CSEA Issues Scathing Indictment Of State Pension Study Unit

ALBANY - The pension committee of the Civil Service Employees Assn. has issued a stinging indictment of the permanent commission on Public Employees' Pension Retirement Systems, terming the committee a waste of public funds in a time of budget austerity and whose members are, in some cases, already drawing pension allowances that far exceed anything for which the ibility for study and public pension or retirement sysunnecessary commission.

Mediators Named By State CSEA Wage Impasse

ALBANY - Two mediators have been jointly selected and have entered the impasse in State-employee negotiations between the Civil Service Employees Assn. and State administration.

Both sides met early last week at the New York State Bar Assn. headquarters in Albany, a neutral site, to discuss the issues at impasse and the procedures to be followed during medi-

The mediators selected are Prof. Barry A. Taylor, director of management and development programs at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy, and Ralph D. Semerad, professor of law at Albany Law School of Union University, CSEA declared an impasse in its talks on Jan. 14 after the State had refused to make an offer in response to CSEA demands for a pay raise and fringe benefits. Negotiations had begun in the Fall.

After the initial meeting, CS-EA had presented its side of the case to the mediators at a meeting in Albany Law School later in the week.

CSEA president Theodore C. Wenzl said his union was more than satisfied with the selections, noting that professors Taylor and Semerad "are eminently qualified to handle this difficult assignment." The CSEA leader said that he was confident that the two men would be impartial and discreet in handling this extremely sensitive issue.

Verda Davis Elected

ALFRED - The newly elected president of the State University of New York at Alfred chapter of the Civil Service Employees Assn. is Verda Davis.

Other officers and representatives elected in the recent balloting are Lee Ryan, vice-president; Joan Tower, secretary; Helen Martin, treasurer, and Lee Ryan and Harold Dickinson, del-

CSEA Wins Long-Sought Career Ladder Accord

ALBANY - After nearly two years of negotiations, the Civil Service Employees Assn., bargaining agent for 140,000 State workers, and the Rockefeller Administration have reached agreement on a new career series which will upgrade salaries and increase promotional opportunities for thousands of Mental Hygiene employees in the psychiatric attendants' series.

The agreement fulfills Article 23 of the State-CSEA contract covering institutional employees which provided for bilateral participation in the development and implementation of a career plan during the term of the current contract which expires on March 31. As a result, the affected employces will be given new titles and, in most cases, a onestep increase in their salary grade on March 2, and a two grade increase upon completion of one year in the new positions.

CSEA president Theodore C. Wenzl said "the sweeping agreement culminates years of work by CSEA in behalf of these dedicated employees, who, in this time of controversy over care of patients in the State's Mental institutions, are the unsung heroes and heroines. Hopefully, this new development will boost their sagging morale."

Better Late Than Never Wenzl pointed out, "that while patient care due to lack of adequate staff has reached the cris-

HUNTINGTON - The Civil Service Employees Assn. has announced that there will be a ntation on Feb. 18 in the Harborfields School District here. More than 50 custodial employees of the school district will be eligible to vote.

"We urge all employees to vote, and to consider their choice carefully." said Frank Imholz. president to CSEA's Suffolk County chapter, "It was an even tie in the last election, but we think that CSEA has enough to offer to break that tie decisiveis stage in many institutions, these employees are doing a yeaman job in meeting the challenge. This recognition of their service and talents comes late, but nevertheless, arrives at a most propitious time."

The largest group of employees - 23,000 psychiatric attendants (salary grade 6)-will be reclassified on March 2 to the new position of assistant therapy aide (salary grade 7). Upon reclassification, the employee advances to the minimum of the new salary grades or receives an increment of the new salary, whichever is greater

Political Action To Show CSEA As Public Defender

E MERGING plans of the Civil Service Employees Assn. to mobilize its resources for political action heralds the rise of a new and aggressive force on the State's political scene. With a membership of over 200,000 and a minimum voting strength of at least half a million, CSEA has in a sense been a sleeping giant,

Mental Hygiene Committee To Keep Tap On Conditions

Assembly Minority Leader Stanley Steingut has urged Speaker Perry Duryea to create a permanent committee on Mental Hygiene to insure the end of "deplorable conditions" at State mental institutions and to spearhead an "entirely new medical, social, scientific thrust" to the State's programs for the mentally ill.

In a letter to the Speaker, Steingut endorsed and enclosed a proposal from Assemblyman Andrew Stein of Manhattan to set up an Assembly Standing Committee on Mental Hygiene as "a necessary initial step in assuring the (amilies of these unfortunate victims that this Legislature is determined to end the tragic conditions that prevail in our mental institutions and to seek every available means to restore their loved ones to a normal, happy, productive life."

whose recent visits to various institutions brought widespread public disclosure to what Steingut called appalling conditions in State mental institutions and especially those entrusted with the care of children.

In his letter to Duryea, Steingut noted that the State Mental Hygiene Department had an annual budget of $600 million and that such major expenditures should be closely supervised.

