SUFFOLK CSEA WINS

Wenzl Lambasts 'No Show' Candidates At Syracuse Area Legislative Meeting

SYRACUSE—Some 400 civil service employees from the Syracuse area last week heard Dr. Theodore Wenzl lambast ten candidates for public office who did not attend a legislative inquiry session planned by the Civil Service Employees Assn. chapters in the area.

While none of the candidates who did appear would commit himself to the CSEA's program in totality, the six agreed that very consideration would be given to the Association's goals. Speakers were: James J. Barry, candidate for Senator; and Assembly candidates Mortimer Galvan, John C. Klotz, John Terry, George Savage and Kenneth Bartlett.

Wenzl, president of the 170,000-member Statewide Association, told the employees that the upstate New York area is an "island of conservatism where the bosses—political leaders—are sovereign and the workers must go, hat in hand, for benefits, and then must bow down and say thank you when they receive what they rightly deserve."

The Taylor Law, which governs bargaining for public employees, will have to be drastically changed next year or a new law enacted, Wenzl stated.

The growing militancy of the Employees Association was revealed when Wenzl noted that he was "rapidly adjusting my thinking" on strikes for public employees. "The leadership had better concern itself with the revolution now going on by public employees." Continuing, he said, "Where are the leaders tonight? Don't we have enough voting muscle?"

"There are serious, important questions to be answered tonight. The people who are absent tonight are showing their true colors. The Taylor Law is important and these political leaders have to face up to the fact that a new day is dawning."

Wenzl charged that management "is not moving fast enough and because of this, they are forcing today's labor problems in the public sector." As an example, he

CSEA Plans Action Against Blind Comm. Move To Albany

(Special to The Leader)
 NEW YORK — Officials of the Civil Service Employees Assn. and representatives of affected employees of the State's Commission for the Blind were scheduled to meet here today to formulate further plans to block the Department of Social Services' proposal to move Commission headquarters to Albany, it was learned at Leader press time.

Although CSEA declined to reveal what additional steps were being considered, a spokesman for the Employees Association in-

Supervisors Yield On Wage Package

(SPECIAL TO THE LEADER)

SMITHTOWN—After calling a showdown deadline for contract settlement, the Suffolk chapter of the Civil Service Employees Assn. Friday came out with an offer from the County of a 12 percent pay increase and other benefits.

Unit meetings were held Monday to ballot the package, which closely paralleled the recommendations of a fact-finding team.

The County Board of Supervisors finally agreed to the package at a showdown negotiating session that lasted nine and one-half hours last Friday. Meeting with the Supervisors and County Executive H. Lee Dennison was a ten-member negotiating delegation from CSEA.

The terms provide a 12 percent pay boost for all, with an $800 minimum and $1,500 maximum.

In addition, a long list of fringe benefits includes a 37 and one-half hour work week for blue-collar personnel, fully-paid hospitalization insurance, 1/60th retirement retroactive to 1936 and time and one-half pay for overtime.

The action came after the chapter had declared the impasse that existed presented one of the most serious tests of the Taylor Law since it went into effect.

An agreement had been reached between CSEA negotiators and a negotiating team appointed by the county in early September. However, Sept. 11 the Supervisors suddenly reneged on the agreement. A fact-finding team named by the county Public Employment Relations Board then upheld the earlier agreement. Later, Dennison said he would recommend it as just.

Chapter officials had labeled the Supervisors' intransigence as "provocation."

The final package equaled the original agreement except that it was limited to one year. Further adjustments were left to be negotiated then.

Nassau Mediator Named After Negotiations Fail; Long Beach Aides Sign

(From Leader Correspondent)

MINEOLA—After the 11th negotiating session last week, the Nassau chapter, Civil Service Employees Assn., declared the County's offers inadequate and called for the aid of a mediator.

Renewed talks under the supervision of mediator Leonard Cooper, named by the local Public Employment Relations Board, were under way at Leader press time. Chapter president Irving Flaumenbaum asserted: "The county

Erie CSEA Chapter Protesting Slowness Of Pact Negotiations

(From Leader Correspondent)

BUFFALO—Members of a Civil Service Employees Assn. group are demonstrating with signs near Erie County public offices in a protest against slowness of Erie County leaders' negotiations with the CSEA.

The protestors are members of the Welfare Department unit, Erie chapter, CSEA. The chapter has been designated bargaining agent for the county's 6,000 employees. The Welfare unit, with 750 members, is the largest unit in the chapter.

"We want meaningful negotiations," said Seby L. Caputy, Welfare unit president. The unit vice-president is Charles R. Guarino.

The CSEA group has been bargaining with Erie County Executive Edward H. Rath and other leaders since Sept. 5.

The principal CSEA demand is a pay raise of ten percent and upgrading of each employee to the next higher pay grade. The increase would start with the higher grade.

Other CSEA proposals include fully-paid hospitalization, more longevity increments, more personal leave, five weeks' vacation, more mileage allowance and time and one-half for all work after 40 hours.

On the CSEA bargaining committee are Nell V. Cummings, Erie chapter president; Dominic S. Telesco and Jerry Mercer.

Tells of Crime Slowly Killing A Community

High crime rates are tending to destroy community life in Manhattan's 62d Assembly District, Andrew Stein, Democratic-Liberal candidate there for the State Assembly, charged yesterday.

Stein cited statistics from the E. 21st St. and E. 51st St. police stations that showed residents of the district were victims of 8,876 major crimes in the first six months of the year—or at the rate of two major crimes every hour.

Asks 2,000 More Cops

"Fear keeps our people away from PTA meetings, from church and synagogue affairs and from other meaningful community activities," Stein said in a letter to Mayor Lindsay.

"A full sense of community life and participation," he added, can only be restored by adoption of a safety program he proposed.

Stein urged that the police quota be increased by 2,000 above the 3,000 increase the mayor recently approved.

"Massive Manpower"

"We can no longer rely on traditional ratios between police and population to provide reasonable safety for our people," he said, calling for "massive police resources and manpower" for tension areas.

