VERNON A. TAPPER

County Division Names Tapper, Samuel Borelly

ALBANY, Nov. 7—The County Executive Committee of the Civil Service Employees Association has elected Vernon A. Tapper, CSEA 4th vice president, as its chairman and S. Samuel Borelly as co-chairman.

The committee met in conjunction with the first meeting of the newly-elected CSEA Board of Directors here, Oct. 27.

The group also voted to elect Mrs. Lula M. Williams and William P. Brophy to the CSEA Board of Directors committee and Mrs. Eve Armstrong, Chester M. Nodine and Joseph McKenzie to the Directors Charter committee.

The committee devoted a good deal of its first meeting to discussion of integration of Social Security with other retirement systems.

The committee also discussed the matter of county conferences and voted the entire January meeting to this matter.

Mr. Borelly announced a workshop was being arranged to be held in conjunction with the CSEA Central Conference meeting Jan. 21 in Utica.

Assn. Starts Big Drive For 40-Hour Week, With No Loss in Take-Home Pay

ALBANY, Nov. 7—The Civil Service Employees Association is organizing a big drive for a maximum five-day, 40-hour work week with no loss in present take-home pay.

At the CSEA's annual meeting in Albany last month, a salary resolution was adopted acclaiming the general principle of the 40-hour week.

A separate motion instructed Association negotiators to insist on no loss in take-home pay.

Statement by Powers

To clarify the Association's plans on obtaining these objectives, CSEA President John F. Powers issued the following statement:

"Since the annual meeting of the delegates on October 10 and 11, 1955 we have heard considerable discussion from various sections of the State as to the intent and meaning of Resolution No. 1 in connection with the mandatory five-day, 40-hour week. The concern seems to be whether or not the resolution is interpreted by the Association as meaning a reduction of hours to 40 without loss in present compensation.

"To dispel any fear or misunderstanding as to the meaning or intent of the delegates in adopting this resolution, we should look first at the text of Resolution No. 1 which follows:

"RESOLVED, that the Association seek administrative and legislative approval of an appropriation of sufficient funds to provide the following benefits:

"1. A 20 percent across the board increase in base salaries for all State employees.

"2. Establishment of a fund sufficient to provide for correction of inequities which continue to exist and those which may become apparent as a result of future developments.

"3. An increase in the State's contribution toward retirement allowances.

"4. An insurance program to provide for medical, surgical and hospital expenses.

"5. A mandatory maximum five-day, 40-hour work week for all State employees be instituted."

The Separate Motion

"Immediately following the adoption of this resolution, a statement and motion were made by Thomas Conkling of Willowbrook State School which was restated by the chairman as follows:

"Now there is a motion with a seconder to the effect that the salary committee negotiating for the various items under Resolution No. 1 be instructed that in their negotiations they seek to make certain that if the 40-hour work week is an assured thing, that there is no reduction in pay for anyone. Is that right?"

"The motion as stated by the chairman was put to a vote and was carried by the delegates.

No Doubt, Powers Assures

"From a reading of the resolution and the motion, both of which were adopted by the delegates, there can be no doubt but that the intent of the delegates was to

All Full-Time State Employees Barred from Racetrack Jobs

ALBANY, Nov. 7—The Pari-Mutuel Revenue Law prohibits full-time State employees from working at either harness or flat racetracks. Attorney General Jacob K. Javits ruled, in a letter to George P. Monaghan, State Harness Racing Commissioner. Mr. Monaghan asked the Attorney General to rule on the question of licensing full-time State employees.

"Section 63 of the Pari-Mutuel Revenue Law," replied Mr. Javits, "prohibits public officers, public employees, or party officers, from working for harness or flat race tracks."

The Attorney General then discussed exceptions that the law

State Opens Its 'College Series' for Career Positions

Applications are now being received by the State Civil Service Department in its "college series" of examinations for jobs which pay up to $4,280 a year to start.

College graduates, and seniors who will receive their bachelor's degree by June 30, 1956, are eligible for a wide variety of positions leading to careers in State service. In some instances, appropriate experience or training other than at college may be substituted for a bachelor's degree.

Application forms and detailed announcement of requirements and job descriptions may be obtained from college placement offices; from State Civil Service Department offices in NYC, Albany and Buffalo, and from local offices of the New York State Employment Service.

Last day to submit filled-out applications to the Civil Service Department is Friday, December 16.