More Than Supervision

"But, the present Mental Hygiene programs require more supervision. Innovative methods, and entirely new medical, social and scientific thrusts are indicated.

"Our task force is preparing to meet with the directors of an exciting and effective program presently conducted by the State of California, and with prominent leaders in private agencies here at home who are engaged in similar programs, which show much promise, especially with retarded children.

"An Assembly Standing Committee on Mental Hygiene could and should give new direction to the Mental Hygiene Department of the State of New York.

"I, therefore, urge the creation of such a committee as a necessary initial step in assuring the families of these unfortunate victims that this Legislature is determined to seek every available means to restore their loved ones to a normal, happy, productive life," Steingut concluded in his letter to the Speaker.

"MR. CSEA" HONORED - Joseph D. Lochner, standing at microphone, reminisces about his 40 years with the Civil Service Employees Assn. at a testimonial dinner given in his honor by CSEA employees. The event was held at the Golden Fox Steak House in Albany and attended by 150 co-workers. Joe's children were guests of honor at the affair. Seated at the head table, from left, are CSEA president Theodore C. Wenzl; Mrs. Wenzl; CSEA counsel John C. Rice (partially hidden). who was toastmaster; William Lochner, Joe's son, and Jan Hornbach, who was escorted by the younger Lochner. Not shown are Ms. Joann Gavard, Joe's daughter, and Mark Gavard, son-in-law.

For Joseph D. Lochner, 40 Years With CSEA Has ·Been A Very Short Time

ALBANY - The man who helped guide the destinies of the Civil Service Employees Assn. for four decades last week received what he described as "one of the greatest honors of his lifetime."

Joseph D. Lochner, executive director of CSEA, who recently completed 40 years with the union, was honored by 150 co-workers at a testimonial dinner at the Golden Fox Steak

House in Albany. CSEA counsel John C. Rice, toastmaster for the dinner, traced Joe's career back to 1931, the year he joined the fledgling union as a clerk-typist as one of two employees. Joe was described by Rice as a "jack of all trades," a man "who did everything and was everywhere" during the early years of CSEA. In the later thirties, Joe became the executive director or "chief of staff," a position he holds today. He was instrumental in fighting for and winning the numerous benefits enjoyed today

Rice also noted that Joe has served under ten CSEA presidents and worked in behalf of by State employees.

Wenzi Asks Talks On Investigators

ALBANY-Theodore C. Wenzl, president of the Civil Service Employees Assn., last week requested a meeting with State Administrators to discuss the status of the Bingo Control Commission's investigatory staff, which had appeared threatened with elimination.

In a letter to Abe Lavine, director of the Office of Employee Relations, Wenzl expressed his concern, and CSEA's opinion that "If the State pursued the abolition of the Commission's investigatory staff, the result will be a complete abnegation of the most important responsibility of the Bingo Control Commission."

Wenzl said that he was hopeful of an early meeting with the State, and that "The sooner we get to the root of the priorities in this case, the sooner we can get the whole thing cleared up."

Rice said the current CSEA leader "is a man whose philosophical orientation and reflective nature has encouraged Joe's hard-driving. pragmatic personality to grow to full bloom."

Wenzl praised the honored guest for the cooperation he has received from him during his quarter of a century association with CSEA and the dedication, professionalism and endurance with which he has tackled such a difficult assign-

Time Went Fast

When called upon to speak, Joe Lochner looked at his forty years as a "short period of time" and went on to reminisce about the numerous people associated with CSEA through the years. He had the highest praise for those CSEA members whose volunteer efforts had contributed to making CSEA what it is today. Joe described the staff of the organization as the finest group of professionals with whom he was proud to work. "All of our efforts - elected officials, members and staff together have produced the greatest organization of its kind in the country," said Joe.

The CSEA executive director was the recipient of several gifts. awards and framed mementos of his service. Making the presentations were Thomas J. Linden. in behalf of the CSEA staff softball team, which Joe managed; Joseph B. Roulier, director of public relations: Marvin G. Nailor, assistant director of public relations, and Ms. Mary T. Blair, program specialist for State collective bargaining.

Congratulations

The program, which included the reading of congratulatory telegrams from Governor Rockefeller, Lieutenant Governor Wilson. State Comptroller Arthur Levitt, Senate Majority Leader Earl Brydges, Assembly Speaker Perry Duryea and Assembly Minority Leader Stanley Steingut, was interspersed with humorous anecdotes and messages.

Nailor and Ms. Blair were cochairmen, assisted by Ms. Faustine LaGrange.

O'Hara Plea For $5 Albany Parking Fee Violates Contract

ALBANY - The Civil Service Employees Assn. has accused state Office of General Services Commisioner A. C. O'Hara of "interfering in the collective bargaining process and of urging a violation of existing contracts effecting State employees."

