State Health Plan Praised by Harriman

ALBANY, Aug. 18—The executive committee of the Association of State and Territorial Health Officers were luncheon guests of Governor Harriman. The Governor praised the State's new health insurance program for State employees.

"This year we have taken an historic step by providing a comprehensive health insurance program for State employees which has been joined by 78,000 employees," the Governor said. "A significant feature of this program is that the coverage continues after an employee retires, without any loss of privileges and with the State paying its share of the cost."

Identical CSEA Letters Ask The 2 Big Parties for Planks

The Civil Service Employees Association sent identical letters to the heads of the platform committees of the two leading political parties in the State, recommending planks.

The letters were addressed to James A. Fitzpatrick, Republican, and David Gutman, Democrat, and were signed by John F. Powers, president of the CSEA.

The text:

The Civil Service Employees Association respectfully submits the following proposals affecting public employees in the State of New York for inclusion in your party's platform. Historically, both great parties of our State have accepted as important parts of their party platforms, many of the suggestions of our Association which represents well over seventy thousand of the State's employees and over ten thousand in the political subdivisions. We trust that once again your deliberations will result in a progressive and far reaching Civil Service Platform calculated to improve and expand the working standards and conditions of our State employees.

SALARIES AND HOURS

A. Salaries

We are, first and foremost, primarily concerned with the salaries of our public employees. They are too low. Despite the fact that the State's own agency charged with the responsibility of the study of State salaries reported that the employees of the State of New York were entitled to a 5% wage increase based upon comparable salaries paid by private enterprise and comparable governmental agencies, the State of New York failed to give a wage increase of any kind to its civil servants. We believe that the State of New York, as an employer, should have an enlightened wage policy rather than a backward one. Accordingly, we respectfully request that your committee and your party adopt as part of its own program the principle that the employees of the State of New York receive a salary increase sufficient to bring State employees' wages into adjustment with those paid by comparable competing governmental agencies and private enterprise.

B. Overtime

Along with the aforementioned need for a wage increase, our Association is deeply concerned by the failure of the State of New York to keep abreast of the almost universally accepted practice of premium pay for overtime. It is for this reason that we request that your party accept and advocate the principle of time and one-half pay for overtime when the State of New York calls upon its employees to work beyond their normal work schedule.

C. Hours

Great progress has been made in the reduction of hours, particularly for institutional employees, to a maximum of 40 hours per week. Some state employees, however, such as the State Police, are continuing to work regular work weeks in excess of 40 hours. We respectfully urge that your platform include the adoption of a maximum 40-hour work week for all state employees now working in excess of 40 hours.

RETIREMENT AND DEATH BENEFITS

A. Retired Employees

Because of the impact of the inflation of the last 20 years, presently retired employees find

BILLS SEEK BETTER POSTAL JOB RIGHTS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18—Bills introduced in the Senate and the House propose major changes in the Job Classification Act governing postal employees. The sponsors are AFL-CIO postal unions. They know that it's too late to expect action at this session but are aiming for enactment next year.

The key proposals are:
All non-supervisory jobs would be advanced one grade in the postal classification ladder.

A postal employee "detailed" on temporary assignment to a higher grade job must work in the new position 30 days before receiving the higher salary. The new bill would give him the extra pay from the first day.

Removal of the restriction that prevents a Postal Transportation

Service substitute employee from being promoted beyond the fourth step of Level 5.

Changing the postal work day from eight hours within a period of not more than 10 consecutive hours to eight hours within a period of not more than nine consecutive hours.

Making the compensatory time off for employees who work holidays two hours for every one hour worked, instead of one hour for each hour of holiday work.

Making the compensatory time off for employees who work Saturdays and Sundays one and a half hours for every one hour worked, instead of one hour for each hour of Saturday and Sunday work.

Granting to clerks in third class offices the same pay and time off as other employees get.

Chest Clinic Headed By Dr. Mahady

ALBANY, Aug. 18 — The appointment of Dr. Stephen C. F. Mahady, former director of the Broadacres Sanatorium, Utica, as director of the State Out-Patient Chest Clinic located at the Broadacres Sanatorium was announced by Dr. Herman E. Hilleboe, State Health Commissioner. His annual salary will be $15,497.

Broadacres Sanatorium, which was turned over to the State in 1948 for use as a tuberculosis hospital, was returned to Oneida County on August 15. The State has accepted the offer of the Oneida County Board of Supervisors to rent space at the hospital for a chest clinic at a nominal rate.

A native of Utica, Dr. Mahady was graduated from Hamilton College in 1935, and from Harvard Medical School in 1939. He served on the resident staff of the Chest Division at Bellevue Hospital, New York City, for three years.

During World War II, Dr. Mahady served as a captain in the U.S. Army Air Force and was assigned to the School of Aviation Medicine at Randolph Field, Texas.

Following the war he spent a year at Grasslands Hospital, Valhalla, where he was assistant director of the tuberculosis division. He was then named chief of service and director of the research laboratory at Firland Sanatorium, Seattle, Wash. He also was instructor in medicine at the University of Washington Medical School.

Serves Four Counties

He joined the State Health Department in 1950 as hospital medical management advisor in the Bureau of Tuberculosis Hospitals, Division of Tuberculosis Control, and was appointed director of Broadacres on July 19, 1952.

The State Out-Patient Chest Clinic will serve Oneida, Lewis, Herkimer and Madison Counties, all formerly in the Broadacres Sanatorium District.

