Assembly Today Starts Rivalry Among Classes

Senior Class Will Debate Sophomores in Rivalry for Final Contest

Today's assembly is to feature the first inter-class debate of the new college year. The sophomores will debate the senior class on the sub tect: "Resolved that inter-class rivalry be abolished." Chairman for the debate will be William Bradt, '38, president of Debate council and director of intramural debate.

Members of the class of '40 who will uphold the negative are: Rita Sullivan, Jane Wilson and Lloyd Kelly, Edgar Perretz is manager of the team. For the senior class Sally Whelan, Leslie Knox and Le-Roy Irvis will uphold the affirmative. The manager for the class of '38 is Lizette Parshall. First and second speakers for each side will have five minutes each in which to present their arguments. After a five minute intermission the rebuttal speakers will each be given six minites for their concluding speeches.

This is the first in a series of intramural debates. The winner of this debate is to meet the winner of the junior-freshman contest for possession of the intramural debate cup which is held at present by the junior class.

Judges will be Miss Helen M Phillips and Mr. William E. Wood, instructors in English and Dr. William S. Salisbury, instructor in gov-

The remainder of the assembly will be devoted to a revote on Student association secretary and announcements. The following candidates survived last week's voting Joseph Cappiello, Roswell Fairbank and Rita Sullivan.

Interest Runs Rampant Over Queen's Identity

When Rita Kane, comely queen of the 1935 Campus day, holds that jeweled crown over the head of one of our senior candidates tomorrow, will it be Dottie, Janet, Muriel, Anna or Lu? There's your vital question for the week, if you want one. The answer---well, we don't know, but we can guarantee that you'll find out tomorrow night

We have had blonde queens, brunette queens, auburn-haired queens, tall queens, short queens --in fact, nearly all types. That's one reason why precedent is almost nil as far as speculation goes. The candidates are Dorothy Cain, Janet Dibble, Muriel Goldberg, Anna Olsson, and Lucille Zak---the odds, well there aren't any. What's your guess?
