What Election Means To Civil Servants

CIVIL SERVANTS are generally forbidden by law to participate directly in political campaigns, except through voluntary contributions. Not by any means does this imply that politics and election results are of no importance to public employees. The men and women elected to office are their bosses and the people that determine working conditions, salaries and fringe benefits. Thus, the results of this year's election has great significance to City, State and local government employees.

State Employees

For State workers, the return to office of Governor Rockefeller and other top-level Republicans has a great variety of meanings. There is no doubt that State employees have prospered under the Rockefeller Administration these past four years. When Rockefeller raised state income taxes and employee salaries in the same year, he

Feily Rebuts Homer Statement After Rochester City Manager Raps "Free Choice" Editorial

By PAUL KYER

ALBANY, Nov. 19—The reply of Rochester City Manager Porter W. Homer to an editorial in The Leader, which charged city employees in Rochester were being denied the basic right of free choice in selecting representation, was refuted last week by Joseph F. Feily, president of the 108,000-member Civil Service Employees Association.

The Leader editorial was reprinted in full in the Nov. 9 issue of the Rochester Times-Union, followed by a reply to the editorial by Homer. The editorial asked "When were they (Rochester City employees) given the free choice, through secret ballot, to determine what employee organization would represent them?" It also charged Homer with apparently promising to deliver city employees to one particular union.

Homer's Reply

Here is Homer's reply, followed by Feily's rebuttal of the statement. Homer wrote to the Rochester newspaper saying:

"The editorial in The Civil Service Leader ignores a basic concept of employee organization—the right of a group to select its own bargaining agent.

"The city of Rochester has delivered no employees to anyone. The employees now represented by the State, County and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO, chose that organization to represent them.

"Evidence to support this fact is now on file with the city as re-

Meeting With Hurd Set On Correction Officer Appeal

ALBANY, Nov. 19—Joseph F. Feily, president of the Civil Service Employees Association, and presidents of the Association's correction institution chapters will meet Wednesday with State Budget Director T. Norman Hurd to review the long-delayed approval of the correction officers' reallocation from Grade 11 to Grade 12.

Feily arranged the meeting because of the growing concern on the part of the Association and its correction members over the delay.

Review Planned

Prior to the Budget meeting, the chapter presidents will meet at CSEA Headquarters, Albany, to go over the entire reallocation situation.

The reallocation bid, originally turned down by the Division of Classification and Compensation, was approved more than two months ago by the State Civil Service Commission. Since that time, it has rested in the hands of the Budget Director, whose final approval is needed to make the reallocation effective.

ALBANY, Nov. 19—State Police Superintendent Arthur Cornelius has been named in two new law suits by members of the State Police, the fourth and fifth such litigations brought against him in recent months.

In papers served Nov. 9 on the Superintendent, former Trooper Matthew J. Sieczkarek of Buffalo charged that he was removed without cause from his post as a State Trooper at Troop T, Cheektowaga, last July and without charges being preferred; without an opportunity to answer any charges; and without a hearing on the dismissal.

Cornelius is required to answer the charges before December 3. The suit will be brought before a special term of the State Supreme Court at Buffalo, December 5. Sieczkarek is represented by Charles R. Sandler of Buffalo.

'Shot In Air' Case

Late last week, a show cause order was served on the agency, temporarily preventing it from carrying out a ruling against a sergeant found guilty of firing a shot into the air while arresting a burglary suspect.

A show cause order, signed in Supreme Court, Albany, is returnable November 23. Sgt. Alfred F. Matuljak of Cobleskill, assigned to Troop G was found guilty after a departmental hearing charging him with violations of regulations arising from the firing of his gun into the air at the State Fair Grounds, Syracuse, last August 31.

First Far East Tour Being Offered; Albany Travel Forum Features Japan Air Lines Man

Thanks to the use of distance-cutting jet airplanes, the Orient has been brought near enough for shorter vacations and for the first time a 24-day tour to Japan, Hong Kong and Hawaii is now being offered to civil service employees through the Civil Service Travel Club, Inc.

8% Pay Hike For Wyoming Cty. Aides

(From Leader Correspondent)

WARSAW, Nov. 19—Work by the Wyoming County Chapter, CSEA, today was credited with bringing an 8% pay raise to most County Civil Service Employees.

The raise has been voted by the Wyoming County Board of Supervisors, effective Jan. 1. A pay boost for Wyoming County Community Hospital employees was voted by the Board in October.

Representatives of the CSEA Chapter urged the pay raises at hearings on the 1963 county budget. Miss Josephine Carlino is president of the Wyoming Chapter.

Pass your copy of The Leader on to a non-member.

The tour will depart from New York City May 24 and head toward the Far East via United and Japan Air Lines. Participants in the tour will see Japan in the late Spring when it is in its fullest bloom, visiting Tokyo, the temple city of Kyoto and numerous other sites in Japan famed for their beauty, the city or the spectacular scenery. The night life of Tokyo is a particular feature of this tour.

After Japan, Hong Kong

Second major stop is Hong Kong, bargain center of the world. This is the city where the highest Parisian fashions for women or the latest suit in London tailoring for men are whipped up within hours, custom-made and delivered for unbelievably low prices. Hundreds of other "buys" abound in Hong Kong, a city also known for its beauty and mystery.

