COUNCIL MAY FORM COLLEGE ORCHESTRA

Students Will Meet Monday To Plan Organization, Conklin Says

CANDLYN JILTS PROJECT

Head Of Music Department Refuses To Conduct Orchestra

Steps were taken this week for the formation of a symphonic orchestra for students. A meeting will be conducted Monday at 11:45 o'clock for students interested. Marion E. Conklin, '29, president of the Music association announced today.

Officers of the association will "hend every effort toward the re-establishment of an orchestra here," the council of officers told the News in a letter today.

Dr. T. Frederick H. Candlyn, instructor in music, this week declared that the "orchestra is gone for good," as far as he is concerned. He declared that he would not be interested in it.

The move of the music council to re-organize a student orchestra is partly the outcome of a communication from a junior published in last week's issue of the News. The writer requested the music association "to bend every effort towards the re-establishment of an orchestra."

Orchestra instruction, which was formerly offered as a course by the music department, was omitted last year. Dr. T. Frederick H. Candlyn, head of the music department, was the instructor.

Dr. Candlyn Will Not Lead

"The orchestra is gone for good," Dr. Candlyn said when he was asked if he would re-open the course in orchestra instruction. "If the students care to organize an orchestra with their own leader, they may have one," he announced. Dr. Candlyn declared that he would not be the conductor.

"The formation of the orchestra depends upon the number of students who play all kinds of wood, brass, and wind instruments," Miss Conklin said. "We hope that everyone who is interested will report Monday."

"Music council is willing to sponsor the formation of an orchestra at college, provided there are sufficient instruments representing the main divisions of the orchestra," the council told the News. "But if there is only a group of violins, mandolins, and saxophones, can they hope to accomplish what fifty students in the Albany High School are doing with nearly every kind of instrument? Can they attain the heights the chorus is beginning to achieve with its voices of many tone qualities?"

'28 TO DON CAPS AND GOWNS AT ASSEMBLY

The senior class will wear caps and gowns at every assembly after October 15, according to a unanimous vote taken at the class meeting Monday.

The delivery of the caps and gowns has been guaranteed for October 15 this year, due to the early ordering of them, Betty J. Eaton, president of the class, said.

The class felt that since the sophomores and two upperclasses are meeting together in assembly, the wearing of caps and gowns would distinguish them from the other students.

Two years ago, the seniors voted to wear caps and gowns at assembly, but owing to a delay in the delivery of them, the class did not appear so garbed until after Christmas. Last year the graduating class wore caps and gowns only a few weeks.

Marion Fox, treasurer of the class, will be in charge of collecting the class dues which this year are two dollars. On her committee are: Marion Sloan, Laura Goulding, Eleanor Vail, Evangeline Calkins, Alice Hills, Elizabeth Putnam, Ruth Wheelock, Alice Biligham, Mary Gann and Florence Gormley.

Miss Eaton requested that dues be paid immediately. She announced that senior class meetings will be called only when there is definite business to be discussed.

FRESHMEN TO WEAR BABY DRESS TONIGHT, LUDLUM ANNOUNCES

The "get wise" party tonight in the gymnasium will be a baby party, Russell Ludlum, president of the sophomore class has announced. Freshmen will be required to dress as babies and carry toys. Any freshman not so dressed will be penalized, Ludlum declared. Two prizes for the healthiest babies will be awarded.

The meeting will be opened formally with the singing of "College of the Empire State." Traditions and interclass rivalry rules will be read and explained in the auditorium at 7 o'clock by a member of Myskana.

The distribution of class insignia and the baby party will follow the singing.

Women students will be given yellow and white buttons which must be worn at all time and on all occasions, and men will receive yellow striped caps and regulation purple and gold toques. Caps must be worn until the first snowfall when toques will be substituted according to the traditions. Caps will be worn again after April 1 until Moving Up Day in May.

The committee in charge of the get-wise party is: Helen Fay, chairman; Josephine Howland, Helen Henderson, and Russell Ludlow, all sophomores.

SORORITIES ENTERTAIN FRESHMEN TOMORROW

Girls of the freshman class will be entertained tomorrow afternoon by the sororities which are members of the Inter-sorority council. The party will be from 3 to 5 o'clock in the rotunda of Draper Hall.

