Assn. Nails Liberalized Vacation and Sick Leave Rules for Which It Fought

ALBANY, Aug. 11 — John F. Powers, president of the Civil Service Employees Association, hailed the extension of the State Attendance Rules to per-diem and hourly employees as a progressive step forward. Mr. Powers stated:

"The Association, composed of more than 80,000 public employees in the State, is gratified by Governor Harriman's action in approving the extension of the State Attendance Rules coverage to State employees paid on a per-diem and hourly basis under certain conditions proposed by the State Civil Service Commission. "Our Association has sought for some time annual pay status for per-diem and hourly employees who work throughout the entire year and for equitable vacation, sick leave, and other arrangements for per-diem and hourly employees.

"The amendment just approved is a big step in the right direction as it extends the application of the State Attendance Rules to give to per-diem and hourly employees who complete nine months' service the same vacation, sick leave, personal leave and other arrangements as are accorded to permanent employees. Our Association will continue its efforts to gain fully equitable treatment for these employees."

Annual Basis Status Sought

The amendment to the State Attendance Rules extends to State per-diem and hourly employees who complete nine months' service and work on a regularly scheduled work week of at least 3 1/2 hours per day and five days a week the same personal, sick leave, vacation, and other leave arrangements. The nine months' continuous service required has to be without a break in service exceeding one payroll period.

The CSEA estimated that there are about 5,000 State employees who work the year round, but are paid on a per-diem or hourly basis, but should be paid on an annual basis. CSEA in the past tried to provide for hourly pay and Attendance Rule application for these employees who completed six months' service. The Association also tried to correct the situation by legislation in the past.

Other Benefits Conferred

Other amendments to the Attendance Rules approved by the Governor grant vacation earnings to employees who are on the payroll at least seven work days in a bi-weekly pay period. Previously an employee received no vacation or sick leave earnings unless he was in full pay status during the entire period. CSEA had requested that the rule be amended so that employees on the payroll for half the work days or more in a pay period should receive such sick leave and vacation earnings.

Another amendment approved provides greater sick leave at half pay after all sick leave, vacation, and overtime credits have been used by an ill employee. Under the old rules, the maximum of one pay period at half pay for each year of service could be granted, and under the amendment just approved, the appointing authority may grant up to two pay periods for each complete year of service, providing the employee has at least one year of service.

Hearing Held On Appeal For Upgrading Matrons

ALBANY, Aug. 11—A salary hearing was held in the new Campus Site Civil Service Building on the appeal for reallocation of the position of correction matron from Grade 8 to Grade 11. To make the grade the same as that of correction officer. The hearing officer was J. Earl Kelly, Director of Classification and Compensation. He was assisted by Robert Doolittle of his staff.

CSEA Never Let Up

For 10 years the Civil Service Employees Association has fought vigorously to gain equal pay status for women guards, to implement the principle of "equal pay for equal work." The delegates of the Association, at their annual meetings, have discussed this problem since 1948, and the Association has repeatedly demanded of the State agencies concerned that the upgradings be accomplished. Hearings were held in 1951 and 1954.

Backed by Correction Department

One of the most important late developments was the formal approval by the Department of Correction of the same pay grade for the correction matrons that correction officers get. Lawrence Kerwin, departmental personnel administrator, representing the department, spoke in line with what Correction Commissioner Thomas J. McHugh wrote Mr. Kelly on October 30, 1957, supporting the reallocation appeal. The Commissioner stated then that he felt the duties of the position of matron are similar in scope and responsibility to those of correction officer, and warranted a commensurate base salary. The Commissioner advised that he "had a letter from John F. Powers, president of the Civil Service Employees Association, requesting support for reallocation of correction matron from Grade 8 to Grade 11."

New Policy Called a Factor

The Director of Classification and Compensation at the hearing stated that one reason for reconsideration of the problem is the department's new operating policy on the relation of the rates of pay between male and female correction officers.

After reviewing the history of the matron position, the Association representatives pointed out that other leading public jurisdictions, such as the Federal government, New York City, and the State of California, pay the same rate for their male and female guards, that matrons have essentially the same duties and responsibilities for the rehabilitation and custody of the same kind of inmate, whether they be male or female, that female guards were subjected to the same hazards, had the same duties and responsibilities as the male guards, and therefore should be paid the same rate of pay to implement the principle of "equal pay for equal work."

