

Guy Drew

Gay,

I never did get over the way Lyons (Fred) called you that. Sometime we'll have to get together on that article you purchased from De'ja Vu. Don't get arrested, even though I know you don't fool with demon rum or acapulco gold (fat chance), you never know where I'm gonna be! True, I am a star.

Greg

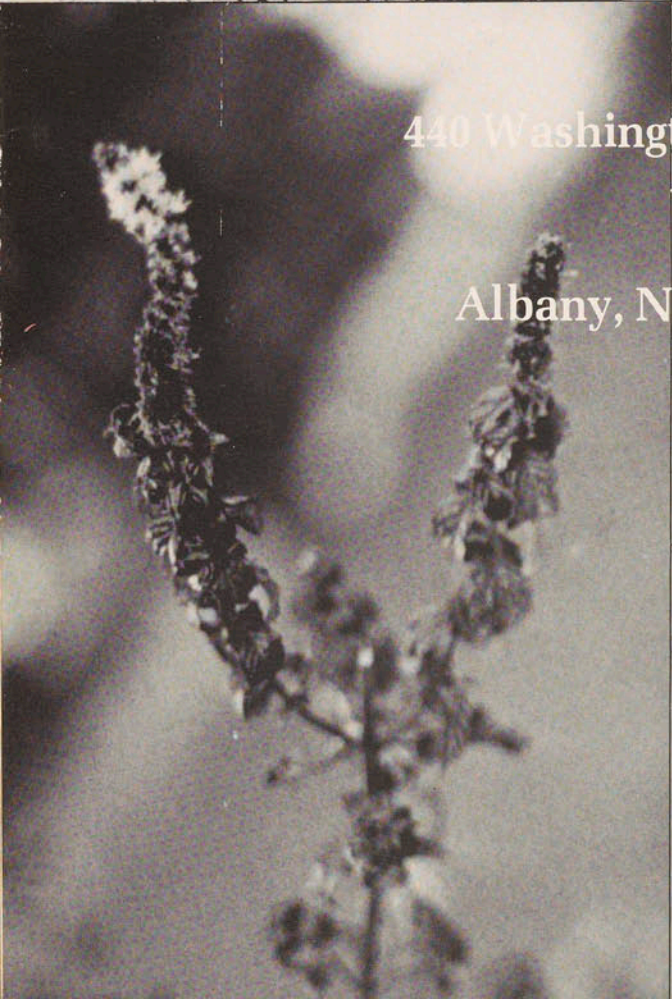

Dear Guy,

I can't believe that out of all our years at Milne, this is the first year we were in any of each other's classes. Oh, well, that's the way it is. But, you're really nice & I'm glad I finally know. Have a super-great summer.
And be super-happy. I can't believe this year is over. I can't believe a lot of things, but, oh, well.
I don't know what the hell I'm writing. Hmmm Well, just good luck in all your future endeavors.
(big word) SUE.

Dedication

Despite broken collar bones, Moles 6.0×10^{23} , warm air fronts, Iggies, Alcoholism and Venereal Disease you Mrs. Madah MacDowell and you Mr. Cecil Johnson have remained helpful and understanding. Your contribution to our class collectively and individually can not fully be measured. It is with love and fond memories that we the Class of 1973 dedicate this year's Bricks and Ivy.