The following committees for the event have been named by Mary Cain, '29, president of the council, and by the sorority presidents:

Arrangements, Beatrice Metcalf, '30, Alpha Gamma Kappa Phi, chairman; Betty Moriarity, '31, Chi Sigma Theta; Grace Seaman, '29, Psi Gamma; Betty Schrauth, '31, Delta Omega; Florence Marx, '30, Alpha Epsilon Phi; Clarabelle Shuttles, '31, Kappa Delta; Alma Dolan, '30, Eta Phi.

Refreshments, Florence Fischer, '29, Alpha Epsilon Phi, chairman; Ruth Parks, '31, Eta Phi; Alice Bennett, '31, Psi Gamma; Ethel Smith, '31, Delta Omega; Katherine Broderick, '31, Chi Sigma Theta; Marion Dillenbeck, '31, Beta Zeta; Helen Emerson, '31, Kappa Delta.

Flowers, Marcia Gardner, '30, of Beta Zeta, chairman; Alice Benoit, '30, Eta Phi; Elizabeth Rolfe, '29, Psi Gamma; Mary Nelson, '30, Delta Omega; Gertrude Braslow, '29, Alpha Epsilon Phi; Margaret Burnell, '30, Kappa Delta; Anne Moore, '30, Chi Sigma Theta; Marie Hayes, '30, Gamma Kappa Phi.

Music, Pauline Crowley, '29, of Chi Sigma Theta, chairman; Ruth Murray, '29, Gamma Kappa Phi; Marion Sloan, '29, Kappa Delta; Dorothy Rubin, '30, Alpha Epsilon Phi; Ethel Grindhoffer, '30, Delta Omega; Doris Mallory, '29, Psi Gamma; Helene Smith, '31, Eta Phi; Alice Barber, '30, Beta Zeta.

Ushers, Priscilla Hammons, '31, and Marjorie Dunham, '31, both of Beta Zeta; Wilhelmina Schneider, '31, and Florence Sward, '31, both of Eta Phi; Wilhelmina Schesta, '30, and Mildred Contant, '30, both of Psi Gamma; Marion Smith, '31, and Dorothy Abrams, '31, both of Delta Omega; Dorothy Rubens, '30, and Jeannette Harrison, '30, both of Alpha Epsilon Phi; Gladys Bates, '30, and Mary Howard, '31, both of Kappa Delta; Emily Leek, '31, and Edna Fitzpatrick, both of Gamma Kappa Phi; Jane Formanek, '30, and Alice Corning, '30, both of Chi Sigma Theta.

ASHLEY IS PRESIDENT

Irene M. Ashley, '29, will be president of the Mathematics club this year. Other officers are: Margaret M. Fortune, '29, vice president; Grecia C. Sayles, '30, secretary; Virginia E. Baxter, '29, treasurer.

Lucy E. Milas, '29, was appointed chairman of the program committee Tuesday. Plans are being made for a picnic.

ALPHA PHI GAMMA BIDS 10 STUDENTS

Undergraduate Journal Leaders Will Become Members Of Fraternity

Ten students, leaders in student journalism in the four undergraduate publications, were announced today as pledges to Alpha Phi Gamma, honorary journalism fraternity.

Staff members of the STATE COLLEGE NEWS to be bid to the fraternity are: Thomas P. Fallon, '29, business manager; Louis J. Wolner, '30, managing editor; Margaret J. Steele, '30, associate managing editor; Rose Dransky, '29, and Bessie Lapedes, '29, senior associate editors; and Margaret Henning, advertising manager.

Other students to be bid include: Florence Gormley, '29, editor-in-chief of the State College Quarterly; Robert J. Shillinglaw, '29, editor-in-chief of the State Lion; Josephine Brown, '29, editor-in-chief of the Pedagogue; Ruth M. Watts, art editor of the State Lion.

Membership in the order is considered the highest journalistic honor offered to undergraduates at State College. The fraternity is national, having been founded at Ohio Northern University in 1921.

The local organization is the Kappa chapter, and is the first of the chapters in the Atlantic seaboard states. Alpha Phi Gamma is the only national co-educational journalism fraternity.

Virginia E. Higgins, '29, former editor-in-chief of the News, is president; William M. French, editor-in-chief of the News is secretary, and Bettina Azarito, '30, business manager of the State Lion is bailiff.

