STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK AT ALBANY

November 16, 1970

SOFTER, PLEASE - That seems to be the message as Charles Boito, new director of the University Concert Band, rehearses the group for its upcoming concerts.

Band, Orchestra Concerts Slated; To Be First for Both Conductors

Two concerts of particular interest are scheduled on campus this month. On Wednesday and Saturday evenings of this week the University Concert Band will perform for the first time under its new conductor, Charles Boito, and on Sunday, Nov. 22, the University-Community Symphony Orchestra will be heard in its initial concert under the direction of Nathan Gottschalk.

This evening the Beethoven Festival continues here with a program in the PAC Recital Hall at 8:30. Participating in the program, "Variations for Violin, Cello, and Piano", will be Findlay Cockrell, John Goberman, Dennis Helmrich, and Marvin Morgenstern.

The Concert Band is composed of about 65 students, only a few of whom are music majors. From biology to history majors, they come together three times a week for rehearsals and ensembles. Last year the band performed to SRO crowds at each of its three concerts, including a twin-night benefit concert that raised nearly $1,000 for Albany's underprivileged children.

Mr. Boito has had extensive musical experience at the University of Southern California, in the West Point Band, and as

Bloodmobile to Make Campus Visit Friday

A visit to the campus by the Bloodmobile is scheduled for Friday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the CC Ballroom. All faculty and staff who are able to donate blood are urged to make an appointment as soon as possible. Student donors will be accepted on a walk-in basis, as will anyone else who has not made an appointment. Appointments may be made through Mrs. Nikki Smith, blood drive chairman, AD 320.

Donors of blood receive free blood coverage for themselves and members of their immediate families. At the time of donation, they are given a brief physical check-up covering temperature, pulse, weight, blood pressure, hemoglobin count, and medical history.

the assistant conductor of the Yale Band. He will lead the SUNYA band in a performance of works by Mendelssohn, Rossini, Riegger, and Johann Strauss, as well as conduct the University Wind Ensemble in a composition by Richard Strauss.

The band concerts will begin at 8:30. They are open to the public at no charge.

The orchestral concert of Beethoven music will feature the University Singers with Karl Peterson, conducting, and instrumental soloists Stanley Hummel, Marvin Morgenstern, and Findlay Cockrell. Selections will include "Egmont Overture", "Romanze for Violin", "Choral Fantasy", and "First Piano Concerto".

Under the baton of Dr. Gottschalk for the first time, the orchestra will begin the program at 7:30 p.m. in the PAC Main Theatre.

Prize-Winning Author, Historian To Lecture on Foreign Affairs

Arthur Schlesinger, noted historian and author of the Pulitzer Prize for his book, The Age of Jackson, will speak this evening at 8:30 in the Campus Center Ballroom under the sponsorship of the Forum of Politics. Dr. Schlesinger, now Albert Schweitzer Professor of the Humanities at the City University of New York, will speak on "Illusion and Reality in Foreign Affairs".

As special assistant to President Kennedy, Dr. Schlesinger travelled extensively in Europe and South America, sat in on policy meetings, and was closely involved in many vital discussions. Out of his experiences in Washington came the book, A Thousand Days, a best-seller in this country, England, and The Netherlands.

During World War II Dr. Schlesinger served in the Office of War Information in Washington, the Office of Strategic Services in London, Paris, and Germany, and the United States Army. In the meantime, he completed work on the Jackson volume, a book he had begun before the

Campus Chest Fund Drive For Benefit of Hope House

Campus Chest Week begins today. Booster sales, a play, and an auction are among events scheduled to raise money for the benefit of Hope House, a drug rehabilitation center in downtown Albany. Hope House is a voluntary organization concentrating on group therapy. Meetings are held each Wednesday night where people talk about their problems and help each other work out solutions. The center is located on South Pearl Street.

Sale of booster buttons will take place in the CC Lobby today through Friday between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Boosters will be entitled to free coffee all week and will be eligible for door prizes and the grand prize, a bicycle, to be awarded at the end of the week.

"Ray of Hope", a play presented by members of Hope House, will be given on Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the CC Ballroom. A minimum donation of 50 cents will be asked.