Dr. Hilleboe said the functions of the clinic will include discovery and diagnosis of tuberculosis through examinations; medical supervision of unhospitalized diagnosed cases of tuberculosis and diagnostic study and clinical evaluation.

Jobs Found for Employees

The New York State Health Department has conducted

New President

WILLIAM J. ROSSITER

Newly elected president of the Mental Hygiene Employees Association, Mr. Rossiter is also Mental Hygiene representative on the board of directors, Civil Service Employees Association, and president of the CSEA chapter at Rochester State Hospital.

an intensive job placement program for employees of the former Broadacres State Tuberculosis Sanatorium, Health Commissioner Herman E. Hilleboe announced.

The Sanatorium buildings and land were transferred to Oneida County's jurisdiction.

Of 153 employees, 106 seeking jobs were placed. An additional 25 employees have left the labor market for retirement or other reasons.

More Placements Expected

Dr. Hilleboe said that efforts to obtain jobs for the remaining 22 employees likely would succeed soon.

"All employees have been interviewed concerning their individual interests in types of work and locations where they would like to work," Dr. Hilleboe said. "Other State Health Department hospitals, and the Department's Division of Laboratories and Research, were contacted to make certain the Broadacres employees had the first opportunity to take advantage of any job openings at those facilities."

He said the State Department of Mental Hygiene and other departments of the State government, as well as Oneida County Officials, have cooperated with the State Health Department in placements.

Dr. Hilleboe added that 26 of the employees have been placed with the State Health Department, 46 with other State agencies; 16 with Oneida County agencies, and the remaining 13 have obtained private employment.

The Commissioner expressed gratitude for aid given by both official and non-official groups and agencies in helping to find jobs. He said also that the cooperation of Broadacres employees in continuing on the job as long as they were needed was of inestimable value in bringing about the orderly closing of the hospital.

Text of Goals CSEA Asks Parties to Include In Platform Planks

their retirement allowances more and more inadequate in terms of the purchasing power of the dollars which they invested during their employment in the hope and expectation of a reasonably adequate retirement allowance. For reasons unknown to us, the public employee was omitted last year from the increased supplemental pension which was enacted for retired school teachers. Well deserved as was this legislation, the civil servant is equally worthy of comparable relief. We therefore urge that your platform call for immediate relief of the retired public employee pensioner sufficient to duplicate in purchasing power their investment in the retirement system.

B. Vesting

Also, a principal item of our Association's program is to secure vested rights in the New York State Employees Retirement System. Under the present law, a member of the Retirement System who voluntarily leaves the State service before he reaches retirement age receives nothing from the System but his accumulated contributions, together with the interest that these contributions have earned. He loses the entire pension credit which he has earned by his years of service. We believe that if an employee serves at least ten years, he should be permitted to leave his contributions in the System, and, upon reaching retirement age, be entitled to a retirement allowance based upon the actual time he has worked. Similarly, an employee who elects to remain in state service after the minimum number of years for vesting should also be protected in a like manner. We accordingly urge that your platform committee accept the principle that a member of the Retirement System of the State of New York who voluntarily leaves State service or leaves for any other reason than his own fault or misconduct before qualifying for retirement, be permitted to elect to leave his contributions on deposit with the System and receive deferred retirement benefits.

C. Death Benefit After Retirement — Life Insurance

The pension and retirement plans of most private and some public jurisdictions include suitable paid-up life benefits for their employees. The state recognizes this factor through the Ordinary Death Benefit now paid those who die in service. However, the death benefit presently provided is grossly inadequate as compared with the pension reserve of those employees who die before retirement. Similarly, the employee who retires under the present law has no insurance benefits remaining to him. We therefore respectfully urge that there be included in your platform, recommendation that the Retirement System provide through liberalization of the existing Ordinary Death Benefit, and extension of such death benefit after retirement, adequate insurance on the lives of its employees.

D. Employee Representation

As another facet of the problems of retirement, our Association is concerned that the management of the billion dollar Employees Retirement System is completely lacking in any kind of employee representation. We respectfully point out that this flies in the face of sound business management. One cannot conceive of a billion dollar corporation that is in no way responsible directly to its stockholders or its membership. It is altogether possible that either by legislation or by administrative act, provision could be made for effective employee participation in the advisory management of the Retirement System itself through the appointment of a civil servant as an employee member of the Pension Commission. Accordingly, we respectfully submit that it should be a plank of your party platform to provide for the principle of effective employee participation in the management of the Retirement System.

CIVIL SERVICE

A. Competitive Classification

We urge the further extension of the principle of the competitive examination to cover all possible positions in the Civil Service of the State of New York. We feel that there remain large numbers of employees who are not now in the competitive class whose position would be readily susceptible to competitive examination. We accordingly urge an appropriate plank to effectuate the principle of the extension and enlargement of the competitive class of the Civil Service of the State of New York.

HEALTH INSURANCE

A. Payment of Premiums

Under the recently installed State Health Insurance Plan, the major share of the premiums are paid by the employees. We urge that the State accept the full responsibility for the payment of premiums for the protection of the health of its employees and their families.

B. Employee Representation

Since the employees presently pay the major share of the cost of the Health Insurance Plan, and for the additional reason that the management of the Health Insurance Plan so vitally affects the health and welfare of all employees, we urge that the principle of employee representation be recognized to include employee representation in the management of the State Health Plan.

