Delegates To Go To Wells College

Representatives of Y. M.-Y. W. C. A. to Attend New York State Student Conference

The New York State Student conference will be conducted today, tomorrow and Sunday at Wells college in Aurora, New York. The theme of the conference will be "A Christian Perspective for Social Reorganization."

The purpose of this conference is to provide an opportunity for students to gain a deeper understanding of the Student Christian movement and its work, to become better acquainted with each other, and to exchange experiences concerning practical programs as conducted on a local campus. The program will include addresses to the conference group, informal discussion hours and reports of social work done by college students last summer. There will be a banquet followed by a dance tomorrow night.

Among the leaders are Miss Michi Harvai, noted educator from Tokyo, Japan; Dean Charles W. Gilkey of the University of Chicago; Dr. H. C. Engelbrecht, author of the recent book of the month, "Marchants of Death"; and Mr. Francis O. Henson, American secretary for the International Student service. J. Russell Freeman, '35, of Colgate, will be the conference chairman.

Delegates from approximately twenty of the leading colleges in New York state will attend. Among those to be represented are Cornell, University of Rochester, Colgate, Vassar, St. Lawrence, Barnard, Adelphi, Syracuse and New York State College for Teachers.

The State delegation will consist of representatives sent by the Young Men's and the Young Women's Christian associations. They are:

Sarah Logan, '35, Jameline Evans, '36, Helen Clyde, '37, and Dorothy Clapp, '38, for the Y. W. C. A., and Harry Gumaer, '37, for the Y. M. C. A.

Signum Laudis Inducts 11 Seniors

Eleven members of the senior class were named to membership in Signum Laudis, senior honorary scholastic society, by Dr. Milton G. Nelson, dean, in the student assembly. Clara Stebner will be president, having received the highest scholastic average for her three years.

The other seniors named to Signum Laudis include: Edna Wright, Loraine Loder, Zenobia Carrara, William Torpey, Ruth Minkin, Sarah Logan, Bessie Hartman, Dorothy Keuhn, Margaret Westerman and Florence Clairmont. This group composes the highest four percent in the class of 1935.

The second semester, the next highest six per cent in scholastic standing in the senior class will be named to Signum Laudis to complete the eligible ten per cent.

IS HONORED

The Registrar's office announces the name of Lillian Louise Shapiro, '37, to the "Dean's" list.

Lounge Committee Issues Four Sine Commandments

The Lounge committee, noted for leading us out of the house of Grinds and into the land of Lounging, decided to issue ten commandments on the use of the Lounge, but could only think of four, to wit:

Thou shalt not take unto thee therein any eats.
Remember study to keep it out of the Lounge. Hours and hours shalt thou study in the library and the old gym, but the Lounge is reserved for pleasure.

Honor the faculty and administration by attending all the Wednesday teas.

Thou shalt not smoke, nor dance, nor lie (down) therein, lest thou offend the furnishings or thy neighbor.

PRESENTS POET

Dorothea Cahagan, '35, president of Dramatics and Art council, who announces the Edna St. Vincent Millay program for Monday night.

Dramatics Council To Present Poet On Monday Night

The Dramatics and Art council will present Edna St. Vincent Millay, noted poet, Monday night at 8:30 o'clock in the auditorium of Page hall. State college students will be admitted for seventy-five cents or they may exchange student tax cards for tickets today in the rotunda of Draper hall. All other tickets will be seventy-five cents and one dollar and will be on sale in the College Co-operative bookstore. Dorothea Cahagan, president of Dramatics and Art council, announced.

The girls who will act as ushers on this occasion will be: Dorothea Cahagan, Helen Mahar, and Marion Heintemann, seniors; Elizabeth Griffin and Marjorie Wheaton, juniors; and Mary Hershey and Margaret Domes, sophomores.

NEWS APPOINTEES

Mary Clickman and Florence Tate, juniors, have been appointed assistant finance managers on the News Staff. Marjorie Kalaidjian, '36, and Laurita Seid and Ruth Hallock, sophomores, were promoted to the business staff.

JOINS SORORITY

Gamma Kappa Phi sorority welcomes Anne Service, '37, into full membership.

Is Student Interest Decreasing In Extra-Curricular Activities?

Is there a downward trend in student interest in extra-curricular activities? Are students centering their attention on scholastic work more than on extra-class matters as mentioned in the editorial "In Totidem Verbis" of the last issue of the News, and if so, why? Comments, pro and con, have been treading the air waves of the corridors of State during the past week and the News has detailed a reporter to investigate the opinions of a varied group of students.

When asked which way the trend was leading, Catharine N. Kearney, '35, editor-in-chief of the Pedagogue, college year book, stated: "I believe it is downward; there is not a sufficient number of high positions with honor to reward the work expended. Also, sorority politics in the various publications and organizations have tended to retard interest."

