ACADEMIC HERALDRY

The caps, gowns, and hoods worn at college and university functions date back to the Middle Ages. Monks and students of those days wore them to keep warm in the damp and drafty 12th-century castles and halls of learning.

The gowns for the bachelor's degree, earned after undergraduate study, have long, pointed sleeves and are designed to be worn closed.

The holder of the master's degree wears a gown with an oblong sleeve open at the wrist. The sleeve base hangs down, and the rear part of its oblong shape is worn square cut. The gown may be worn open or closed. An alternate and older master's gown is also permissible. This gown is always worn open, has a long sleeve, which is square and closed at the end, and has a slit near the forearm.

Gowns for the doctoral degree may also be worn open or closed, but they carry broad velvet panels down the front and three velvet bars on the full, round, open sleeves. The velvet trimming may be either in black or the color distinctive to the field of learning to which the degree pertains.

Academic gowns for each level are black, although a few institutions permit doctoral recipients to wear gowns of the characteristic institutional color.

Academic protocol allows trustees, presidents, and marshals of higher education institutions to wear gowns which are especially designed and colored. The President of the University at Albany wears a black and royal purple gown bearing four horizontal royal purple and gold bars on the sleeves. The marshals' gowns at UAlbany are gold and blue.

Caps may be of serge, broadcloth, or, for the doctoral outfit only, of velvet. The tassel is black or the color appropriate to the field of study, except the doctoral cap may have a tassel of gold or bullion.

It is the hood that gives color and real meaning to the academic costume. The bachelor's hood is sometimes worn upon completion of the course, even though the degree has not yet been actually conferred. A black shell of varying size for the three degrees, and of material to match the gowns, is lined with silk in the colors of the institution conferring the degree. UAlbany's institutional colors are royal purple and gold.

The hoods of the master's degree recipients are a black shell made of material to match the gown and use the institutional colors. The doctoral hood, which uses the same institutional colors, is larger and of a different style, having a flat panel at the back. The hood is bordered with velvet of the proper width to indicate the degree and of the color signifying the field of learning to which the degree pertains.

If more than one degree is held, the gown and hood of the highest degree are worn. Holders of several doctoral degrees may make a choice of hood for any particular occasion. The colors indicative of the various fields of learning are as follows:

Arts, Letters, Humanities: white

Accountancy, Business, Commerce: dusk

Economics: copper

Education: powder blue

Fine Arts: brown

Journalism: crimson

Library Science: lemon yellow

Music: pink

Philosophy: royal blue

Public Administration, including Foreign Service: teal blue

Science: golden yellow

Social Science and Social Work: citron

Graduating students at UAlbany wear tassels on their caps in a color representing the University's colors of purple and gold. Honors graduates of the baccalaureate program also wear honor medallions.

MEDALLION OF THE UNIVERSITY

The Medallion of the University is the highest award for distinguished service that the University at Albany bestows. Honorees must demonstrate profound commitment to the most fundamental values of American society and excellence at every level of education. Recipients have shown they appreciate the symbiotic relationships among academic quality, economic vitality and cultural richness. Previous recipients include Itamar Rabinovich, president of Tel Aviv University and former ambassador to the United States from Israel; the late Senator Daniel Patrick Moynihan; H. Patrick Swygert, president of Howard University and 15th president of the University at Albany; and Abraham Foxman, national director of the Anti-Defamation League.

CATHERINE BERTINI

The Recipient of the Medallion of the University is Catherine Bertini '71, under-secretary-general for management to United Nations Secretary-General Kofi Annan.

An alumna of the University at Albany, Bertini is responsible for all administrative and managerial matters in the United Nations, including the leadership and management of United Nations senior officials dealing with budget, finance, human resources, management policy development, information systems, purchasing, travel, investments, facilities management and security of the staff in New York City. She is also charged with implementation of the secretary-general's management reform initiatives and the refurbishment of the headquarters complex. She is the senior American official in the United Nations Secretariat.

Prior to her current position, Bertini served for ten years as Executive Director of the United Nations World Food Program (WFP), the world's largest international humanitarian agency. She was appointed to that position in 1992 on the recommendation of President George H.W. Bush and was reappointed in 1997 with the endorsement of President Bill Clinton.

Bertini is credited with assisting hundreds of millions of victims of wars and natural disasters throughout Africa, Asia, Latin America, the Middle East, and parts of Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union. In particular, she was widely praised for her efforts to end famine in North Korea; averting starvation in Afghanistan by delivering enormous amounts of urgently needed food aid in 2001; ensuring the provision of food supplies during the crises in Bosnia and Kosovo; and in 2000, averting the mass starvation that threatened 16 million people in the Horn of Africa. While working at WFP's headquarters in Rome, Bertini was also credited with modernizing the administration of WFP to ensure its efficiency and effectiveness, and with promoting the role of women in the management of WFP operations.

Before joining WFP, Bertini served as United States Assistant Secretary of Agriculture for Food and Consumer Services, and as Acting Assistant Secretary of the Family Support Administration in the United States Department of Health and Human Services. She worked in Illinois and New York state governments. For ten years, she was employed by Container Corporation of America in Chicago, Illinois, as a public affairs officer. In 1986, she was a fellow at the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University. For many years, she has been active in politics in the United States.

Bertini has received several awards in recognition of her professional achievements, including the Republic of Italy's Order of Merit and the Association of African Journalists' Prize of Excellence. In 1996, The Times of London magazine named her as one of "The World's Most Powerful Women." Earlier in her career, a citation provided by the American Public Welfare Association said that she "epitomizes the very best in public service." She has received seven honorary doctorates from Universities in Canada, the Slovak Republic, Italy and the United States.

It is with great pride that the University at Albany, State University of New York, presents Catherine Bertini the Medallion of the University.

PHI BETA KAPPA

Phi Beta Kappa, established in 1776, is the nation's oldest and most respected undergraduate honors organization. Members are elected from candidates for degrees in the liberal arts and sciences, usually from the upper tenth of the graduation class. Election is based not only on the quality of academic achievement as measured by the GPA, but also on the breadth of study in the liberal arts and sciences. ### GPA INFORMATION

Candidates for May degrees are listed as of May 1, 2003. No changes in status could be made after that date. August and December 2002 graduates were listed in the December program. Honors for May degree candidates were computed using the cumulative grade-point average as of December 20, 2002, and a projection that the student will have earned 56 or more credits at Albany, of which a minimum of 40 credits are A-E graded. Official honor status will be recalculated when Spring 2003 grades are recorded and will appear on the diploma.

*** Summa Cum Laude - signifies a cumulative grade-point average of 3.75 or above

** Magna Cum Laude - signifies a cumulative grade-point average of 3.50-3.74

* Cum Laude - signifies a cumulative grade-point average of 3.25-3.49

ALMA MATER

*College of the Empire State,
Mother of an army great,
Thou the molder of our fate,
Thee we sing today.*

*Thine the hand we clasp so strong,
Holding tho' the years be long,
Thou the burden of our song,
Thee we sing today.*

*Wisdom's duty heeds thy call,
Ever in Minerva's thrall,
Pass the torch from one to all,
Guide each destiny.*

*'Neath the Purple and the Gold,
Let thy history unfold,
Sons and daughters, young and old,
Hail to Albany.*