Ever-popular Hawaii is the third leg of this journey, and travelers will visit Waikiki Beach, Pearl Harbor and the other beauty spots of the "Pearl of the Pacific."

Information

Total cost, including round-trip jet transportation, all hotel rooms, meals, sightseeing tours with guide, tips, etc., are covered in the price of $1,577.00. Only a very small number of seats are available for this program. Those wishing information and/or applications forms may write either to Deloras Fussell, 111 Winthrop

Nassau Chapter Meets Nov. 21

Nassau County chapter of the Civil Service Employees Assn. will meet Nov. 21 at 8 p.m. in the Salisbury Club House, Irving Flaumenbaum, chapter president, announced.

Doctors To Discuss Medicare At Meeting Of Rochester CSEA

ROCHESTER, Nov. 19—The pros and cons of Medicare, medical care for the aged, will be discussed by Dr. Charles Mathews, former president of the Rochester Medical Association and Dr. Robert France, professor of economics and associate dean of the University of Rochester at a meeting of the Rochester Chapter, Civil Service Employees Association on Nov. 28 at 8 p.m.

A question and answer period will follow the debate which will take place at the 40 and 8 club, 933 University Ave.

Dinner will be served at the club dining room at 6 p.m. Refreshments are under the chairmanship of Mrs. Merley B. Schwartz.

DON'T REPEAT THIS

made one of the most tremendous impressions any governor ever made on state workers. The impression deepened the following year when he kept a promise to move state employees to a par with their counterparts in private industry and ordered another round of wage increases. Prior to that, he accepted a proposition of the Civil Service Employees Association to increase take-home-pay by having the State pick up the first five points of contributions to the State Retirement System. This legislation was made permissive and many local government employees have benefited from the act.

On administrative matters, the Civil Service Employees Association and individual employees report a usually sympathetic ear from top level Republicans such as Lieut. Governor Malcolm Wilson, Senate Majority Leader Walter J. Mahoney, Speaker Joseph Carlino and Attorney General Louis Lefkowitz, as well as the majority of Governor Rockefeller's cabinet members. In the main, it can be said that most State employees are happy to have the same team back.

Change of Attitude

In prior years, legislators and public officials frequently expressed doubt that the majority of civil service employees showed their gratitude for beneficial legislation via the voting booth. That attitude underwent particular change this year, mainly because Republicans had the frequent, happy experience of hearing employee organizations and individual state workers publicly state that "Rockefeller is a man that keeps his word."

There is no way of telling, of course, how many civil servants voted for Rockefeller but it can be said that Rockefeller's constant reiteration that public employees must be maintained at the same wage levels as private industry is something the State's workers feel they can rely on again this year. The Governor's stand was backed by Senator Mahoney in address to the Civil Service Employees Association at that organization's annual meeting in Buffalo in October.

State workers not only want to keep up on wages. They want the Legislature to get rid of the Condon-Wadlin Law on strikes, which they feel is too harsh and ineffective in its penalties. They want another move toward a wholly-paid retirement system. The general feeling among state workers is that they are going to get some kind of action on all these things during the next session of the Legislature. The Rockefeller team has certainly established the precedents for them so feeling.

City Employees

The picture is not so clear as far as New York City employees are concerned. As the only Democrat to win a state office, Comptroller Arthur Levitt is in a position to continue his cordial attitude toward State employees but is in position to do little for City workers.

Mayor Robert Wagner is being pressed on many fronts in the labor scene, particularly by police and firemen, for some substantial action in the way of salary increases. It is no secret that the City is hard pressed for money and it is doubtful there will be any major increase in State aid to offset these pressures. As a matter of fact, many observers of the political scene feel that State aid was made a campaign issue to the point where it lessened the chances of any increase.

Wagner therefore is faced with two unpopular actions—tightening the City purse strings further or seeking new and/or higher taxes. Such a climate is not conducive to the welfare of City employee demands.

Without an increase of influence in the Legislature it can probably be said, therefore, that the election results have changed the picture very little for City employees. The problems are going to have to be settled right at home.

Civil Service Strength

One last note. Civil servants have become increasingly aware of the size of their voting strength. It is so large that it has often been referred to as the "sleeping giant" in politics. Political observers in both parties have noted that large bodies of civil service employees, mainly through their employee organizations, are going to keep reminding both Democrats and Republicans that the civil service vote is something that has to be reckoned with from now on.

Here is a rundown again on the size of that vote in New York State:

The total number of civil servants in the state — Federal, state, city and local — is some 890,800. Of these over 181,000 are Federal; 121,000 are state; 300,000 work for New York City; 288,000 are in other local jurisdictions and the remainder are in such classifications as transport and the public authorities.

A further breakdown shows that the majority of these employees work in the Metropolitan area. These figures show 300,000 New York City employees; more than 24,000 state employees and more than 112,000 Federal employees, constituting a public worker population of more than 450,000—and practically every one of them of voting age.

Voting registration in New York City, according to latest available figures, was some 3,500,000. This means that more than 10 per cent of these voters are civil service. Pollsters usually count two to three votes per working family, which means the civil service "family" vote in the Metropolitan area is roughly more than 20 to 30 per cent of the voting body; an enormous minority, to say the least.

The same figures can be projected on the state-wide voting level, where total voting registration was last reported at 7,881,203. With 890,000 public employees residing in the state, it can again be seen that in single votes alone they represent more than 10 per cent of the total balloting population.

Finkelstein Promoted By D.A.