EMPLOYER-EMPLOYEE RELATIONS

A. Anti-Strike Legislation and Collective Bargaining

Much has been written about the shortcomings of the Anti-Strike Law applicable to public employees. Experience indicates that the law is too strict, that it has not been enforced, and discriminates unfairly against public employees.

We realize that in the area of public employment, just as in private industry, there are many areas of employment affected with the public interests where strikes cannot be permitted. Just as in private industry, there are, however, other areas where cessation of work would have little or no effect on the welfare of the State as a whole.

Modification of the drastic anti-strike legislation certainly is indicated.

The principles of collective bargaining are universal in private industry, and recently have been increasingly recognized in public employment. It is recognized more and more by public administrators, as well as employee leaders, that it is not only desirable, but even necessary to be able to negotiate with responsible employee representatives on matters of the greatest importance to the State and to its employees. Long-established procedures in the highly respected English Civil Service in the recently promulgated Executive Order in New York City are but indications of the trend in this respect. Combined with modification of the anti-strike legislation and the establishment of collective bargaining procedures for state employees, should be legislative recognition of the necessity, particularly where the power of strike is inhibited, of effective procedures to air employee grievances.

Accordingly, we urge drastic amendment of the anti-strike legislation to include only areas that are affected by the public interests, the establishment of formalized collective and exclusive bargaining procedures for state employees and state agencies, and codification of grievance procedures for state employees.

POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS

We respectfully urge legislation requiring for the Political Subdivisions:

- A. The adoption of definite salary plans with increments for all employees.
- B. Uniform classification plans within political subdivisions.
- C. Adoption of minimum standards for vacations and time off.
- D. A maximum 40-hour work week.

CONCLUSION

The above recommendations made by this Association do not attempt to go into the details and specifics of our legislative program, but rather to sketch in the most important general broad areas, significant proposals which we feel warrant your consideration and inclusion in the platform of your party.

CSEA Stresses Benefits Of Its Health-Accident Insurance Plan

The CSEA's Accident-Health Insurance provides cash benefits while an insured member is disabled and unable to work due to accident or sickness. Sick leave with pay has no effect on the benefits under this insurance, and the payments of benefits do not require hospitalization.

The benefits under the CSEA Accident-Health Insurance Plan are different from and do not affect benefits State employees receive under the State Health Insurance Program.

Under the CSEA Accident-Health Insurance Plan, which now covers more than 35,000 CSEA members, the insurance is offered at a cost much less than what would have to be paid through the ordinary insurance channels. CSEA members who participate in its Accident-Health Insurance Program save each year many times the CSEA dues they pay.

Any employee of the State, and employees of most political subdivisions, are eligible for the CSLA Accident-Health Insurance Program. Detailed information and applications can be obtained from any CSEA chapter, from Association headquarters at 8 Elk Street, Albany, New York, or from the CSEA's insurance agency, Ter Bush & Powell, 148 Clinton Street, Schenectady, N. Y.

VA Needs Examiners Fast

Faced with a heavy increase in loan guaranty activity, the New York Regional Office of the Veterans Administration at 252 Seventh Avenue, New York City, needs construction examiners, said T. A. Huribut, acting manager.

The Loan Guaranty Division at one time employed 128, reduced to 80 as building activity sagged last year. Recent increase in the GI loan rate and extension of the program for two years has resulted in a deluge of building appraisal applications. Construction examiners are needed to evaluate blue prints and specifications and to inspect property under construction.

Applicants must have had at least three years' experience in the building field, such as management of real estate, building maintenance, mortgage lending or in planning residential or commercial construction. In addition they must have two years of experience in analyzing costs and appraising construction.

The position are in grade 9, starting pay $5,985 a year. Apply to Personnel Officer, Veterans Administration, 252 Seventh Avenue, New York 1, N. Y., telephone WAtkins 4-5000, Extension 525.

City employees may also take advantage of scholarships offered by the colleges, universities and other organizations in the New York City area.

Better Approach to Pay

THE FEDERAL government is making notable advances in personnel administration, including evaluation of salaries, modern training provisions, and implementation of an improved labor relations code to supplant with a better one the good one that has been idling like a poor, skipping motor. Now the U.S. aims at last to be a model employer, to set the pace and example.

An outside committee, consisting of able and distinguished civilians, is to conduct the pay study, and to make recommendations. Of course, such a committee has no plenary powers, can recommend, not enact; yet had such a committee studied the State and New York City pay structures, employees of those jurisdictions certainly must have been granted a raise. Instead, a raise was denied to both groups. Even without such citizen assistance the Federal government itself did grant a raise.

The most important aspect of such a committee is objectivity of job evaluation. What is it worth to government to have the job effectively and efficiently filled? Note that capacity to pay is not one of the ratable factors. It never is, really. "No money" is an excuse government offers, a pretext, not a reality. Every employer must pay what a job is worth. For a while he may chisel, but economics catches up with him before too long. Choice employees leave. Industry captures the stars of the dean's list; government lags. Other governments, foreign ones, exceed our own in one accomplishment after another. Yet we have the mental equipment necessary to excel. Underpayment of salaries is therefore a costly form of "thrift."

Government pay should at least match industry's, preferably exceed it.

Last year President Eisenhower vetoed a pay increase bill on the ground that it would be inflationary. What kind of an argument was that? Federal employees have to meet the same demands of rising and peak living costs as any other employees. The first obligation of government, after payments of interest and principal on the public debt, and pension obligations, is employee salaries. This year the Federal story had a happy ending. President Eisenhower saw the light. There was no veto.