Appearances Listed

Appearing on behalf of the Civil Service Employees Association were Harry W. Albright, assistant counsel; Henry Galpin, research analyst; and James Adams, correction officer, departmental representative on the Association's board of directors. Representatives from each of the institutions directly concerned — Albion and Westfield—also appeared in support of the appeal.

In the absence of Al Foster, president of the Correction Conference Edward O'Leary, vice president, a guard at Elmira, attended the hearing, and Charles Lamb, the Conference secretary, spoke on behalf of the matrons.

Others attending the hearing included Ann Kinnear for the Prison Officer Association; Mary Orlando, president, Albion chapter, CSEA; and Harriet Sier, president, Westfield chapter, CSEA. Mary Houghton, an original appellant, also spoke for the matrons. Several other matrons from both institutions attended a pre-hearing conference at CSEA headquarters as well as the hearing.

The Director of Classification and Compensation expressed a hope for an early decision. He commented that several State agencies are involved and that the problem is complex.

Statement by Powers

In commenting on the matron salary problem, Mr. Powers said: "Our Association has vigorously and enthusiastically supported the matrons over the past ten years in their fight for equal pay with correction officers. We believe that the strong support of our position by the Correction Department will certainly be an important factor in Mr. Kelly's determination of the matter. It is my most sincere hope that we have made some headway through our participation in the formal hearing."

Rise in Inflation Prophesied; Dire Significance of That Threat

THERE ARE FOREBODINGS that a new inflationary spiral is in the making. The recent decisions of the steel companies to increase their price per ton serves as an indicator. Also, just before and after the steel companies' decision, there were price rises which will affect millions of people. The cost of locker rental in air, rail, and bus terminals of the transportation systems has risen from 10 cents to 20 cents, and the cost of sending mail has also increased. Some of the book clubs have written to their subscribers that they "have found it increasingly difficult to maintain the special price at which the selections are made available" due to "the spiral of increased costs," and therefore—"the continued pressure of the steadily rising costs now heightened by the sharp increase in postal rates—makes it necessary for us to add a postal and handling charge—"

Most writers on economics are anticipating a general price rise, and a cartoonist in the New York Tribune dimly depicts in a drawing captioned "Won't Someone Please Stop It?", the dire effects of a "runaway inflation" due to the "steel price rise."

Body Politic Would Suffer

All of these indicators should have a sobering effect upon the American people. By an upward swirling in the cost of living—even if accompanied by wage increases—they stand to lose more than they stand to gain. The public employee, in particular, is being faced with a bleak prospect. In only rare instances have his wages ever been on an equal footing with those in industry, and the system of financing under which he operates precludes any quick or easy adjustment to a rising price index. At the close of the last legislative session in New York State, the State worker was lagging about 5 percent behind the industrial salary. Since March, the cost-of-living index has risen steadily. Respondent wage increases in industry have occurred during this period, so that now the state worker is further behind his March differential. All of the indications point to the fact that January, 1959, will find him definitely victimized by inflationary forces. With all of these factors before us, it is imperative that the executive and legislative agencies think positively in terms of a state salary increase. It is imperative, also, that the public worker marshal his facts and prepare his campaign. The spokesman for the vast majority of New York State civil servants—the Civil Service Employees Association—is working on just these problems.

YOU AND RETIREMENT

By FRANCIS M. CASEY
Member, CSEA Field Staff

Will you kindly furnish the following information relative to our retirement. What is the formula for figuring the annuity portion for each thousand dollars for the ages 65 to 70 under options 1, 2, and 3; also the pension portion?

Since there are three mortality tables used by the retirement system, applicable to date of membership in the retirement system; and also since there are many other factors to be considered, it is not possible to answer your question in the absence of all the necessary information.

I have just completed ten years of service and I am 55 years of age. What shall I do to attempt a resignation without losing the tiny, but badly needed monthly pension in the 55-year plan, with only 10 years of service?

Since you are in the 55-year plan and have attained age 55, you are eligible to retire regardless of the number of years of allowable service. You must file your application with the Employees' Retirement System at least 30 and not more than 60 days prior to the effective date of your retirement. An application may be secured by writing to the New York State Employees' Retirement System, 90 So. Swan Street, Albany, New York.