Stein also urged "brilliant" nighttime lighting for side streets and parks, equipping phone booths, police call boxes and fire boxes with alarm bells in the nearest police stations and installations of protective devices by landlords, "whether the tenants request them or not."

FIRST GRADUATES — Smiles cover the faces of these Rockland State Hospital employees who recently completed the first high school equivalency course for Mental Hygiene employees. The program adopted recently on a State-wide basis was begun at Rockland under the sponsorship of that institution's CSEA chapter. From left in the front row are hospital personnel manager Alec Dana, and class members Lucy Whitley, Mary Newell, Ernestine Keene, Gency McLoryd, Isabel Simmons, Eva Renella, Andrew Talrack, and instructor Boyd Quackenbush; (back row) Susie Witherspoon, Samuel Session, Naomi Coleman, chairman of the program, George Bull and William Lyons. George Celentano, CSEA chapter president, said the program not only gives personal satisfaction to the participants, but helps them to move ahead in their work and everyday life. The second class has already begun, Celentano said.

Retired Employees Committee Organizational Meeting Held; Reduced-Rate Dues Scheduled

(Special to The Leader)

ALBANY—The special Statewide committee for retired civil service employees last week conducted an organizational meeting and laid the groundwork for the establishment of an ad hoc executive committee for retirees within the structure of the Civil Service Employees Assn.

Hazel Abrams, third vice-president of the Employees Association and member of the committee, said that officers of the executive group will be named at a Nov. 15 meeting.

Also discussed last week was the establishment of various committees composed of retirees which will deal with subjects related to the retired public employee. Suggested committees, besides the executive unit, were: nominations, pension benefits; retirement legislation, cost of living, health insurance, publicity and public relations, membership, pre-retirement education program, constitution and retirees' employment.

duced rates are one-half the regular dues or 50 cents biweekly. If dues are paid directly instead of by payroll deduction, they are $13 a year, due by Oct. 1, or $6.50 semi-annually due by Oct. 1 and the following April 1 of each year. (For further information on reduced dues, see Leader story on this subject in this edition.)

CSEA Wins New 2 Year Contract For Steuben Aides

(Special To The Leader)

BATH — Members of the Steuben County chapter of the Civil Service Employees Assn. have ratified their first contract under the Taylor Law with the County Board of Supervisors by a 238 to 31 vote.

Topping the list of benefits won by CSEA in recent negotiations were a four percent across-the-board pay raise with a $250 minimum and the county's adoption of the 1/60th non-contributory retirement plan, retroactive to 1938. Employees may now retire at age 55 after 30 years of service with half pay.

Another highlight of the two-year contract was a provision calling for a job classification and salary study.

Utica Area CSEA Members Pledge Support To Donovan In Senate Reelection Bid

(From Leader Correspondent)

UTICA—Some 32 members of the Civil Service Employees Assn. at a meeting Oct. 23 pledged the support of its 6,000 Utica area members for Sen. James Donovan, who is seeking re-election to the State Senate. This is the first time the CSEA here has endorsed a political candidate.

The action was taken at a meeting of the CSEA's Political Action Committee, comprised of presidents of the chapters in the Utica-Rome area and the Mohawk Valley.

Nicholas Cimino, committee chairman, said the group voted to support Donovan "because of the support he has given the CSEA." Cimino said that the senator had shown that he was truly interested in the welfare of the organization by his past actions.

Senator Donovan was a guest at the meeting. Robert Guld, CSEA field representative for this area, spoke to the group on plans for a proposed regional office for the CSEA, tentatively planned for the Hotel Utica.

A committee comprised of Phillip Caruso, chairman, Roger Kane and S. Samuel Borrelly was appointed to study the feasibility of locating such an office in Utica.

In other action, Cimino and Mrs. Lois Ann Minozzi were named to a Statewide CSEA grievance committee. Cimino was also appointed to a special transportation committee.

Dr. Theodore Wenzl, Employees Association president, is also scheduled to address the delegates on the negotiations currently in progress between CSEA and the State's negotiating team.

CONTRACT SIGNED — Edward J. Hannan, left, field representative for the Civil Service Employees Assn., and Herbert C. Harwood, president of the Franklin County CSEA chapter, looks on as William E. Mansion, chairman of the Franklin County Board of Supervisors, signs a two-year contract with county employees. Highlights of the contract include: A salary study that would provide salary increases for all employees; unlimited accumulation of sick leave; five days' personal leave; a basic 40-hour week; increment allowances plus cost of living raises in the second year; a clause for the reopening of the present retirement plan; 12 cents per mile for use of car; seniority status for determining promotions and layoffs; longevity increases after 10, 15, or 20 years; and procedures for a joint grievance committee. Joseph J. Dolan, Director of Local Government Affairs for CSEA, praised Harwood's efforts on behalf of the County's employees. Dolan said that "under Harwood's leadership, the chapter has grown more than 200 percent in the last few months." Others on CSEA's negotiating team were Wilma Cartwright, Lorraine Farmer, and James Carr. Aside from Harwood, chapter officers negotiating the pact include Lawrence Mills, vice-president; Thelma Stone, secretary; and Gladys Chitney, treasurer.

State Needs Head Cooks

To qualify for the job, which pays from $6,535 to $8,010 a year, you must have five years of full-time, paid experience in large-scale cooking, including two years of experience in the super-

In addition to training kitchen personnel and assigning employees to work shifts, he may also do some of the cooking.

As a State employee, the head cook will have fringe benefits such as a comprehensive health insurance plan at little or no cost, paid vacation of up to 20 days a year, and a variety of leaves including sick leave and personal leave.