Guy,

5/23/73

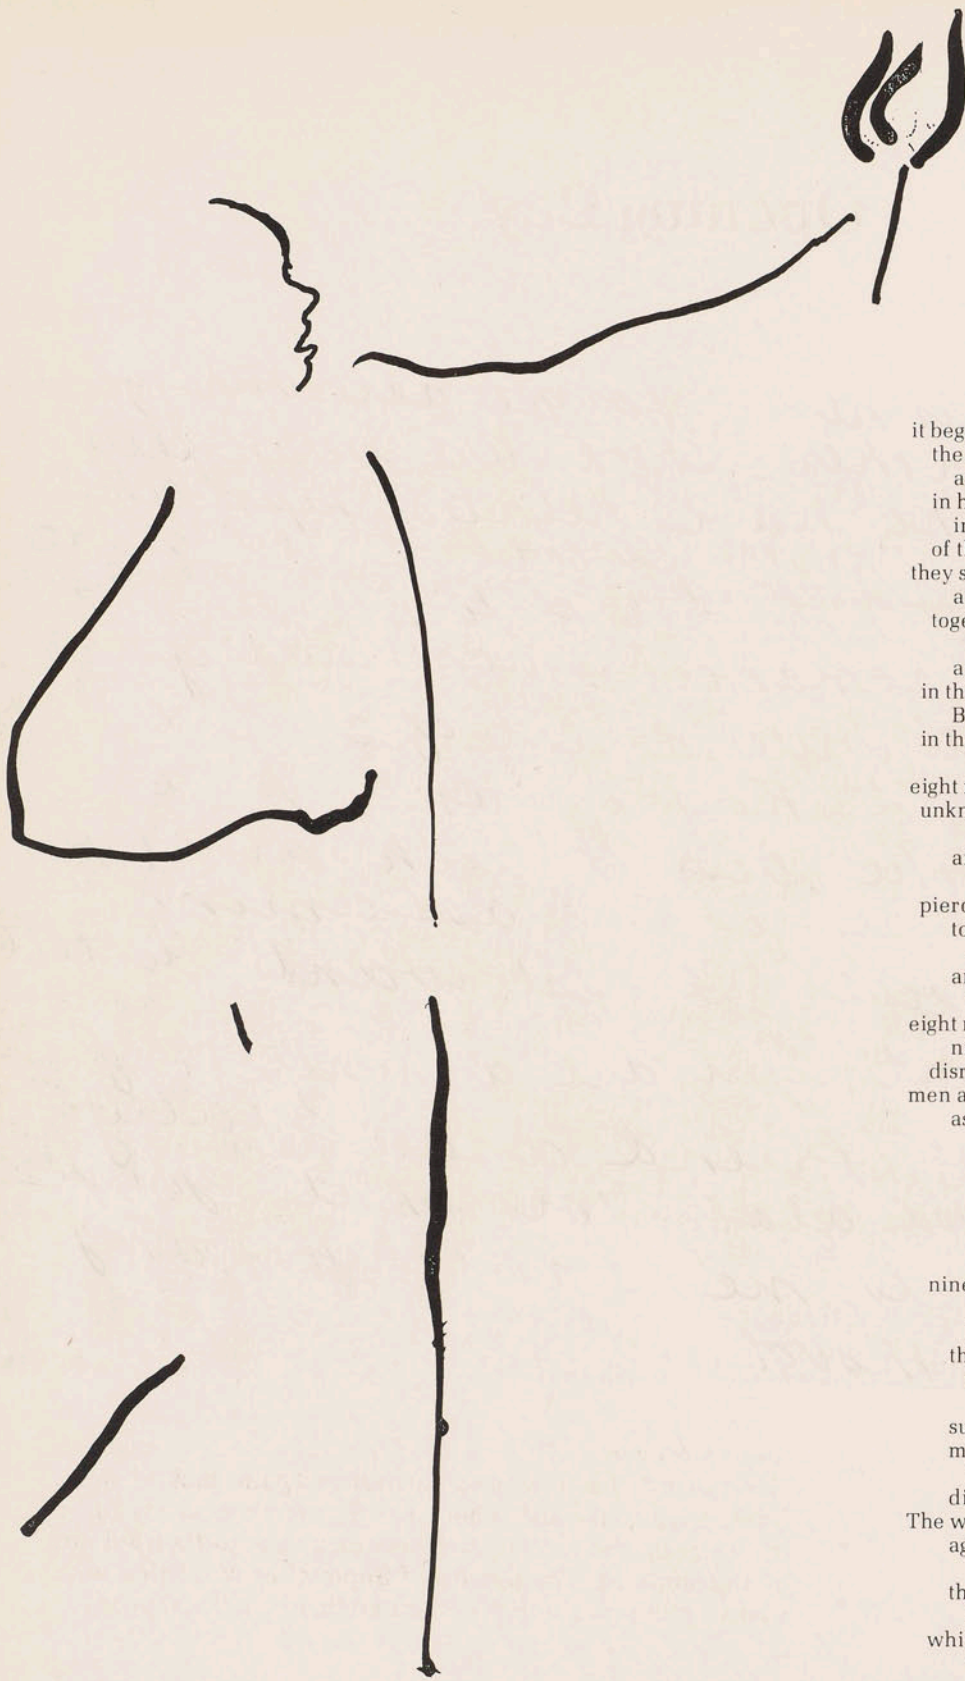

It's really hard for me to write exactly how I feel about you in a yearbook, but the only things I want to say is never forget all our good times together. There are very few people who have relationships like ours. I'll never forget our 8th grade romance, nor will I forget our 9th grade romance. I don't really want to write a lot of crap to you about how I want you to have the best of luck always in cause I am assuming you will. I just want to tell you that you are a very, very special friend, and I really love you about for what you've been to me. I love you anyway though.

Fall

Listen, I don't have to write TAKE CARE & I'll see you over the summer. Because I know damn well I'll be seeing you & we'll be having a lot more & better times together!!!

Love always,

PS. I expect to have a GREAT time with Shel you Saturday!!!

it began in joy —
the five rings of the Olympia, and a torch of unity in hope for brotherhood in the ancient tradition of the games,
they swam and ran
and wrestled.
together they circled and jumped in the clear bright Bavarian days, dancing in the cool of the evening.

eight men unknownst to the world climbed and pounded
and shot,
piercing the dawn at four a.m.
to disrupt
while cameras
and immobile men looked on.
eight men controlling
nine lives, disrupting those countless men and women in Munich, as individuals
who excel,
who run,
who swim,
who jump,
who dance,
who dive,
nine of Israel's best taken by fanatics.
the games,
unpolitical in friendship.
suspended into
murder by eight men, touching lives into disbelief.
The wars were suspended centuries ago to provide for
the games,
the games end in murder and terror while a world who watched their athletes
with joy and expectations is torn into tears—
faith is gone.

Opening Day

August 28, came all too soon, but everyone was eager to "look over" the new students. Once again excited faces filled page courtyard. There were new ideas ready to be tried out by the faculty and new exercises to be tried out by the students. The coming of September was filled with a new enthusiasm which generated throughout the year.