Candidates who strove madly to get elected must meet the responsibility for raising the money necessary to run the government properly, including payment of adequate salaries. A city may be limited by law as to its taxing powers, and its borrowing capacity, but those limits never put it out of business, and are intended as checks against extravagance.

The money for justifiable raises must be found within the broad taxing and other income framework, the same as the money for any other part of the expense budget, or by finding new sources of revenue.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

ELECTION CALLED SOLUTION FOR NYC POLICE PROBLEM

Editor, The Leader:

I am not a New York City policeman but have a job in another New York City department.

I have been reading the arguments on both sides regarding a union organizing members of the uniformed force. I note that the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association asks the Mayor to decree that it shall have exclusive collective bargaining rights. Local 237, Teamsters, asks that an election be held.

The PBA has a large membership of patrolmen; the union, which started organizing them only two or three months ago, asks that a year elapse before an election is held, so that it would not be at a disadvantage. The union also says that for 62 years the PBA has had a monopoly of opportunity for such organizing activities.

An election would be the most convincing proof of preference. I don't think that the personal preference of the Police Commissioner should be put above the preference of the policemen themselves in a case like this. While the Commissioner does not directly attempt to dictate which organization, if any, shall represent the policemen, he does exclude any local affiliated with an international labor union.

Election Most Convincing

There would be no difference in function between the PBA and a union.

The PBA supports the departmental rule that the Commissioner invokes. That rule prohibits policemen from becoming members of a union. But the Commissioner says that the PBA with exclusive rights would be the same as a union, so if the PBA were excluded the policemen would be represented by no organization at all. Does this make sense?

Repeal of the rule, which the Commissioner has authority to do, and the holding of an election seems to be the answer.

IMPROVED LABOR CODE FOR U. S. HAILED

Editor, The Leader:

The laudatory efforts by the Federal government to improve management-labor relations must be taken as proof of both a desire to come up at least to the standards of private industry and as an admission that the Federal government has not been moving forward with any coordinated labor relations program. It must not be assumed, however, that the U.S. government has been backsliding. It has set a standard of fringes that other branches of government have yet to follow.

Personnel Group to Meet in Chicago

THE PUBLIC PERSONNEL ASSOCIATION'S annual conference will be held in Chicago this year, September 28 to October 8.

The four-day meeting will involve about 50 sessions ranging from large formal gatherings to small committee meetings.

More than 300 persons are scheduled to participate in the program.

The conference host committee chairman is Dolores Sheehan, President of the Chicago Civil Service Commission. Of special interest to many delegates will be the Personnel Selection Institute being held concurrently with the conference.

Police Recruitment Aided

The City of Milwaukee has graduated two groups of police aides from the four-year apprenticeship program instituted in 1952 and reports that the program has been successful in bringing young men into the police department by recruiting them at graduation from high school.

Open at first to two persons from each of the City's 20 high schools who were recommended by their principals, the field was opened in 1956 to all male graduates on a competitive basis; 48 such positions are now budgeted.

The aides are assigned to clerical duties. During their first year they attend courses half-time in typing, shorthand, business English, office practices, and the like. After the first year, they are assigned to full-time duty on a rotating basis, office to office and shift to shift. The rotation provides them with a broad background in Police Department functions.

The aides are members of the City Employees' Pension Unit, and after one year of service they are entitled to a two-weeks' vacation. On duty they wear a regulation uniform shirt, black tie, blue serge trousers, and a special police aide badge.

U. S. Training Program

The new Government Employees Training Act marks a milestone in U. S. federal personnel policy. The act provides authority for training of federal employees both in and out of government. The U. S. Civil Service Commission has responsibility for administering the law, under policies to be laid down by the President. Agency heads will be responsible for working out details — the kind of training, the selection of trainees, and the amount to be spent.

The law provides for both part-time and full-time training and for attendance at meetings and conferences concerned with supervision and management, as well as those dealing with an agency's specific statutory functions.

To qualify for training, an employee must have worked for the government for at least a year and he may not receive more than one year of out-service training in each ten years of civilian service. He must agree to remain with his agency at least three times the length of his training period or repay training costs. Training cannot be given solely for promotion purposes or to provide an academic degree. An agency's out-service training time may not exceed one per cent of its authorized annual personnel strength calculated in man years.

TVA Turns Specific

The Tennessee Valley Authority's Colbert Steam Plant asks employees to offer ideas for the solution of specific problems it lists. At each suggestion box is a poster with the heading: "We invite your suggestions on the following problems," and below is a list of problems. The list is changed each week.

Employees are enthusiastic about the new project. Within one day after one problem was posted, employees submitted seven possible solutions. Within a week a total of 20 solutions were received.

While problems listed deal mostly with ones peculiar to TVA operations, others concern a better method of cleaning walls in the shower rooms, and how to keep the building heating system steam coils from freezing.

Employees were first informed of the new system by a memorandum that went out with paychecks.

After some experimentation, the suggestion board committee found that to get response the problems listed needed to be even more specific.

OFFICIAL ANSWERS TO SOCIAL SECURITY QUESTIONS

I AM 57 and may be eligible for disability insurance. If I qualify, and am eligible to receive the disability benefits, do my wife and minor children also receive benefits?

C. B. A disabled worker's dependents do not get Social Security benefits until he reaches age 65. Dependents, however, may be eligible for survivors benefits if the worker should die while receiving disability insurance benefits.