New York County District Attorney Frank S. Hogan, has announced the appointment of Alex Finkelstein, a senior member of his accounting staff, as chief accountant. He succeeds Joseph M. Gasarch who resigned last week to enter private practice.

Finkelstein has been associated with law enforcement for the past twenty-seven years. During his service in the District Attorney's office, Finkelstein developed the documentary evidence which made possible the successful prosecution of hundreds of racketeering and commercial fraud cases.

Finkelstein uncovered the evidence which resulted in the conviction of top-flight bookmakers who, like Frank Erickson, sought to evade prosecution by establishing headquarters outside of New York County.

In 1955, Finkelstein unraveled the intricate manipulations whereby the fly-by-night promoter and financier, Robert Morman, swindled the

Your Public Relations IQ

By LEO J. MARGOLIN

The views expressed in this column are those of the writer and do not necessarily constitute the views of this newspaper.

Active Participants

THE MOST difficult part of implementing a government agency's or company's public relations program is getting the rank and file to join the PR effort as active participants.

THE PROBLEM increases in direct proportion to the size of the organization. It is even more acute with an agency or a company which deals directly with the public.

THE PERFORMANCE of the agency or the product made by the company may be superb. But all the good public relations can be neutralized or made bad by an uncooperative rank and file.

THE COMMERCIAL airlines can testify that it can give the world's best service, but a sassy ticket counter clerk or an impatient company phone operator can make all their good public relations go up in smoke.

TO REDUCE this possibility to a minimum, the New York City Transit Authority has begun a rank-and-file public relations program. Highly laudable in its objective, the TA is giving the program to all its 5,300 railroad clerks and porters.

IT TAKES A highly capable organizer, as well as an executive who thinks big, to carry out such program. But with a director of public relations like Sylvester V. Pointkowski for the largest transportation system in the world, even a gargantuan task becomes carefully planned routine.

THE CLERKS and porters are each receiving nine hours of public relations training. More specifically, their instruction is in courtesy and passenger relations. This is the most important aspect of the TA's job because they move millions of passengers a week in subways and buses.

THIS MEANS millions of public relations contacts each week by the thousands of TA employees. And Mr. Pointkowski wants to make sure that these employees know how to act.

BASICALLY, THE course impresses on the employee that courtesy is the most inexpensive investment one can make. Yet this investment, which costs nothing but a little extra thoughtfulness and effort, brings the highest possible dividends.

WHAT WE LIKE about Mr. Pointkowski's highly intelligent public relations thinking is his recognition that public relations is a two-way street. Long ago he started a public relations campaign among the passengers themselves to get them to act like human beings, instead of like the animals (hogs, donkeys, etc.) depicted in recent contest posters.

THERE IS NO question in our mind that many of the TA customers need the public relations training a lot more than some of the TA employees.

NEXT WEEK we will report on some important public relations techniques which TA is using. They are sound, meaningful, and easily adaptable for use by other government agencies.

"Well, that balances our budget—provided we win the Irish Sweepstakes."

Balancing the budget each month may be quite a trial. But there's one item in it that's still a big bargain: the electricity that runs your TV set, air conditioner, automatic washer, refrigerator-freezer and other work-saving appliances.

If—like so many people—you've added new appliances over the past few years, your electric bills have probably increased. But with Con Edison's step-down rates, the more electricity you use, the less it costs per kilowatt-hour. Electricity is still the big bargain in your budget.

Unrest Grows Over Budget OK Delay

STILL A BIG fat zero on the Correction Officer's reallocation to R-12. Most of the boys feel like a yo-yo. Division of Classification says "No," Civil Service Commissioners say "Yes," Director of Budget says nothing.

IN THIS WRITER'S travels throughout the State it is amazing how many congratulatory remarks are received on the final granting of R-12 to Correction Officers. Eye-brows really raised when I explain that it still was not approved or that one individual still has the power after two years of hearings and appeals to deny the approval.

JOSEPH FEILY, president of CSEA, has contacted Budget Director T. Norman Hurd and explained the growing concern of the Correction Officers and the CSEA over the delaying tactics on the reallocation of Correction Officer salaries, which was approved by the Civil Service Commission over two months ago.

WHAT JUSTIFICATION can there be for the thousands of dollars expended by the Division of Classification and the Appellant powers of the Civil Service Commission in their delegated authority, if the Division of Budget fails to follow out their recommendations. It would appear foolish for the Budget Division to assume that other agencies involved in reclassification had not considered the fiscal implications in their deliberations and decisions.

NEW YORK CITY police and firemen have been turning down an offered $700 increase in salary and demonstrating with picket lines to bring attention to their request. Must be a reasonable request when the City of New York is unsuccessfully attempting to recruit applicants and using every gimmick known in employment practices.

LATEST IN LAW enforcement salaries: Los Angeles $8,124 in 4 years and $9,504 in 20 years. Chicago $6,580 in 3 years. Detroit $6,140 in 3 years. Washington, D.C. $6,850 in 4 years and $8,050 in 19 years. Minneapolis $6,612 in 3 years. San Francisco $8,017 and New York City offered $8,980 in 3 years. New York City Correction Officers $7,585 in 4 years. New York State Correction Officers $6,140 in 6 years. I guess Horace Greeley was right, "Go West, young man."