Cross Country

Cross country is a lonely sport, each runner depends on himself. Under the direction of coach Fred Lyons our cross country team made a valient effort to capture the C-D-E class sectionals. Returning veterans were seniors, Tim Barker, David Stott, Irving Dunn, Scott O'Neil, Ted Hawn, Peter Bulger, Steven Sumner. The juniors on the team included Rick Reiter, Andy Altman, Steve Krachouer, Paul Farmer, George Henkin.

Field Hockey

This year our girls' hockey team played 4 games, we won one game, lost one, and tied two. We also attended a play-day at Burnt-Hills. Our team was very strong. We worked well together in the games, and gained valuable experience. Next year we look forward to new faces joining the old.

Ski Club

This year's ski season lacked something essential to skiing — snow. Plagued by warm weather and the lack of the fluffy white stuff jaunts to area resorts were kept to a minimum. One thing the skiers did accomplish was their annual overnight to Gore mountain. Reports are that skiers enjoyed good conditions and warm nights in the lodge. It was a great way to spend a few days of a long Christmas vacation. Next season, hopefully there will be more snow and colder weather and no casualties.

Alumni Ball

This year's Alumni Ball was held in the campus center at the University. The dance was held during Christmas vacation affording Alumni home from college for Christmas vacation the opportunity to attend the gala.

The theme of the Ball was the 30's and "Bonnie and Clyde". Hosts and Hostesses chosen from the class of '75 wore costumes to enhance the theme. To the class of '74, thank-you for a good time.

Dear God,

Please help me to remember magic circles for week-end meetings. Help me to have patience with irate seniors when they have their informals taken. Help me to sound as though I've been in the Spanish Club all my life. Please help the lay-out editor do 15 pages by herself because no one came to her meeting. Please remember to help us become supplied with more than ONE pica ruler. Please help me to remember that our Job Number is 301. Help me to fight off basketball players who want to see pictures of the team.