WATERMAN SUCCEEDS TALOR ON LION STAFF

Carol Waterman, '29, was elected advertising manager of the State Lion, humor magazine, this week. He succeeds George Taylor, '30, resigned. Genevieve Cole, '29, was elected secretary of the staff, a new office on the Waterman staff.

The second issue of the magazine will be distributed before Haloween, according to Robert J. Shillinglaw, '29, editor-in-chief. Marion Palmer, '29, or Ruth Watts, '29, will make the cover design.

Ten new exchanges have been received, Ruth Bates, '29, exchange editor, announced today. The Lion exchange list now includes Princeton Tiger, Michigan Gargoyle, West Point Pointer, Syracuse Orange Peel, Iowa Errol, Columbia Jester, Oklahoma Whirlwind, Pitt Panther, R. P. I. Pup, Boston Bean Pot, California Pelican, Penn State Froth, Pennsylvania Punch Bowl, Dartmouth Jack O'Lantern, C. C. N. Y. Mercury, U. M. I. Smirp, Georgia Cracker, Georgia Tech Yellow Jacket, George Washington Ghost, University of Southern California Wampers, and College Humor.

Three members of the V. W. A. who are in charge of the pageant and party scheduled for tomorrow night.

MILNE TEACHERS WILL CONVENE WITH SAYLES

Teachers who are teaching in the Milne High School this semester will meet Tuesday afternoon in Room 302 at 3:35 o'clock, according to an announcement of Professor John M. Sayles, head of the education department and principal of the model school. This will be the first of a series of teachers' meetings at the same period. Attendance is required, Professor Sayles said.

Dr. Richardson Assails Extra-Curricular Activities; Peril To Culture And Liberal Education, He Charges

The "side show" of extra curricular activities has a tendency to run away with the "serious" of culture and liberal education in American high schools and colleges, according to Dr. Leonard Woods Richardson, head of the Latin and Greek departments.

Dr. Richardson, who has served on the College's faculty since 1895, is the oldest member of the teaching staff in point of service in his profession.

"There is no doubt that pupils in high schools and undergraduates in colleges are often engaged in too many extra-curricular activities. Teachers, especially at the beginning of their career, should not spend too much time and energy in extra professional activities," Dr. Richardson declares in an article in New York State Education.

The first duty of teachers is to their pupils, and they should reserve a period each day for the increase of scholarship, Dr. Richardson holds.

The function of the teacher is above all else to cause his pupils to educate themselves and to use rightly their minds, emotions, and will. And the quality which we call personality is the one which most easily accomplishes this result.

There are many elements in this quality. Among them are certainly sympathy, tact, a sense of humor and driving power. Sympathy enables the teacher to enter into the pupil's point of view, to understand his difficulties, to encourage him to exercise poise, Dr. Richardson declared.

Teacher of literature and of other arts have an exceptional opportunity for awakening in their pupils the sense of the aesthetic and beautiful, Dr. Richardson declares in the article. "It is his happiness to give them an insight into the supreme achievements of the different arts and in literature especially to reveal

93 PLAYERS TO BE IN GIRLS' PAGEANT

Presentation Tomorrow Night To Typify New Purpose Of Y. W. C. A.

GORMLEY, '29, IS AUTHOR

"Woods Party" Will Be Given For Freshmen, Lansley Announces

Ninety-three students will take part in presenting a pageant, "The Spirit of Y. W. C. A.", at the "woods party" of that organization tomorrow night.

The party is designed especially for the entering freshman class, according to Mildred M. Lansley, '29, president of the association. It will start at 7:30 o'clock.

Florence Gormley, '29, is the author of the pageant, which will typify the new national purpose of the student Y. W. C. A. organization.

The pageant will consist of four episodes, from the time of heraldry to the present. In the first episode at the court of King Arthur, Doris Appleby, '29, will portray the king, and Dora Deadrum, '29, will play "King Arthur."

In the second episode, Mary Nelson, '30, will play "King James," and Katherine Watkins, '30, will be the "Crown Prince." Helen Otis, '31, will be the "Puritan Dissenter."

Kruger to Represent Germany

The leading characters in the third episode will be: "Governor Bradford," Bertha Bourne, '29; "Tabitha," a Puritan maiden, Alice Benoit, '30; her mother, Marion Woolcock, '29; "Elizabeth," Gladys Bates, '30. The scene will portray an early American period in the seventeenth century.