Alex Jadick, '35, president of commerce club, and intra-mural sports manager, when interviewed said: "Students are becoming more conscious of studies and values. They are weighing their opportunities and seeking to receive more for their expenditures, financial or otherwise."

"Too much activity in too many lines is worse than no activity in any line," commented Kenneth Christian, '35, member of Myskania. He believes students are confining their efforts to a smaller number of activities. "All the joy is taken away when too much work is required," he added. John Deno, '37, secretary of student association, believes there is a marked decline of activity among the boys. "More fellows are working their way through college now than before and therefore do not have the time. Others fellows would rather specialize in a particular sport or activity than generalize," he concluded.

Elizabeth Meury, '37, maintains interest in extra-curricular activities is increasing. "The freshmen especially have shown decidedly more interest this year than any of the other three classes," she stated. "As many as ever are out for extra-curricular activities," Milton Golder, '35, president of debate council, said to the News reporter. "I do not think there is a decrease in any way."

CAMPUS EVENTS START WITH SOPH-FROSH TILT

To Crown Queen At Program Tonight

Classes To Present Stunts; Campus Day Dance To Be In Page Gymnasium

The thirteenth campus queen of State college will be crowned tonight at 8:00 o'clock in the auditorium of Page hall as a climax of the Campus day activities which will be opened at 3:15 o'clock this afternoon.

The 1934 queen was selected from a group of five nominees in the senior class by popular vote in the student assembly. Her identity has remained a secret and will not be revealed until tonight when she and her eight attendants, two from each class, enter Page hall. The candidates for queen are Doris Howe, Catharine Kearney, Gertrude Morgan, Gertrude Neeland and Harriet Ten Eyck. The senior attendants will be the two runners-up in the election, and the identity of her majesty's attendants from the four classes will be kept secret until tonight.

In keeping with tradition, Harriette L. Goodenow, the 1933 sovereign, will officiate at the coronation after the queen and her attendants and train bearer proceed to the stage of the auditorium while Frances Studebaker, '36, plays the professional march. The royal party will remain on the stage following the ceremony.

After the coronation each class will present a stunt for the entertainment of the queen and her court. Miss Agnes E. Putterer, professor of English, Miss Caroline A. Lester, instructor in mathematics, and Dr. William M. French, instructor in education, will judge the stunts and will announce the prize-winning presentation and succeeding places.

Dancing in the gymnasium of Page hall from 9:30 until 12:00 o'clock will follow the program of stunts. Music will be provided by Bill Jones and his State College Playboys.

Directors of the class stunts are: senior, Lucile Hirsch; junior, Frank Hardineyer; sophomore, Elsa Smith, and freshman, Dorothy Clapp.

Lounge Committee Makes New Plans

A sub-committee has been appointed from the regular Lounge committee to take charge of the old "gym," according to Helen Rich, '35, chairman of the Lounge committee. Members of the new committee are: Evelyn Hamann, '37, chairman; Thurston Paul, '35; Frances Studebaker and William Baker, juniors; and Eloise Shearer, '37.

Members of the Lounge committee assisting Miss Rich are: Esther Rowland, '35; Rosella Agostine, Nina Ullman, and Frank Hardineyer, juniors; Josephine Kirby, Helen Lomas, Anne Rand, and Virginia Stoel, sophomores; and Elda Timm, '38.

No schedule has been made out for lounge teas but there will be an attempt to have more music hours similar to those conducted last year by Dr. Thompson.

The general aim for the use of the Lounge is to foster student and faculty social life in the college during the regular school year. School organizations wishing to use the room must register their request in the office of the Dean of Women.

A new lamp shade and new covers for some of the chairs will soon add to the neat appearance of the Lounge, Miss Rich added.

While the committee is striving to maintain the attractiveness of the Lounge, students are urged not to misuse it. The room is not to be used for dancing or as a lunch room.

Pedagogue Desires Snapshots Soon

Snapshots for the 1935 Pedagogue, college year book, are now being solicited, Miss Catharine Kearney, '35, editor, stated today. Students having any photos of general interest are requested to hand them in soon to Miss Marquerite Lischer, '35, photographer.

Pedagogue proofs must be returned to Miss Camille de Anselis, representative of the Vantine Studio, in room X before tomorrow. Miss Kearney added. Retakes will be conducted tomorrow.

Push-Ball Contest Set For Afternoon

Classes To Compete For Points Toward Rivalry Cup Award; Myskania Supervises

BEGINS AT 3:15

The two push-ball contests and the presentation of musical stunts scheduled on this afternoon's program will mark an innovation in the traditional Campus day activities. Campus day activities will officially be ushered in at 3:15 o'clock today on the Western avenue campus when a hockey game between the women of the sophomore and freshman classes will take place.

A second feature of this afternoon's entertainment will be the presentation of musical stunts at 3:30 o'clock by the sophomore and freshman classes. Evelyn Hamann, '37, and Marian Ball, '38, will direct these stunts for their respective classes. Myskania, senior honorary society, will supervise and judge the afternoon contests.