Commissioner O'Hara, testifying last week before legislative fiscal committees, urged that the State charge $5 monthly for the State employees who park at the State Campus Office Building

At the urging of CSEA Capital District parking committee, union president Theodore C. Wenzl, in a letter, told Abe Levine, director of the State Office of Employee Relations and the State's chief negotiator, that ". . . there is presently before the State, as one of our demands, free parking for all State employees . . ." Wenzl also noted, ". . . under the existing contract, and (specifically) the article 'conclusion of collective negotiations,' it provides that during the term of this agreement, neither party will unilaterally seek to modify its terms through legislation or any other means." Wenzl also pointed out that the "benefits-guaranteed clause" of the contracts provide that "the State will not seek to diminish or impair any benefits or privilege provided by law, rule, or regulations, for employees without prior notice to

Wenzl Says "No Change"

The CSEA leader said his organization viewed Commissioner O'Hara's public pronouncement "as a clear violation of our contract which is still in effect." He suggested that Commissioner O'Hara or any other State official "check with the Office of Employee Relations before making unilateral announcements which threaten the livelihood of our members or interfere with the collective negotiating process."

Wenzl called on Levine for Immediate assurances that no changes will be made in the parking arrangements at the State campus or any other State facility." This is a negotiable issue and should not be discussed until agreement has been reached at the bargaining table," he declared.

"Furthermore," Wenzl stated, "Commissioner O'Hara was reported as saying that the $5 monthly fee would net a $270,000 annual profit for the State. What the Commissioner is proposing, in effect, is a profitmaking 'tax' imposed only on State employees, a proposition which is unconscionable."

SPEAKER - Recently appointed Civil Service Employees Assn. field representative James C. Stewart will be principal speaker Feb. 8 at meeting of Erie County Library unit. The 125-member unit will meet at 8 p.m. in the East Delavan Branch of the Buffalo and Eric County Public Library, 1187 E. Dela-

Just The Beginning

FOR MORE than a year, this newspaper has carried story after story on the battle being waged by State Mental Hygiene Department employees throughout the State to bring public attention to the plight of patients in institutions and to demonstrate the terrible effects suffered by both patients and workers as the result of unthinking, heartless budget cuts made from departmental funds last

In the main, the spotlight has been turned on by members of the Civil Service Employees Assn. in a determined effort to let the public in general know to what degree the Legislature last year abandoned its responsibilities to the most unfortunate of human beings.

This unrelenting effort now appears to be reaping some rewards. This year's State budget calls for a lift on the hiring freeze in the Mental Hygiene Dept. Only last week, a much-sought-after career ladder was established for department employees and promotion opportunities will be increased. Legislative investigations of Mental Hygiene problems are being launched from all directions.

All this, however, is merely a start. Even with additional hirings the Mental Hygiene Dept., institutions will continue to be far understaffed. New approaches that offer something beside building programs are needed.

The real job is just beginning.

Hint To Negotiators

FTER including City Council president Sanford Garelik and Councilwoman Ruth Lerner among the sponsors of a bill which would have banned moonlighting for City employees, both of their honorable selves have pleaded that it was all a typographical error.

Both Council members now claim that not only should their names not have appeared on the measure-discovered by The Leader-but also took the stout view that most civil servants needed the extra income from outside employment.

Negotiators take note!

Q. I am a car dealer. One of my employees is my father, who works full time as my office manager. Can I report his earnings for social security purposes just as I do for all my other employees?

A. Yes. Your father's work is covered under social security since he is working for you in the operation of a business. On the other hand, household work by a parent in a son's or daughter's home is not covered by social security.

Have a question about social security and its retirement, survivors, disability or Medicare benefits? See your telephone directory for the phone number and address of the nearest social security office.

whose awakening will change the foundations of the political power structure within the

The call to arms was sounded loud and clear by CSEA president Dr. Theodore C. Wenzl. when he said: "The members of the Legislature must be made aware of our determination not to be made the goats in times of fiscal crisis. The key to this awareness lies in communication, which is the very basis of political action." This call for the use of the ballot to support CSEA representatives at the bargaining table will help deliver to public employees a fair measure of justice and equity in salaries, pensions, working conditions and in fringe benefits.

Elected officials have much too long propagated the peculiar and false notion that the public employee is the cause for increasing government budgets and skyrocketing tax rates. when the simple fact is that only the efficiency and productivity of civil service employees prevented the total collapse of the public fise and the public service.

Saving Public Services

Indeed, the interest of the public is no less substantial than that of the CSEA membership in preventing radical and substantial cutbacks in levels of expenditures and in the quality of public services. The record clearly substantiates that fact. Less than a year ago, CSEA sounded the alarm on proposed economies in appropriations for State institutions and succeeded in part in blunting the economy

Events since then in Willowbrook, in Letchworth and in other State institutions clearly demonstrate that the CSEA warnings were directed not only to the saving of jobs, but more significantly for the maintenance of service levels for the unfortunate at decent and humane standards. Today, the public is not any less concerned than CSEA was then about intolerable conditions at these institutions, and the public is ready to respond to the need for improving those conditions through a realistic and decent allocation of their tax dollars.

Common Desires

Despite the efforts of some public officials to drive a wedge between taxpayers and civil service employees, both groups share a common desire for quality public services. And civil service employees, who also are taxpayers, share with the latter a common desire for efficiency and dedication in delivering those services to the public.