During the week, Campus Chest representatives on each residence quadrangle will be going from door to door collecting anything salable except clothes. The quads will be in competition with each other and a prize will be awarded to the quad contributing the most. On Saturday at noon in the CC Assembly Hall, the collected items will be auctioned off to the highest bidders. Door prizes will be awarded during this time also.

Co-chairmen for the event are Elizabeth Elsesser and Mary Mazzeo. They have asked that donations be sent in care of "Campus Chest" to the Student Association Office, Room 346, in the Campus Center.

In the past, the Campus Chest drive has usually been for the benefit of two or more charities. However, the amount actually realized by any one group has been small, and this year it was decided that the drive would concentrate on one charity and try to make a substantial contribution to it.

"Scent of Flowers" Begins Wednesday

"A Scent of Flowers", by James Saunders, will be performed in the PAC Experimental Theatre Wednesday, Nov. 18, through Saturday, Nov. 21, at 8:30, and Sunday, Nov. 22, at 2:30. Directed by Jarka Burian, it is co-sponsored by State University Theatre and Theatre Council.

The British drama centers on the death of a beautiful young girl and the reactions of those who felt they knew her. In the cast are Ron Abel, Mary Carney, Joseph Geocco, Henry Kuivila, Richard Leaming, Gary Maggio, Eric Poppick, Barbara Richards, and Jodi Wells.

The technical aspects of the production are entirely student-designed. A movable, free-form, changeable set has been fashioned by William Snyder; lighting is by Matt Murphy. Rae Anne Crandall has the responsibility for costumes.

Tickets for all performances now are available at the PAC box office between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. The admission price is $1 for students with SUNYA tax cards, and $2 for all others. Reservations and further information may be obtained by calling 7-8606 or 7-7535.

This evening and tomorrow evening there will be 8:30 preview performances for limited audiences. General admission tickets at half-price will be available at the box office the nights of the previews.

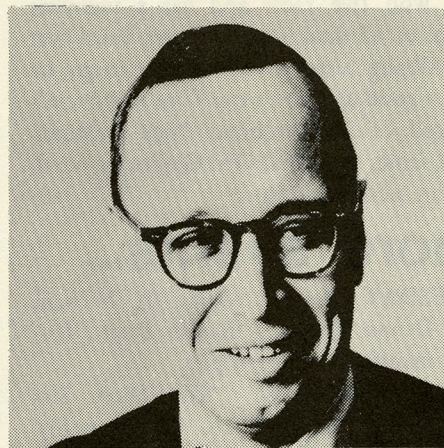

Experimental Theatre productions, for which there is no admission, will be performed Friday and Saturday evenings at 7:30 and at 9. The first offering, on Friday night, is a Shaw comedy, "The Dark Lady of the Sonnets". Saturday evening there will be a double bill, "The Secret of Heaven", by Par Lagerkvist, and "The Land of Heart's Desire", by W. B. Yeats.

Trouble on Campus

A student, at knifepoint, was robbed of $6 on campus shortly after 8 o'clock several nights ago. He reported that while walking between the north end of the Academic Podium and State Quad he was approached and threatened by a young man who had two companions with him.

Asked to give the accoster all his money, the student turned over his wallet. The bills were removed and the student's wallet returned. Campus security men and the Albany police are investigating.

During the evening of The Jefferson Airplane concert an off-campus youth was arrested and charged with disorderly conduct following an incident outside the physical education building. That same night some windows there were broken.

war as a member of the Society of Fellows at Harvard.

The historian's third book, The Vital Center, a discussion of contemporary political and social problems, was published in 1949. The General and The President, an analysis of American foreign policy in terms of the issues raised by President Truman's dismissal of General MacArthur and written in collaboration with Richard Rovere, was issued in 1951.

Meetings Scheduled This Week To Touch Many Special Interests

Several meetings and information sessions are scheduled this week, with appeal to a variety of tastes and interests. At 7:30 tonight in the CC Assembly Hall, members of the Young Presidents' Organization (YPO) will participate in a panel discussion. Their visit is sponsored by the School of Business and Delta Sigma Pi to give students an opportunity to learn from young company presidents about the business world and the function of private enterprise.