ATTENTION Correction Officers: Hudson Valley Community College announced a night course in law. College President Otto V. Guenther stated "If interest is shown, the program may be expanded into a 4 year course with an award of associate degree in Law." Applicants must be full time paid law enforcement officers.

THE JOINT Legislative Committee on Court Re-organization will recommend to the Legislature that probation activities be removed from Department of Correction and placed under the State Judicial Conference.

FRANCIS A. MacDonald, better known as "Big Mac" and an old time fighter for civil service employees and former CSEA vice president, is having a bout with the medics. Drop a card of cheer to Warwick State School, Warwick, New York. It will help a lot to hear from old friends.

UNDERSTAND a new organization known as the Orange County Correction Officers Association has been formed. Just what Correction Officers will this group represent, as far as I know the State Correction Department has no institutions in Orange County.

THE OFFICERS need more organizations like a hole in the head. What they need is more action from the ones they now have.

Trooper Superintendent Now Named In Five Suits

as a trooper until his termination last July 13. He had been under the care of a physician since becoming ill in March and had been unable to return to full active duty since that time.

On May 29, the trooper alleges, he received notice that his accumulated sick leave and vacation credits were used up and that he was being placed on sick leave without pay until physically able to return to duty.

Sieczkarek claims he returned to duty for several days early in June, but, because of health reasons, was obliged to leave again and resume medical treatment.

A written request for transfer to another Troop for placement in a temporary desk position, approved by his commanding officer, was ignored by headquarters, according to Sieczkarek, as was a written request for placement on sick leave at half pay, submitted under the provisions of State Police regulations.

Subsequently, Sieczkarek charges, he was served with a written notice signed by the Superintendent, terminating his employment with the State Police.

Stiff Sentence For Matuljak
State Police officials said Matuljak was found guilty of the charge and was given "five days without pay." However, an Albany newspaper, the Times-Union, reported that "an unimpeachable source said the ruling against Sgt. Matuljak was five days suspension without pay, six months probations and a letter of censure from Superintendent Cornelius."

The newspaper also quoted police in New York, Buffalo, Syracuse, Albany, Troy, and Schenectady, as saying their officers were allowed to fire shots into the air to effect an arrest when a felony has been committed.

The charges against the trooper bought to light the new State Police policy of barring troopers from firing warning shots.

The charges stem from an incident at the State Fair Grounds when Matuljak was apprehending a burglary suspect. The sergeant reportedly had arrested the man and taken him to his patrol car. As he attempted to call for assistance over a faulty police radio, the suspect ran, but halted when Matuljak fired the warning shot into the air. Matuljak said he fired the shot to sound the alarm and to summon help.

He was charged with failure to secure the suspect in his custody and failure to comply with the order against "warning" shots.

The other suits recently brought against the Superintendent include one by the Civil Service Employees Association for Trooper John H. Donahue of Troop K testing the validity of a State Police promotion examination; one on September 20 by former Trooper David Maloney claiming that Cornelius also discharged him last July without cause; and one by John J. Lawson, former commander of Troop K, who protested his demotion to lieutenant and his transfer to Batavia from Hawthorne.

In another development last week, Captain Lawson appeared under subpoena to testify as a witness for the Employees Association in the Donahue case. Lawson testified on the mathematical aspects of the protested performance ratings of the sergeant examination.

Conservation Chapter Sets Dinner Meeting On Nov. 20

ALBANY, Nov. 19—A proposed updating of the chapter's constitution, a report on the current membership campaign and discussion of future programs and activities were slated to make up the agenda at a dinner-business meeting of the Conservation Department, Capital District Chapter, CSEA, Tuesday, Nov. 20 at the Thruway Motor Inn, Albany.

Milton J. Benoit, chapter president, is to preside over the session. Also on hand will be other chapter officers, Rollo Davenport, vice president; Fran Etter, secretary, and Joe Lennon, treasurer.

The chapter president called upon members of the Chapter to make a special effort to attend the meeting so that they may become aware of the unit's responsibilities and so that they can make known their ideas on the group's future plans.

The chapter's current membership drive will be one of the most important topics of discussion at the dinner. The chapter is halfway toward the goal set at the beginning of the drive—expansion from 221 members to 300 members.

Shopping Trip

Plans for a shopping trip to New York City on Dec. 3 and the administration of the booster influenza shot late in November will also be discussed. A proposal will also be submitted by the president for the revision of the unit's Constitution which, he said, is badly in need of updating.

Members will also receive a report on the recent "Hayseed Hop" conducted by the group at McKown's Grove. Joan Braungart was chairman of the arrangements committee for the event which attracted more than 100 members and guests.

Others on the committee included Millie Dell, Sally Di Domenico, William Butterworth, Walt Slater and Jim Creem. Prizes went to Joan Lay and George Bidwell for the best hillbilly and western costumes respectively.

Non-Teaching Aides In Syracuse May Form CSEA Unit

(From Leader Correspondent)

SYRACUSE, Nov. 19—Non-teaching personnel of the Syracuse school system may join Syracuse Chapter, Civil Service Employees Association, as a separate unit.

The chapter's Board of Directors has authorized discussions with the school group on this topic, said Miss Leona Appel, president of the chapter. These discussions are to be conducted by Vernon Tapper, CSEA vice president, and Ben Roberts, field representative.

200 Can Join

Under the proposed plan for school personnel's joining the chapter, the separate unit would operate as an individual group, but would be represented on the Onondaga Chapter's Board of Directors, it was said.