Thomas McDonough, chairman of the CSEA legislative committee, and Richard Tarmey, chairman of the CSEA political action committee, are toughminded leaders who have had vast experience with legislators and the legislative process, with politicians and the elective process. With the dedicated support of CSEA membership, they can be counted on to bring the full weight of the political power of civil service employees on public issues for the benefit not only of the membership but for the benefit of all the people in our

Dismissal For Union Activity

GRAND ISLAND Teachers' Assn. filed an "improper practice" charge with PERB alleging that the Board of Education dismissed five probationary teachers "solely because of their activity in support of the Grand Island Teachers' Assn. in violation of the Public Employees' Fair Employment Act or their membership in the same." The Board of Education commenced a special proceeding in State Supreme Court in which it sought a declaration that PERB did not have jurisdiction to consider the dismissal of a probationary teacher, and, furthermore, the Board asked the Court to enjoin PERB from proceeding with the charge of improper practices. The Supreme Court of Erie County granted the injunction against PERB. It reasoned that the Education Law provided exclusive remedies to a dismissed probationary teacher and that the Taylor Law was not intended as an enlargement of those rights unless there was a clear statutory mandate. The Court went on to say that it was not the intention of the Legislature to make a probationary teacher immune from discharge by joining an employee organization. 314 N.Y.S. 2d 944.

THE CENTRAL ISSUE presented to the Appellate Division on the appeal by PERB from the decision of the Erie County Supreme Court was whether PERB is authorized to hear an improper practice charge alleging that the dismissals were acts of reprisal against teachers' legitimate union activities. Stated another way, the question was whether PERB could hear charges based upon the alleged deprivation of certain statutory and constitutional rights enjoyed by all teachers.

THE APPEALS COURT decided unanimously that PERB possessed that authority and dismissed the Board of Education's petition.

THE COURT POINTED out that school teachers, probationary and tenured, are public employees within the definition set forth in section 201.8 of the Taylor Law and that as such they have the right to form, join and participate in any employee organization of their own choosing. In fact, the school board conceded that the teachers have such rights, and, furthermore, that their employment may not be terminated because of participation in an employee organization, Section 3020-a of the Education Law which mandates certain procedures in dismissal proceedings applies only to tenured teachers and therefore has no application to this case. However, the Board of Education urged the Court that teacher dismissals are traditionally reviewed in an Article 78 proceeding.

HOWEVER, THE COURT went on to point out that when enacting the improper practice section of the Taylor Law, the Legislature specifically declared certain conduct to be illegal . . . "It shall be an improper practice for a public employer or its agents deliberately (a) to interfere with, restrain or coerce public employees in the exercise of their rights guaranteed in section two hundred two for the purpose of depriving them of such rights; * * (c) to discriminate against any employee for the purpose of encouraging or discouraging membership in, or participation in the activities of, any employee organization." The Legislature also provided that PERB had the power to establish procedures for the prevention of such practices and provided that PERB should exercise exclusive jurisdiction over such cases and that such jurisdiction could not be delegated.

ALTHOUGH COGNIZANT of the cases which state that a probationary teacher may be fired without assigning a reason, the Appellate Division indicated that such decisions pre-date the Taylor Law. The dismissal involves the alleged violation of statutory and constitutional rights. The commissioner's power to review is not exclusive and does not remove the jurisdiction of PERB. The creation of a new right carries with it the protection for the free exercise of that

THE COURT CONCLUDED that one of the main aims of the Taylor Law was to insure that the efficiency of public employees will be promoted by securing their right to organize. This policy would be frustrated if the public employer could dismiss a probationary employee solely because of union activity. The opinion is careful to declare that it is not

What's behind Volkswagen's new low price?

The Best Warranty This Side of a Rolls-Royce

You can't put a price on the warranty you get with a Volkswagen. You see, a Volkswagen warranty runs twice as long as anybody else's small car warranty. And only one car, the Rolls-Royce, has one better.

Here's how ours works: All you do is maintain the car according to the Volkswagen maintenance schedule. If any factory part is found to be defective in material or workmanship within 24 months or 24,000 miles, whichever comes first (except normal wear and tear on service items) any U.S. or Canadian VW dealer will repair or replace it free of charge. See your dealer for details.

More Than 5,000 Inspections Per Car

The story behind our warranty starts at the factory. Where 1,104 nit-picking inspectors have one job, and one job only. To find something wrong with a Volkswagen before that Volkswagen finds its way out of the factory.

Every one of the more than 5,000 parts that go into a VW is carefully examined. Some of them get the once-over two or three times. If one of our inspectors is unhappy with only one of the parts, the whole car gets pulled off the line. Sometimes we pull as many as 225 VWs a day. But it's worth it. We pick the lemons. You get the plums.

The Most Advanced Service System In The World

No other car maker anywhere can offer you Medi-car, Volkswagen's ultrasensitive Electronic Diagnosis. It's designed to spot problems in your Volkswagen when they're at the minor adjustment stage. Long before they can do any real damage to your car or your wallet. Every one of our dealers has VW Diagnosis. And you get the first four check-ups free with a new VW.