WHY are benefits to wives and women workers reduced, and benefits to widows and dependent mothers not reduced? J. J. O'B. Congress recognized the greater economic need of widows and dependent mothers. In most cases, it is practically impossible for them to get a job. While most wives also received their support alive and receiving benefits, too, from their husband, he is still working women, of course have supported themselves and are assumed to be able to continue to do so.

If I AM NOT eligible on my own Social Security account, would there be any benefits payable to me on my husband's Social Security record when he is 65? J. B.

If your husband worked the required length of time he would be covered by Social Security and becomes entitled to a benefit, then you would be entitled to a wife's benefit at age 62.

NEXT MONTH I will be 65 but I do not plan to retire for another year or two. Should I apply for my Social Security as soon as I am 65 or wait until I retire? B.E.

In your particular case, you should wait until you retire to apply for your Social Security benefits. The law provides that your benefits be figured (1) as of the year when you become 65 and (2) as of the year in which you retire. Then you are paid the higher of these two amounts. If you stop at your social security Office before you quit work, you will find the people there glad to discuss your case with you. In this way you will know what proofs to take along with you when you file your claim and you will have a good idea how much your benefits will amount to.

I AM 58 and am now unemployed. Before my marriage I worked for six years for the Federal Government and have about $1,500 in the pension fund. Will I be entitled to a monthly annuity at age 62 and if so how much? C. K.

Employment with the Federal Government which requires contributions to be made into a retirement system is not covered by Social Security. Therefore, if your only employment is with the Federal Government, you would not be eligible for any benefit from Social Security at age 62. If you are interested in ascertaining whether or not any benefits are payable based on your contributions to the retirement fund, write to the Retirement Division, U.S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D.C.

$100 a month helps keep him out of the red

$100 a month may not sound like a lot of money, but it means a lot to a State Hospital employee who is recovering from a hip injury. This is the amount of the disability check this man has received every month for the past 33 months. He uses it to help pay some important bills... to help keep him out of the red financially.

Because an accident and sickness can strike anybody, even you, you too need the protection offered under the C.S.E.A. Plan of Accident and Sickness.

License Examiner Test Will Close on Sept. 19

Candidates who pass the written test must also pass a medical examination and a qualifying practical test in driving in order to be qualified for appointment. They will be summoned at a later date for a medical examination at which they must meet the physical and medical standards adopted for this position. Candidates will receive notice of the exact time and place to appear for the medical examination at which they will be required to produce evidence of the citizenship, age, military duty, and operator's or chauffeur's licenses claimed in their applications and such other evidence as may be required to show that they are fully qualified for this position. Candidates may be required to undergo psychiatric examination.

The qualifying medical examination and driving test may be given only to those eligibles who stand high enough on the resulting eligible list to be considered for possible appointments in the near future.

All notices to appear for this examination will be conditional and no review of applications may be made except for candidates successful on the written test and the medical examination. Candidates should be reasonably sure they meet the requirements; otherwise they may find after they have taken the tests, that their applications must be disapproved for failure to meet the announced requirements.

For this examination, the New York City office of the Department of Civil Service will issue and receive applications in the Lobby, on the ground floor, at 270 Broadway, corner Chambers Street.

Where to Apply

To take this test you must be a United States citizen by birth or naturalization. Detailed instructions are on the application form.

There may be restrictions on your employment if you are under 18 or over 70 years of age.

You must have been a legal resident of New York State for at least one year immediately before the examination date.

You may obtain application forms by mail or in person at the following offices of the State Department of Civil Service: Gov. Alfred E. Smith State Office Building, Albany; or at 270 Broadway, New York City; or Room 212, State Office Building, Buffalo. Applications may also be obtained by calling in person at one of the local offices of the New York State Employment Service; these offices do not handle mail requests.

When you request an application form, specify the examination by its number (8100) and title (motor vehicle license examiner).

Mail your application form when completed, together with the required fee, to the State Department of Civil Service, Albany 1, N. Y.

The Department of Civil Service reserves the right to reject for lateness or to accept applications filed after the advertised filing period.

By law, we are required to charge an application fee. This fee is based on the minimum salary of the job. If your application is disapproved, your fee will be refunded a few weeks after the examination is held. Your fee will not be refunded if you fail to appear for the examination or are disqualified.

Where required, submit transcripts with your application or as soon thereafter as possible. Write the number and title of the examination on your transcript. If your college or university sends your transcript directly to the Department of Civil Service, ask that the number and title of examination be specified. Attach to your application a copy of your letter requesting the school to forward your transcript.

We will return the transcript to you or to your college (if the college so requests) after completion of the examination.

10,000 Seek Higher Pension Under New Federal Law

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18—The U.S. Civil Service Commission reports that more than 10,000 widows and widowers of deceased federal employees have applied for the new pensions recently voted them by Congress, and that more applications are flowing in at the rate of 400 to 500 a day.

The pensions, up to $750 per year, will go to widows and widowers of employees and retirees who died prior to February 29, 1948, when survivorship provisions were first written into the Retirement Act. In general, a widow or widower will be eligible if married to the deceased spouse for at least five years before the date of the death and not remarried since. In most cases the deceased spouse must have had at least 10 years of federal service, and military service may be included.

Those who think they may be eligible should write to the Retirement Division, Civil Service Commission, Washington, D.C.

ful in the examination are entitled to have 10 and 5 points, respectively, added to their earned scores. It is necessary to claim these credits with the filing of your application. You will be allowed the option of waiving these credits after the completion of the examination.