Civil Service Strife

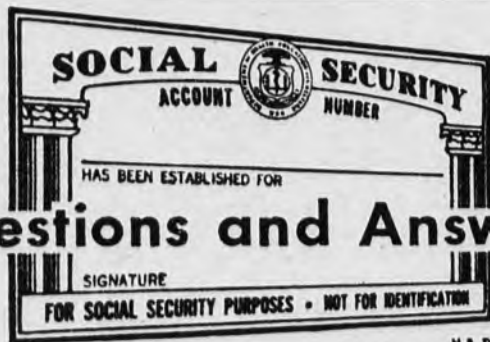

SOME months ago this newspaper predicted that the Fall of 1968 would see public service in great turmoil as the result of failure by government to recognize the depth of feeling among civil servants about being treated as equal partners at the bargaining table.

Unhappily, our prediction has come true to an even greater degree than we imagined. New York City school teachers are on strike, while police and firemen stage work slowdowns over unsatisfactory contracts. As we go to press, Suffolk County employees are threatening to go on strike because the County Board of Supervisors has rejected wage and fringe benefits proposed by a committee of its own members. In normally placid Syracuse, State and local government workers staged a rally calling on candidates to speak out on civil service issues without hedging.

Now everyone is asking "Why?" A major reason is that public employees no longer are going to accept treatment as second-class citizens who get the leftovers when budgets are prepared. In Suffolk and Syracuse, local officials simply have not yet recognized this new attitude and are setting the stage for labor trouble in the civil service in those two areas. In New York City it would appear that the new bargaining techniques are not working the way it was hoped they would.

Furthermore, the issues at stake are not just bread and butter items. Public employees want full recognition of their important role in society and a final discarding of the image—which government in many areas helps to perpetuate—as freeloaders on the public payroll.

The civil servant of 1968 is not the hat-in-hand man he was even 10 years ago. When government—and the public at large—finally recognizes and accepts this fact, peace can be restored on a long-term basis in the civil service sector.

Are the new rules for determining a child's dependency on a working mother limited to survivor benefits only?

No, they are not limited to survivor benefits. If a woman who is receiving retirement or disability benefits from social security has children who are under 18, or between 18 and 22 and full-time students, or who are over 18 but disabled since before 18, social security benefits may now be payable for them. If you know of someone who might qualify under the revised law, have him get in touch with his social security office as soon as possible.

After working for 20 years, I suffered a heart attack two years ago. Is it too late to apply for disability benefits now?

No. Back benefits can be paid retroactive for only one year. If your disability status is approved, you have already lost benefits for one year because you failed to apply sooner.

I will be 65 in 1971. I am married and was never employed. How many quarters do I need to get basic hospital insurance?

A wife entitled to benefits on her husband's record needs no work record. Others reaching 65 in 1971 and not entitled to benefits need 12 quarters (three years) of coverage.

James Lennon Honored For Local Service

WASHINGTON, D.C.—James J. Lennon, a supervisor for the East Hudson Parkway Authority and president of the Authority's Civil Service Employees Assn. chapter, has received an International award for his voluntary efforts in behalf of community park and recreation programs.

Lennon received the National Recreation and Park Citation at the New Rochelle Recreation Commission's October meeting Monday. The presentation was made by Commission Chairman Bertram L. Kantor.

The award is given annually by the Board of Trustees of the National Recreation and Park Assn. to selected individuals and citizens groups throughout the United States and Canada, who, in the opinion of the Board, have made significant voluntary contributions to the park and recreation movement in their home communities.

Lennon received the award in recognition of his outstanding voluntary youth-service work for some 23 years.

In nominating Lennon for the award, the Recreation Commission noted that he began working with the Boy Scouts at the end of World War II and has served as both neighborhood and district commissioner for the Hutchinson River Council. He has also worked with the Southside Boys Club, the athletic committees of Blessed Sacrament High School, and the New Rochelle Little League.

Perhaps his most distinguished service to community recreation, however, has been within the past six years as a member of the Recreation Commission. He has been the Commission's representative on the Mayor's Citizens Advisory Committee on Aging, chairman of the Commission's committee to sponsor coffee houses for New Rochelle teens, and has prepared a recreation preference questionnaire to be distributed shortly to all New Rochelle teenagers.

In addition to these activities, Lennon has helped direct toy and play equipment drives for children at Grasslands Hospital, St. Agnes Home for Children, and Wiltwick Home. He has also served as a voluntary fund raiser for rowing and baseball for many years.

Lennon is married to the former Elinor Ryder and is the father of five children. He has been a lifetime resident of New Rochelle and attended New Rochelle schools and Westchester Community College.

The National Recreation and Park Assn. is an independent non-profit service organization dedicated to the wise use of leisure time, conservation of natural and human resources, and beautification of the total American environment. It is actively concerned with improving park and recreation facilities and programs, and providing more wholesome and meaningful leisure time opportunities for everyone.

Civil Service Law & You

By WILLIAM GOFFEN

(Mr. Goffen, a member of the New York Bar, teaches law at the College of the City of New York, is the author of many books and articles and co-authored "New York Criminal Law.")

Accidental Death Benefit

IN DETERMINING the right to accidental death benefits, the Pension Board must resolve apparently simple issues of fact. Yet, the determination of such issues is not always easy. It is the difficult task of the Pension Board to consider independently all of the available evidence so as to arrive at its own advised conclusion.

AN EXAMPLE of difficulties in resolving the relevant factual issues is the case of Florence E. Brady v. City of New York and Board of Trustees of the Police Pension Fund, (Column of March 7, 1967). The petitioner's husband, Detective Sergeant Terrence Brady, lost his life when his automobile crashed through a guard rail and fell into Jamaica Bay in the early morning of January 19, 1963. The tragedy occurred during Sergeant Brady's 48-hour tour of duty which was to expire on January 19 at 8 a.m.

IN DENYING the widow's request for accident death benefits, the Pension Board ruled that Sergeant Brady was off duty when he died. This ruling was consistent with an officer's recommendation based on a departmental investigation. The recommendation accorded with the Police Department report on the date of the accident that Sergeant Brady had been off duty at the time of his death. The Medical Board of Physicians to which the Pension Board referred the petitioner's application recommended that it be denied without making an investigation.