The Highest Resale Value

Based on what's happened in the past, no other economy car on the road holds its value after 3 or 4 years as well as a Volkswagen. So, if you're thinking about buying a new car, think about what it's going to be worth when it's an old car. Because when the time comes to part company with your VW, you won't be left holding the bag.

Unless that's what you carry your money in.

The Most Highly Developed Car Ever Built

Economy cars come and go. Volkswagens just keep going. One reason is our 1600cc aluminum-magnesium engine. It's rear-mounted for better traction on slick roads. And it's air-cooled for better performance in heat waves or cold spells. The underside of the Beetle has a steel, sealed bottom to protect its vital parts. The outside of the Volkswagen carries 13 pounds of paint. The body of the car is put together so precisely that it's practically airtight. In all, more than 2200 changes and advances have gone into today's Beetle. And most of them were designed to make the car run better and last longer. Not just look different.

No other car maker has put so much time and so many advances and changes into one car. You see, there's more to a Volkswagen than meets the eye.

Qualified staff attendants can compete in this examination, but the competition and resulting eligible lists will be limited to those institutions where there are provisionals, and promotion will be limited to the number of Supervising Attendant positions which are encumbered provisionally. Provisionals, who pass this exam will have to be promoted to the Grade 13 position in the normal Civil Service manner and those provisionals who do not qualify will be reverted to permanent status as Mental Hygiene Therapy Aide, Grade 9.

ALL PSYCHIATRIC HEAD ATTENDANTS, Grade 14, will maintain their present title and grade level and their positions will be earmarked for reclassification when they become vacant.

Patient Care Training Certificate Program

The Patient Care Training Certificate is an alternative to high school graduation as a means of satisfying the educational requirements for advancement from Assistant Therapy Aide, Grade 7, to Therapy Aide, Grade 9. It will require demonstrated competence in communication skills and numeric skills and basic understanding of the health and behavior field.

As soon as possible after the implementation of the career ladder, an evaluative examination will be administered at each institution to non-high school graduates holding an interest in qualifying for the training certificate. Those who qualify successfully in the examination will be awarded a certificate without further training.

Those who do not qualify successfully in the examination and are interested in earning the training certificate will have appropriate training offered to them. This training will be available at the institution on the employee's time.

Under separate cover, CSEA will receive a copy of the Department of Mental Hygiene's Personnel Administration Memorandum 72-2 which gives full instructions to institution directors on the implementation of the Patient Care Career Ladder. This memorandum includes tentative job descriptions for the new career ladder positions. CSEA has strong reservations concerning these job specifications since they are so broadly defined that specific areas of responsibility in each position are not clearly indicated. Accordingly, it is their intention to pursue these objectives to these job specifications with the Department of Civil Service.

Committee Blasts State Pension Study

for the commission, including personnel services, and provides salaries of $100 per day to each of the five commission members plus expenses they incur. This wasteful expenditure, the committee said, in a time when the State Administration claims a fiscal crisis becomes even more noteworthy when you consider that two commission members are enjoying retirement allowances from the New York State Employees Retirement System, that far exceed the retirement benefits of the average pensioner under the same system by thousands of dollars.

The CSEA report went on to

"The average 'O' option allowance of a State employee wno retired last year was less than $3,500, and more than 70 percent of last year's 7,488 retirees collected options which provided benefits substantially less than the average 1970-71 'O' optional allowance.

"As for the actual work of the commission, it would appear that the State has spent $250,-000 to have a few people read the 1969 Moore Committee Report, (formerly known as the Report of the Governor's Committee to Study the State Employees Retirement System).

"The 27-page report of the Permanent Commision has little creditability since it is no more than a repetition of the theme of the 1969 Moore report. In fact, the poorly researched document which was to have studied retirement systems involving well over 1,000,000 employees has only 18 footnotes, eight of which quote the Moore report.

"To illustrate the broad, empty, all-purpose statements that characterize most of the Commision's report. Page 2 of the report states: 'To the extent that tax dollars are set aside for ever-increasing costs of public pensions, there is that much less revenue for other costs of government."

"Substitute 'welfare payments," 'aid to education,' or any other budget item and you have the same inaccuracy.

"As for actual facts presented in the report, few exist. Those facts which are included are nothing more than past truths. 'Take, for example, the 'fact' that was used to back up the quote mentioned above. The report states that the combined bill for the State and its local governments for contribution to the New York State Employees Retirement System and the New York State Policemen's and Firemen's System increased over the past year by 44 percent. No mention is made of the fact this increase reflects costs for increased membership in the past year, increased salaries, or changes in benefits structure.

"While piously quoting the State Constitution and the Taylor Law, the commission seeks to strip public employees of all their rights under the law, reduce their pensions and force them to continue to work for the State until they are ready to be transported to the nearest home for the aged.