The introduction of push-ball contests on Campus day toward inter-class rivalry is an addition to the day's sports. The push-ball contests, one between the women of the sophomore and freshman classes, and one between the men of the same classes, will begin at 4:00 o'clock. Harriet Ten Eyck, '35, member of Myskania and general chairman of Campus day activities, announced today. Jeannette Cronk and Frederick Byrnes, sophomores, will lead the 1937 teams. Charlotte Peck and Neal Kane, freshmen, will command the teams for the class of 1938 which will formally be initiated at this time into the annual inter-class rivalry between the sophomore and freshman classes. Myskania will award the winner of each push-ball contest two points toward the rivalry cup award which is presented to the winning class on Moving-up day. In former years only a hockey game or archery tournament for the women and a baseball or soccer game or track meet between the men of the two classes composed the program for the afternoon. No points were awarded toward inter-class rivalry.

Dramatics Class To Present Plays

The advanced dramatics class will present two plays Tuesday night, November 13, at 8:15 o'clock in the auditorium of Page hall, according to Barbara Clark, '36, publicity manager. Vera Shimmers, '36, will direct a farce having the following cast: Thomas Kelly, '36, Elizabeth Meury, Norma Dixon and Hugh Norton, sophomores.

The second play directed by Norma Taylor, '36, will include in the cast, Elizabeth Griffin and Ethel Schlick, juniors, Elizabeth Studebaker, Lillian Olson, Philip Gleason, and Rae Burak, sophomores.

TO ADDRESS ASSEMBLY
Dr. H. C. Engelbrecht will address the student assembly at 11:00 o'clock this morning. He is presented by the World Associates.

Where Are Wishing Elm And The Singing Wall?

Somewhere on the Campus is a "Singing Wall" and a "Wishing Elm" according to an old College legend recently told by Charlotte Rockow, '36, at a Young Women's Christian association discussion.

The students used to form a circle around the tree at night and make a wish; if they were silent, the wish would come true. After wishing, they would stand under the "Singing Wall" and sing their favorite college songs. "This said if they were silent enough, voices of State's past generations sang on in soft echo."

Just where these two relics of former years are is unknown. Perhaps if someone wished, the "Wishing Elm" would tell, and if someone listened, he might hear the "Singing Wall."

BOOKS

A THE MERRY QUEEN, by Pierre Nezelof (Liveright, $2.50). This book was written in 1932, but publication was held up so that it would not compete with Stephen Zweig's "Marie Antoinette," previously published tome on the same lady. Concerns the life of France's famous Queen, Marie Antoinette, and goes into detail. On the whole, Nezelof seems to be less sympathetic with the intriguing lady than Zweig. If you have read the first book, don't pass up "The Merry Queen" on account of it. The two books provide a nice contrast. Marie Antoinette is not an admirable or particularly charming person, but she is an interesting one. Worth while from a literary and historical point of view.

B THE PEEL TRAIT, by Joseph C. Lincoln (Appleton-Century, $2.00). Joe Lincoln, the old maestro of Cape Cod characters, is at it again. Cyrenus Peel, old and horse-sense-ish, together with his children, Lettice, Erastus and Susan, form the characterizations for a salty, humanly-homely, smile-provoking book. Rec.

TROPHIES

THE LITTLE BROWN JUG is the most prized piece of pottery in the Big Ten— and University of Michigan (Ann Arbor) gridsters battle University of Minnesota (Minneapolis) warriors for it each fall.

THE PURDUE-INDIANA BUCKET, presented by alumni of the two Indiana institutions as a football trophy is usually in the possession of the Boilermakers.

"BRING HOME THE BACON" is the command of Badger and Gopher fans when Coaches Spears (University of Wisconsin) and Bierman (University of Minnesota) send their teams onto the gridiron to battle.

ORIGINAL "BLUEJAY SWEETHEART" — Nancy Hayes, the first Creighton University (Omaha, Neb.) football queen.

STUDENT BROADCASTERS, Middlebury College (Vt.) artists present an original skit over nation-wide network.

PING-PONG REPLACES BRIDGE — Long Island University (Brooklyn, N. Y.) co-eds have annual "table tennis" tournaments. Here are some of the champs.

Right TWICE A QUEEN — Brice Michaels has been elected "most beautiful" of Ohio University (Athens) co-eds two years in succession.