Written tests are scheduled for Saturday, January 14, at exam centers throughout New York State, and at various college centers throughout the nation.

Six exams are included in the "college series"—professional and technical assistant, in 13 specialties, at $3,360 and $3,728 a year to start, depending on the specialty; public administration internship $4,280; accounting assistant, $3,360 and $3,544; employment interviewer, $3,730; unemployment insurance claims examiner $3,730; payroll examiner, $3,730, and laboratory secretary, $3,360.

Starting Pay May Be Raised

The Civil Service Department is now studying the entrance pay for professional and technical assistant, and there is the prospect it may be increased. The starting salary of six positions to which the collegians may be appointed has already been raised to $3,728. They are junior actuary, junior chemist, junior biochemist, junior analytical chemist, junior sanitary chemist, and junior statistician.

The specialized fields in the professional and technical assistant exam, No. 2256, are: administration, agriculture and dairy science, biology, chemistry, economics, journalism, law, library, science, mathematics, physics, psychology, public health and sanitation, and statistics.

General Requirements

In general, the exams are open to college graduates or college seniors who will have graduated, by June 30, 1956, from a recognized college or university, from a four-year course for which a bachelor's degree is granted. Specialized courses are required for each specialty, except the administration specialty, the library assistant list, and the general list.

Candidates who qualify may compete in any two of the 13 specialties. Those who have majored in fields other than those listed in the specialties, should file for the administration, library assistant, and general lists, the Civil Service Department advises.

U.S. citizenship and legal residence in New York State since January 14, 1955 are required, except for public health and sanitation.

H. ELIOT KAPLAN

The Civil Service Assembly, in bestowing honorary life membership, termed Mr. Kaplan "an elder statesman among public personnel experts." He is chairman of the President's Committee on Retirement Policy for Federal Personnel, and former Deputy New York State Comptroller in charge of the administration of the retirement systems.

Free College Course Offered To Midshipman Aspirants

High school seniors and high school graduates have until Saturday, November 19 to apply for the Navy's college training program. Candidates will take the qualifying written examination on December 10 as the first step in the competitive cycle leading to an appointment as midshipman.

Successful candidates will start their Naval careers in colleges and universities across the country in 1956 with substantial financial assistance from the government. After a normal college education, graduates will be commissioned in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps, for active duty throughout the world.

Male citizens of the U. S., between the ages of 17 and 21, may apply. Persons who attain a qualifying score will be given the Navy's midshipman physical exam in February. About 1,800 men will be appointed and attend colleges of their choice.

Students enrolled in the regular program will spend their summers on training cruises and will receive $600 annual retainer pay until commissioned. In addition to the normal college curriculum, the midshipmen will study naval science. All tuition, fees and books will be furnished by the Navy.

Apply to the nearest high school or Navy Recruiting Station, or write directly to the Chief of Naval Personnel, Washington 25, D.C.

Apply Now for $63 Assistant Gardener Jobs

Applications will be received by NYC for an exam to fill 200 or more assistant gardener jobs, until Monday, November 28. Apply at 96 Duane Street, two blocks north of City Hall, just west of Broadway, opposite The LEADER office.

No training or experience is necessary.

Maximum age is 55. No age limits apply to any veterans. Others, who saw service during war in recognized auxiliaries of the armed forces, may deduct the time spent in such service.

The exam is No. 7517, and the application fee $3.

Starting pay was recently raised to $3,250 or $62.50 a week. There are three annual increments of $200 each, total salary is not to exceed $3,865 ($74 a week) thereby; and three more of $100 each, salary not to exceed $4,330, or $83 a week.

Public Unaware How Good Are U.S. Jobs, Says Young

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7—Chairman Phillip Young of the U. S. Civil Service Commission called on Federal officials to spotlight the accomplishments of Federal career workers, to help attract more highly trained and talented people to Government jobs.

"The public in general has too little information about the Federal Government as an employer, and about the challenges and rewards of Federal employment," he told the Federal Business Association of Philadelphia at a luncheon meeting at the Frankford Arsenal.

Mr. Young praised the people in the career civil service for their devotion to duty.

"I feel sure," he said, "that President Eisenhower takes comfort from the knowledge that during his illness Federal career employees are carrying on the important tasks of Government with their usual dedication and determination."

