PRIZE SPEAKING

The vote for junior high school prize speaking was taken Tuesday. It is accurate for those people who were present. The results follow. Taylor, 4 for, 14 against; Palmer, 15 for, 6 against; Moose, 6 for, 8 against; Johnson, 11 for, 6 against; Waterbury, 10 for, 8 against; Martin, 10 for, 8 against; Wheeling, 6 for, 14 against; Wells, 14 for, 5 against; Raymond, 7 for, 8 against; Hayes, 7 for, 5 against. Total 90 for, 82 against.

Miss Waterbury announces that there will be a prize speaking contest in the assembly.

TINY TIM

Tiny Tim has been limping around school in person for the last few days. Alvin Bingham, who played the part of Tiny Tim in the Christmas play, has sprained his ankle.

MONDAY'S ASSEMBLY

Last Monday the seventh grade was host to the Junior High School at assembly. They presented a very interesting movie program under the sponsorship of Mr. Taylor, Social Studies supervisor.

First on the list was a travel movie on Mexico. This included Mexican scenery, cities, amusements, etc.

Next was a Grantland Rice sports picture on "Ball and Bat." This was about all sports in which some sort of a ball or bat is used.

Last, a group of pictures, which everyone enjoyed, were shown. These were about the adventures of Mickey Mouse and his boisterous friend Donald Duck.

PREVIOUS ASSEMBLY

The previous Monday in assembly Mrs. Crollin and Dr. Betz entertained us with very interesting talks on France and Germany. Mrs. Crollin, who talked on France, told us of the schools and other places of interest in France. She sailed at the end of June last summer on the Normandie.

Dr. Betz told us of the food, travel, and houses of Germany. Everyone brings food along with them wherever they go. Bicycles are the popular means of travel.

COMING ASSEMBLY

The play next Monday will be put on by Miss Martin's homeroom. The play is an original one written by Miss Martin.

Homeroom 126 has just had a Quick Quiz program in which the boys play against the girls. The girls won. Homeroom 128 is carrying out the same idea. Again the girls won. The two homerooms are going to have a basketball game (boys) where the two homerooms play against each other. This is to be in the near future.

Homeroom 226 is going to put on a play sometime in February entitled The Five Ghosts. Homeroom 124 is composing a play. The title has not been decided upon but we hear it is to be about the supervisors! Homeroom 320 has just gotten a play called Grandma Pulls The String. Nothing has been decided.

EXAMS ARE COMING

Next week we will start our mid-year exams. Everyone in the school has to take these examinations. At this time of the year we should try to pay attention in class and listen to what the teacher tells us about the subject. We should not create a disturbance or write notes. When the test comes around we will say, "We didn't have that." What we mean is we didn't hear it. So we suggest that we study and make high marks.

FOR ALL THOSE WHO LOVE TO READ

There are twenty-nine new books in the library. The complete list appears in the Senior news of this edition. One of the books Miss Eaton thought would interest the Junior High student is Scarlet Oak by Cornelia Meigs. It is about a twelve-year-old boy who is working on Joseph Bonaparte's farm in New Jersey at the time of Napoleon's exile.

HERE AND THERE

As we walk around the halls of school we hear quite a bit about Dick Mull. We wouldn't doubt if you've wondered who he is. He goes to A. H. S. and seems to get around. Barbara Russell lost a bet. We wonder why.

It is quite the fad now for the girls to wear lockets. Have you noticed the nice ones Elsa Buttron and Glenna Smith are wearing?

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF--

- Kenny Gallien didn't try to be funny?
- The cheer loaders didn't lead the "sky rocket" every time they cheered in assembly?
- Bob Ball didn't "horse laugh"?
- Jean Figarsky didn't wear that feather in her hat?
- The eighth grade beat the ninth in basketball?
- Candy wasn't taken out of the Annex?
- The traffic squad "practised what they preached"?
- George Perkins "lost" his Boy Scout ring?
- Bobby Clarke learned to cut frankfurters (hot dogs to you)?
- Boys' Cooking Club got sick?