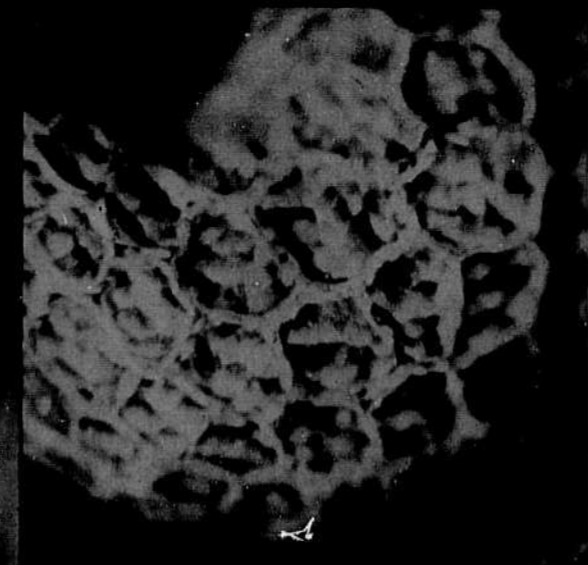

Left PEP 'EM UP — University of Hawaii (Honolulu) pepsters parade the town with this "float" before their Alma Mater's important grid battles.

WHEN YOU'RE TOO TIRED TO THINK —

GET A LIFT WITH A CAMEL!

RICHARD VOIGTLANDER '38, says: "Studying electrical engineering takes as much out of me as the hardest physical effort you'd put into an active outdoor sport. I'm a Camel smoker. The harder I work the more I like to smoke, because Camels help me to keep alert and full of 'pep.' I enjoy Camel's milder flavor, and they never frazzle my nerves."

You will like this delightful way of "turning on" your flow of energy. Whenever you feel "played out," try this convenient way of ironing out fatigue and increasing your energy: Light a Camel. Soon you will enjoy a definite "lift"... an upturn in energy... and in good spirits. Smoke Camels all you wish. Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS and never interfere with healthy nerves.

TUNE IN! CAMEL CARAVAN with Glen Gray's Casa Loma Orchestra, Walter O'Keefe, Annette Hanshaw, and other Headliners—over WABC-Columbia Network. TUESDAY, 10 p.m. E.S.T.—9 p.m. C.S.T.—8 p.m. M.S.T.—7 p.m. P.S.T. • THURSDAY, 9 p.m. E.S.T.—8 p.m. C.S.T.—9:30 p.m. M.S.T.—8:30 p.m. P.S.T.

SPORTS WRITER. (Left) Pat Robinson says: "I've been smoking Camels ever since they were put on the market. I find they erase that 'done in' feeling quickly and restore my 'pep.' I smoke at least two packs of Camels a day and I find that they never interfere with my nerves."

EXPLORER. (Right) Capt. R. Stuart Murray, F.R.G.S., says: "It's great to be back! I was in Honduras—Mosquitia Territory—10 months. Fortunately I had plenty of Camels. They always give me a 'pick-up' in energy when I need it. I prefer Camel's flavor, they never upset my nerves."

TOBACCO MEN ALL KNOW:
"Camels are made from finer, More Expensive Tobaccos—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand."

CAMEL'S COSTLIER TOBACCOS NEVER GET ON YOUR NERVES!

BOOKS

GAY CRUSADER, by Magdalen King-Hall (Appleton-Century, $2.50). There are a few things in this book that might not be in the best of taste in a modern drawing room, but this is a story of the Middle Ages told "as it seemed to" the various characters, and who are we to criticize the way people thought six centuries ago? Story concerns Sir Fulk de Lacy, his son Alain and their adventures on their way to and during a Crusade in the Holy Land. The whole book is a robust picture of the life of that time. Although it moves slowly at times, both from its leisurely plot development and the way in which the story is told, modern thoughts and ideas which crop up here and there lift it above the average.

PIRATE JUNK, by Clifford Johnson (Scribner's, $2.50). Day by day journal of the adventures of four officers of a British Merchant ship kidnapped by Chinese bandits. Written on anything handy, even cigarette papers, during the actual experiences described. "Truth is stranger than fiction."

Received: Portrait of Eden, Margaret Sperry Liveright, $3.50.

MOVIES

RICHEST GIRL IN THE WORLD—The only fault we can find with this picture is that there are not enough girls in the world who have to worry about the problem Dorothy Hunter (Miriam Hopkins) faces (i.e., having so much money that finding a sweetheart who loves her for herself alone and not for her gold, is a problem. (Imagine Miriam Hopkins having to do that!) Anyway, that's the situation. And the way in which the poor little rich girl goes about finding, and finally finds a man who loves her for her own sweet self and not her filthy lucre, provides a well-entertained. (Joel McCrea; Fay Wray)

DEATH ON THE DIAMOND—and, unless you're the kind of a baseball fan that will watch a double header in a snowstorm, don't worry about it. Hodge podge of baseball, murder, love and anything else handy. Wrangling between O'Toole, the umpire (Ted Healy) and Hogan, the catcher (Nat Pendleton) are the only bright spots.

RADIO

HE HASN'T SOLD THAT DUCK YET—but Joe Penner is still trying. New program with Ozzie Nelson's Orchestra and Harriet Hilliard. Lotsa wise quacks! (NBC-WJZ network, Sundays, 7:30 PM EST).

MUSIC BY GERSHWIN and such other composers as are invited as guest artists, featuring modern tunes and classics. Gershwin OK, but lots depends on "guest." (WABC-CBS network, Sundays, 6-6:30 PM EST).