Mr. Young took a sharp, personal swat at the hard-to-spike misconception that a Federal supervisor's pay is based solely on the number of employees he supervises. He said that this misconception still persists both in the public mind and in the minds of some Federal employees, despite repeated denials by the Commission.

Mr. Young said the Commission is issuing a circular to all Federal agencies, which points out "the mistaken belief of some supervisors that their grade or salary rate will be lowered if they suggest ways for doing the same amount of work with fewer persons."

PAY OF STATE TAX TITLE IS RAISED

A one-grade pay raise will go to State income tax accounts supervisors on April 1, 1956. Employees in the title, now in grade 26, will earn $8,090 to $9,800, the grade 27 level.

U. S. Makes Industry Meet $1 Minimum Hourly Rate, But Pays Less Itself

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7 — Although the Federal government enacted a law setting $1 as the minimum rate of pay in private industry, it is paying some of its own employees less, says the National Federation of Federal Employees, citing as one example new laundry workers hired at 67 cents an hour. The AFL union wants the Federal government to abide by the same minimum rate that it requires private industry and commerce to respect. The government is not subject to the minimum rate law.

The issue is raised under the shifting of former Crafts-Protective-Custodial Service jobs, some to the General Schedule (GS), others to wage board jurisdictions. The examples of underpayment all fall in the wage board group.

Another complaint by unions is that, although employees were guaranteed against any wage cut resulting from the shift from CPG to GS or wage board, some pay cuts have resulted. This claim holds when the annual salaries are considered. Actually, the per diem rates were not cut, in those instances. The annual pay is out a few dollars a year.

The Comptroller General has ruled that the law protects employees against reduction in their per diem rate, as computed to the nearest cent. Sometimes the annual rate, arrived at by multiplying the per diem rate by 250, for that number of days in the average work-year, results in the reduced annual figure, because of the "breakage" to the nearest cent in the per diem rate.

QUESTION, PLEASE

AS I UNDERSTAND IT, the top status in the Federal government is now called "career," while new appointments are made to "career-conditional" status. Will you please explain how an appointment develops into permanency?
L.K.M.

Answer—The first year of a career-conditional appointment is probationary period. Upon satisfactory completion of the probationary period, employees acquire a competitive civil service status. Career-conditional appointments become career appointments when employees have completed three years of substantially continued service. Present or former Federal employees who have already completed the three-year service requirement will be given career appointments subject to completion of a new probationary period. Career-conditional appointments of veterans with a compensable service-connected disability of 10 per cent or more may become career appointments on completion of a one year probationary period if recommended by the agency.

BEFORE MY EMPLOYMENT by the State of New York I worked for a private firm, and was covered under Social Security. Now I am a member of the New York State Employees Retirement System.

I understand from an article published in your October 26 issue that, should I die while a member of the SERS, my wife and children would receive no Social Security benefits. If so, I believe the fact should be publicized. Awareness of this fact, if it is a fact, by State employees, would cause a greater drive for a correction of the inferior benefits of the SERS.

L.O.W.

Answer — The article did not contain the statement you indicate. Social Security coverage continues, as well for members of the SERS as for others, under an exact formula. For instance, for any three full years of SS coverage, protection lasts, as from the present, to June 30, 1959; three and one half years, to mid-1958; four years, 1959, etc. If you were a member of the armed forces during war, include your Social Security coverage for that period.

THE PUBLIC EMPLOYEE

By JOHN F. POWERS

President

Civil Service Employees Association

CSEA Starts Its 46th Year Looking Toward the Future

We have just started the 46th year of our existence as an independent association of civil service employees. We can look back with pride upon our past. Our history is full of gains which we have achieved for the public workers in New York State. No other employee organization in this State can show a similar record. Some of them, however, have tried and are trying to take the credit for our accomplishments. The shorter hours and higher pay scales which the CSEA alone, through its good organization and its hard work, has won for the public employees, these organizations claim as their own successes. Through folder, flyer, and through newspaper story, these organizations are continually trying to cover their own failures by claiming as their own, your Association's victories. It is an old trick, but I do not believe too many people are fooled by it.

Future, Not Past, Successes Are Important

However, it is not with our successful history that I am concerned in this column. It is with our future and the growth of our organization. Every year is a new year for any organization. Every year means a renewal of past memberships and the gaining of new ones. Membership is the life-blood of any association. Without it an organization doesn't exist (except, perhaps, on paper, and with it an organization gains its goals and increases its potency. As I wrote in my annual report to the delegates, I am looking forward to a membership of 75,000 within a few years. This is not an idle dream, but one well within the possibility of accomplishment. However, it can only be achieved through work—hard work.