For the fourth episode, which will represent the modern period, assignments have been made with students representing countries. Charlotte Kruger, '29, who was born in Germany will represent that nation.

Other students and the nations they will represent are: Dorothy Mullins, '30, Japan; Dorothy Abrams, '31, Spain; Francis Conlon, '31, Ireland; Wilhelmina Schneider, '31, Scotland; Josephine Milazzo, '31, Italy; Henriette Francois, '29, France; Marion Botto, '30, the Indian race; Caroline M. Schleicher, '29, the United States. A student will be named to represent Holland.

For undergraduate activities, Ethel Grundhauser, '30, will represent athletics; Anna Stafford, '29, Newman club; Gertrude Bradlow, '29, Menorah society; Gertrude L. Hall, '29, drama; Ruth M. Watts, '29, literary activities; Helen Henderson, '31, sororities; Evelyn Graves, '29, student association.

Evelyn McNight is general chairman. Ruth Wheelock, '29, is in charge of decorations.

The program, as arranged by Miss Lansley reads: from 7:30 to 8:15 o'clock, dancing; from 8:15 to 8:30 o'clock, games; from 8:30 to 9 o'clock, songs; from 9 to 9:30 o'clock, the pageant; from the completion of the pageant until 11 o'clock, dancing.

A dress rehearsal will be conducted tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock in the gymnasium, with Miss Gormley in charge.

In the "procession of veterans," another part of the pageant, will be twenty-two students. In the various scenes, several other minor roles will be played by members of the association.

WILL PRESENT BUDGET NEXT FRIDAY MORNING

The student association budget will be presented in assemblies next Friday, according to an announcement of the student board of finance today. Originally planned for presentation today, it was delayed because certain items were not properly filed and itemized.

ASSEMBLY PROGRAM
President A. R. Brubacher will address the freshman assembly at 11:35 o'clock today. His topic will be the attendance checking system. Miss Mary Elizabeth Cobb, librarian will also speak.

2 PRIZES OFFERED TO STUDENT COMPOSERS

The new State College songbook, which is being compiled by Music council, will appear in December.

To stimulate the interest of the students in writing new college songs the council is offering two prizes of five dollars each, one for the best set of serious words and one for the best music for these words.

The winning song will be included in the song book, as well as some of the best words and music submitted. Only the melody need be submitted, according to Dr. T. Frederick H. Cardlyn, instructor in music, who will be the judge.

Organizations may have their songs in the new song book, too, Marion Conklin, president of Music association, said today. The cost will be $4 a page.

"CUBS" WILL MEET IN CLASS TUESDAY

Fifty-Six Enrolled To Take Course In Journalism Under Steele

Fifty-six "cub" reporters of the STATE COLLEGE NEWS will have their first regular class Tuesday afternoon in Room 110 for instruction of the fundamental principles of journalism.

These classes will continue for twelve or fifteen weeks with a test at the end of the course which will cover all of the work studied during the year. Upon the outcome of this examination promotions to membership on the student paper will be based, Margaret J. Steele, '30, associate managing editor of the News, said today.

Those who have enrolled so far for the classes include the following students, most of whom come from the entering class: Rebeca Lehman, Anna Nesbit, Selma Schlaeter, Audrey Sullivan, Katherine Belknap, Marion Gary, Leah Dorgan, Lylian Honeycombe, Frances Keller, Virginia Hawkins, Dorothy Meissel, Asenath Van Buren, George Rice, Isabel Little, Helen Charron, and Florence E. Seiberg; Mildred Klein, Elizabeth Kronenberg, Elizabeth Johnson, Dorothy Earthill, Claire Courtney and Donald Campbell.

Mrs. Bailey, Mildred Castleton, John Curtis, Sarah Captain, Helen Mead, Jessie Sweet, Elizabeth Jackson, Ethna Rood, Mary Howard, Ernest Booth, Marion Willsey, Florence Mallie and Robert Flody.

This is the first time in many years that so many men students have signed up to attend the News' classes.

"Each student who has enrolled as a contestant for a staff position on the News should hand in his schedule at the next meeting of the 'club,'" Miss Steele, director of the news-writing classes, said today. "It is essential that arrangements be made for a regular time and place of meeting."