What happens to the fund invested by the employee when he dies? Does his beneficiary get it and if so, how much?

If you are a member of the State Employees' Retirement System and die before the effective date of your retirement, and are in service upon which your membership is based when you die, or were on the payroll in such service and paid within a period of 12 months prior to your death, and not gainfully employed since you ceased to be on such payroll, and if you have credit for one or more years of service while actually a member, your beneficiary would receive your accumulated contributions with accrued interest, also a death benefit of one-twelfth of your salary earned during the last twelve months of service while a member, multi-

2 State Titles Upgraded; 3 New Ones

Principal payroll examiner, from grade 19 to 20, from $6,140-$7,490 to $6,450-$7,800.

Three New Titles

The following titles have been added:

Associate in education of the crippled, grade 24, $7,890-$9,540.

Associate in education of the vision and hearing handicapped, grade 24, $7,890-$9,540.

Senior property sales examiner, grade 14, $4,770-$5,860.

Senior structural specifications writer, grade 23, $7,500-$9,090.

Titles Eliminated

The following title has been eliminated: Senior trial attorney, grade 25, $8,310-$10,020.

Supervisor of art education, from grade 25 to grade 26, from $8,310-$10,020 to $8,750-$10,520.

Supervisor of citizenship education, from grade 25 to grade 26, from $8,310-$10,020 to $8,750-$10,520.

Supervisor of english education, from grade 25 to grade 26, from $8,310-$10,020 to $8,750-$10,520.

Supervisor of foreign languages education, from grade 25 to grade 26, from $8,310-$10,020 to $8,750-$10,520.

Supervisor of mathematics education, from grade 25 to grade 26, from $8,310-$10,020 to $8,750-$10,520.

Supervisor of music education, from grade 25 to grade 26, from $8,310-$10,020 to $8,750-$10,520.

Supervisor of science education, from grade 25 to grade 26, from $8,310-$10,020 to $8,750-$10,520.

Chaplain, from grade 17 to grade 18, $5,550-$6,730 to $5,840-$7,130.

Applications for salary grade changes were filed with the Director of Classification and Compensation, State Civil Service Department during July for transfer agent in Mental Hygiene Institutions, and for lead laundry supervisor in Correction Institutions. While these originated in these departments, other employees or appointing officers may participate in the applications, if desired.

plified by the number of years, not to exceed 12, of your total service credit.

I am a member of the State Retirement System, and I am planning on retiring shortly. I have been told that I cannot receive my benefits in a lump sum but must receive it month by month. Is this correct?

If you retire from service, you may not receive your benefits in a lump sum. Your retirement allowance will be payable on the first day of each and every month beginning on the first day of the month following the effective date of retirement. You may, however, under certain conditions, withdraw your accumulated contributions plus accrued interest in lieu of a retirement allowance, but you would not receive one penny of the pension portion, that part of the retirement allowance paid for you by your employer.

CSEA HAILS GAINS WON

a number of additional improvements in the State Attendance Rules, which proposals were reviewed in a recent issue.

Getting It Straight

Another employee organization, which has a very small membership among State employees, in its official publication "State Employee News," June, 1958 issue, published inaccurate information concerning the Attendance Rule changes. In that publication, it is reported that the State Civil Service Commission adopted a proposed change in the Attendance Rules which would grant leave with full pay up to six months in cases of disability resulting from job injury. The truth is that the present Attendance Rules already provide such discretionary leave, and the State Civil Service Commission has not proposed any change relative to this provision. The CSEA has recommended to the State Civil Service Commission a change in this leave arrangement for employees injured in line of duty to provide more equitable treatment for employees. Apparently the other organization thinks the battle is won on this particular point.

In the same publication, it also claimed that "allowances for sick leave for other than job injury would be increased to full pay from present half pay."

The State Civil Service Commission did not propose any such change, and this report by the union is untrue and should be disregarded by State employees.

MENTAL HYGIENE MEMO

By A. J. COCCARO

PERSONNEL SERVICES—Another major step in providing our hospital employees with increased personnel services was taken by the department when Neal Walsh was appointed associate personnel administrator at the Central Islip Hospital.

His duties include personnel problems, interviewing applicants, grievances and employee training programs.

This appointment will relieve to a great extent the physician administrator of personnel duties and enable him to spend more time on medical problems and patient rehabilitation.