WINS SPEEDBOAT CROWN—Thomas Tyson, Stevens Institute of Technology (Hoboken, N. J.) student, shattered all records in the annual Interscholastic Outboard Races held at Worcester, Mass.

EXAMINERS—These quaintly garbed professors conduct all college examinations at Nam-Dink Indo-China.

OPEN AIR CLASSES at Premonstrant College, Godollo, Hungary.

"Baldy"

A Short Short Story

By G. S. Falk

Norm was too young to have a tragedy. He told himself so as he stood before the mirror in the bathroom.

He was losing his hair. He would soon be "Baldy." The fact, coupled with his fraternity brothers' remarks on the subject, was enough to make any man lose his self respect.

Each morning he counted the hairs that clung to his comb, and each evening he counted the remarks that had been made during the day.

Nights, he tossed on his pillow and mulled over the day's ills. It was unfair. After all, he wasn't tearing his hair out. He was losing it.

Let's leave Norm tossing away and go to the station to meet Patty Martin. Patty is due in on the train and we have to meet her. We have to take a good look at her also, for if Patty had never arrived to attend the annual football dance at the house and, incidentally, visit her sister, there wouldn't be any story.

When Miss Martin stepped off the train, six college boys tumbled over one another in their anxiety to be of service. The baggage man fell off his truck and Patty's sister managed to kiss instead of bite her, although she was wondering if the affair of last summer—the boy really had been devoted until he saw Patty—was going to repeat itself.

Now, on with the dance! The "football frolic" held at Norm's house the next night was the most unusual party in the history of the fraternity. There was no stag line. Before the evening was an hour old, the stage had created a kind of snake dance behind Patty Martin.

Apart, Norm Pruitt watched the men cutting in and wished he wasn't becoming bald. Two or three times as she passed by, Patty Martin looked at him and smiled. Well, why shouldn't she? Most people laughed outright.

Al Howard, author of the dirtiest crack of the week about Norm's baldness, unloosed himself from the mob.

"Why don't you cut in, Egg-Head?" he asked. Norm looked with longing eyes at the popular Patty. "Beat it," he growled. He tramped disgustedly upstairs to bed.

The next thing he knew, someone was shaking him. It was morning.

"Phone, Norm," said that someone and disappeared. He crawled out of bed and went to the telephone booth, automatically massaging the top of his head.

"Norm Pruitt"—a girl's voice—"This is Adele Martin."

"Yeh," said Norm. "Listen," the voice went on, "my sister, you know—Patty—well, you hurt her feelings last night."

"I don't see how," Norm began. "I didn't even . . ."

"That's exactly it! You were the only man at the party that didn't ask her to dance . . . She said you were the one person in the house that looked old enough to vote. She likes older men. She said she thought the way your hair receded from your forehead was too distinguished . . ."

"Huh?"

"She wants to know if you'll take her to the picnic this afternoon. You'll almost have to, Norm . . . I mean . . ."

"Sure," said Norm Pruitt. He gulped. "Sure."

He struggled out of the phone booth and started down the hall. "Hi, Baldy," said Al Howard in passing.

"It may be bald to you, but it's distinguished to some people," said Norm as he rushed to his room to brush as many hairs from his head as possible before two o'clock.

CHARLES STEPHENS, JR. '35—pre-medical. He says: "I've followed the recent scientific investigations which confirm Camel's energizing effect." But I already knew from my own personal experience that Camels lift up my energy and enable me to tackle the next assignment with renewed vigor. It has been definitely established that Camels are a milder cigarette."

Throw off that tired feeling this quick and enjoyable way! Pull out a Camel—light up—enjoy its rich, pleasing taste. Before many minutes have passed you feel a harmless and delightful renewal of your energy. Join those who are finding a new pleasure in smoking as they "get a lift with a Camel!" Smoke steadily? Of course! Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS, and do not get on the nerves!

GIRL EXPLORER. Mrs. William LaVarre says: "Any time I'm tired, I just stop and smoke a Camel. It wakes up my energy in no time. And here's an important point. Smoking Camels steadily, I find, does not affect one's nerves."

HOCKEY PLAYER. Bill Cook, Captain of the famous New York Rangers, says: "The way I guard my nerves and yet smoke all I want is to smoke only Camels. They have a taste that sure hits the spot. I smoke a lot and I find that Camels never get on my nerves or tire my taste."

CAMEL'S COSTLIER TOBACCOS NEVER GET ON YOUR NERVES!

Report Card

By Prof. Metro Ebb Slack

BOOKS

A A THESAURUS OF SLANG—compiled by Howard N. Rose (McMillan, $1.75). This is not exactly the reference book to use in writing themes for frosh English, but it's a "lalapalooza" (collegiate slang, according to the book, for "something out of the ordinary") for anyone who wishes to talk so no one can understand him, aspiring writers, editors and all students interested in the language of contemporary America. The book is divided into fifteen sections and the slang used by aviators, college students, detectives, hoboes, lumberjacks, New Englanders, newspapermen, oil men, railroaders, sea fishermen, participants in sports of all kinds, actors, cowboys and soldiers is nicely tabulated and often plenty explanatory. In addition to being useful, it's good for laughs.

