Religious Clubs Plan Activities For Next Week

Activities for religious organizations for next week include a meeting and a chapel planned by IZFA and SCA respectively. During last week, Hillel received a library from the Albany chapter of B'nai B'rith.

Inter-Zionist Federation of America will hold the second meeting of this month at the Milne Little Theater on Tuesday, March 23, at 8:30, announces Ise Gluckstadt '49. The movie to be shown is entitled "Home Are the Hunted". A Purim party to celebrate the end of the reign of the tyrant Haman in Biblical days will follow. Refreshments will be served.

SCA Chapel Tuesday

Marlin Mierus '48, President of Student Christian Association has announced that the regular Wednesday noon chapel will be held this week Tuesday noon, March 23, in the Unitarian Chapel as usual. The final lecture of the Lenten series, "Lent in the Atomic Age" will be given. The meditation will concern Easter and will be given by Reverend Arthur Adams of the First Presbyterian Church, Albany.

Last week, Gideon chapter of B'nai B'rith women presented Hillel with a bookcase and several books. The books will be available to the student body shortly after Easter vacation.

Sophs Keep Big-4 "Bonanza" Dark Secret From Curious Frosh; Posters Line Hallways As '50 Prepares For Rivalry Event

The Kickerbocker News has already given it a big write-up, a herald has arrived in Albany to see the performance, and we, at State, are going to see it here in Page Hall. What? Why "Bonanza", of course. The Sophs claim that it's all that the name means, and they aim to prove this when it is produced after Easter vacation.

According to rumors, this is supposed to be a two act play... one scene takes place in a local "dive" (not mentioning any names, where advertisement is not needed), and another is staged in a locality of ill-repute... the library. The latter is not as dull as it sounds, however, for it is here that the 85 chorus girls go to work in an underwater dance routine that consists of the Charleston and Black-bottom. What the other scenes hold in store for the audience no-one knows as yet. However, the audience may be sure that nothing will come as too much of a surprise after those just mentioned are seen.

Now for a little surprise... the last paragraph was just what was claimed in the first sentence... the Sophs are being very consistent about keeping their proposed master-piece a big, dark secret, so that anything heard around school concerning the forthcoming production is only a guess. The only statement for print, according to the Big-4 director and workers, is, "Everything is so unusual that to mention one detail would be to slight another of equal importance."

The publicity is the only issue that everyone is willing to talk about; they certainly have reason to. It is the best job that has been done in a long time, according to most State students. Ken Thompson '50's publicity manager, has announced that all posters have some connection with the plot, no matter how vague it seems at present. Miss Thompson has also announced "bigger and better" publicity to be seen before the show goes on.

Bob Freyer, director, says that even though you don't know what to expect, you'd be wise to attend. If the publicity is any indication of the production, it will be well worth your time.

On The Bench

PAULA TICHY

"Did your mother come from Ireland?"—well, why doesn't she go back there . . . and take you with her! . . . Seriously tho, hope all the "greenmen" had a happy St. Paddy's Day and have recovered from the "spirits" of the day.

It seems that one of our star athletes is also a star in another field. We were more than pleasantly surprised at the operetta last weekend when we noticed one of the sailors in the "chorus" line doing his dance with a distinctive basket-ball twist. It is only fitting and proper to award to Mr. Kenneth George an "Oscar" along with his Varsity letter . . . It is rumored that Arthur Murray is hunting for talent, here's your chance, Kenny!

At one of the recent WAA meet-ings, the Council voted to take over the election of college cheer-leaders. This, however, has yet to be passed by Student Association before it can legally be added to the WAA constitution. The matter is to be brought up in assembly today. Voting on this amendment will take place on the first Friday after vaca-tion.

Wednesday night saw the end of the current basketball season as the weak and weary players of the four top teams unscrambled them-selves. Sayles Hall, displaying a strong offensive backed by team co-operation emerged victorious hold-ing the coveted golden trophy. This is the first time since the trophy started on its rounds that a group house will have its name engraved on the cup. Nice going Sayles. . .

To continue in the same vein may we make a slight suggestion for next year. The rules and set-up for the tournament should be posted before the tourney begins and teams should at least know how many games they may have to play. . . That's all for this year, folksies. . .