Basis for Gaining Membership

The basis of a membership drive is organization. A well organized committee continually working towards the goal of increasing its membership can accomplish its ends. Its work, however, must be planned. A committee cannot be formed and then forgotten. There is no magic in its existence. It must be led, it must be inspired, it must be active. If the work of any membership committee is carefully planned in accordance with the organization and problems of the chapter, the results of this planning will be seen in better membership. Our Association problems are sufficiently complex for us to spend a great deal of time and care in scientifically organizing our membership drives.

Much of CSEA Strength In NYC Area Attributed To Membership Committees

ALBANY, Nov. 7—Headquarters of the Civil Service Employees Association announces that the statewide membership campaign of the Association is progressing satisfactorily. CSEA representatives generally have indicated that the coming year will be a most vital one for State and local government employees, and that the unity and membership strength of the organization is most important during the next few months.

Alex Greenberg, co-chairman of the Association's statewide membership committee, who "triples" in brass as president and membership chairman of the State Insurance Fund chapter, lauded the efforts of the various membership groups in the Metropolitan area. "Within five years," he said, "Conference membership has jumped from 8,000 to more than 13,000."

Serving on membership committees of CSEA chapters in the Metropolitan Conference area of the organization's State Division are the following employees. "A great deal of credit must be given to them," said headquarters, "for the strength of CSEA in the NYC and Long Island areas."

Human Side Of the Tax Dept.

The Story Behind the Tax Surplus

BEHIND THE BRIEF MENTION in the daily press of New York's "efficient" tax collection methods were the remarks of Governor Harriman, who told newsmen at a recent Capitol press conference:

"A substantial portion of increased State revenue from inheritance and estate taxes is due to speedier collections by the Department of Taxation and Finance."

Then the Governor went on to voice his enthusiasm with the department staff and particularly the work of Tax Commissioner George M. Bragalin.

Mr. Harriman credited an anticipated State revenue surplus to two factors—"more efficient tax collection and higher business activity."

On the retirement roster are three Tax employees: Miriam Rosenblum of Brooklyn has retired as a senior income tax examiner; Jennie Stone of Albany will resign shortly as a file clerk in the Motor Vehicle Bureau, and John P. F. Shea, Richmond Hill, is slated to retire this month as a senior estate tax examiner.

Newest members of the Tax staff are Nelson Stone of NYC, now a dictating machine transcriber for Motor Vehicle Bureau, and Richard A. Wilson of Albany, working as a M&S helper for Motor Vehicle.

Up the Promotion Ladder: Senior income tax examiners, Bernard Leffler of Brooklyn and Regina Herschberg of Brooklyn; principal clerk, Helen E. Atchinson of Albany; income tax examiners, James L. Collins of Greenfield Center and Dominick Rotondi of Troy; senior clerks, Kalman Rosenblatt of Bronx and John H. Singer of Monroe.

Ousted in Dispute Over Residence, Patrolman Is Reinstated by Court

A patrolman dismissed at the end of his probationary period, on the ground he had not complied with the NYC residence rule, was ordered reinstated by Justice Thomas A. Aurelio in the Supreme Court, New York County. The court sustained the objection of Samuel Resnicoff, the petitioner's lawyer, that the Municipal Civil Service Commission has no legal authority to dismiss an employee without preferring charges and giving him a hearing.

The Commission's action took place during a previous civil service administration, while the dismissal likewise was ordered by a previous Police Commissioner, George P. Monaghan, now State Harness Racing Commissioner.

The patrolman is Thomas O. Murphy. He is entitled to back pay, from the dismissal date in 1953, less any amounts he earned meanwhile. He has been working as a clerk in the New York post office.

Petitioner Offers Proof

The Commission at first upheld his contention he had been a NYC resident for the three continuous years immediately preceding appointment, then rescinded its rescission. But the court held that all attempts to take Mr. Murphy's name off the eligible list were void for illegality.

Mr. Murphy worked for a Jersey firm for a short while, but proved, by his income tax withholding statements, that his address was in NYC while he worked in Jersey, and also produced records of the Board of Elections to show that he had registered and voted in NYC during the disputed period.