"Instead of recognizing the fact that the retirement benefits for the majority are modest at best and paltry for hundreds of thousands of public employees, the commision report chose to dwell on such items as the oneyear final average salary provision under some of the New York City pension plans, Using an article of the New York Times as the source of its facts, the commission states that the New York City Transit Authority found three times as much overtime among employees in their last year of work as among others who were not in their last year of work.

"We would have considered It more appropriate for the committee to isolate more typical examples of benefits received by the average public employee. We point out, in this regard, a fact which the commission report failed to recognize. The average annual State pension of those employees who retired before 1969 is $1,800.

"It is more than interesting to note that while the commission's report isolates the special plan that affects relatively small members, no mention is made of the legislators' pension plan. The legislators is the one group of public employees that escapes the wrath of the commission and it is the only group of public employees who have the richest retirement benefits and the flimsiest qualifications for eli-

"In conclusion, the CSEA pension committee finds it strange for the commission to speak of "gimmickry" in pension systems, when the Commission itself is a gimmick signed to place the blame for the State's fiscal crisis, inflation and rising taxes on public employees."

to clarify the reasons for the validation study.

"We have been assured that the validation study results will only be used to determine whether the testing is appropriate," a CSEA spokesman said. "The results of the study will not have any bearing on appointments being made as a result of the exam."

Members of the CSEA committee are Edward L. Allen, Ralph G. Fabiano, Catherine Harrington, Walter Nystoriak,

Representing the Civil Service Department were Charles Wolz, director of recrultment and examinations: Muriel Griffin, and Donald Vigeant. Representing the Division of Employment were David Zaron, director of training, and John Maselli, employee relations representative.

CSEA Rochester Area Chapters See Danger In More Budget Cuts

ROCHESTER - CSEA chapter presidents and other officers from the metropolitan Rochester area say further reductions in the financing of State services or more personnel cuts will "cripple the services and destroy staff morale."

Samuel Grossfield, president of the Rochester chapter, says leaders also are concerned over attacks on employees' pension plans.

Officers of eight area CSEA chapters-including State medical facilities, educational and penal institutions - from Rochester, Brockport, Geneseo, Sonyea, Newark and Industry met at the Carriage Stop Restaurant in nearby Henrietta to discuss ways of voicing their concern about the cutbacks.

"The pressure has been put on the Legislature to economize," Grossfield said, "but by trying to please the taxpayers, they have reduced State services to the point that bigger problems are being created.

Service Could Be Destroyed

"They have cut into the bone of essential services and programs. Any more cuts will destroy some services."

He said some of the cuts already made might offer shortterm relief to the economy, but the cost of building the services back up "will be more than anyone realizes."

"The smaller staffs are causing high amounts of overtime." he said. "At one school, overtime that has been paid could have gone to hire at least eight more workers and resulted in better service."

Grossfield said CSEA lead will ask for a meeting with area legislators to explain their con-

Contracts Expire

"We also want to ask the legislators what will be done for State employees when contracts expire March 31," he said, "The Governor has taken the position'that the cupboard is bare, but are the State employees going to be asked to continue working without a wage increase when their costs are still going up, including their State taxes?" He said pensions will be discussed because "the public has been misinformed by isolated cases of high pensions cited in the media.

"Most State employees earn less than $8,000 a year and retire at less than $2,000 a year,"

Wenzl Enters Negotiations

WATERTOWN - A public legislative hearing, as called for under the Taylor Law, is scheduled for Feb. 9 in the latest step to settle 'he contract dispute between Jefferson County and the Civil Service Employees Assn.

Dr. Theodore C. Wenzl, statewide CSEA president, and Joseph Dolan, CSEA director of local government afcairs, will testify at the open meeting in the Jefferson County Office

Representatives of the Jefferson County Board of Supervisors and of PERB will also be present. The County had previously turned down the PERB recommendation as being too employee oriented.

Chapter president Eleanor Percy has accused the County of negotiating in bad faith. She 'has stated that the PERB recommendation would be acceptable to the chapter, considering the need to compromise on the PERB fact-finder Dr. Robert W. Rock had recommended a compromise package of a 5.4 percent wage hike for employees, supplemented by County assumption of all costs of employees hospitalization insurance and half the cost for dependents. and a guaranteed death benefit.

80% Receive Degrees In H.S. Equivalency Program

recent information obtained teachers feel he is ready. from the Department of Civil Service, the number of classes in the High School Equivalency diploma program is being cut back.

The degree program was negotiated by the Civil Service Employees Assn. in its 1970-72 contracts for State employees in the Administrative, Institutional, Professional - Scientific - Technical, and Operational Units, and has been an "exceptional success, with over 80 percent receiving their degrees," according to Theodore C. Wenzl, statewide president of CSEA.

According to a Civil Service Department spokesman, the classes are being cut down because there are currently more than twice as many places as there are students to fill them.

The spokesman said there are two possible explanations for the lack of applications. First, many prospective students think there is a complicated application process, and that they have a good chance of being turned down. Second, they think there is a set-up similar to "regular high school."

