Educate the Children is a not for profit organization that has several ongoing programs in Nepal. Nepal has the second largest gender gap in education between boys and girls, second only to Saudi Arabia, in the world. Educate The Children has earmarked many of its programs for the girl child and has been responsible for the formal and informal education of thousands of girls and young women, in both private and public schools and in adult literacy classes.

One of the many ways Educate the Children raises funds for their many programs is through the sale of traditional Nepalese crafts. These include clothing, textiles, handmade paper and jewelry and are made by...

Peace Offerings is proud to support Educate the Children's efforts and provide these superbly crafted products to our socially conscious supporters.