C THE PRESIDENT VANISHES, Anonymous (Farrar & Rhinehart, $2.00). Nothing is too imaginative for this author, "Mr. Anonymous." In this book, the president of the United States is kidnapped half an hour before he is scheduled to make a speech. The whys and wherefores make the story. A highly imaginative yarn written with both eyes on the newspaper headlines and both fingers crossed.

MOVIES

A JUDGE PRIEST—Civil War South. Will Rogers philosophizing. Two sure-fire ingredients mixed with more attention to dialogue and characterization than is usual in Roger's pictures. Result is highly amusing, highly pleasing. Good clean fun for the whole campus.

B THE LAST GENTLEMAN—Wheels within wheels, a picture within a picture—and George Arliss. An old eccentric's son tries to have him proved mentally incompetent by an alienist because he dotes on a few minor things such as a collection of clocks and stuffed peacocks. The old man (Arliss, of course) takes his son's perfidy to heart and goes into a decline. Instead of a death bed scene, the old gentleman speaks his last will and testament on the screen through the medium of a home-made talking picture, makes his requests and gives various members of the family a piece of his mind. (Charlotte—Alice in Wonderland—Henry; Donald Meek).

RADIO

A "LET'S LISTEN TO HARRIS" programs have gone collegiate for the time being. Get into the proper spirit for Saturday's game by tuning in on the NBC-WJZ network at 9 PM EST Friday evenings and listening to the "way down deep" baritone make a mythical tour of college campuses. (Leah Ray and the Three Ambassadors).

"PROMOTHEUS" BY OROZCO—This famous mural, done in the style of Michael Angelo by Jose Clemente Orozco, hangs in the men's dining hall at Pomona College (Claremont, Cal.) The Mexican artist later gained wide fame for the murals which he created for Dartmouth College (Hanover, N. H.).

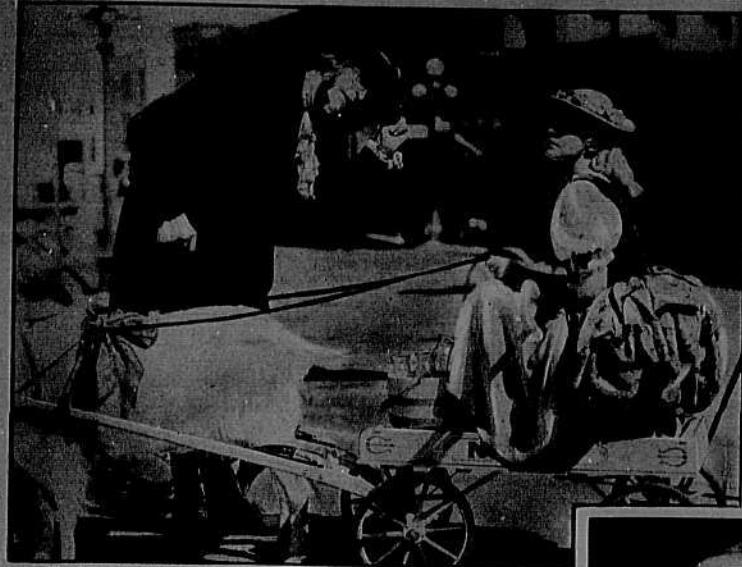

R. O. T. C. HEAD—John Stanko recently appointed cadet colonel of the North Carolina State College (Raleigh) military unit.

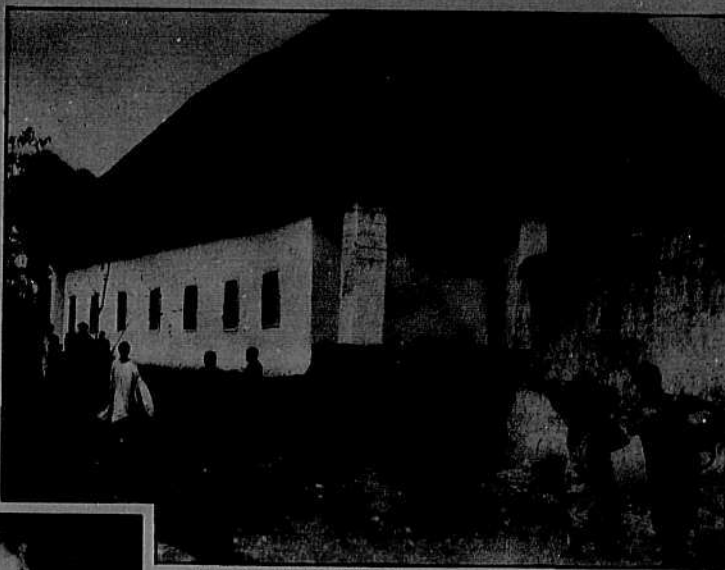

HEADS ALUMNI—Carl Cunningham is the new alumni secretary of Ohio Wesleyan University (Delaware).