Finally, dear God never ever give me the dubious honor of editing anything ever ever again.

Sincerely yours,

Student Council

This years Student Council has the distinction of being the last Student Council. Under the leadership of its President the council found itself bogged down with administrative details and having no defined powers.

Typical council meetings lasted two periods, were held in the Senior Lunch Room, had no quorum, proved fruitless and depleted the supply of Coke. With these problems to be tackled a group of students wrote, re-wrote and finally re-wrote the re-writes of a new government. The Milne Student Association was born.

Hopefully the new government will help increase inter-student communication and bring forth concrete proposals for change. Good-bye Council! Hello Senate!

Go-Team-Go

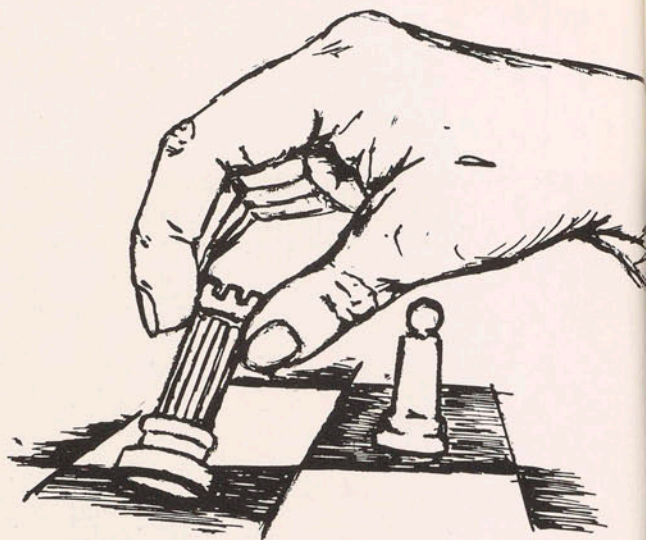

Over bounding with spirit this year's cheerleading squads helped to instill some of that same spirit into the crowd and the team. After being very sore after their initial practices they got back into shape wearing new uniforms. There were also many new cheers added this year along with old favorites. Rah-Rah.