The chapter now has as members both city and county employees. It is estimated that about 200 employees of the school system would be eligible for membership in the chapter if they agree to join.

Morrisville Scene Of CSEA Dinner

The State University of New York, Agricultural and Technical Institute, Morrisville, New York was recently the scene of an oyster stew dinner and Civil Service Employees Association meeting.

The Chapter president, Arthur Lapp, presented views on the need for additional members. Since the meeting, the membership has increased by 13 members. A. J. Donnelly, CSEA field representative, summarized the resolutions to be presented to the 1963 legislative body.

Pay Answers Concluded

Because of the number of questions on the federal pay increase bill which was signed by President Kennedy, John Macy, Chairman of the U.S. Civil Service Commission has answered the most frequently asked questions. The following questions and answers represent the conclusion of Macy's clarification:

Q. Is any provision made for higher pay for shortage-category positions?

A. Yes. A more flexible method is now employed for attracting candidates for hard-to-fill positions. Instead of raising entrance pay above the minimum and leaving the maximum of the grade at the same level, a method of pay which reduced and sometimes eliminated incentives, the new pay bill provides for raising rates for the whole grade. For example, $9,475 is the minimum and $11,995 the maximum of GS-12, and if it is decided to raise the entrance salary for a certain job to $10,735 (5th rate), an increase of $1,260, each succeeding rate would be raised by the same amount for a total of the entire 9 rates, making the maximum $13,255. In no case can the entrance salary be raised above the seventh rate of the grade.

Q. Under the new shortage-category salary tables, a professional engineer qualified to begin Federal employment at GS-11 will be paid $8,575 per year, while a beginning medical officer, GS-11, will be paid $9,105. Please explain why these starting salaries differ.

A. In order to avoid having entrance rates in shortage categories drop back below rates the Commission had approved under its former authority, immediate action was taken to preserve these rates by moving them to the closest rate in the new schedule. The engineer and medical officer starting rates differ because, before the new pay reform act was signed, an engineer hired at grade 11 was entitled to the fourth rate of the grade, while a medical officer hired at grade 11 was grade. The difference came about entitled to the sixth rate of the grade because of differences in recruiting difficulty in the two professions; to enable the Government rate, and, to hire medical officers, the sixth rate of the old scale.

Q. Are any changes made in the limitation on the number of positions in grades GS-16, 17, and 18?

A. Yes. Under the law, the number of positions authorized in these grades has been increased by 411 and professional engineering positions primarily concerned with research and development, and professional positions in the physical and natural sciences and medicine, are removed from this control.

Q. What happens to Public Law 313 salaries under the new law?

A. Positions, mostly scientific and professional, formerly paid under P.L. 313 and similar statutes, now have their salary range geared to the range of Classification Act grades GS-16 through GS-18, rather than to a specific dollar amount such as "not in excess of $19,000."

Q. Why are salaries for positions in grades GS-16, 17, and 18 unaffected by the second phase?

A. The salaries in these three grades are closely related to the total problem of executive salaries. The needed salary adjustments for such positions are to be studied as a whole.

Macy Calls Meeting Of Representatives of Employee Associations

John W. Macy, Jr., chairman of the U.S. Civil Service Commission, recently announced a meeting for representatives of employee organizations to discuss the findings in the Bureau of Labor Statistics salary survey report released November 11 and their implications for Federal statutory salary systems.

The meeting, to be held on November 2, in Washington, will be open to national representatives of all employee organizations and professional associations of employees who are paid under the Federal statutory salary systems covered by the Federal Salary Reform Act of 1962.

These are the systems of the Classification Act, the Postal Field Service salary law, and the laws under which Foreign Service personnel and certain personnel of the Veterans Administration's Department of Medicine and Surgery are paid.

Park guides give lectures, answer questions, conduct groups of visitors in or through the area and give general information concerning the area and its features. They personally escort groups of visitors through the area; explain its functions, programs, and objectives and describe the exhibits, processes, objects, or other features of interest displayed or observed during the visit; and are responsible for the conduct and safety of groups, the maintenance of proper schedules, and the handling of emergencies that may arise.

Candidates must have had at least six months experience in the oral presentation of factual data. Another requirement includes a year and half of experience which involved group leadership, experience in teaching and lecturing to groups, and experience in the individual or collective handling of group situations. All applicants will be required to pass a written test which is designed to measure verbal ability, ability to learn, and ability to adapt to the duties of the position.

The examination will be given in Albany, Glens Falls, and Schenectady. Applicants should indicate in their application cards where they wish to be examined.

Application cards (Form 5000-AB) and announcements PH-70-03-62 may be obtained from the Executive Secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Northeast Region, National Park Service, 143 South Third Street, Philadelphia; or from the Director, New York Region, U. S. ## WMCA Makes Plea For Firemen's Fund

RADIO Station WMCA, noted for its spirited editorial stands, has taken another stand in behalf of New York City's civil servants. This time, the radio station has spoken out in order to aid the bereaved families of those six, brave firemen whose lives were lost in the line of duty in a fire in Queens.

The broadcast was a plea for donations to the Queen's Firemen's Funds—and we are happy to reprint that radio editorial. It reads:

Our City's firemen put their lives on the line for you every day . . . every night . . . when they go to work.