New Optional Compensation Plan For Volunteer Firemen Starts

ALBANY, Nov. 7—State Comptroller Arthur Levitt described the operation of a new optional form of group self-insurance for municipalities, covering injury and death of volunteer firemen and liabilities under the Workmen's Compensation Law.

He said that such liabilities are now met by municipalities through purchase of insurance, self-insurance on an individual basis, or through mutual plans.

The group self-insurance plan is a new approach to an extensive problem, he added. He urged study of the plan by county officials.

The plan, enacted by the 1955 Legislature, covers counties and other units of government within counties.

Counties Listed

Thirty-four of 57 counties outside NYC, together with 832 cities, towns and villages, already pay benefits through a similar mutual plan. The 34 are Allegany, Broome, Cayuga, Chautauqua, Chemung, Clinton, Columbia, Cortland, Fulton, Genesee, Herkimer, Jefferson, Lewis, Livingston, Madison, Montgomery, Oneida, Ontario, Orleans, Oswego, Otsego, St. Lawrence, Saratoga, Seneca, Steuben, Sullivan, Tioga, Tompkins, Washington, Wayne, Wyoming, Yates.

The group self-insurance plan will be administered by the counties.

FBI Cooperates With Local Police

James J. Kelly, special agent in charge of the New York office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, told NYC detectives attending a training course at the Police Academy, of the cooperation of the FBI with local police departments.

"In 1945," said Mr. Kelly, "the New York State police association banded together with the New York State Sheriffs' Association to program, assisted by the instructor, a long-range police training course from our Bureau. Since 1945 there have been more than 8,000 schools, and 51,000 officers from all branches of law enforcement in the State have attended. On the national level in 1955 there were more than 2,350 schools all over the country."

Vets Say Law On Days Off Is Violated

Some employees of local governments complain that, although they are war veterans, they are not allowed Armistice Day and Memorial Day off, though the law requires such leave to be granted.

Public Officers Law, Section 63, provides that the State, the courts, and the local governments must grant "leave of absence with pay for 24 hours" on May 30 and November 11 to all war veterans, except where such action would endanger the public safety or health of persons cared for by the State," in which case compensatory time off is to be granted.

The complaints refer to failure to grant the leave, though the exceptions do not apply, besides failure to grant compensatory time off when leave on those two days is wrongfully denied.

"A refusal to give such leave of absence to one entitled thereto," the law reads, "shall be neglect of duty."

Claims Clerk List Released

ALBANY, Nov. 7 — A 448-name State list for unemployment insurance claims clerk has been released by the State Civil Service Department. There had been 1,501 applicants for the $2,870 to $3,700 jobs.

Ellis L. Day of Syracuse heads the open-competitive roster, with a total score of 102.00, including five points as a non-disabled veteran.

Abe Goldenberg, the Bronx; Richard C. Benn, Wyoming; Arthur P. Giggons, Troy, and John C. O'Brien, NYC, are second, third, fourth and fifth, respectively. All gained their ratings with benefit of five added points.

First non-veteran on the list, and first woman, is Dorothy E. Temple of St. Albans, No. 6, followed by Betty Blankenburg, Little Falls; Lavina Anderson, Syracuse; Anna W. Lange, Albany, and Felix P. Loponte, Yonkers.

A promotion list in the title has also been issued.

700 ATTEND BREAKFAST OF JEWISH POSTAL GROUP

More than 700 employees of the N.Y. Post Office attended the first annual spiritual breakfast of the Jewish Postal Workers Welfare League.

Postmaster Robert H. Schaffer presented a check for $5,000 to the United Jewish Appeal. Rabbi Edward Lissman awarded two $1,000 scholarships to children of Post Office Employees. The recipients are Del Greenblatt and Barnett Glickfield.

Mr. Schaeffer was presented with the Freedom Lamp by Jack Hausman of the UJA.

Police Work Being Raised To That of Top Profession

Speeches made by the Police Commissioner and others, at the recent graduation exercises of the NYC Police Academy, showed plainly that the plan of having a force of educated cops is deeply rooted, and well on its way. Mayor Robert F. Wagner is for it, Commissioner Stephen P. Kennedy is for it, President Buell G. Gallagher of City College is for it, and everybody else seems to be for it, excepting possibly the policemen themselves, who have not yet publicly taken any stand.

The idea is not merely that educated candidates should be recruited, but also that policemen should get a lot of schooling after they are on the force, and no matter how long after appointment.

