ABOLISH THE DEATH PENALTY
AND THE AMERICAN CIVIL LIBERTIES
UNION OF KENTUCKY PRESENT:

7 PM TUESDAY, MARCH 27
LOUISVILLE FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY
301 YORK STREET

The 54-minute documentary offers an original investigation into America's death penalty by probing how race discrimination infects the system. The film, produced by Rachel Lyon, follows the stories of death row inmates Robert Tarver of Alabama and Madison Hoblely of Chicago.

Please join us for the showing followed by discussion led by Cherie Dawson-Edward, assistant professor of criminal justice at Kentucky State University.

In case you can't join us, the documentary also will air that evening at 10 pm on PBS's Independent Lens.