Notice to appear for the test will be conditional as review of applications for minimum requirements may not be made until after the written test. You will be notified in advance as to the place, date and hour of the test. You may not be admitted to the examination room without this official notice. Before filing, you should be reasonably sure that you meet the minimum requirements because, if you do not, your application will be disapproved even though you pass the written test.

When applications are reviewed prior to the test, if your application is disapproved, you will receive a notice to this effect approximately ten days before the date of the test. Your application will not be reconsidered unless you submit additional information establishing your qualifications at least five days prior to the date of the test. Your application may be disapproved for failure to give complete information.

Examination centers within New York State are listed on the application form. Tests may also be held when necessary and practicable at selected centers outside of New York State.

Ordinarily you may take only one examination on one day. In some cases, you may be allowed

Woman Appointed To Federal Civil Service Commission

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18—Mrs. Barbara B. Gunderson, Republican National Committeewoman from South Dakota, has been appointed a member of the U.S. Civil Service Commission, pending Senate confirmation. She would serve in the $20,000 a year post until 1961.

The White House, in making the appointment, said that the selection of the 41-year old housewife, radio broadcaster and copy writer "was in keeping with the President's policy of attracting younger people, especially women, to government service.

Mrs. Gunderson acknowledged that she had never made any study of the Civil Service Commission, but, she added, "I sure intend to."

to take a combination of examinations; the length and type of these tests will determine the decision.

The written tests for any one examination usually will not exceed one session of four hours, unless otherwise indicated on your admission card.

Tests are rated on a scale of 100 with the passing mark at 75. Unless the announcement states otherwise, you must pass the written tests as a whole and the oral tests, if any. We may divide the tests into parts and set minimum standards for each part. Notice of such arrangement will usually appear in the test instructions.

Training and experience may not be rated if all passing candidates are expected to be immediately reachable for appointment. When training and experience are rated, consideration will be given to the quality and length of your training and experience in relation to that of other candidates and to the requirements of the position. Training and experience may be rated on the basis of the statements contained in your application, subject to further verification.

Before the eligible list is established or at any time during the life of the eligible list, candidates may be investigated or called for an interview to determine whether or not they are fully qualified for appointment.

You will be fingerprinted at the time of the tests. You must be medically and physically capable of performing the duties of the position and may be required to take an examination to establish this fact.

The eligible list resulting from an examination may also be used for appointment to the same title or to any other title ruled to be similar and appropriate in other locations if a vacancy occurs for which there is not an adequate promotion field of employees.

St. Lawrence

St. Lawrence County Clerk Lewis Paddock and Mrs. Paddock entertained the board of directors of the St. Lawrence chapter, CSEA County Division, at the Paddock's summer home at Schermerhorn's Landing on the St. Lawrence River. Following a delicious dinner and boat trip through the Thousand Islands, the Board held their monthly meeting.

The public relations committee reported on its meeting with the St. Lawrence County Board of Supervisors Finance Committee, at which the chapter presented its requests concerning mileage and vacation allowances. The chapter appreciates the courteous reception.

Welltha Kip, chapter executive representative, reported on the County work shop held at Alexandria Bay and also on the proceedings of the executive meeting in Albany.

A report on the recent meeting in Massena with Mr. Farley, insurance representative, and Mr. Denny, local representative, was given. Several members drove to Massena on this meeting.

A moment of silent prayer was observed for Frederick Woodruff of Potsdam, who died recently. Mr. Woodruff was a 1st vice-president of the chapter who accomplished much for its members. Deepest sympathy is extended to his wife Lorraine, also a chapter member.

The Board voted in favor of supporting the introduction of the resolution relative to welfare salaries, and stressed the importance of working toward the successful passage of the resolution on vested rights in retirement. This affects every member, and the Board feels it should be given special attention.

A covered dish supper and meeting was held at the Canton Club for the Membership Committee Chairman Mary Manning of Ogdensburg expressed the hope that 1958 membership can still be increased, and requested that 1959 membership be renewed early and that each member bring in on new member. Personal contacts within separate groups was recommended by Mrs. Manning as the most successful process.

The chapter sends get-well wishes to Virginia Thompson of the Welfare Department who has been ill at home with a stubborn case of poison ivy.

Law Cases

Sidney M. Stern, counsel, reported to the New York City Civil Service Commission on the following law cases.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

Court of Appeals

Hatling v Hurd. Petitioner's position was reclassified downward from principal statistics clerk in the state department of agriculture and markets. She contended that such reclassification was arbitrary and thus unlawful. The Appellate Division, Third Department, held that the decision to reclassify his position in a lower grade as a matter of administrative judgment cannot be challenged because the court as a matter of law is required to accept the reclassification as justified. The court held that the reclassification was not unconstitutional. The Court of Appeals has unanimously affirmed without opinion.

Pearl v. N.Y.C. Department of Civil Service. Petitioner failed an oral test in a promotion examination and in this proceeding attacked the procedure and the rating given him. The Supreme Court, Albany County, dismissed the petition. A motion in the Court of Appeals to dismiss the appeal of petition was granted on the ground that no substantial constitutional question is presented. Now, a motion for leave to appeal to the Court of Appeals has been denied.

PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED

Reich, et al v Baumgartner. Petitioners seek to enjoin the assignment of public health sanitarians to perform the duties of senior public health sanitarians.