To operate a more effective occupational therapy program, to increase training opportunities for O. T. personnel and to spur recruitment, the Department has announced that the O. T. Director, Virginia Scullen, has been granted an assistant's item. The provisional appointment of assistant director of occupational therapy went to Mrs. Viola McGrath of Kings Park.

Many Civil Service Employees Association chapters have established excellent relationships with the hospital administrators. This enables them to solve common problems.

Guests at the Metropolitan Conference Jones Beach affair included Directors Nathan Beckenstein, M.D., of Brooklyn State; Charles Buckman, M.D., Kings Park; and Harry LaBurt, M.D., Creedmoor.

It was with special interest that this reporter noted an article in the Seneca Echo, CSEA chapter organ at the Willard State Hospital, discussing the cost of living index, based on our Mental Hygiene Memo entitled "Civil Service and Politics."

The second season of the Mental Hygiene Employees Softball League is well under way. The League has been operating successfully to the advantage of both employees and the patients of the hospital. Many thanks to the moving forces behind the League, Ernie Palcic, and Frank DiMaria, of Letchworth Village, and Joseph Anderson, of Creedmoor.

Harriman Asks Barge Canal Shifts

ALBANY, Aug. 11 — Governor Harriman has recommended that State-owned Barge Canal terminal facilities at Oswego, consisting of a grain elevator, warehouse and docking facilities, be turned over without cost to the newly-created Oswego Port Authority.

The Governor approved a procedure under which the Niagara Frontier Port Authority is authorized to acquire similar canal facilities in Buffalo.

The Governor's recommendation regarding the Oswego property was contained in a letter to Secretary of State Carmine G. De Sapio, Chairman of the Board of Commissioners of the State Land Office.

Levitt Asks His Party To Back Vested Rights

State Comptroller Arthur Levitt, addressing the platform committee of the Democratic Party at Peekskill, recommended that the party support the proposal for vested rights in the State Employees Retirement System.

He added that death benefits paid to the beneficiary of a member who dies in service should be increased on the basis of length of service to a maximum of two years' salary. He also supported another opportunity for employees to elect Social Security coverage, who refused the opportunity offered last year.

Girls' School Opens Branch in Troy

ALBANY, Aug. 11 — New York State Training School for Girls has opened a Troy branch in the former Pawling Sanatorium. More Deductions Coming Prepare yourself for another cut in your take-home pay. This is election year for many U. S. Senators and Congressmen and every election year since 1948 increased social security benefits have been voted. It will happen again this year. The plan with the most popular appeal calls for a 10 percent raise to all social security beneficiaries. This will add over 700 million dollars to benefits now being paid, and your social security taxes will go up.

Two plans are being considered. One would raise the income ceiling subject to tax from $4,200 yearly to $4,800 a year. The second plan would increase your tax from 2 1/2 to 2 3/4 percent. Either way, be prepared to take home less money.

Increased Benefits Cost Money

The State employee's check keeps shrinking like a non-Sanforized shirt. Said check has shrunk to the point where literally thousands of employees are being choked. The cost of living keeps moving upward, school taxes keep hitting new ceilings, auto insurance keeps going up, repairs, maintenance, services are constantly setting new records, while thousands of State workers are taking home less pay now than in 1954! This shrinkage of pay has been accomplished by social security payments and increases in the hospital-medical plan. Add to this the fact that many employees have had no salary raise in the past four years and you begin to realize the extent of their suffering.

Wait—I'm not finished. The First National Bank of New York has just issued the results of a study showing that the dollar has depreciated 9 percent in purchasing power the past four years. Soaring costs, new benefits, increased taxes, depreciated dollars, are playing havoc with the State worker's check.

My Own Ideas

Years ago, Eddie Cantor, the great entertainer, popularized a song, "If I were President." He went on to tell in song what he would do if elected president. I can't sing or dance like Eddie but, with profoundest apologies to that grand star: "If I were Governor," I would call a special session of the State Legislature and call for a substantial raise for State employees. At this time it is only fair to note that the Governor at the last session included in his budget a small raise for these employees, which was deleted from the budget by the Legislature.

I would go on television and explain to the taxpayers the critical situation which confronts State civil servants. I would take a bold, militant stand for those faithful employees who are responsible for good, everyday efficient government in New York State. I would once again prove by words and deeds that former President Truman was right when he said, speaking of Governor Harriman, "although born a millionaire, he has fought poverty all over the world."