Last year, 14 of them died on duty. Just a few weeks ago six more died while putting out a fire in Queens. WMCA's Dan Meenan reported from the funeral procession outside St. Patrick's Cathedral:

"Three thousand off-duty firemen marched in solemn procession their heads bowed, into St. Patrick's Cathedral, this morning for a Requiem Mass for the repose of the souls of the six firemen killed Saturday night in Queens."

These men who gave their lives left behind grieving families. WMCA urges you to contribute. Send what you can to Fire Commissioner Thompson, New York 7.

After The Election

THE votes are in, the choices have been made and it's "back to business" now in the world of politics. Our column "Don't Repeat This" interprets the election results this week and in so doing poses some serious questions concerning employee relationships in New York City.

There are numerous major problems still unanswered by City Hall, two of them being the demands by police and firemen. Working rights, pension demands and a wide range of personnel problems face the City.

We have called for an extensive, co-ordinated plan from City Hall to deal with these matters. Now that the effort is campaigning is over, let us hope that civil servants are forceful in reminding elected officials of campaign promises and that these same officials show some real initiative in delivering some needed solutions.

A Thanksgiving Wish

THANKSGIVING is here and we welcome a holiday that, with the Fourth of July, is so particularly an American one. Our independence is only one of the things we Americans have to be thankful for this week, but one of the most important. The privilege of living in a free society is something to be grateful for at any time.

Each of us will have his own particular "blessings" to count this Thursday. The Leader hopes that the number of those blessings increases for all, not only to be remembered on Thanksgiving Day, but throughout the year.

Commerce Assn. Urges Mayor Veto New Department

Mayor Wagner is being urged by the Commerce and Industry Association of New York not to sign the bill to amend the new City Charter in order to create a new City Department of Relocation out of the bureau that is now operating in that capacity within the Department of Real Estate, it was announced this week by Executive Vice President Ralph C. Gross.

The bill was approved by the Board of Estimate at a special meeting last week and the Mayor held a public hearing on it at City Hall on Friday.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Letters to the editor must be signed, and names will be withheld from publication upon request. They should be no longer than 300 words and we reserve the right to edit published letters as seems appropriate. Address all letters to: The Editor, Civil Service Leader, 97 Duane St., New York 7, N.Y.

Wants To Know Who Changed Exam Rules

Editor, The Leader:

On Saturday, October 27, 1962, I took the practical examination for promotion to senior stenographer at Washington Irving High School and found it fair—but I and other candidates noticed that several hundred city-owned typewriters were being delivered to the school in City-owned trucks. Some of these trucks had Public Works, Housing Authority, etc., painted on them.

Instructions from the Civil Service Commission to the candidates stated that the candidates were to supply their own typewriters. It cost me $5.35 to rent a typewriter just for this examination. It also cost me a sleepless night before the examination, worrying whether the machine would arrive on time and whether it would be in good working condition.

If my supervisor would have allowed me to use the typewriter I use every day at my work, I would have been happy to take it myself and return it to the office; I would not have had it delivered to the school in a city-owned truck by a city employee.

"Unfair," She Says

Allowing these candidates to use city-owned typewriters was unfair to the other candidates too because the people worked on these machines every day; some for a year or more and were familiar with their machines. I and other candidates had to use a typewriter which we never saw until the examination started; a machine with which we were unfamiliar with and which cost me (I don't know what others paid) $5.35.

Did the City of New York have this examination so that only certain City employees would pass high enough to be sure of appointment? Why were these candidates permitted to use City-owned typewriters delivered in City-owned trucks by City chauffeurs? Who are these privileged stenographers that they should be given this advantage over other city stenographers and those who are competing in the open examination?

The Civil Service Commission and the Mayor's Office should investigate and find out who is interested in having only certain stenographers promoted to senior stenographers.

(Miss) MARY CALLANAN
Brooklyn, N.Y.

Civil Service LAW & YOU

By HAROLD L. HERZSTEIN

Mr. Herzstein is a member of the New York bar (The views expressed in this column are those of the writer and not necessarily constitute the views of this newspaper or of any organization.)

Act Fast

RETIREMENT officials, with whom I have discussed the subject, are always concerned about the failures of members to act promptly in retirement matters. They have good reason. That brother whom you made your beneficiary when you started to work twenty-five years ago is better off than you are. Since you designated him you have taken a wife or a husband and have had several children. Get over to your retirement system and straighten things out. Time will not do it.

RETIREMENT officials in this State are sympathetic and serious. They will always give you detailed attention on what you want to accomplish. Call on them as often as you wish.

NOW, LET ME show you what happened in a recent "late" case, which the employee left to fate.

THE MUDZINSKI CASE

THIS MONTH Judge Harold Tessler of the State Supreme Court in Queens County demonstrated what happens when a change of beneficiary is sought but the designation is not filed in time (Matter of Mudzinski, Board of Estimate, Supreme Court, Queens County, Special Term, Part I, New York Law Journal, 11/8/62, p. 17, col. 8).

IN THAT case Mr. Mudzinski, an employee of the New York City Transit Authority, had joined the New York City Employees' Retirement System in 1947. At that time he had nominated Mary Midzinski, his wife, to receive the ordinary death benefit and accumulated salary deductions in the event of his death while in City service. Subsequently, he and his wife separated and remained separated at the time of his death.