The idea of going to school again does not sit well with most of the patrolmen we have questioned, but there is a pedagogic side to the question, too. In the words of President Gallagher, "the profession of law enforcement, in its educational aspects, is just about a century behind the times."

So Far and No Farther

The whole idea is to elevate police work to that of a profession, and qualify policemen to practice their profession, using the same level of educational standards as obtain in law, theology, medicine, engineering, political science, and nursing. The Police Academy instruction can hardly be put "alongside the years of disciplined instruction and endeavor by which long established professions qualify their men," says Dr. Gallagher.

NYC will erect a new building for the Police Academy and establish a close affiliation with City College's Baruch School. Thus the NYC Police Department is to have its own West Point or Annapolis, about the time the Air Force gets its own academic buildings completed. The State has maritime academies at Kings Point and Throggs Neck, now part of the State University of New York. Maybe the Police Academy one day will come under the paternal wing of the State University. Or would that be a violation of the Home Rule principle?

One fact not to be overlooked is that if police work is to be elevated to that of a recognized profession, police pay must be raised to that of a recognized profession.

State Wise Making Local Civil Service Records Public

The State Civil Service Commission, by order of its President, Alexander A. Falk, has ruled that reports of surveys of local civil service administrations will be considered matters of public record in the future.

This act deserves praise from all civil service employees in every political subdivision.

It has been the practice of some departments to keep such information to themselves, thus denying the employees and the public a picture of true working conditions, salaries, and hours.

The Commission has rendered both the public and all public aides a service that both groups are bound to appreciate. A little more light on local civil service administration, in some parts of the State, if not all parts, is anything but amiss.

Congratulations to all who participated in effectuating the change!

NOW THAT NYC employees have at last received the $5,500,000 in retroactive raises, they can believe that it is true.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

CLERKS THANK LEADER FOR ITS SUPPORT

Editor, The LEADER:
The committee of NYC third-grade clerical employees thanks The LEADER for its support of their efforts to have their pay increased.

JAMES J. SIMMONS

FINDS EMPLOYEES WORKING OUT OF TITLE SUFFER

Editor, The LEADER:
May I add my praise to that uttered by others for the editorial you published on the vast number of NYC employees working out of title, and the crucial necessity of ending this undermining of the Merit System?

Besides curing a bad situation, NYC should also do justice to those employees who worked out of title. They had no alternative. I am not referring to informally hired employees, but to permanent competitive employees. Some of them held responsible jobs that have been roughly downgraded under the Career and Salary Plan, with practically no promotion opportunities left to them, either.

I make a plea for those employees who would have to pay a penalty for the wrongs of others.

The City's only way to live up to its promise that nobody would be hurt is to hurt nobody.

SPENCER FLEETWOOD
St. Albans, NYC

MAXIMUM REQUIREMENTS, MINIMUM RESULTS

Editor, The LEADER:
The U.S. Civil Service Commission, in announcing the new consolidated exam for collegians and others, said it eliminated some educational requirements because of competition from local government agencies, among others.

NYC wasn't among them. I'm sure.

I've read of NYC's difficulty in filling scientific and technical jobs.

The City should follow the Federal example. It would be better off hiring a person who didn't take one or two specialized college courses, or who doesn't have a bachelor's degree, than having the rigid high requirements—and no one filling the jobs.

Pay Raise to State Researchers

Changes of title, and higher salary ranges, have gone to State employees in two titles—senior research scientist (endocrinology), and senior research scientist (medical biochemistry). The endocrinology specialty has been re-titled senior research endocrinologist. The other has been renamed senior research medical biochemist.

New pay range in both titles is $7,300 to $8,890, grade 25. It had been grade 24, $6,940 to $8,470.

The changes are effective retroactive to April 1, 1954.

PAY RAISE FOR STATE CONSTRUCTION AIDES

The minimum salary of the State title, assistant director of hospital construction, has been increased temporarily to $7,936, the third year rate of grade 25. The pay change was effective October 10, the Division of Classification and Compensation reports.

TIME OFF

An attendant at Creedmoor State Hospital was telling his friends how he had been hit by a car while looking at his paycheck. "I was killed instantly," the attendant told his listeners. "What?" said one of them in surprise. "You look alive to me." "Oh, yeah?" said the attendant, showing them the paycheck he had been referring to. "you call this living?"