ARMY HONOR CADET—Charles F. Tank wins Greene memorial sabre as outstanding graduate of 1934 class at U. S. Military Academy Sigma Nu.

Report Card

By Prof. Metro Ebb Hack

BOOKS

A TROS OF SAMOTHRACE, by Talbot Mundy (Appleton-Century, $3.00). The first thing about this book that impresses the reader is its "Anthony Adverse" size... 949 pages. Ye reviewer opened the tome with visions of an increased electric light bill more than anything else. Twenty pages (dr. w a deep breath), forty (light a pipe), sixty (settle down). Who cares about electric light bills? Tros, of the Greek Island of Samothrace, a physical and mental superman, dares to challenge Caesar, the greatest Roman of them all! The battle between the two men, as far apart as the poles in ideals and temperament, and the battle between the Britons and Romans, even farther apart than the distance between the two countries, makes Tros of Samothrace a book to be read. Take a week, a month or a year—and enjoy yourself!

A THE FOLKS, by Ruth Suckow (Farrar & Rhinehart, $3.00). Not "the great American novel" the publishers blurb it to be, but a grand one nevertheless. Midwestern setting. Family life and what becomes of the children. Probably will be enjoyed most by older people, but sales will go oop and oop!

MOVIES

A THE COUNT OF MONTE CRISTO—You know the story. Has been done before, will be again. Robert Donat not particularly convincing until he begins to grow long hair and a beard. Then... myomy! (Elissa Landi)

B BRITISH AGENT—Hollywood's idea that all moon pitchers must have a happy ending spoiled one that might have been grand if everything had gone BOOM! at the psychological moment. As is, British Agent, although too slowly paced to suit some tastes, is a thrilling picturization of Russia at the time England was attempting to keep her from making a separate peace with Germany. (Leslie Howard, Kay Francis)

Trio Offer Trehanan "Hitch," Then Ditch Him In Woods; Make Get-a-Way

Hitch-hiking to Albany after a week-end visit home recently, Al Trehanan, '38, was the victim of a band of notorious gunmen. Three men in an automobile stopping supposedly to offer him a ride, forced him into a side road at the point of a gun.

Trehanan had a considerable amount of money on his person, but this was overlooked by the men. He was left unharmed by the highwaymen who sped away in their car. However he succeeded in noting their license number which was broadcast over a nation-wide tele-type system.

The men, driving a stolen car bearing Massachusetts license plates, were trailed to Schenectady, Groesville, and Canajoharie. A number of stick-ups and thefts during the past two weeks in these places were attributed to them.

State To Award Freshmen $3500

Seventy In Class To Receive University Scholarships, Registrar States

Seventy members of the freshman class at State college this year are to receive University scholarships. Miss Elizabeth VanDenburgh, registrar, stated today. $3500, representing the first installments, will be paid before Thanksgiving.

Last year, the total number of freshman scholarship checks distributed at this time was seventy-seven, but in 1932-33 there were only sixty-nine. The percentage of men on the list this year is also lower than that of last year. This year nine men, or approximately 12.9 per cent, appear, while last year 17 per cent of those mentioned were men.

The total amount of money which the freshmen will receive will be exactly $3500. The students who are to be honored at this time are:

Freshmen who attended the tea were: Audrey Burlingham, Anne Burr, Dorothy Clapp, Edith Cutting, Julia Gallick, Lottie Griffin, Patricia Hasley, Miriam J. ARE WEEK-END GUESTS

Helen Daley, '29, Mary Margenstern, '31, and Molly Lindsay, '33, were week-end guests at Gamma Phi Sigma sorority house.

Jingling Pennies Furnish Music for Noon Dancers

The young lady balanced precariously at the head of the stairs leading into the Hawley hall gymnasium has been doing so well lately that Thurston Paul, '35, chairman of the Victrola committee, thinks that she will soon be able to afford some new clothes.

Although the "penny plan" has been succeeding far better than the occasional collections of last year, there are still a great many dancers who do not pay. Only about eighty pennies a day are collected from well over a hundred dancers. If you would like to go on hearing Rudy Vallee and other leading crooners, continue (or begin) to leave pennies with the young lady at the top of the stairs.

Sport Shots

The storm clouds that hovered ominously over State's basketball outlook have partially lifted. At the first practice session last Monday 35 enterprising youngsters offered their all to Maestro Baker. In addition to last year's regulars, Rall, Amyot, and Bancroft, several new men are showing up well. The most promising thus far have been Fred Byrnes and Bill Leonard.

