ALBANY MEN'S SOCCER EARNS FIRST NCAA BID SINCE 1978

ALBANY, N.Y. -- The University at Albany men's soccer team earned its first NCAA Tournament bid since 1978 when it was selected to the 32-team field on Sunday evening as the third seed in the Northeast Region.

Albany will play second-seed Plattsburgh State in the first round of the NCAA Division III Men's Soccer Championship this Saturday, November 5, in Rochester, N.Y. Rochester Institute of Technology, the top seed, meets Binghamton University, the fourth seed.

The Great Danes beat Plattsburgh earlier this season, 2-1, at Varsity Field, and last week upset Binghamton, 3-1 in overtime.

The NCAA berth is Albany's first since 1978, when they lost to Cortland State, 2-1, in the first round. Albany's last post-season appearance came in 1992, when UA won the ECAC Upstate New York Championship.

The Danes (10-4-2) are unbeaten in their last four games, and have reached the 10-win plateau for the fifth time in school history. Junior forward Chris Mogavero (15-3-33) leads the his team in goals and points, and has scored in five straight games. Junior goalkeeper Jon Jacobs has made 92 saves, and owns a 1.11 goals against average.

ALBANY'S JOE SAVINO NAMED ECAC ROOKIE OF THE WEEK
Andy Shein and Fred Daughtry Selected on ECAC Honor Roll

Albany, N.Y. -- University at Albany quarterback Joe Savino was selected as the ECAC Upstate New York Division III Rookie of the Week for his performance in a 45-20 victory at Norwich last Saturday.

Savino, who earned the award for the second time this season, passed for 214 yards on 11-of-21 attempts, and tied a school record with four touchdown passes. The 5'9", 165-pound freshman also rushed for 44 yards on 12 carries and scored on a one-yard run.

Savino, who has thrown for 200 or more yards in four games, set an Albany single-season passing mark with 1,283 yards. Jaan Laap held the old record with 1,196 yards in 1992.

Shein makes his fourth appearance on the ECAC Honor Roll this fall, after grabbing six passes for 139 yards and matching Ed Seller's record with three TD receptions. The senior flanker, who has 34 receptions for 662 yards and seven TD's, has reached the 100-yard mark in receiving yardage on four occasions.

Daughtry, a freshman safety, made his first collegiate start a memorable one. He tied an Albany single-game record with three interceptions, and had six tackles (five solo).

28th ANNUAL ALBANY CROSS COUNTRY INVITATIONAL SLATED FOR SATURDAY

Albany, N.Y. -- The University at Albany will host the 28th Annual Albany Men's and Women's Cross Country Invitational this Saturday, October 22. Sixty schools are scheduled to compete in four races for varsity, junior college, and junior varsity teams.

C.W. Post's Martin Ryan, who finished second in last year's R.K. Munsey men's varsity race with a time of 24:51.77 over the 8,000-meter course, highlights the field. Jeff Lyndaker, of St. Lawrence, also returns, after finishing fifth in 25:13.8 a year ago. Dartmouth ranked 10th in the latest NCAA Division I poll is the top men's team.

Michelle Fobert, from Salve Regina University in Rhode Island, will attempt to defend her women's title, after running 5,000 meters in 18:28.34 in last year's varsity competition. The Albany team, which was fourth at the Codfish Bowl Invitational in September, is led by sophomore Lisa Nesta and Tonya Dodge, of Granville Central High School.

Alfred State, the nation's third-ranked junior college men's team, features Craig Walion, a senior from nearby Watervliet High School.

1994 Albany Invitational Schedule

- 10:00 a.m. -- Adirondack USATF Development / Alumni Race

MARK WIMMER NAMED MEN'S LACROSSE HEAD COACH AT THE UNIVERSITY AT ALBANY

ALBANY, N.Y. -- Mark Wimmer, an assistant lacrosse coach for the last seven years at the University at Albany, has been elevated to head men's lacrosse coach, as Director of Athletics Dr. Milton E. Richards announced today.

Wimmer, who becomes the ninth head coach in the Albany program's 24-year history, takes over for former coach Steve O'Shea, who left the position to enter private business. During the last seven seasons, the Great Danes have compiled a 45-37 overall record, earned two ECAC Tournament appearances and posted five winning campaigns.

"Mark's knowledge of the program and our players will make for a smooth transition," Richards said. "His coaching and playing experiences will lend itself well as we move to NCAA Division II classification."

Wimmer, who was responsible for coordinating Albany's defense as an assistant, played long stick and close defense at Brockport State in the late 1970's. Last summer, he served as director of the Hudson Valley Community College Lacrosse Camp, and has been an assistant director at Camp Cobosee in Maine. He continues to play in the Lake Placid Summit and Mohawk Summer Club lacrosse leagues.

Originally from Columbus, Indiana, Wimmer, 39, attended Whitesboro (N.Y.) High School near Utica, where he was a member of the baseball team. He received his B.S. in business administration from Brockport in 1980, and earned a master's degree in history from the University at Albany in 1993. For the last 10 years, he has worked as a freelance photographer in the Capital District.