"My wife said she is going to leave me if I don't stop running around," mourned a man to his friend.

"Oh, that's too bad," said the friend.

"Yes, it is," agreed the man. "I'm sure going to miss her."

A New York City policeman reports the following note was received at his precinct station.

"Sirs:

"I stole sum munny. Ramauss is noring me so Im sending sum of it back. Wen it nors again I will send sum more."

Cryptic Department

A newspaper editor recently received some publicity releases from TAGO, a Federal government unit, and wanted to print some of the material, but never heard of any such department. The releases gave no clue. The editor phoned the U.S. Civil Service Commission's Second Regional Office and, as expected, got the right answer, and promptly. TAGO is jargon for The Adjutant General's Office, U.S. Army.

Whistle Stop

President Buell G. Gallagher of City College tells this true story of a woman's doubt about NYC's need for a force of educated cops, expressed to him over the telephone:

"Do you mean to tell me," she demanded, "that the traffic cop who blows his whistle on my corner needs a college education to do that?"

"To which I replied, 'Madam, if that is all you want or expect of the officer on yor corner, then by all means send your seven-year-old son out there to blow the whistle. It's a waste of grown manpower to have it done the way it's done now.'"

Kwazy Kwiz

Q. If the government increases my salary, without my knowing it, how am I ever to find out?

A. Write a letter to your Congressman.

Q. If I'm not supposed to work on Saturday, and if I have Sundays off, do I get paid for the days I don't have to take off, or only for the days on which I have to work?

A. Yes.

Q. If compensatory time off means time I get off to compensate for time I spent working, when I should have been off, but wasn't, what is non-compensatory time off?

A. Leave of absence without pay.

Mental Hygiene Memo

A cuckoo complained that his job in a clock made him feel like a prisoner kept under lock; His hours a week total one sixty-eight, And his pay still remains at the old zero rate. He's not a consumer, because he can't eat, But sure a producer, because he can tweet. He sadly needs help, so his plight won't persist, But unions of cuckoos as yet don't exist. And what if they did? Since he knows just one word, Could a union make sense out of what it had heard, When all that the victim could ever explain Was in two simple syllables meaning "insane?"

Women Are Crowding Men Out Of Office Jobs, But It's Not True in Government

Government and public administration offices are represented as the last strongholds of the male office worker, particularly the male worker without any appreciable skills.

In a report issued by the National Office Management Association public administration, agriculture, mining and transportation are about the only industries and businesses in which a man still competes effectively with women.

Even in some of these, however, the number of office women has already passed the number of office men, the association adds.

The report holds out a ray of hope. Office machines are winning men back to the office. And the number of office machines and operators is doubling every 10 years.

Strange Effect

While most office workers start office work after finishing high school, they have even lower skills for office work than their predecessors, who started after quitting halfway through high school.

Government offices gain less than business from the accounting machine, as far as payroll economy is concerned, says the report.

The report shows that office machines are no threat to growing employment, but forecasts an increase of 1,500,000 office workers over 1950.

CORRECTION CORNER

This column is for employees of the State Correction Department. It is written by Jack Solod, himself an employee of the department with intimate knowledge of worker problems in his agency. Mr. Solod has been given a "free hand" in writing his material, and his views are his own. Members of the department who would like Mr. Solod to discuss matters of especial importance to them are urged to write him in care of the Civil Service LEADER, 97 Duane Street, New York City 7.

Nov. 18 Last Day to Apply For December Test to Fill U. S. Jobs With 'College Minds'

The first of the series of written tests in the new consolidated exam being held by the Federal government will be held on Saturday, December 10.

The U.S. does not require a college degree, but if an applicant does not have a degree, he must show suitable experience.

The jobs involve general administration, economics and other social sciences, business analysis and regulation, social security administration, procurement and supply, organization and methods examining, production planning, communications, personnel management, budget management, library science, statistics, investigation, transportation, information and records management.

To qualify for the first of the series of written tests, one must apply by Friday, November 18. However, the exam is open continuously. Those who apply after that date will be called to one of the subsequent exams. Tests will be held as often as the need requires.

The exam, No. 25 (55), is called the Federal Service Entrance Examination.

Most appointments will be made at $3,670. Positions to be filled include some overseas, in the U. S. Information Agency, and other agencies. Many of them are in the Metropolitan area. A total of more than 50,000 appointments is expected.

