Albany, N. Y.

Volume V, Number 5

JUNIOR NEWS

WINHURST AND DUNHAM WIN PRIZES AT PARTY

The prizes for the most beautiful and funniest costume were won by Florence Dunham and Danna Winhurst respectively. Florence received a box of candy, and Danna, a bell. The judges were Miss Anderson and Doctor Fredericks.

Shortly after the party began, the grand march was held, in which a number of old-fashioned girls, a mechanical man, a boy and a girl scout, and many others took part.

POETRY CLUB HAS BEEN ORGANIZED

A poetry club has been organized by the English 7 group which meets at one o'clock. The president is Doris Holmes; vice-president, Evelyn Eilber; secretary, Robert Bingham; assistant secretary, Charles Barnes.

The purpose of the club is to read and discuss poetry and poets.

Those who have the ability to contribute original poems are urged to do so. Some of the poems which have been submitted are to be considered for the Crimson and White magazine.

The club meets every Wednesday at 1:45 P. M.

BOYS' BASKETBALL STARTS

The Junior High School basketball team will be chosen from the following list: John Hawkins, Martin Creesy, Erastus Davis, John Akullian, Bob Taft, Ed Walker, Seeley Funk, Ed Harding, Dick Selkirk, Jimmy Griffin, Jack Hodecker, and Dick Game.

Because of an injured leg, Arnold Rosenstern may not be able to play on the team this year.

The first and second teams have had two scrimmages, both of which were won by the first team. The scores were 6-4 and 6-0.

The first team is to have new suits, which will be made to order.

FRESHMEN INVITED TO SENIOR RECEPTION

The Senior High School reception will be held tonight in the new gym. All ninth grade students are invited to attend. The play will begin at 7:30 and the dancing will last until 11:30.

TRY-OUTS TO BE HELD FOR CHRISTMAS PLAYS

The Junior High Christmas play try-outs will be held on Tuesday, November 13, in room 228, at two o'clock.

The following plays have been chosen: Bimbo, The Pirate, and Little Father of the Wilderness. The third play has not yet been selected.

These plays are on reserve in the library at Miss Eaton's desk. Pupils who wish to try out may go to the library to read them.

CLUB NOTES

The Biology Club has been making spatter prints and studying microscopic animals.

Making book ends and shoe trees has come to be the occupation of the Girls' Shop Club. These articles will be stained mahogany in color when they are completed.

The Etiquette Club is planning to have a question box published in the Crimson and White. The action of people in public places will be considered.

The Sub-Deb Club has sent away to club headquarters for folders concerning the proper way to dress, to give parties, and to dance. The officers are: Margaret Charles, president; Elizabeth Warner, secretary; Betty Douglas, treasurer; Louis Smith, scribe.

The Dancing Club is learning the fundamental dance steps, including two-step, waltz, and the square dance.

The Scout Club has been studying the scout laws. In this club Scout badges may be earned and tests passed.

The Photography Club develops pictures which they take themselves. David Ellison is the president.

ARMISTICE DAY

We hope our school mates won't forget the moment of silence at 11:00 on Armistice Day.

This minute, which is reserved in remembrance of those who died in the World War, is little to give in return for their sacrifice.

Therefore, on this coming Sunday at eleven o'clock, let us be thankful for the deeds of our heroes.

HAVE YOU A DATE?

Get out your engagement books. You are expected in room 228 on November 13 to try out for your Junior High Christmas play. Turn up at the try-outs at 2:00 p. m. and give folks a taste of your talent. If you feel that you have no talent, don't let that stop you. The best of talent is sometimes hidden.

There is sure to be a position ready for you. Don't disappoint it!

ATHLETICS IN ACTIONS

Give three cheers for our male Milnites! They're out for business with success as their goal.

If you see a sturdy young athlete exceeding the speed limit, you'll know that you were looking at one of Milne's promises of success on his way to basketball practice.

Any day our energetic young men can be found in the gym "polishing up" their technique. Your enthusiasm has been noticed!

We salute you!

CHARACTER SKETCH

By Prof. Izmay

This week as we peek into our "Roques Gallery" we pick out a seventh grader.

This person is tall and stocky. She has blond curly hair, blue eyes, and wears glasses. She was thirteen years old on the last day of the second week in October.

If you guess this solution, hand it in with your name on a sheet of paper to your homeroom teacher or put it in the Crimson and White drawer in the office. The first three to hand in their solutions will have their names published in the next issue.

The solution of last week's character is "Herbert Marx." The first 3 people to guess the correct answer are as follows: Robert Taft, Edith Stevens, and Robert Wilke.

NAMES---WHENCE COME THEY?

This week some more skeletons have been dragged out of the family closet. In other words, we are revealing a few more nicknames.

Virginia Tripp - "Peter" - this time "Papa Darling" is at the bottom of the whole thing. He started it before she was a year old so what could she say about it?

Herbert Marx - "Sonny" - it all started in his own home. Why? It is most likely the result of his naturally "sunny" disposition.

Erastus Davis - "Brud" - He has an older brother; so, of course, his nickname is appropriate.

CAN YOU IMAGINE?

1. V. Tripp and E. Simmons having a quarrel?
2. A seventh grader not getting lost during the first week of school?
3. H. Marx and F. Steinhardt not debating at all for a week?
4. A seventh grader being over five feet tall?
5. A person going to sleep during class?
6. Quiet reigning in the Annex and cafeteria?