Neither is true, the spokesman explained. Almost anyone who applies will be accepted. Each student then proceeds at his own pace, working on those areas in which he needs help. There is no system of courses and tests. The whole purpose is to prepare the student to take million are currently gathering dust in the City Treasury because thousands of City employees who neglected to pick up weekly wages, vacation pay, retroactive wages or sick leave compensation are either unaware that they are owed this money, or don't know how to claim it.

Below is The Leader's twelfth listing of City employees who have checks waiting for them. Because of space limitations, we list only checks of $75 or more. If you find your name here, you must go to your agency's payroll office and tell them the date of the payroll from which you are owed money. After they have located the check in their records, they should fill out a Check Pay Order memorandum to the City Paymaster, a step which begins the procedure for drawing the money out of the City Treasury, where unclaimed wages are sent after being held by the departments for a few months. You should receive your check by mail after about four weeks.

This week's listing is composed solely of Health Dept. employees. The payroll dates precede each of the five groupings of names.

Some of the persons listed may be deceased, in which case their beneficiaries may make claim by presenting a Surrogate's Court order or a death certificate plus paid-in-full funeral bill.

If your name appeared in a previous edition of The Leader and you have experienced problems in trying to claim your

Study Possible Economies Of Areawide Bargaining By Suffolk School Districts

(From Leader Correspondent)

SMITHTOWN — Possible economies in areawide collective negotiations are under study following a meeting between Frank J. Imholz, president of the Suffolk chapter of the Civil Service Employees Assn., and William F. Phelan, superintendent of the County's Second Supervisory District.

Imholz last month had proposed talks on the advantages of area-wide negotiations to reduce the time-consuming and costly overlapping of similar negotiations in individual school districts.

The Suffolk chapter has units in more than 30 school districts.

An initial meeting last week revealed that the plan is already being studied on the management side, Imholz reported. Further discussions were to be held following a school district seminar being held by the Suffolk chapter.

Imholz said the CSEA was prepared to sacrifice the "leapfrog" negotiating advantages of the current separate negotiations in the interest of an efficient and more economical procedure.

It was learned that three districts in Phelan's supervisory district reported expenses for negotiations that equalled the cost of two full-time professional negotiators. "And that was just three of the 15 districts in that supervisory district," Imholz noted.

Syracuse CSEA Sends 'Thanks' To Overseas GI's sons, brothers and friends shipped overseas to fight wars in onceobscure Asian nations, But since they are there, Americans at home have been trying, from 8,000 miles away, to make their everyday existence a little brighter.

Five years ago the State University at Syracuse chapter of the Civil Service Employees Assn. began its "Thanks Packs" program. Collection boxes set up in the College of Forestry and Upstate Medical Center netted about 100 pounds of gifts, which were then sorted, packed and shipped by the chapter to the USO for distribution to American servicemen in Vietnam.

Every year since then, the CSEA chapter has continued its "Thanks Packs" project, sending a total of 82 packages, or 400 pounds of gifts to GI's in Vietnam.

This year, the chapter received a letter from the USO in China Beach, thanking the members for the gifts and requesting that the packs be continued. After the collection boxes were set up, the students at the College of Forestry heard of the project and gathered 78 pounds of gifts, including homemade cookies. and donations from the loca merchants, toward the chapter's effort. When added to the 58 pounds of gifts collected by chapter members, this year's packs were the most bounteous in the history of the chapter project.

Tom W. Ranger, chapter treasurer, has headed up the "Thanks Packs" program over its five-year history. This year he was aided by Ellen Gural, chapter representative at the College of Forestry.

Various committee reports were presented, of which highpoints are covered elsewhere on this page in the Capital District Conference Newsletter written by Conference second vicepresident Jean Gray. She covers, in particular, the reports of political action chairman Donald Blake and activities chairman Dorothy Honeywell. Reports were also presented. by president Ernest Wagner, first vice-president Jack Dougherty, treasurer Edgar Troidle and secretary Marian Farrelly.

Capital Conference Newsletter By Jean Gray

The special communications committee of the Capital District Conference received a very nice "pat on the back" from Donald Blake, chairman of the political action committee, on notification of every chapter in the Conference within a speed of three hours. This committee functions with no hitches and is available to all chairmen who have an immediate need for communications within the Conference.

The Conference political action committee has had several meetings recently and has been in contact with all the legislators in the Capital District area to make them aware of our interest in the functioning of the Legislature and especially the civil service legislation and laws which affect public employees. The local legislators have been polled on provisions of the Taylor Law and their general attitude toward public employees.

That paragon of moneymakers, Dorothy Honeywell, has done it again! We are going to have a bus available for transportation to the Concord on Monday, March 20, at 9 a.m., for the price of $7.50 round trip. The permission has been received to allow parking in the campus area.

A joint meeting will be held Feb. 7 at Vallee's in Colonie of the activities, publicity and social committees to discuss plans for a bowling tournament, summer trips and, most important of all, the birth of a new Journal and Handbook for the Capital District Conference.

The first week in April finds us at Ice Capades time. This is an event always popular with the whole family. We will have our Annual Capital District Conference Night on April 4 with our usual generous discount from Jack Garren.