Adessa, et al v. City C.S. Commission. Petitioners, climbers and pruners, seek to vacate and set aside the resolution of February 11, 1958 which classified their position in salary grade 8. They claim that such grade does not provide the prevailing rate of wages.

WHERE TO RETIRE ON A SMALL INCOME

This book selects out of the hundreds of thousands of communities in the U.S. and its island territories only those places where living costs are low, where the surroundings are pleasant, and where nature and the community get together to guarantee a good time from fishing, gardening, concerts, or the like. The book never overlooks the fact that some people must get part-time or seasonal work to pad out their income.

It covers cities, towns, and farms throughout America—from New England south to Florida, west to California and north to the Pacific Northwest. It includes both Hawaii and American Virgin Islands. Some people spend hundreds of dollars trying to get information like this by traveling around the country. Frequently they fail—there is just too much of America to explore!

Where to Retire on a Small Income saves you from that danger. Yet the big NEW edition costs only $1.00.

ALL ABOUT ARIZONA

—the healthful state, where it's great to live and vacation

Just as a road map shows you how to reach your destination, Thomas E. Lester's big book, All About Arizona, the healthful state, leads you to whatever you want in this fast growing state of sun and scenic wonderlands.

What do you want to know about Arizona?

Where's the best place to retire at low cost? Where are summer cool? Winters, sunny most of the time? Where are the best areas for a job or a business of your own? For a home? What must a newcomer watch out for when buying a home? . . . of a home? How high are taxes? Is it true that living costs are less than in the East? What about salaries . . . schools for my children . . . my health?

Or do you want to tour Old Grand Canyon State? What's the best way to see Arizona? What is really worth seeing along the roads and down interesting side roads? Or in the cities, the national parks and the other four-star sights? What are those world-famous but relatively unknown four-star sights overshadowed by spectacular Grand Canyon? What is really the best way to see the Grand Canyon? The Indian reservations? The other Canyons? Which are the best places to eat and stay along the way?

What are the sure ways to cut travel costs in this big state?

Filled with facts, over a hundred thousand words in length, All About Arizona, the healthful state, almost brings Arizona to your door, answering these and a hundred other questions and giving you a richer, better picture of Arizona than many people have after living there for years.

To know all you should about Arizona before you go for a home, a job, a business of your own, retirement in the sun, or a vacation you'll always remember, read All About Arizona, the healthful state. Price Only $1.

BARGAIN PARADISES OF THE WORLD

Do you know where to find an island right near the U.S.—so nearby like Tahiti in appearance, beauty and color, even the natives say it was made from a rainbow? (And the costs here are so low you cannot only reach it but also stay awhile for hardly more than you'd spend at a resort in the U.S.)

Do you know where to find the world's best mountain hideaways or the most dazzling surf-washed coastal resorts, where even today you can live for a song?

Do you know where it costs less to spend awhile, the surroundings are pleasant, and the climate will high perfect in such places as Mexico, the West Indies and the world's other low cost wonderlands? Or which is the one spot world travelers call the most beautiful place on earth, where two can live in sheer luxury, with a retinue of servants, for only $175 a month?

BARGAIN PARADISES OF THE WORLD, a big new book with about 100 photos and 4 maps, proves that if you can afford a vacation in the U.S., the rest of the world is closer than you think. Author Norman D. Ford and William Rodgrave, honorary vice-presidents of the Globetrotters Club, show that the American dollar is respected all over the world and buys a lot more than you'd give it credit for.

Yes, if you're planning to retire, this book shows that you can live for months on end in the world's wonderlands for hardly more than you'd spend for a few months at home or if you've dreamed of taking time out for a real rest, this book shows how you can afford it.

In any case, when it can cost as little as $4.50 from the U.S. border to reach some of the world's Bargain Paradises, it's time you learned how much you can do on the money you've got. Send now for BARGAIN PARADISES OF THE WORLD. Price $1.50. Use coupon to order.

WHERE WILL YOU GO IN FLORIDA?

FLORIDA needn't be expensive—not if you know just where to go for whatever you seek in Florida. And if there's any man who can give you the facts you want it's Norman Ford, founder of the world-famous Globetrotters Club. (Yes, Florida is his home whenever he isn't traveling.)

His big book, Norman Ford's Florida, tells you, first of all, road by road, mile by mile, everything you'll find in Florida, whether you're on vacation or looking over job, business, real estate, or retirement prospects.

Always he names the hotels, motels, and restaurants where you can stop for the best accommodations and meals at the price you want to pay. For that longer vacation, if you let Norman Ford guide you, you'll find a real "paradise"—just the spot which has everything you want.

Of course, there's much more to this big book.

If You Want a Job or a Home in Florida

NORMAN FORD tells you just where to head, his talks with hundreds of personnel managers, businessmen, real estate operators, state officials, etc., lets him pinpoint the towns you want to know about, if you're going to Florida for a home, a job with a future, or a business of your own. If you've ever wanted to run a tourist court or own an orange grove, he tells you today's inside story of these popular investments.

If You Want to Retire on a Small Income

NORMAN FORD tells you exactly where you can retire now on the money you've got, whether it's a little or a lot. If you need a part time or seasonal job to help out your income, he tells you where to pick up extra income. Because Norman Ford always tells you where life in Florida is pleasant on a small income, he can help you to take life easy now.

Yes, no matter what you seek in Florida—whether you want to retire, vacation, get a job, buy a home, or start a business—Norman Ford's Florida gives you the facts you need to find exactly what you want. Yet this big book with plenty of maps and well over 100,000 words sells for only $7—only a fraction of the money you'd spend needlessly, if you went to Florida blind.