IN HER Article 78 proceeding, the petitioner submitted an affidavit by Lieutenant Gaffney, Sergeant Brady's commanding officer. The affidavit established that it was the accepted practice for a Sergeant on a 48-hour tour of duty to leave the squad room as long as he remained available for resumption of his duties.

AFTER THE institution of the Article 78 proceeding, the Police Department again made an investigation which disclosed official duty charts supporting Lieutenant Gaffney's affidavit that Sergeant Brady continued responsible for the performance of his duties until 8 a.m. on January 19. This investigation also disclosed that when Sergeant Brady left the squad room on January 18, he told the detectives on duty that he was going home and would be available. Moreover, Detective Brunn indicated that Sergeant Brady had called the squad room about an hour after leaving.

IN VIEW OF the conflicting contentions as to whether Sergeant Brady was on duty when he met his death, Justice Samuel M. Gold directed a jury trial. The jury surprisingly found that Sergeant Brady was, indeed, off duty when he met his death. However, Justice George M. Carney, who presided over the trial, granted a motion to set aside the jury verdict as contrary to the weight of evidence. The Appellate Division subsequently dismissed the petition on the reasoning that the determination of Sergeant Brady's duty status was for the Pension Board, not for the Court or jury.

FORTUNATELY for the cause of justice, Mrs. Brady appealed to the Court of Appeals. In a recent opinion by Judge Adrian P. Burke, this high Court noted that the New York City Administrative Code (Section B18-9.0) places the burden upon the Pension Board to determine from all the available evidence whether the death was sustained as the result of an accident while the decedent was on duty.

JUDGE BURKE noted that the Pension Board had not fully performed its obligation, but it merely relied upon an incomplete investigation. It did not consider the duty chart and the evidence presented by Lieutenant Gaffney and Detective Brunn. Accordingly, the Pension Board had not fulfilled its responsibility under the Administrative Code to take evidence of the facts and make an independent determination of the issues based upon that evidence. As stated by Judge Burke:

It is precisely because of the severe limitations of the availability of judicial review of determinations made by bodies such as the Pension board that such bodies must make a careful and painstaking assessment of all the evidence and should defer final determinations until they are satisfied that all the evidence has been fully and fairly considered.

THE COURT of Appeals remitted the proceeding to the Pension Board with instructions to take whatever evidence

VOTE FOR THE SENATOR. HE VOTES FOR YOU.

Here's what Senator Javits wants for Civil Service Employees:

- All examining boards shall restore the right of participants in entrance and promotional examinations to retain a copy of the test booklets and answers.
- The merit system of promotions which offers career opportunities to dedicated civil servants without regard for race, religion, or national origin.
- Extending to all civil servants more advantageous retirement plans. The establishment of irrevocable tenure rights for all civil servants, and the recognition of all labor-management agreements as law.
- The establishment of dues checkoff as a right, rather than a privilege, of recognized Civil Service labor organizations.
- The uniform extension of paid overtime, at time and one half, for all work after the completion of a normal workday to all civil service classifications.
- Improved medical coverage and fully paid health insurance for all classifications of civil service and all retirees from the civil service systems.
- Payment of full salary to all government employees injured in the course of their official duties, and extending the sick leave coverage currently enjoyed by some groups to all classifications of civil service.
- The establishment of an Inspector General's Office, similar to the Armed Forces, whose purpose it would be to investigate the grievances and protect the rights of individual civil servants.
- Legislation that will insure that the constitutional rights of all Civil Service employees will not be inhibited by local statutes.
- The establishment of in-service training programs to prepare career civil servants for promotions to all levels of government. Eligibility for promotion tests for policy level and executive positions should be open to dedicated career civil servants.
- The establishment of an adequate minimum wage, for all regular civil service employees, affording a decent standard of living. This would apply to all positions other than trainee or part-time classifications.

While my opponent was City Finance Administrator, real estate taxes were raised to a record high. Rentals in non-controlled buildings are being increased to excessive amounts.

I PLEDGE TO SUPPORT IMMEDIATE CONTROLS.

My opponent wants you to send him to Albany to bring back more of your tax dollars, yet when he resigned his post, the City was owed over $160,000,000 on unpaid real estate taxes, much of it by slum landlords.

As a former member of The Lindsay "Super Cabinet", he must bear his portion of the blame for the present chaotic state of affairs in our City. Independent Committee Of Civil Service Employees For The Election Of RICHARD M. NIXON As President Of The United States

We endorse Richard M. Nixon as President of the United States—And Here's Why!

In November of 1966, a group of individual State workers formed the Independent Committee of Civil Service Employees to advocate the re-election of Nelson A. Rockefeller as Governor, Arthur J. Levitt as Comptroller and Louis J. Lefkowitz as Attorney General.

Our Committee was formed because the undersigned, acting as citizens as well as responsible public employees, felt it their duty to work for the re-election of men who had served both the public and the civil service with great distinction and deserved to be re-elected to State office.

Again, as citizens, we feel it imperative to take a stand on the national election for President of the United States. The role played by the Federal Government in every American's life is of such profound importance that we feel it imperative to speak out and express our feeling of the need for change in leadership for the future.

Richard M. Nixon is a man of immeasurable wealth of government experience. His campaign speeches have revealed a deep knowledge of and concern for State and local government problems. For example, in his recent nation-wide speech entitled "An Open Door for American Labor" Mr. Nixon said of public employees:

"Early in the next administration, the new Secretary of Labor—someone in the tradition of the late James Mitchell—will assemble a conference of labor leadership, individuals in all these fields, and public officials on every level of government. Their objective will be to draw up and seek legislative approvals for an Economic Bill of Rights for Public Employees.

"Any man who chooses his career working for the public must do so under the clear understanding that public service must not and will not be disrupted.

"But the public that rightly demands this has the responsibility to provide acceptable alternatives for these 12 million public employees. Tenure and seniority are a part of it; continuity of employment is another incentive; vastly improved grievance procedures are still another; and improved impasse procedures are vital."