Communications

To the Sports Editor:

Sportsmanship? Do girls at State know the meaning of the word? Well, by this time I'm beginning to wonder. It all was made perfectly obvious a few weeks ago when a group of hens were squabbling over a referee's decision. The fact that the referee was the moderator and SHOULD have had the last word never entered their minds. Pretty is too mild a word to describe this situation which has become a regular occurrence at Page. "Referees are swell when they keep well. "Let's not let anything happen to the few "good" ones we have left!" quotes from "On The Bench," Feb-ruary 20, was a fine piece of satire. "When a game ceases to be a sport, it stinks."

Let's stop playing politics and reveal some genuine sportsmanship. At this stage in the game I'm be-ginning to doubt that we have any. More concentration on competence and less on an attractive bulletin board, more clean competition in-stead of cut-throat eliminations; this accomplished we'll have a start.

Some consideration to several pro-posed ideas, such as having classes for referees, setting up de-finite rules governing tournaments which will avoid playing the same three or four times, we'll have the job half done. Either provide for a more wholesome system in W. A. A. (1?) or at least, if we do con-tinue with the present system, have the decency to respect where it is due.

Fannie Longo '51.

Frosh Men Sink Sophs

Winning four out of five events the Freshmen men splashed a vic-tory in rivalry swimming Wednes-day night. Thursday night the girls of '51 faced their Blue Jay rivals in an effort to make a clean sweep of swimming.

The Thursday night battle of the mermaids saw '50 team of Mat-teson, Adams, Murphy and Com-pany face Hitch, Perline, Paterson, Rojewicz and Weller in a 3 out of five series.

Sayles Sweeps Final Play-Offs In Basket Tilts

Sayles Hall captured the WAA basketball trophy by defeating Phi Delt, Gamma Kap and Pierce Hall in the final round of the intramur-al league. The three remaining teams, by each winning one and losing two, ended in a second place tie.

On Saturday, March 13th Sayles took the first of their three vic-tories: defeating Gamma Kap in a close contest by the score of 20-18. On the same morning Phi Delt de-feated Pierce Hall: 18-11. In the Sayles-Gamma Kap tilt Hicks smashed through with 16 points.

Tuesday, March 16th, Sayles took their nine counters pacing the Par-tridge Street six. In the second con-test of the evening Gamma Kap took their lone victory of the round with Cooper tossing in 16 of the 24 points against Phi Delt's 19.

Phi Delt met Sayles Hall on St. Patrick's Day and fell a third vic-tim the 22" forward as Hicks de-livered 2 out of Sayles 23 points for the regulation game, and then scored all nine in the overtime per-iod. Delt, by dint of Tilden's 14 managed to stay in the running until the overtime session. Pierce fought into the second place tie by taking Gamma Kap to the tune of 12-7.

All three teams in the second place tie waived play-offs.

Freshman Hicks of the Sayles Hall team was high-scorer for the third round of play by putting 16, 9, and 31 points together for a grand total of 56.

A round-up of the entire season's play found Gamma Kap tying Sayles Hall with a record of 13 and 3. Phi Delt followed with 12 Sayles Hall with a record of 13 and 4, and Pierce, to conclude the last round teams, had a won and last list of 11 and 5.

Council Chooses Varsity Bowlers Spring Captains; Bow To Siena Lists Delegates

W. A. A. Council, meeting Tues-day noon, made plans for the Spring Season to begin immediately after Easter vacation. Appointees to Swimming Camp and to Hockey Camp were also named.

Many of the fall sports will be continued into the Spring season. The Outing Club, with Lucy Lytle '49, as captain, will continue its work as will Archery, under Mar-tha Mason and Betty Winkler, Juniors. The Tennis tournament, begun in the fall season, will be completed with JoAnne Joslin '49, and Shirley McCuen '50, in charge.

The Council, in a meeting held last week, voted in favor of a mo-tion to place Student Association Cheerleading under the direction of WAA. This motion will be in-troduced in Assembly this morning.

Milne To Give Concert Preview During Assembly

The women of State College are not the only ones who have the "new look" if Tony Prochilo will pardon our running his terminology "into the ground." The commons has also acquired it.