The cross-country squad keeps busy this week-end galloping against the Vermont harriers way off yonder in the Granite State. 'Tis rumored that a return match will be scheduled with R. P. I. This time we'll chase the Trojans over our course. Who can tell—perhaps they'll chase us—this time!

Latest among the myriad innovations along the athletic front is (of all things) wrestling. Perry Mundy, formerly of Missouri, is certainly showing the boys. Soon our favorite sons will chat of wrist-locks and half-nelsons instead of blind dates and vic parties. Happy days!

Your faithful correspondent, disguised as a gypsy fortune-teller, cavescropped the hottest gossip ever to appear in this pillar of truth. A football eleven composed entirely of State collegians will lock horns with a Rensselaer semi-pro outfit this Sunday. The arena is yet to be picked. State College—football—there must be some mistake.

Will wonders never cease! Hot on the heels of cross-country, football, and wrestling two more strangers appear in our midst. The newcomers are fencing and boxing. We see by the Locker Room Bulletin that instruction will be offered in both of these ancient arts. Soon we won't know our own strength.

Even the ladies seem to possess more vim and vigor as they wallop each other's shins with their warped pool-cues. The body-beautiful movement is gaining momentum.

Want A Date? Be Not Impatient! Phone Directory To Be Out Soon

Picture the world without a telephone; picture State college without a directory. Nevertheless, students suffered under these conditions until 1924, when through the efforts of the News a Directory board was elected. Now, whether you're in need of social diversion or tomorrow's assignment, you can find the appropriate telephone number in the student directory.

At first, every student paid a small amount for his copy. Later the Directory was taken care of in the Student association budget, but this year through the auspices of Dr. A. R. Brubacher, president, the Directory is being printed by the state. This means that a copy will be available to every registered student of State college. The Directory has not been published as yet because the work has to go through the New York state Printing bureau, which

Soviets Today Prefer Lincolns, Says McBain After Stay Abroad

Soviet Russia today prefers to ride in powerful Lincolns rather than the more commonplace Ford, reported Dr. James W. McBain, professor of physical chemistry at Leland Stanford university, in his address to the Eastern New York State sectional meeting of the American Chemical society recently conducted at the college.

Reporting impressions gained after a stay abroad, Dr. McBain attributed the preference of the Soviets to their desire to have the best in all automotive conveniences. He stated that Russia under the Five-Year Plans has witnessed an amazing rise in general literacy. The people have acquired what amounts to almost a passion for books, he said, and sales of books have soared to unprecedented heights—even for Russia with its teeming millions hitherto denied educational opportunities.

State supported educational programs allow students to progress as far as their own capabilities. The Institute of Technology, one of the smaller of the new colleges, reports enrollments of 12,000 students. This institution represents a type of collegiate center being established in numerous localities in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

Science in Russia is progressing rapidly, Mr. McBain added. Their research work is conducted on an immense scale. The work is mostly in Applied Science. All the resources can be concentrated to advance individual ideas. As a result of this concentration they are further advanced in some branches of science, especially scientific agriculture, than the rest of the world. Dr. McBain advised the younger men to study the Russian language and acquire a reading knowledge of the language.

Kappa Delta Rho Pledges Ten Men

Gamma chapter of Kappa Delta Rho fraternity recently conducted pledge services for ten members-elect. One junior and nine of the class of 1938 were inducted into pledge membership. Eight Will Serve On French Council

French club council for 1934-1935 was recently appointed by Elsie 'Fuglely, '35, president. The council is made up of the officers and six other members. They are as follows: vice-president, Marjorie Wheaton, '36; secretary, Jacqueline Evans, '36; treasurer, Mary Torrrens, '35; reporter, Helen Smith, '35; Dorothy Kuehl, '35, Lois Potter, '36, Odette Courtines, and Louise Taylor, sophomores.

Two freshmen members will be chosen later.

State's Harriers To Meet Vermont

New Cross Country Team Runs At Burlington Tomorrow In Second Contest

State's newly organized cross-country team leaves today for Burlington, Vermont, where they are scheduled to meet the University of Vermont team tomorrow afternoon. This will be their second meet; the first meet was Saturday, October 20, at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute at Troy, N. Y., between the halves of the RPI-Clarkson football game. State's team was defeated in this meet by the well-trained RPI men with a score of 40-15.

In a recent interview with a News reporter, Norbert Huber, '36, manager, stated that the State runners are in much better form than they were at the previous meet, and he feels confident that the team will place in the meet tomorrow. The men who will be in the line-up for the meet are: George Storey, temporary captain, and Carlton Coulter, seniors, William Fullager, Angelo Zannieri, Paul Bulger, juniors, Martin Reed, '37, Joe DeRusso, Joe Vidmar, and Ed Reynolds, freshmen, Luther C. Andrews, instructor of physics, is coaching the men.

On November 14 the team will meet Delhi State School of Agriculture at Delhi, N. Y. A return meet with RPI is tentatively scheduled for Wednesday, November 7, at Albany, N. Y.