As conscientious civil servants deeply involved in the daily problems of our State, we urge our fellow public employees to cast their vote for Richard M. Nixon, the man whom we believe will bring new life, enthusiasm, vitality and leadership to the Presidency of the United States.

"I DON'T CROSS PICKET LINES -- I WALK IN 'EM!"

With these words, Paul O'Dwyer refused to cross the Operating Engineers picket line in front of CBS television studios last June. He thus passed up a fringe benefit of his dramatic victory in the June 18 Democratic Primary—the vast exposure of a free TV interview. For a candidate for the U.S. Senate whose campaign coffers could never match those of his Republican opponent, it hurt a lot to forego that interview. But, then, that is Paul O'Dwyer's way. Paul O'Dwyer's way is always to remember his friends, his convictions, his principles—whatever the cost.

Paul O'Dwyer has been on the line with working people and their unions ever since he came to New York from County Mayo at the age of 18 and went to work on the docks to finance his night-time study of the law.

He hasn't forgotten, just because he is a candidate for the Senate. He won't forget when he is a member of the Senate.

He won't forget to fight to end the War in Vietnam, for he has been a leader of that battle since the beginning (unlike his opponent Mr. Javits, who once said he stood "squarely behind the United States in Vietnam," and only changed his tune after public opinion turned against the Johnson administration).

He won't forget to fight to cut taxes for middle income and working people through sweeping tax reforms (unlike his opponent Mr. Javits, who supported the 1968 10% surtax and has said he may vote to extend it).

He won't forget to attack the rising cost of living, by fighting to reduce wasteful and dangerous armaments spending.

ELECT PAUL O'DWYER TO THE SENATE
HE WON'T FORGET TO STAND UP FOR YOU

Mr. Nixon's first decision.

Spiro T. Agnew

In 1962, he began his elective career as County Executive of Baltimore County (not including the City of Baltimore), after several years of local prominence as member of a zoning board, president of a junior high school P. T. A. and active Kiwanis.

In 1966, he became the Governor of Maryland.

Mr. Humphrey's first decision.

Edmund S. Muskie

In 1946 he was elected to the Maine House of Representatives.

Re-elected in 1948 and 1950.

Served as Minority Leader of the Democrats in the Maine House of Representatives from 1949 through 1951.

Director of the state's Office of Price Stabilization from 1951 through 1952.

Democratic National Committeeman from Maine from 1952 through 1956.

In 1954, Mr. Muskie became Maine's first Democratic Governor in 20 years.

In 1956, he was re-elected Governor.

In 1958, he became the first popularly elected Democratic Senator in Maine's history.

Re-elected to the U.S. Senate in 1964.

Member of the Senate Committees on Public Works, Banking and Currency, Government Operations and the Special Committee on Aging.

Chairman of Inter-governmental Relations Subcommittee and generally recognized as one of the country's outstanding authorities on federal-state-municipal relations.

A president is only as good as the people he surrounds himself with.

One look at the relative inexperience of Spiro Agnew, and you would have to say that Mr. Nixon is off to a pretty bad start.

And think of the decisions that lie ahead.

Who would you trust to pick the right man for the second most crucial job in the world—our Secretary of State?

Or the most awesome—our Secretary of Defense?

Our domestic tranquility may depend on the men he selects as Attorney General, Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, and Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare.

Prosperity may depend on Secretaries of Labor and Commerce.

Our next president will select the Justices of our federal courts—including the highest court in the land, the U.S. Supreme Court.

He will appoint the ambassadors who must protect our interests yet somehow preserve peace in trouble spots all over the world, in every foreign nation, in the United Nations, in NATO and SEATO.

And of course, he must pick his own executive staff—the men who will be close to him to help him make important decisions at crucial moments all along the way.

For his first selection, Mr. Nixon has chosen Spiro Agnew.

A man whose naivete and inexperience is already showing.

(You have to wonder what Mr. Agnew will have to apologize for next?)

And will an apology be enough?

A man whose service has been more to his county than to his country.

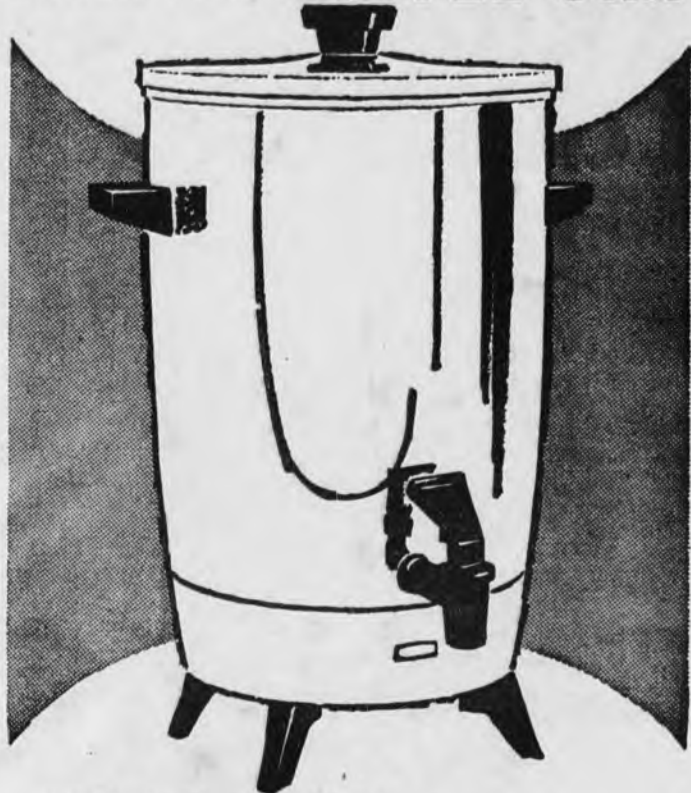

A man whose knowledge of foreign affairs extends from the State Capitol at Annapolis to East Baltimore Street.

Finally, force yourself to think the unthinkable.

"President Agnew?"