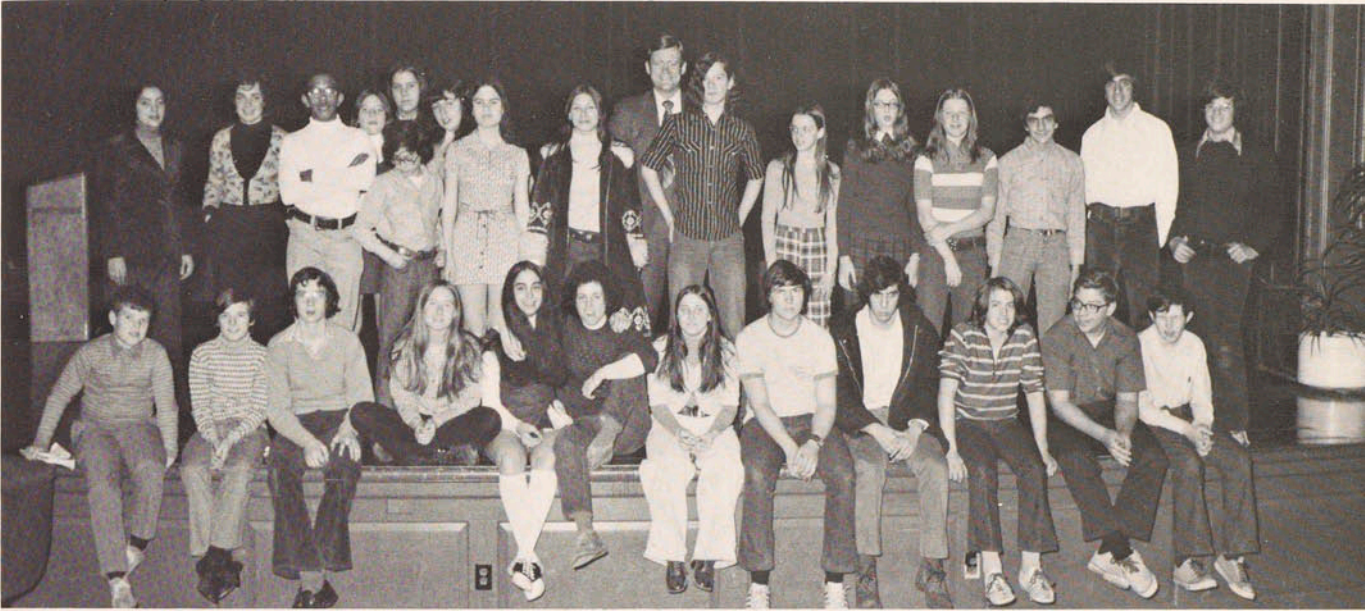

Chess Club

The club came into being near the beginning of the school year, when the chess championship of the world between Boris Spassky and Bobby Fischer was in progress. It was originated by a Math student teacher named Mr. Medrick Auger. The club managed to pick up thirty members during the first months of existence.

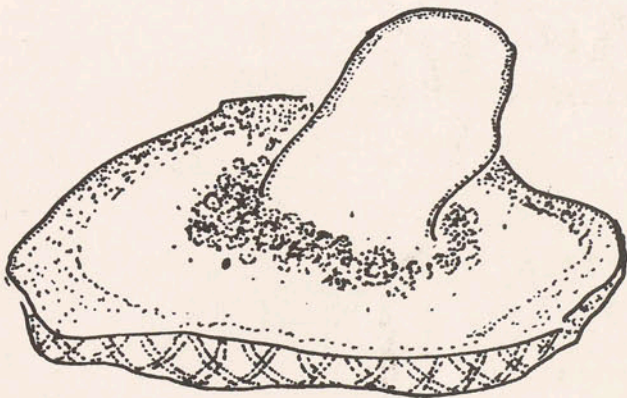

The chess club has competed in fifteen matches with various schools in the area, some of which are, Albany High, Cairo, Catskill and CBA. For a new chess club they have done fairly well winning about half of their matches. The team includes I. Altman, J. Reinhardt, J. Constantino, N. Collins, M. Freedman, T. MacGregor.

Since the beginning of the year, the Spanish Club has been planning the Albany-Yucatan Exchange Program for the Mexican Students. The exchange program is being completely planned by students.

When we went to Mexico, the course which we all successfully completed at the Instituto Comarcal Bancario, and the great experience we all had convinced us that we should return the favor. Also the Spanish Club has helped in bringing the Mayan Ballet from Mexico City.

Overall the success this year is something we can be proud of when everything works out.

Riding Club

With a happy heart and cheerful countenance, the Riding Club trots off every Friday afternoon to the Triple A Ranch, to go, as their name implies, riding. Under the careful (lest some poor soul should be mercilessly trampled beneath the powerful hooves of a majestic white stallion) supervision of Mr. Green, the club, with a membership of thirty leaves immediately from school (just in case they should all lose their nerve and decide not to go). Various brave supervisors and student teachers (bless them) drive the students straight to the stables where everybody simultaneously mounts his steed and prays for his life. The valient horse-back riders then proceed to bounce off at a steady or unsteady gait; leaving all cares (almost all; for fear of falling off the creature constantly prevails) behind them and outracing the wind. As they canter off into the sunset, both horse and rider have a galloping good time! Usually all make it home.

Drama Workshop

This year's production was an original one entitled "Men and Women". The production was a collection of scenes from various plays depicting the relationship of men and women throughout history. Under the direction of Richard Weeks in a newly painted Little Theater the cast took on multiple roles.

The workshop also took their annual jaunt to New York giving their regards to Broadway on March 11. They attended two plays "The Sunshine Boys" and "That Championship Season". As far as next season goes "Break a Leg".

After having difficulties finding a printer the C & W after much much hard work got rolling. With an able staff consisting mainly of juniors and seniors the C & W presented articles on every imaginable topic. Some of the more memorable were Norm Gerber's interview with Education Commissioner Nyquist, Larry Clyman's biting satire on the rotating schedule, and Robin Pelish's article concerning the new student government. Editor Nina Feltman had her headaches but proved capable in over coming the challenge.