ON MARCH 20, 1962, Mr. Mudzinski executed a "Designation of Beneficiary" form in which Dorothea De Kay Brennan was designated as beneficiary. The Judge wrote that: "Immediately after executing the aforesaid form the decedent delivered it to his attorney for the purpose of filing it with the respondent." Mr. Mudzinski died on March 25, 1962. The form was not filed until March 26, 1962, the day after his death. The Retirement System accepted the form but marked it invalid and has refused to pay the benefits to Miss Brennan, the designee named in it. Miss Brennan then started this action to enforce her claim of right.

THE LAW

JUDGE TESSLER rejected her claim. He wrote that the refusal was justified under Section B3-32.0 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York which provides that:

Upon the death of a member or if a former member, there shall be paid to his estate, or to such person as he has nominated or shall nominate by written designation duly executed and filed with such board during the lifetime of the member.

The Judge ruled that since the designation was not filed "during the lifetime of the member," that Miss Brennan had no rights in this proceeding. He seemed sorry about it. In fact, he wrote that he dismissed the petition "without prejudice to any other rights the petitioner may possess." However, he decided against her.

For the State law on this subject, see next week's article.

Court Supports Buffalo Aide's Promotion Stand

BUFFALO, Nov. 19—A city employee, aided by the Erie County Chapter, CSEA, apparently has won his fight for higher position.

Patrick J. Grady, a senior first class stationary engineer, said city legal officers have dropped an appeal from a Supreme Court order that Grady obtained against the Buffalo Civil Service Commission.

Grady placed first on a four-man list in a competitive examination in 1961 for associate stationary engineer. He claimed, and the Court agreed with him, that after he was passed over for the first appointment the list was "maneuvered" so only two names remained.

When another vacancy occurred, no appointment was made because appointing authorities said they didn't have a choice of three eligibles.

Mr. Grady is now eligible, without having to take another exam, for a future vacancy.

Military Units Seeking Teachers In Physical Science

Teachers in the physical sciences are in short supply for army training, latest reports indicate, although teachers of the social sciences are available up to 50 for each vacancy. The problem that the army is faced with is a choice of either spreading the teaching of elementary sciences and cutting back advanced training at universities be offered to specialists is under consideration. Another solution proposed is providing elementary science training at universities and specializing in higher scientific training within the armed services.

A tribute to New York State's Department of Public Works #17 in a series on State Government

The Department of Public Works, under the direction of Superintendent, J. Burch McMorran, is the building agent for the State. Concentrated in it are the engineers, architects and other technicians employed by the State to Plan, design, construct and maintain highways, bridges, and grade separation structures, canals and waterways, and to design and construct State-owned buildings.

The Division of Administration coordinates and directs all activities of the Department, including contract awards, finance, personnel, right-of-way procurement and claims.

The Division of Construction prepares plans, specifications, designs and estimates to construct and reconstruct state highways, thruways, parkways, bridge and grade separation structures, canals, waterways of the State, and flood control projects.

The Division of Architecture prepares the plans, specifications, designs and estimates for construction and reconstruction of the public buildings and grounds of the State.

The Division of Operation and Maintenance operates and maintains State highways, thruways, bridges, canals, waterways of the State, etc.

THE STATEWIDE PLAN . . . a combination of Blue Cross, Blue Shield and Major Medical . . . provides security and protection for most of the employees of the Department of Public Works against the cost of hospital and medical care. This three-part program offers realistic coverage for all New York State employees as well, active and retired.

The vast majority of employees of the State of New York know that as subscribers to THE STATEWIDE PLAN, they are eligible for the most liberal benefits at the lowest possible cost. They know, too, that wherever they go, at home or abroad, this plan and its benefits travel with them. In this fact there is security against the worry and concern which would result from less adequate coverage.

Feily Tells Newspaper Manner In Which Homer Gave Union Recognition

quired by the City Council legislation. Despite an invitation to do so, first made verbally and later repeated in writing, the CSEA has made no move to submit such proof of membership, nor has it asked for recognition by the city.

"The responsibility to act on behalf of any claimed membership lies with the CSEA and not with the city.

"The CSEA states it was thwarted in its efforts to solicit members. This is untrue.

Met With CSEA, He Says

"On Sept. 5, I met with representatives of the CSEA and authorized solicitation in working hours. Later, on Sept. 24, I advised the CSEA of my intention to act on evidence submitted to me by Oct. 1.

"As of that date and as this is written, only the State, County and Municipal Employees Union has submitted a request for recognition.

"The CSEA states that the city has recognized one union to represent all employees. This is untrue. The union recognized does not represent policemen, firemen, professional personnel or management personnel.

"The CSEA complains that the new union is 'largely organized in one department. This is misleading. In fact the new union has membership from other departments. Again, the CSEA refused to recognize that the city has allowed its employees to make their own choice.

"I appreciate the opportunity offered the administration by The Times-Union to correct the misstatements of fact in The Civil Service Leader editorial," Homer concluded.

Feily Rejects Statement

Feily took immediate issue with Homer on his reply to the editorial. He wrote the Rochester Times-Union last week saying:

"I would like to take this opportunity to answer City Manager Porter Homer's reply to an editorial in The Civil Service Leader, both of which appeared in the Times-Union of Friday, November 9.