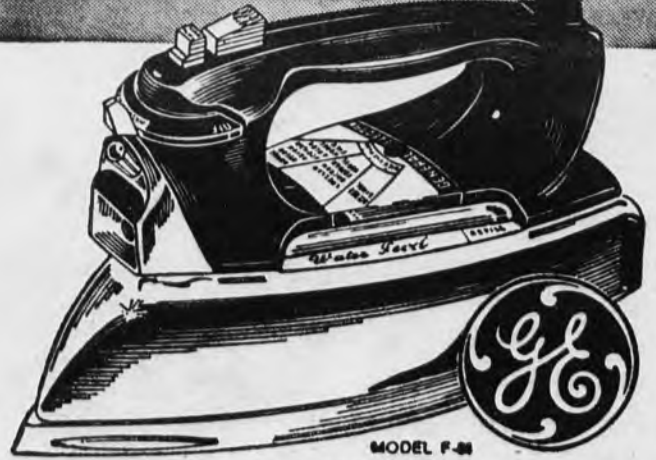

Trust Humphrey.

BLUE CROSS - BLUE SHIELD
Albany, New York

This Column will appear periodically. As a public service, Mr. Parry will answer questions relative to the Statewide Plan. Please submit your questions to Mr. Parry, Blue Cross Blue Shield Manager, The Statewide Plan, 1215 Western Avenue, Albany, N.Y. 12203. Please do not submit questions pertaining to specific claims. Only questions of general interest can be answered here.

Q. I have a few basic questions concerning the Statewide Plan: (1) Specifically, what are my coverages for me and my family? (2) How are payments made in terms of sickness and accidents? (3) Do I pay the hospital, medical and drug-gist bills and then submit an itemized statement to your office.