Baseball

This year we had a rough season, to say the least. Our fabulous record was two and fourteen, that is, two wins and fourteen losses. We had a lot of great players, Sore-arm Bulger, Drop-fly Anton, One-hand Dorsman, Slow-ball Hart, Seven-error Sumner, and Hawk Houck. The other great assets of our team were, our coach Jeff Segal and our chink-keeper, I mean chart-keeper Pauline. The only thing left to say is that it was fun and we hope to see all you fans at our next game, which will be about five of you.

—Paul Hart

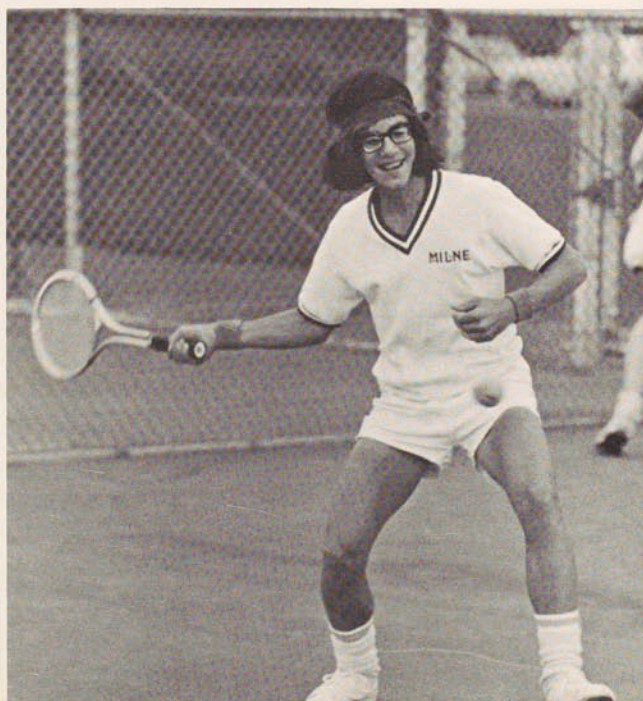

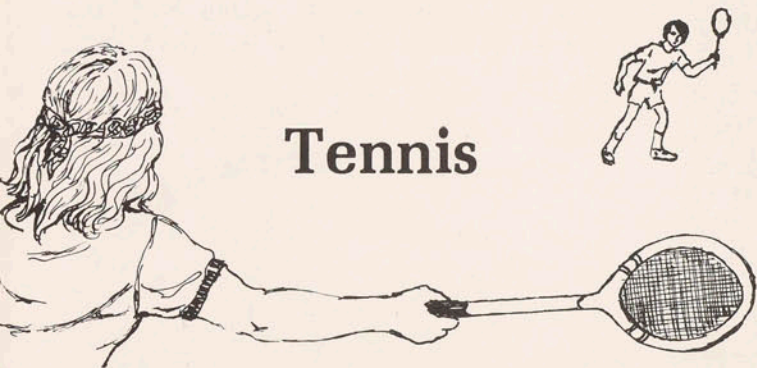

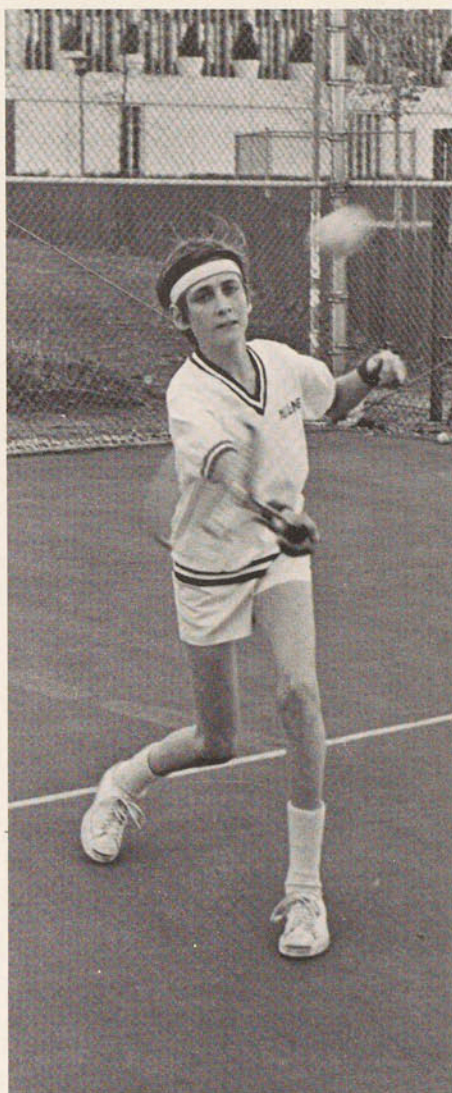

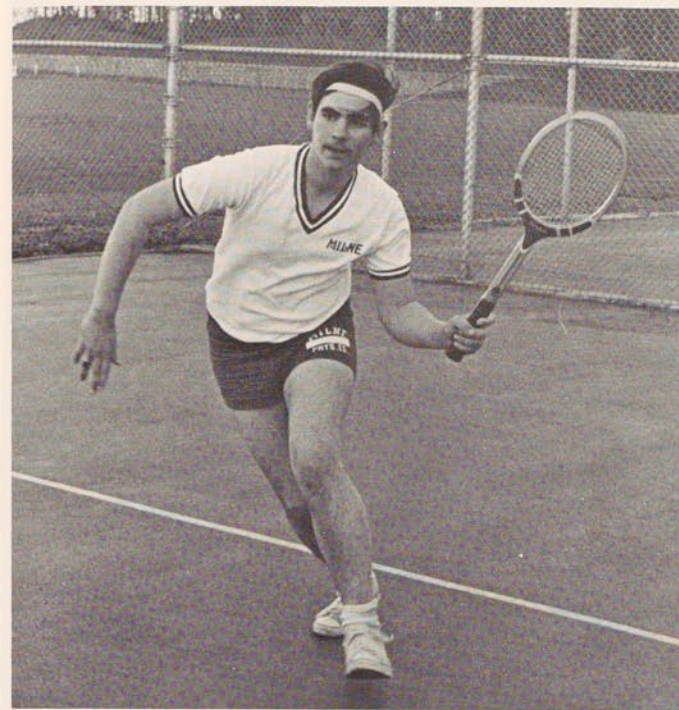

The tennis season began on the snow and ice covered tennis courts at S.U.N.Y.A. when seven brave and valiant young men began practice during the Easter recess. The season came to a close on the sun-baked courts at Shenendehowa Central School when Peter Vanderkerkhove and Norman Vener capped the second double match which won the class CDE-Section II championship for the Milne School. The team had an outstanding season. With thirteen games won and only five lost, it marked one of the best records in the school's history.

The team of Capt. Peter Green, Peter Vanderkerkhove, Gary Silverman, Norm Vener, Larry Clyman, as well as their alternates, Jon Reinhardt, and Greg Cole proved to be the best in Class CDE of Section II and deserve a lot of credit for their excellent tennis and good sportsmanship.

Coach Charlie Graber looks forward to a good season in '73 with returning veterans and interested new comers.

We've been close—whispering secrets to each other since we could talk, kicking each other in a double bed, and starving at camp.

We've laughed together, and cried together,
having each other for comfort.
Growing older hasn't meant growing apart,

but growing as people,
who still worry and still care.

Remembering times we held, Whispering secrets, Sharing an experience,
laughing crying,
being careful not to look too far ahead.
The future, we are not sure of,
perhaps a little afraid of.
Hoping, wondering into the unknown.
Leaving friends and security.

I'm really glad in some were together classes I would have don't know how I would wake up without you & who you did it? Don't tell me I put up with him - I know you promised to give me a ride on your bike as soon as you get your license. The summer & keep in touch

The beginning
 shall be the end
 And the end shall be the beginning.

Gus,
 This year being in some classes together I've really realized what a great kid you are and what a valuable friend. I'll never forget the walk through the park and the many times we ate lunch together. I feel I've found a real friend this year and they're awfully hard to come by. Keep in touch over the summer and let's not let that friendship die.
 Love,
 Mitzy