"Mr. Homer claims that employees now represented by a union 'chose' that organization without outside influence and pressure. What Mr. Homer doesn't relate is the manner in which they 'chose' that organization. It was reported to us as early as last July that union organizers were soliciting employees of Rochester's Department of Public Works with false claims and promises that only through union representative could they be safe in their jobs. In addition, department heads had been told at a secret meeting not to interfere with or hinder the union drive in any way. The false claims made by the union to employees were reported to the city but absolutely nothing was done to correct them and the union continued to employ these and other similar methods in recruiting membership in the City of Rochester.

"Safe" Move

"Mr. Homer says our claims that we were thwarted in our efforts to solicit members are untrue. As early as last March 13, CSEA, in writing, asked the City Council, the Mayor and the City Manager for the right of payroll deduction of dues and the opportunity to explain the purposes, accomplishments, services and programs of our Association. We never even received a reply to this letter. Again in July and August representatives of CSEA met with Mr. Homer with the same requests. Again, they were ignored. Finally, in September, months after a union was given the blessing and assistance of the city in contacting employees for membership, Mr. Homer decided it was 'safe' to let CSEA solicit the membership of employees. Less than two weeks later, on September 24, Mr. Homer suddenly announced that CSEA had to submit by October 1 'such information as you deem necessary to me in order that I will be in a position to make this determination with the available data at my disposal.' We immediately advised Mr. Homer that we could not meet his request until he provided us with standards and sufficient information as to the data he required and the reasons he wanted this data. Further, that since we had been advised by our attorneys that an order staying Homer from further action in this matter had been served on Homer, we would await replying to his letter of September 24 until such time as the court action had been determined.

Sudden Recognition

"Then suddenly, without prior notice to employees, other citizens of Rochester, the city's newspapers and other communication media, or other employee organizations, and within a few hours from the time the court stay was lifted, Mr. Homer announced he had recognized a union as bargaining agent for all city employees with the exception of firemen, policemen and some 'professional' personnel, lumping together all office employees, DPW employees and employees of all other departments, a move which we claim he had very carefully planned for months. Subsequently, we learned that Mr. Homer extended his recognition to the union to a so-called collective bargaining agreement.

"Mr. Homer talks about 'basic concepts' of employee organization, then ignores the most basic one: 'The right of employees to choose by secret ballot the organization they want to represent them.' We ask again, Mr. Homer, as we have done innumerable times in the past, why have you denied a secret ballot and why you won't even comment on it? We believe this denial and other obvious contrivances by the City Manager fully supports our claims that Mr. Homer has attempted to 'deliver' city employees to a union organization.

Has 700 CSEA Cards

"Mr. Homer now has in his hands more than 700 cards signed by city employees authorizing payroll deduction of dues for the Civil Service Employees Association.

"In conclusion, I would like to state here that the Civil Service Employees Association will continue its efforts to protect the basic rights of Rochester's employees until every resource is exhausted," Feily said.

Buffalo Police Can Take Exam

BUFFALO, Nov. 19 — Buffalo patrolmen are eligible to take an examination for promotion to police lieutenant, the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court has ruled.

The Court, in Rochester on Oct. 26, dismissed a suit brought by five Buffalo desk lieutenants who wanted to annul a ruling by the Buffalo Civil Service Commission. The Commission said the patrolmen are eligible.

The desk officers wanted the exam limited to them. Police lieutenants get $6000 a year; desk lieutenants, $5500 and patrolmen, $5300.

Senator Erwin Holding His Last Budget Hearing

(Special to The Leader)

ALBANY, Nov. 19—Senate Finance Chairman Austin Erwin is attending his last state budget hearings. The veteran Genesee lawmaker is retiring this year from one of the top legislative posts at the State Capitol.

Sell Niagara Falls City Lots To Avoid Firings, Says CSEA

(From Leader Correspondent)

NIAGARA FALLS, Nov. 19—The Niagara Falls City Council should sell city-owned parking lots and not dismiss employees if it wants economies, Thomas Butler, president of the Niagara Falls Chapter, CSEA, said today.

Butler noted that the Council, faced with a 1962 budget deficit, cut 51 civil service workers off the payroll.

At the same time, the CSEA president observed, the city owns five parking lots which brought in a total revenue of only $2,830 in 1961.

If the lots were privately owned, Butler said, they would yield taxes of $27,640 a year.

Representatives from Japan Air Lines and Civil Service Travel Club will be present and travel movies will be shown. Admission is free and is open to civil servants, their family members and friends.

Formal hearings on requests of state agencies for funds for the coming fiscal year, which opens next Apr. 1 began Nov. 12th at the State Capitol.

Key officials, in addition to Senator Erwin, at the hearings include T. Norman Hurd, state budget director and Assemblyman Fred W. Preller, chairman of the Assembly Ways and Means Committee.

Hearings Are Closed

The hearings are closed to the press, public and even to minority members of the Legislature. They help shape the state's executive budget, which must be submitted to the Legislature by the Governor by Feb. 1.

According to the schedule, the final hearings will be held Wednesday, Nov. 21. Scheduled to appear that day are Civil Service and Audit and Control officials, as well as the Office of Transportation.

Honored by Farm Bureau

In past years, Senator Erwin has played a key role in determining legislative approval of budgets for state departments and agencies.

He was the recipient only last week of the first distinguished service award ever presented by the New York Farm Bureau for 52 years of continuous, elective public service.

Mr. Erwin was first elected to the Senate in 1944. He also has served as a justice of the peace, member and chairman of the Livingston County Board of Supervisors and as district attorney.
