JUNIOR NEWS

JUNIOR HIGH CLUB PROJECTS PROVIDE NEW INTEREST

The members of the Shop Club under the supervision of Mr. Raymond are making many different things. Three boys are interested in working in the print shop, and therefore are doing the work assigned there. Five boys have started to make sailboats and are progressing rapidly. There are many other things being made, and the boys expect to have a great deal completed before the end of the year.

Now we have a Design Club supervised by the new teacher, Mrs. Barsom. The club is in full swing under the direction of the chairman, Marjorie Stanton, and the secretary, Harriet Richter. They are studying designing of dresses and are using paper dolls to illustrate them. All those who are interested in the fitting and designing of clother may join the club by seeing Mrs. Barsom or a member of the club.

The Ping Pong and Tennis Club has begun its program. The president is Seely Funk and the secretary is Foster Sipperly. They have not decided on any matches yet.

The Engineering Club has started its program for the year also. The officers are: Robert Gilson, President; and Sheldon Bond, Vice-president; Wilson Hume, Secretary. The club plans to study engineering and surveying. Another part of their activities will consist of map-making.

The Typewriting Club plans to have a very successful year under the leadership of Jean Ambler, president; and Vido Benjamin, Vice-President. They are learning the touch system which is very important in typewriting.

8A CLASS TO PRESENT PROGRAM

The English 8A class is planning an assembly program of monologues. Each person in the class is writing a monologue. The best ones will be chosen by Marry Roppert, Robert Wilke, and Frances Seymour. Popular opinion seems to favor Helen Barker, Virginia Tripp, Herbert More, and Margaret Charles as the winners now. The final results will be announced during the assembly program which the class is planning.

Miss Halter made an announcement trying to encourage better singing in assembly, telling us to sing "On Milne High School" during the vacating of auditorium as was done during the previous years.

Would you like to have lived in the days "when knights were bold"? Read Out of the Flame by Eloise Lowmsbery, and you will feel as if you were one of the knights. The story is about a little boy in the Middle Ages who wants to become a brave knight. How he becomes one is very interesting and exciting. This story can be found in the Milne High School Library.

LIBRARY SERVICE CLUB FORMED IN MILNE

A Library Service Club has been formed under the direction of Miss Eaton. The members of this club will assist with the routine of the library by taking care of the desk, charging out books, and carrying messages for the librarian.

The club meets each Wednesday at 11:30 in the library. The topic for the next meeting will be "The Location of the Books in the Library".

SCHOOL WILL HAVE RECEPTION

The annual Milne High School reception will be held on Friday, November 10, at 8:00 in the gymnasium of Page Hall. All the students are invited to come. There will be an orchestra which will play for dancing which will be the entertainment for the evening.

MILNE SONGS AND YELLS

Where is your school spirit, students of Milne Junior High? Milne has good songs and cheers, and we should make use of them. Do we? No. Our opponents probably think that we are ashamed of our songs and yells or that we don't care whether our teams win or lose. We don't cheer as much as we should, and when we cheer, we have no pep. Our cheerleaders can not do much if we fail to do our part. We ought to help our team win by our singing and cheering. If our team is losing, we should cheer still harder. Let's all go to the games and try to outdo our neighbors in singing and cheering.

HOMEROOM PLANS PARTY

Homeroom 124 is planning a very exciting Hallowe'en party for next Tuesday. The members decided that they would not have a costume party this year.

PIANISTS ENTERTAIN

The seventh grade homerooms were entertained during their homeroom period last Tuesday by three pianists: Esther Stulmaker, Charles Sanderson, and Bernie Swartz. This program was provided by homeroom 129. The entertainment committee of this room is busy planning many more programs like this.