Representing YPO will be the presidents of Marine Midland Trust Co. of Mohawk Valley, Utica; Paddock Pool Builders, Inc., Albany; F&H Products Corp., Rochester; and Penetryn System, Inc., Latham; as well as YPO president A. P. Papanek.

All graduate students are invited to attend an informal reception tomorrow afternoon with President Benezet, Vice President Clifton Thorne, Acting Vice President Charles O'Reilly, and Dean of Graduate Studies Edgar Flinton. Punch

Workshop Held

Members of SUNYA's Environmental Forum have been working with the New York State Education Department Task Force on Environmental Education to see what education can do to increase awareness of the environment and to develop a responsibility towards it. On Nov. 6, SUNYA hosted a conference workshop for area school district representatives who will serve as resource persons in the field of environmental education.

At the conference, one of 12 to be held across the state, environmental curricular materials were presented and explained. Among them were books of instructional activities for K-12 and A Teacher's Packet for Conservation Information and Education. None of the programs or materials are now mandated parts of the curriculum.

The task force was established by Commissioner of Education Ewald B. Nyquist. Louis Ismay, coordinator of SUNYA's Environmental Forum, serves on its advisory committee. It is Mr. Nyquist's belief that, "Environmental education should be an integral part of the school curriculum and extend from elementary school through continuing education."

Faculty Notes

NATHAN GOTTSCHALK, music, will conduct the Pioneer Valley Symphony Orchestra in a Beethoven Anniversary Program in Greenfield, Mass., on Saturday.

Y. M. KIM, physics, has written "Electron Spin Resonance Studies of Gamma Irradiated Alkali Titante Glasses" in The Journal of Chemical Physics.

VINCENT SCHAEFER, ASRC, has been selected by the American Association for the Advancement of Science as a guest lecturer in an experimental science education program being held this fall.

will be served in the Patroon Room at the Campus Center from 4 to 5:30. Wives of graduate students also are invited to come and to chat with Mrs. Benezet.

The Archaeological Institute of America and SUNYA's Department of Classics will present a public lecture tomorrow at 8 p.m. in HU 354. Dr. Lionel Casson, of New York University, will speak on "Ancient Ships and Shipping". Refreshments will be served following the lecture.

Students who are interested in studying abroad are urged to attend the International Studies Interest Evening Wednesday at 7 p.m. in the Humanities Lounge. Albany Transnational Forum, an organization of students who have studied abroad is sponsoring the evening to allow students to share information about living and studying in a foreign land. Wine and cheese will be served.

"Applications of decision theory to social psychology" will be the topic of a colloquium address by Harold Miller from the University of Waterloo, Ontario, Canada. The address will be Thursday at 3:30 p.m. in SS 256.

The resident assistant selection process to choose resident assistants for the 1971-72 academic year will begin with a mandatory interest meeting on Sunday at 7 p.m. in LC 11. All interested students must attend that meeting to pick up applications and receive pertinent information concerning the selection schedules. Any student unable to attend must contact Howard Woodruff at 7-8839 two days prior to the meeting. To serve as a resident assistant, a student must be a junior, senior, or graduate student in good academic standing at the university.

Great Dane Sports

The soccer team finished a disappointing season strongly and the cross-country team finished a good season disappointingly. The form reversals left coach Bill Schieffelin's booters with 3-8-1 and a fourth straight losing season; and coach Bob Munsey's harriers with 10-3 and a ninth straight winning season.

Munsey has a remarkable 77-15 ledger since 1962. Late-season losses to Colgate and LeMoyne prevented the team from breaking the school record for wins, 11, but both conquerors — and C.W. Post, the only other team to beat the Great Danes — are top-rated teams.

Dennis Hackett was the harrier hero. He won five races and has a two-year total of 15 dual meet victories, third best in Albany history. With a year to go, he has a good chance to top Tom Robinson's record of 22. Freshman Nick DeMarco and senior co-captain Pat Gepfert generally ran second and third.