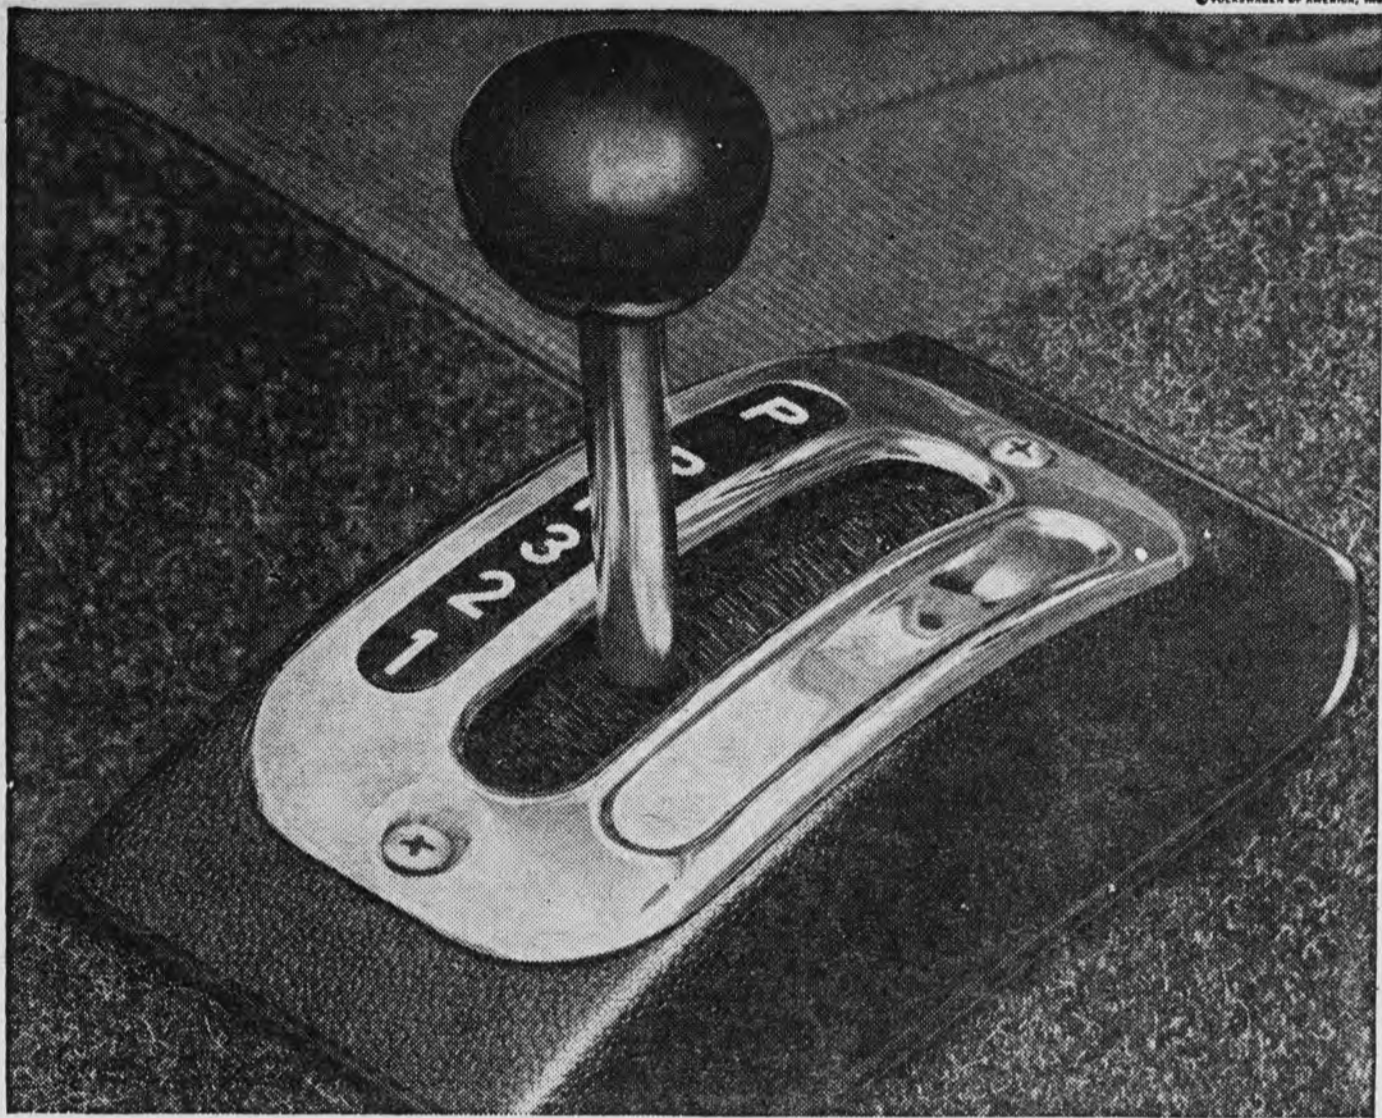

A. Coverage under the Statewide Plan consists of three separate services. Hospitalization is provided by Blue Cross; doctor's care is furnished by Blue Shield and the third part is Major Medical, provided by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.

When you use the hospital benefits, Blue Cross will deal with and pay the hospital directly. When you use surgical benefits, Blue Shield will pay the doctor if he is a participating physician, and send the check to you if he is not a Blue Shield doctor. The Major Medical is the only portion of the program that has a deductible. During a calendar year, you must pay the first $50.00 of Major Medical expenses and then Metropolitan will pay you 80% of all the services included in their contract.

Q. Several letters have been received at the Statewide Plan Office asking that a new Identification Card be furnished. The General procedure for securing a new card is as follows

A. Participating agency employees go to the appropriate officer in their own agency for replacement of their identification cards. State employees should contact the Health Insurance Section, New York State Civil Service Department, Albany, N.Y. for their replacement of ID cards.

Advt.

Volkswagen announces automatic. Better late than never.

The Volkswagen Squareback and the Volkswagen Fastback are now available with a fully automatic transmission.

So now you can drive a Volkswagen and not even know you're driving a Volkswagen.

Except for a few reminders.

Like the 25 miles you get to a gallon of regular gas. The oil you still take by the pint. And the time and money you don't spend on anti-freeze.

Of course, the new automatic is strictly optional. Just like on most other cars.

But we've got something no other car offers even as an option. Electronic fuel injection.

And it's as standard as the electric clock, electric rear window defroster, 49-position front seats, front disc brakes and wall-to-wall carpeting.

All of which is enough to make you forget it's a Volkswagen all over again.

don't let 'em con you!

Ever hear that all health insurance plans are the same?

Don't you believe it!

There are several important considerations you must keep in mind when selecting your health insurance carrier. Let's take two important areas — payment in full and scope of benefits.

PAYMENT IN FULL Only certain health insurers — and GHI is one of them — provide a mechanism by which doctors charge no more than the insurance company pays. GHI is unique in that it does not inquire into the size of income to determine eligibility for payment in full. All GHI subscribers are eligible for payment in full.

SCOPE OF BENEFITS Scope is a funny word. It can mean the number of services or it can mean the variety of care paid for. For example: Preventive care such as immunizations, even when no illness exists — yet.

Under the Type C GHI Family Doctor Plan, special emphasis is placed on payment, for such care as immunizations, annual physical examinations for adults, and well-baby care for infants.

Then again, no limitation is placed upon the location of the care received. GHI pays for doctor care anywhere in the world.

Ever hear that all health insurance plans are the same? Don't you believe it!

The GHI Family Doctor Plan can be bought by groups of twenty or more employed people.

Don't you wish you were one of the over one million people protected by GHI?

Over 375,000 Civil Service workers and their dependents are enrolled as GHI subscribers.

ROOM AT THE TOP

“Government should be the fairest of fair opportunity employers.”

Richard M. Nixon

Richard Nixon pledges to see that this high principle is expanded and made real by also recognizing that promotion in the merit system should go right to the top.

In return for the sacrifices made by civil service employees the public must recognize that tenure and security are to be protected. A strong merit system is essential.

The present inflationary cycle has hit hardest at our retired, pensioned and public employees. Their salaries and pensions must be protected by adequate safeguards and necessary escalator clauses.

Empire State. Firstly, Humphrey has had a long association with New York Democrats and with the issues facing the urban centers of the State. When a United States Senator, and as Vice President, he personally worked with many community and civic leaders on New York problems. Now he comes to this State as his Party's standard bearer. The stakes are high and New York is once again the crucial battle area. As the campaign goes into the last days, the Vice President finds his direct approach to voters gives him a lead in most polls—from a steady rise.

Humphrey has called for sensibility in our foreign affairs and a venture into new areas of leadership. His plan for bringing the VietNam War to a close combines the sagacity of experience and a recognition of the desire of most Americans for an end to the tragic conflict. Humphrey does not come to the subject of foreign affairs without credentials. He was one of the leading members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, proposed the Peace Corps, Food for Peace, and instigated the effort for a Nuclear Test Ban Treaty.

Quite characteristic for the Vice President to suggest compassion but decisiveness in the matter of civil order. He clearly enunciates his view that there can be no tolerance of violence in our society. But he makes it clear that law and order is a matter of close cooperation between the communities and the Federal government—not one over the other.

Man-To-Man Campaign

Humphrey's rise in the polls and his ability to turn an underdog position into that of a major confrontation with the Republican candidacy is due largely to his own particular brand of man-to-people campaigning. Humphrey is a man who has made his own way in life and there are no pretensions about his style or approach to the major issues of our time.

By his own admission, Humphrey says that this is a hard fight all of the way. But American elections, in the last analysis, are fortunately left to the voter and not the poll takers. It is the voter and not the professional political observer that elects our Presidents. Humphrey has shown himself in this campaign to be a man of reason and understanding. He has gone to the people time and time again in this State. He believes firmly in the open discussion of the issues as the best way for voters to decide between men.

Any analysis of the possible voting result in New York would show that it is as close to a tossup as it can ever be. Humphrey has narrowed the gap with each new poll. As we go to press, he stands within a few percentage points of Nixon in a composite of polls taken in New York. Nationally, since the first post-Convention poll taken September 15th Humphrey has gained four points while Nixon has lost four.