CORR INITIATES DRIVE FOR DANCE VICTROLA

An attempt to solicit subscriptions to obtain an orthophonic victrola for the use of dancers in the College gymnasium will soon be made by Daniel P. Corr, '31. The orthophonic, he believes, will possess many more advantages than the old custom of having a student pianist furnish the music.

If the proposed plan is adopted by the student body, State College students will soon be "tripping the light fantastic" to the strains of Paul Whiteman's orchestra, and those of Ross Gorman, Waring's and Paul Ash.

Florence Potter, '28, who is teaching in Schuylerville, spent the weekend in Albany.

Y. W. C. A. HAS VESPERS
With "What We Owe God" as his topic, the Rev. Mr. Henry Vruwink, pastor of the Madison Avenue Reformed Church, addressed the vespers service of the student Y. W. C. A., Sunday afternoon. Miss Eleanor Foote sang a vocal selection. Tea was poured by Miss Minnie B. Scotland, instructor in biology, and Miss Alice Kirkpatrick, instructor in library science.

BASKETBALL TEAM TO PLAY 12 GAMES

Varsity Five Will Clash With St. Michaels Team Here December 7

The State College five will play thirteen or fourteen games this season, according to the schedule announced this week by Manager Reginald Stanhope, '29. Stanhope has definitely signed for but twelve games at the present time but expects to close for the others shortly.

The season will open Saturday, December 1, when the present representatives of the Purple and Gold meet the former court stars in an annual alumni game.

A week later State will begin active intercollegiate competition, meeting the St. Michaels five. The schedule as it stands at present includes a three game trip to New York on which St. Stephens College, Pratt Institute and the New York Aggies will entertain the Albany five.

The basketball outlook at State is not so promising as it has been for several years back. This condition is due to the fact that last year's freshman class did not bring in enough basketball players. Two letter men were lost by graduation, Griffin, a guard, and Goff, a center, received their degrees in June.

In addition to captain Herney and Carr, Whiston, Allan, Klein, Kuczynski and Thompson are the letter men back with the team.

The 1928-1929 schedule now reads:

Date	Opponent	Place
Dec. 1	Alumni	Albany
Dec. 7	St. Michaels	Albany
Dec. 14	U. S. Coast Gil. Acad.	Albany
Jan. 12	St. Bonaventure	Albany
Jan. 19	Bklyn Br. C. G. N. Y.	Albany
Feb. 5	Norwich University	Albany
Feb. 8	Cooper Union	Albany
Feb. 13	St. Stephens	Amsterdam
Feb. 15	Pratt Institute	New York
Feb. 16	New York Aggies	Farmingdale
Mar. 1	New York Aggies	Albany
Mar. 9	Long Island Univ.	Albany

THOMPSON INSTRUCTS NEW CLASS IN DEBATE

A course in debating will be given this year in the section assigned to English 9c and will be known as English 31, according to Dr. Harry W. Hastings, chairman of the English department.

This course is open to sophomores, juniors and seniors. Those who have received credit for English 9 or who are taking English 9 now may take this course, as well as those who have not taken the course in public speaking, Dr. Hastings said.

The course in debating will be conducted by Dr. Harold Thompson, professor of English, and it is expected that it will be continued the second semester.

MORE MEN NEEDED BY STATE HARRIERS FOR COMING MEET

The State College cross country team began serious training for the present season this week. With but two weeks of practice left before the first meet of the season, the Purple and Gold harriers face a difficult task if they are to face their first opponents in tip top condition. Sport captains for this season have been appointed. Helen Norgord, '31, is in charge of hockey. Louise E. Trask, '30, assisted by Esther Waters, '30, and Irene Hicks, '31, will supervise swimming. Margaret Cusler, '31, with Marion Gilbert, '31, and Catherine R. Norris, '31, will take care of hiking. Kathryn Terpening, '29, and Jane Formanek, '30, are tennis captains.

The Ammandale course is a tough one too. The State College outfit ran there last year just after the New England floods, and there seemed to be a little water left over for New York State, also.

The management announces that it would like to have a few more men out for the team. The men who are back from last year's team form a nucleus for the team but new blood is also needed. In addition to Roy V. Sullivan, captain of the team, those remaining for this year's team include Samuel Cooper, '29; Ivan Campbell, '29; Rudolph Wurth, '30, and Ralph J. Stanley, '29.