On March 11 the Capital District Conference will hold a Workshop Seminar on material to be discussed at the Concord on the following week.

The Capital District Conference would like to welcome the Narcotic Addiction Control Commission, whose president is Rocci Grimaldi, and all were delighted to meet him on Jan. 31 at Dusan's Restaurant.

Attica Chapter Installs Davis

ATTICA — Pledging "with the help of the past and present officers and support of the membership, I am looking forward to revitalizing the CSEA at Attica," Gary Davis was recently installed president of the Attica Correctional Facility chapter of the Civil Service Employees Assn.

Davis, installed with other officers at the Bennington Lanes in nearby Bennington, said he was "honored to have been chosen by my fellow workers to head the chapter."

Besides Davis, also installed by CSEA field representative Thomas B. Christy were; vicepresident, Fred Schneider; financial secretary, William Van-Ostberg, and secretary-treasurer, John Refern.

ANOTHER STOP — The Civit Service Employees Assn. mobile office makes another stop on its tour around the state. Here Saratoga County chapter president Edward Wilcox, left, extends a welcome to John D. Corcoran, Jr., regional field supervisor, who was also on hand for the Saratoga Springs visit.

· FIRE FLIES ·

On Monday morning, Jan. 24, all of us were shocked and stunned to learn of the tragic and untimely death of Mrs. Robert

Personally, I just sat down by my window in Fort Lee, looked out at the Orange mountains far away and wept.

I have never met Mrs. Lowery personally, but the Commissioner, during the course of our many conversations, had repeatedly referred to her devotion to him and his respect and dependence on her. Therefore, my sorrow sprang from the always unbearable thought that a dear friend was now steeped in tragedy.

I had not intended to mention the following, but to give you the thought which pervades my mind, I must.

On Tuesday, Jan. 25, by order of Commissioner Lowery, I was created an Honorary Deputy Chief of the New York Fire Department. It was the Commissioner's intention to personally present the honor during the course of the testimonial dinner which took place that night.

On Monday, several hours after his wife's death, I heard Car One go off the air at 110 Church St. I was amazed,

On Tuesday night, I learned that one of the reasons for his activities Department-wise was his concern that he could not now be present at my dinner. So, in spite of his shock and grief, he went to the office, not only wrote out the words he intended to speak, but also took the pains to see that he was represented there. And represented he was, so beautifully by Deputy Commissioner Leonard Mancusi as well as Paul O'Brien and his executive assistant Victor Colimore; who read his words just as they had been written on that tragic morning.

Commissioner Lowery and I have enjoyed a warm and lasting friendship for over 20 years, but for him to do what he did even for a person such as I was something which made me speechless and terribly proud.

My sole purpose in writing this is to leave not one lota of doubt in your collective minds about Commissioner Lowery as a man. That he was would be so allconsumingly thoughtful, especially under such heartbreaking circumstances, spells out a warmhearted, deeply human person who, at this writing, and forever more, will stand ever so tall in the mind of this writer.

Thank you, Commissioner Lowery. Your deed spoke for itself, No other comment is possible.

Capital District Conference Delves Into Insurance Policies

By MARVIN BAXLEY

ALBANY — Statewide Civil Service Employees Assn. president Theodore C. Wenzl told delegates to the most recent meeting of the Capital District Conference that he was "optimistic that something satisfactory will come of the current State negotiating impasse despite the fiscal crisis in the Administration."

Wenzi prefaced his remark by explaining that the impasse required strict secrecy on both sides, saying "I hope that you will have confidence in us."

He also praised the qualifications of the ten new fieldmen who are currently undergoing a training and indoctrination program at CSEA Headquarters. The statewide president said he hopes his praise will continue to be justified after they have had an opportunity to prove themselves in the field.

Wenzl was one of three former Conference presidents who were in attendance at the meeting. Others were A, Victor Costa, statewide second vice-president, and Deloras Fussel, statewide social chairman. Other statewide officers at the meeting were first vice-president Thomas McDonough and secretary Dorothy MacTavish.

Bulk of the evening meeting was given over to explanations of a new health program being planned for the Albany area and to details of the new automobile and home owners/tenants policies that are being offered on a voluntary basis to CSEA members across the State.

Alex Blackman, chairman of the steering committee for the Capital Area (Health Maintenance Corp.) Planning Council, Inc., represented the committee. Also serving on the committee are Dr. Wenzl, Capital District Conference president Ernest Wagner and Mary Blair of the CSEA staff.

New Insurance Offers

Jack Healy of Ter Bush and Powell took over the next segment of the meeting for a discussion of the automobile and home owners/tenants policies.

It was outlined that four policies are available:

 Full family comprehensive automobile coverage, with five plans ranging from $25,000 to $300,000 liability.

Homeowners/tenants, with

 Floatable owners articles to cover valuables such as motorboats, furs, jewels, fine art and antiques at predetermined set amounts

• Catastrophe liability, (legal liability contract) that provides $50,000 major medical, subject to $10,000 deductible.

In reply to numerous questions from the floor, the following answers were given:
