliminated.

While on the subject of health, how about the temperature of the rooms we spend most of our time in. It ranges anywhere from below freezing in the corner rooms of Draper, to boiling heat in Richardson.

Baseball stuck is head out from under its winter wraps for a few minutes the other day when we had the pleasure of a chat with Dick Fowler of the Philadelphia A's.

Dick Fowler is one-third of the A's starting trio of Marchildon-Christopher-Fowler, considered one of the better hurling staffs in the American League.

Moving into the middle game of the match, the State kickers came out on top with a 150 pin edge. Hank Farley's neat 224, high single of the match, paced the State pin-men.

Turning to more personal facts we asked Dick just how he threw his stuff and what his most dependable delivery was. "You soon learn in the major leagues," he answered, "that the baseline coaches will call your pitches for the batter unless you use the same grip for every pitch."

Hockey Victory Goes To British WAA Chooses Thru The Hoop

On Armistice Day a crowd of about 1500 people, representing all the colleges in the vicinity, gathered at Emma Willard school to watch the amazing British team defeat a womens' team from Mohawk: 16-0.

The British team plays a "heads down" game. It is fast and aggressive play which never gives opposition a chance to get on the offensive. Playing with the forward section of their sticks, the English team, composed of women in their middle ages, pushed forward with long, hard drives; playing to pre-arranged positions they had their plays down to a "T", and never made a lost motion.

Mary Dix, center-forward for the team of the boyish haircuts, was by all odds the outstanding star. She scored, perhaps, 10 of the goals and led her line in perfect formation.

Although Mohawk has one of the foremost teams in this section of the country, they were able to do no more than the other teams which the English girls have met. They have met approximately twelve teams since arriving in this country and no team has been able to score against them.

Both men and women will meet in Rivalry Volleyball, on November 19th in the Page Hall Gym. This is the first time either of these events have been played for points, and the first time the men have engaged in this activity at all.

"Freedom Train Worth Wait," Say Tourists of History Display

By COLETTA FITZMORRIS

After what seemed hours of waiting in the cold, the Freedom Train opened its doors to the public and a few hundred of the thousands that visited it last Tuesday, November 11, started their tour through the three cars.

In keeping with the theme, the paintings on the wall depicted such scenes as the Battle of Bunker Hill and Independence Hall in Philadelphia. These murals were painted between the glass-in-cases which contained the valuable documents of our history. This collection began with Columbus' letter to Queen Isabella requesting permission to set sail for the New World, and the last documents were those that dealt with affairs that have been discussed at the United Nations Conferences.

At one point in the tour, a young girl pointed to the copy of the amendment which granted women suffrage and asked her father what it was. To this, the bright man replied, "That's the only mistake in the Constitution."

Besides the papers that were on display, there was also a section dedicated to the history of our

Juniors To Order Rings Wed.

Juniors of State College will be able to place their orders for class rings Thursday, and Wednesday, December 3, according to Robert Wilcox, '49, President of the Junior Class, between the hours of 10:10 A. M. and 2:00 P. M. A $3.00 deposit will be required with each order.

Accelerated Sophomores who plan to graduate in 1949 may sign up for the rings at that time.

When interviewed by your reporter, those who were lucky enough to make the tour shared the opinion that it was well worth the waiting, and that they wished every citizen had had the opportunity to review their country's history in such an interesting display.

Reach Decision On Sr. Hours

The final decisions on Senior hours and hours for special functions have been announced by Vivian Hillier, '48, President of Residence Council.

Three o'clock hours will prevail for those girls attending the Gridiron Frolic at Union tonight, and the Interfraternity Ball at RPI tomorrow night.

Senior hours will be accumulative for one month starting in November. Any Senior hours not taken to date are cancelled. As an example: If a girl in December wants to use her November Senior hours she may, but may not use her October hours during November as they are automatically void.

"State College News The Best" Says Gronewold At Conference

"The State College NEWS is definitely the best of the teacher college papers," said Dr. Benjamin F. Gronewold, English professor at Buffalo State, at the first conference of the New York State Teacher College Press Association which was held in Buffalo last weekend. More than 50 students and faculty members representing the newspaper and yearbook staffs of the state teacher colleges attended this conference at which Jean Pulver, '49, Associate Editor of the NEWS, was present.

The evaluation of the college papers at a clinic held in the presence of guest advisors from Buffalo colleges, and reporters from Buffalo city papers proved the worth of the Albany paper. The most outstanding qualities of the NEWS, according to the analysis, were the makeup and features.

Procedure Listed For Returning Fraternity Bids

Procedure for the returning of fraternity bids has been announced by Stanley Abrams, '48, President of Inter-Fraternity Council.

By Monday morning all men who are to receive bids will be notified via Student Mail by the Council. After receiving the notice, the prospective pledge will report to the Lounge between the hours of 9 A.M. and 12:35 P.M. that same day. There will be a table set up with four boxes containing fraternity bids, with a representative of each fraternity present. The pledge will present the notice, and his name will be checked on the lists of fraternity pledges. He will then pick up all the bids which have been sent to him by fraternities.

On the first Monday after Thanksgiving vacation, which will be on December 1, all bids must be returned to the Lounge in the same manner in which they were received, between the hours of 9 A.M. and 12:35 P.M., with some indication made of the acceptance of whichever bid the pledge may decide to accept.

Pledge lists will be published in the NEWS at the earliest possible opportunity, probably the first Friday after vacation ends, December 5.

This method has been adopted as a simple procedure with a minimum of effort involved to the prospective fraternity pledge.