Our question is "What happened to the beach chairs from which the material for the curtains was taken?" All seriousness aside, we think it was magnanimous of Dean Nelson to spend his Easter vacation whipping them up so they would be here to herald our return.

Rumor has it, Mr. Verrey of the State College Co-op has noticed a decided decrease in the sale of cotton stockings. This may be attributed to the new metal, non-run chairs. We, the better three-quarters of the college, thank Campus Commission for their foresight and understanding.

Excuse Students

Tickets for the Milne Spring Concert, Thursday and Friday, will be sold at a booth outside the Commons starting Monday. Admission is $60 for State students, $1 for adults.

Posters to be displayed at State College may now be approved during the day at the Campus Commission desk, located in the southeast corner of the Commons in back of the victrola.

The Commission plans to have at least one member on duty during school hours to approve posters.

Mullin Announces Meeting

According to an announcement from Francis Mullin '48, there will be an important Senior class meeting, Friday, 3:30 p. m. in Room 20 to discuss Big-4 plans. Seniors must also sign up for caps and gowns April 15.

Hint Orchids, Jungle, Roller Skates In "Spring Rhapsody"; Song Hits, Comedy, Sky High Publicity Promised By Frosh

Lush orchids, a hot jungle setting, romance galore—the swift change of scene. Now childish swiftness from the roller skating "Spring Rhapsody" is newer than the "new look" and longer yet; it Yaks, Princeton, Vassar, UCLA.

If the foregoing comments have shed little actual light on the plot of "Spring Rhapsody," that's the way the frosh want it.

They're willing, to say plenty about the publicity that can be expected come next Monday or so. Publicity will put the show sky high. Also, "This will be a musical comedy with emphasis on costume and setting." And, "Two sensational new musical hits have been written equal to a DeMille production," for the show.

Freyer Reveals Night Club Plot

ROBERT FREYER

Final rehearsals for "Bonanza," the Sophomore Big-4, were held this week. The play, an original production, written and directed by Robert Freyer, will be presented tomorrow evening in the Page Hall auditorium at 8:30 p. m.

The cast is headed by Phyllis Witt Penn, Arnold Rice, Earle Jones, Anthony Prochilo and Rhoda Riber. All music is under the direction of Audrey Koch.

Theme
Cornelius Goode IV, played by Arnold Rice, is a very wealthy man, who is in love with Sharon Bartlett, a night club singer, played by Phyllis Witt Penn. Sharon orders his proposal of marriage in order that she may have time to think over. As a slight inducement, Cornelius gives Sharon the deed to a nite club which he has purchased. The growth of the club weaves through the main plot. In the course of addition, Sharon meets, and succumbs to the charms of Marc Peters, played by Anthony Prochilo. Cornelius unexpectedly arrives in the middle of a love scene between them and becomes enraged. Whereupon, he withdraws his financial backing and leaves Sharon holding the proverbial "bag" right before opening night.

The show is pervaded with seventeen musical numbers—rhythmic, melodious and comic songs.

Seating Plan
According to Mr. Freyer, there will be no rushing for seats. Everyone will be required to remain at the head of the aisle until he is escorted to a seat by one of the ushers. After 8:15 p. m., no seats may be saved. Page Hall will be transformed into a theater and all those in attendance are asked to follow the requests of the ushers. The overture will begin at 8:30 p. m.

Cooley Schedules 'Venetian' Dance At Van Derzee

"Gay Venice" will be moved to Van Derzee Hall for the annual semi-formal dance which is to be held tonight at 9:00 p. m. for members of the house and their guests.

To carry out the theme of the Venice of yesterday, the ballroom will be decorated by a large sparkling chandelier of flowers and glittering gold, supplemented by gondolas drifting on the Grand Canal which will be arched by bridges of Venetian stiling.

La Verne Cooley '50 is general chairman of the dance. Other committee chairmen include: Decorations, Donald Harold '48; Refreshments, John Leir '51; Music, Marvin Wayne '49.

Music will be furnished by the Melody Makers, an all-girl orchestra which has been engaged for the evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond W. Verrey will act as chaperones.

Well, the news has spread, but the secret is still safe. Come and see for yourself, Dr. Livingston.
