SPORTSMANSHIP

To be fair and honorable in all sports is the definition the diction－ ary gives of sportmanship．

In other words it meais to＂play square＂and display your fine character in the greatest game of all which is the game of life．

When a game is completed the players depart for home with a sense of victory ，The winning team has won in playing，but long after the game is over the memory of the losing ＊＊am：s gallant spirit will remain： $\therefore$ an after the memory of the scoring stown is forgotten．

A gracious winner and a gallant loser conquers all，with sportsman－ ship．