WHAT DO YOU WANT IN CALIFORNIA?

A job or a business of your own? A vacation in Hollywood, San Francisco, Yosemite, elsewhere in California—at a price you can afford? A place to retire on a small income? A home in the sun, with year-around spring-like days?

No matter what you seek in California, William Rodgrave's big book California—the State That Has Everything, shows you city by city, town by town, road by road, everything you'll find in this big state.

If you are vacationing, his clear and detailed facts just about guarantee you won't miss anything worth seeing, and you will welcome his long list of recommended restaurants, motels and hotels, where you can stop at the price you want to pay.

If you're looking for a job or a business of your own, California—the State That Has Everything gives you the facts you want. With William Rodgrave's help you'll find the California that appeals to you—within regions with just the degree of warmth and sunshine you want, with healthful and healthful priced within your means. If you're single, you'll find the best places to live for the fun and entertainment you want. If you're a family man, you'll find the best places to raise a family. If you want to retire, you'll find the pleasantest places in all California to live on a small income.

There's so much more to this book—the facts you need if you're thinking of living in a trailer, the best places to fish and hunt, where to go for a college education, what you'll pay in taxes, how best to find your own retirement or vacation paradise, etc., etc. There's so much information, in fact, that you probably wouldn't learn as much about California in months, even years, of traveling around this big state as you can learn from this one big book. Yet it costs only $2. Mail coupon today for your copy.

YOU AND RETIREMENT

By FRANCIS M. CASEY
Member, CSEA Field Staff

It has always seemed logical to me that an employee having worked for 25 years, regardless of age, should be entitled to a retirement allowance. Is any legislation planned for the coming legislative term toward a law permitting such retirement?

The CSEA has drafted and had introduced 25-year plan bills for many years; however, these bills would provide half pay after 25 years of service and the employee would have had to be at least 50 years of age. Such a bill, if passed and enacted into law, would increase the pension portion of the retirement allowance, the employer's share, and also require the employee to increase his contributions. It is expected that these bills will again be introduced at the next legislative session.

If a State employee, who is a member of the New York State Employees Retirement System passes away, will his widow receive his pension in a lump sum or monthly benefit checks?

If a member of the Retirement System passes away while in service, the designated beneficiary would receive, not a pension, but the return of his accumulated contribution plus a death benefit equal to one-twelfth of the compensation earned by such member during his last twelve months of service while a member, multiplied by the number of years, not to exceed twelve, of his total service credit. The two amounts may be paid in a lump sum or in the form of an annuity payable monthly.

31 NYC Employees Win $1,070 For Efficiency Ideas

General John Reed Kilpatrick, Chairman of the New York City Suggestion Award Board, announced that 31 awards for suggestions were approved by the Board. The cash awards total $1,070. They will be presented to the employees as soon as the Board of Estimate approves the Award Board's recommendations. The award winners are:

$300—Rose M. Lupo, Police Department.
$100—Vincent Corbellini, Parks.
$50—Karen E. Munch, Health; Thomas A. Reilly, Public Works; Charles T. Schumann, Matthew Zebro, and Vincent Bianculli, Sanitation and Margaret A. Hurley, Sheriff's Office.

Is there any movement on foot to increase the pensions of New York State retirees?

For the past four or five years the Civil Service Employees' Association has drafted and has had introduced in the legislature bills to increase retirement allowances for retired members of the retirement system, but have been unsuccessful in their efforts. It is expected that similar bills will be introduced during the 1959 legislative session.

Would you please explain the advantages of the new 55-year plan over the old plan, especially for a member already 55 years of age?

Under the old 55-year plan, section 71 of the Retirement and Social Security Law, when a member attained age 55, the factor of one-one hundred twentieth of final average salary multiplied by the number of years of member service rendered prior to age 55, used in determining the pension portion of the retirement allowance, reverted to the factor of one-one hundred fortieth for service rendered after age 55.

Under section 71a, the new 55-year plan, the factor of one-one hundred twentieth of final average salary is used in calculating the member service regardless of whether the service was rendered prior or subsequent to age 55. Since you are already 55 years of age, the new plan is most advantageous to you because all service rendered after age 55 would increase the pension portion of your retirement allowance approximately sixteen and two-thirds percent. The annuity portion would of a necessity be also increased, due to the increased contributions made by the member.

In the July 8 issue of THE LEADER you stated that a member of the State Employees' Retirement System may withdraw his accumulated contributions under certain conditions. Could you please explain why any employee, no matter what age, may not withdraw his accumulated contributions upon leaving his position?

Prior to July 1, 1943, every employee, who was a member of the retirement system, could, regardless of age, withdraw his accumulated contributions in a lump sum. The retirement system found through experience that where these withdrawals were made, in many cases, the funds were soon dissipated by bad investments or careless spending, consequently, to protect the member from losing, in a great many cases, his lifetime savings, and safeguard a retirement allowance for his old age, so that he would not become a public charge, the law was amended. Since all members of the Retirement System are covered by the Constitution of the State of New York which protects the benefits and rights of the member, the amendment could only apply to those who became members subsequent to July 1, 1943, when the amendment became effective.

The following eligibles have been certified for possible interviews for New York City jobs. More eligibles are certified than there are vacancies, so not all certified may be called now, but may be called soon. The highest number certified appears at the end.