Requirements for Lowest Grades Requirements for the $3,670 grade (GS-5), are:

Completion of a four-year college course leading to a bachelor's degree; or three years of experience in administrative, professional, investigative, technical, or other responsible work which has prepared you to enter into the positions for which this examination is appropriate; or any equivalent combination of the above education and experience. In combining education with experience, an academic year of study will be considered as comprising at least 30 semester hours, or 45 quarter-hours, and will be considered equivalent to nine months of experience.

For some positions, pertinent experience alone may be qualifying; for others, courses leading to a bachelor's degree with a specified number of hours in a subject or combination of subjects will meet the requirement.

Second Highest Grade For the $4,080 grade (GS-7): Completion of the education or Applicants who complete at least six full years of resident college work leading to an LL.B. or higher degree in a recognized law school will also meet the entire education or experience requirement for grade GS-7.

Some jobs pay $4,520 to start, but the required experience is greater.

For each grade, at least six months of the experience shown must have been at a level of difficulty and responsibility comparable to that of work at the next second lower grade in the Federal service.

Experience of a routine clerical nature is not qualifying for this examination.

Seventy friends, including office associates and former employees of the bureau, gave Mr. Saunders a "happy retirement" luncheon at the DeWitt Clinton Hotel on October 27 on the eve of his 70th birthday. They presented him with gifts and a purse of money.

Mrs. Saunders was also at the luncheon, where James A. Carey, the department's agricultural fairs representative, acted as toastmaster. Mr. Saunders is widely known among county fair officials for his long service as one of the department inspectors of agricultural fairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Saunders reside at Balston Lake. Their only immediate plans for the future are to "take life just a little easier."

Jobs Abound For Collegiate Type of Mind

 Men jobs, which are open to all qualified U.S. citizens.
One Basic Test
 One basic examination will be given on January 14 to all professional and technical assistant candidates. The pass mark is 75.

The exam consists of tests of general abilities, such as verbal abilities (vocabulary and reading comprehension), quantitative abilities (arithmetic reasoning and table and chart interpretation), and abstract reasoning. In addition, candidates in some specialties will take a special perception test.

 Successful candidates will be appointed to jobs in offices and institutions throughout the State. The Civil Service Department may begin canvassing eligibles as early as April, 1956, for appointment after graduation.

Intern and Accounting Jobs

"The one-year public administration internships," says the Civil Service agency, "are designed for young persons who have had advanced college work in public administration, and who desire the broad training provided by the internship."
 About 30 appointments of that type will be made on July 1, 1956. Most are in Albany, and a few in NYC.

The exam is No. 2257. The accounting assistant test, No. 2258, is open to all qualified U.S. citizens. Pay starts at $3,360, except for junior accountants and junior payroll examiners, who will receive $3,544 to start.

About 120 appointments will be made—50 in Albany, 30 in NYC, and 40 throughout the rest of the State, primarily in Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse, Utica and Binghamton.

Laboratory Secretary
 Exam No. 2259, for laboratory secretary, $3,360 to start, is open to legal residents of New York State. The one-year residence requirement has been waived.

Three examinations for jobs with the Division of Employment, State Labor Department, are also included in the "college series." Appointment is made to one-year trainee positions, at $4,360 a year, employee is prohibited from holding a license if he was qualified to hold one as of April 6, 1954 or prior thereto. Mr. Javits ruled that did not affect employment, but only licensing, as employment of full-time State employees was barred before then, and the amendment did not lift the bar. A State employee brought suit, protesting the ruling, and won. The case is now being appealed by the State.

Javits Tells Who May Hold Racetrack Jobs

 The Attorney General's opinion in that instance said that the licensing that was permitted related to owners, trainers, and the like, and not to employment by the corporation that runs the racetrack.
 (The full text of the letter will be published in The LEADER next week).

Amendment Being Litigated

No opinion issued by the Attorney General holds that full-time State employees may be hired for racetrack jobs, the opinion continues, even with the consent of the employer, as that is not possible under the law.
 Last year the law was amended. A legal controversy has resulted. The amendment provided that no after which permanent appointment is made to $4,730 jobs, without further examination. For employment interviewer and unemployment insurance claims examiner, a bachelor's degree, by June 30, 1956, is required, or a total of seven years of office or business experience high school and college education.

The payroll examiner test is open to all qualified U. S. citizens.
