HOMEROOMS PLAN ACTIVITIES

Homeroom 121 is planning a Christmas party for next Thursday during the homeroom period. The following committees are in charge of the party: ice cream, Arthur Bates; other refreshments, Shirley Baldwin; games, Stanley Eddison; and room decorations, Alma Brown.

Homeroom 127 has received the picture drawn by Robert Meghreblian to hang on the wall. It has appointed a committee to be in charge of the Christmas box.

In homeroom 227 students will exchange Christmas presents even though they do not plan to have a Christmas party.

Homeroom 129 has selected a committee to be in charge of the Christmas box. It is composed of Miriam Fletcher, Doris Welsh, John Crawford, Marcia Wiley and Ruth Selkirk.

They have also selected a play called "The Stolen Visit" to be given in assembly next semester. The cast is composed of Miriam Fletcher, Susan Poole, Robert Wortendyke, Marcia Wiley, John Crawford, Jane Phinney, and Louise Rothmund. Committees to assist in the presentation are as follows: curtain, Charles Sanderson; costumes, Marjorie Sherman; lights, Way Hoyt; announcer, Esther Stulmaker; and assistant director, Ruth Selkirk.

COUNCIL CONSIDERS ASSEMBLY DISTURBANCE

The Junior High Student Council on Friday considered the question of assembly disturbances. After a long discussion it decided to follow the police system now used in the cafeteria. All unnecessary applauding, laughing, booing, and other disturbances will be checked.

GIRLS PLAY BASKET BALL

The Junior High school girls have formed basket ball teams under the direction of Miss Hitchcock. The seventh and eighth grade teams will play against each other. The teams in the ninth grade will also play against each other.

MISS THOMPSON PRAISES STUDENT COUNCIL EFFORTS

The confusion in the cafeteria noon has been lessened so much through the efforts of the Student Council that Miss Thompson, manager of the cafeteria, wrote the following letter of congratulation.

To the Student Council
Milne Junior High:

I feel a word of appreciation is due to you who have been responsible for the improvement in the cafeteria during the lunch period. It seems like a different place and is so much nicer with less noise and confusion. Your splendid cooperation is surely to be commended.

Gratefully yours
Laura F. Thompson

CLUB NEWS

The Cartoon club is sponsoring a cartoon contest in the Junior High. Anyone may enter, but all cartoons must be submitted to the club before Wednesday, January 8, 1936. Cartoons must be about something in Milne, and should be three and a half inches square in size. The club will be the judge to select the best cartoons. The three best ones will appear in the Crimson and White and the best one will receive a prize.