Another Dewey?

It doesn't take a political expert to figure out why Nixon is slipping or why the Vice President is improving. Nixon is doing a 1948 Dewey. It is simply that Humphrey has not permitted the estimates of many of the experts' to deter his effort to reach more and more people with his direct brand of politics. American voters

Suffolk Needs Toll Collector

December 7 is the date set for a Suffolk County examination for senior toll collector. Filing for the examination, which is open to males only, is open until Nov. 15. Salary is from $178 to $250, biweekly.

There are no residence requirements for the job, but candidates must have graduated from a standard senior high school and must have two years of experience in cashiering or similar work, or else must have a satisfactory equivalent of education and experience.

Duties of the senior toll collector are to supervise and participate in the collection of money on a county toll bridge, and to perform related work as required.

For applications and further information, contact the Suffolk County Civil Service Commission at County Center, Riverhead, N.Y., telephone PA 7-4700, ext. 249.

Crime Board

Dr. Martin M. Propper of Great Neck has been appointed as an unsalaried psychiatric consultant on the Queens Crime Prevention Board.

have an uncanny sense of sincerity and apparently they find it in Hubert Humphrey. They at least is what his associates are thinking—and hoping.

Now the 1968 Presidential Campaign is not a 'sure thing.' It is a whole new ball game thanks to the efforts of a man that wouldn't accept the verdict of many that he had no chance. And he got very little help after a lot of help pre-Chicago. Not only does he now have a chance, he is chasing his Republican opponent and obviously reaching his raw nerve. Even the 'experts' are nervous and are revising their estimates. If Humphrey wins experts say it will prove conclusively that people don't want others to make their decisions for them. Certainly not early pollsters. That is what distinguishes our unique and sometime fragile system. The issue is now in the hands of the voter—and that is where it belongs. That is where Vice President Humphrey says he has wanted it all along.

We'll soon know.

One further note—he and his associates know that he is lucky that he is not going against Governor Rockefeller in the Empire State.

Gallant Pledges Promotion Fight For Maintainers

(Special To The Leader)

NEWARK—The newly-elected representative for the Civil Service Employees Assn.'s Mental Hygiene members in the Western and Central areas said last week that he intends to push for new promotional opportunities for maintenance personnel employed by the Department of Mental Hygiene.

Albert F. Gallant, a senior x-ray technician at Newark State School, declared: "Maintenance workers in the Department are at a dead end promotion-wise. They have to wait for someone to retire or die before they can move up. As representative for members of 17 Mental Hygiene chapters, I intend to do all in my power to see that these people get a break."

Working For All

Gallant did say, however, that he plans to work for the betterment of all employees of the department, and would not limit his efforts to maintenance people.

As one of three elected Mental Hygiene representatives, he will serve on CSEA's State executive committee, Board of Directors and also as a member of the special Mental Hygiene committee which meets periodically with the various commissioners on problems related to all Mental Hygiene workers.

Gallant, who began his career at Newark as an attendant in 1934, has been a senior x-ray technician since 1945. A charter member of the school's CSEA chapter, he has held various offices since 1962, including serving as president for four years. He is a member of CSEA's State committee to study union activities.

CENTRAL CONFERENCE — It was mainly "S. Samuel Borrelly Day" at a recent meeting of the Central Conference of the Civil Service Employees Assn., which held a two-day session at Alexandria Bay. In another part of the program Congressman Robert C. McEwen, top left, spoke on deficiencies of the Federal Hatch Act, which limits political activity by Federal workers; Arthur Kason, top center, is seen conducting the business session of the Conference and, at right, past president Mr. Clara Boone is cited for her service to the Conference. Also cited but not present was Mrs. Lois Minozzi. At lower left, Mrs. Marion Murray presents a plaque to Mr. Borrelly which cites his outstanding work in behalf of local government employees. At center, Paul Kyer, editor of The Leader who served as toastmaster, is seen as Mrs. Fannie Smith presented him with a gift from the Conference. At right, Fran Miller is seen as he presided over a luncheon honoring Borrelly.

Comm. For The Blind

 indicated that court action seemed to be the only remaining avenue for relief, following the department's latest refusal at a meeting in Albany to change its plans to transfer the agency.
 CSEA opposition to the move is based on its contention that the great majority of people served by the Commission are in the New York metropolitan area, and that transferral of the agency would create a needless hardship for many employees who would have to relocate.

Nassau Mediator

 made some offers, but we're not going to take anything but a good contract."
 The Nassau CSEA is demanding a 50-point package, headed by a 10 percent pay boost with a minimum of $600.
 Meanwhile, in the City of Long Beach, the CSEA unit among library employees called for fact-finding and the City employees unit came up with success after hard bargaining.

 The good news was ratification of a settlement for City workers of a pact giving them a $700 pay boost, free dental insurance and an additional longevity step in the second year of $550 plus two percent of base salary.
 The library unit, however, called for fact-finding after the intercession of a mediator failed to resolve the last remaining point at issue, the length of the work week.

Trooper Cited

ALBANY — State Thruway Trooper Robert Nunneker has been complimented on his "observation powers" in noticing that the lock assembly on the door of a car he had stopped for speeding was missing.
 A quick check showed that the car was stolen and forged driver's licenses were found hidden in the car.

Syracuse

 cited New York City's problems with teachers, police, firemen and sanitationmen, all of whom are restless because of labor "messes."
 "Some of these leaders missing tonight have never been with us, no matter how we arranged our schedules," he charged.
 Referring to current negotiations both on the State and political subdivision levels, he shook his head and said, "they're tough, real tough" but he reiterated his threat:
 "If a strike is the only way to get our answers, maybe that is what will have to be—and we will not be responsible, everyone will!"
 Chairman of the meeting was Clarence Laufer, president of the Syracuse State Hospital chapter, CSEA. John Ray, area field representative, was moderator.