Raises Assured For District of Columbia Police and Firemen

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11—District of Columbia policemen, firemen, park and White House police will receive salary increases averaging 13.8 percent, retroactive to January 1. The increases have been approved by the Senate and the bills have been sent to the President.

This brings the starting pay for a private from $4,193 to $4,800 a year, and the maximum pay for a private from $5,635 to $6,840. Teachers were granted an 13 percent increase. The Senate Committee which sponsored the bill described this as inadequate, but said that it was the best bill they could get through this session.

GREENBERG INSPECTS LONG ISLAND INSTITUTIONS

ALBANY, Aug. 11—Senator Samuel L. Greenberg, ranking minority member of the Senate Finance Committee, has been concentrating on the Long Island area in a one-man inspection tour of State institutions.

On the Senator's itinerary are Sunken Meadow State Park, Captree Park, the Coe Estate, Stony Brook and Farmingdale. The latter three all are State University installations.

Mr. Greenberg also will visit Roswell Park State Hospital in Buffalo.

An Issue That Runs Deep

THE BATTLE for sole collective bargaining rights now raging in the New York City Police Department has wide ramifications. The Patrolmen's Benevolent Association has asked Mayor Robert F. Wagner to grant it such rights. Now Police Commissioner Stephen P. Kennedy has repeated that he is opposed to any organization getting assigned to duties of the higher grade, though provisional sole bargaining rights for policemen. The PBA thus takes open issue with the Commissioner. Local 237 of the Teamsters, that started organizing policemen several months ago, also wants sole rights, but asks that an election be held in which the policemen themselves will choose which organization, if any, union included, should represent them exclusively. Thus the two rival organizations agree at least on one point, that public employees should have the right to be exclusively represented by one agent. The PBA, however, asks that sole right be accorded to it through executive order.

No Geographical Limit

The wide ramifications apply to public employees all over the United States: exclusive representation, and how it is to be attained. All employees should favor the sole bargaining plan. Those organizations whose membership represents nearly all of the potential now have at least approximately sole rights, if not literally, at least in a practical sense. All they would want is that it be made official. They certainly are not asking for anything excessive or peculiar.

New York City has a labor relations plan, established by executive order of Mayor Robert F. Wagner, that permits sole bargaining rights being accorded, and under that plan the Uniformed Sanitationmen's Association, Local 831, Teamsters, was the first to get such rights.

Regulations, also issued by executive order, prescribe how elections are to be held, whereby the employees would vote their preference.

A Police Department rule prohibits policemen from joining a union, and the Police Commissioner threatens punishment of violations of that rule, yet Local 237 reports it is signing up more policemen as members every day. It holds that the rule is illegal. The rule has the approval of the PBA's newly elected officers.

The Long-Range Objective

The question may be argued whether any different treatment should be accorded to policemen than to other employees. The executive order does not specifically include them in its scope. A previous interim order excluded them. Historically they have not been included in grants of rights, one of the complaints some policemen make. Many of them, besides those who joined Local 237, no doubt feel that policemen should have the same right to choose as do other employees, and not be subjected to special restrictions.

The situation in the New York City Police Department may seem unique, but the principle at stake is not. And that is that public employees, policemen in particular, want to be brought on a par with employees in private industry in the enjoyment of rights commonly regarded as implicit in citizenship itself, and often confirmed by statute as well.

If a public employee organization proves by vote that it is entitled to sole collective bargaining rights, it should have them. Why not?

Patient Persistence

SINCE government is slow to move, employees seeking gains have their choice of patient persistence or impetuous militancy.

The history of gains won by the Civil Service Employees Association throughout the years tends to prove that patient persistence and soundness of goals pay off better than radicalism.

The most recent example of CSEA success is the liberalization of sick leave and vacation rules for State employees on a per-diem or hourly basis. Formerly these employees were not accorded the same benefits under the Attendance Rules as were employees on a per-annum status. Now equality prevails at last, if per-diem and hourly employees meet certain reasonable minimum requirements. Other improvements for which the CSEA fought just as vigorously are included in the amendments.

Now the CSEA is stepping up its drive to obtain per-annum status for employees who are per-diem only on a pay basis, for they work the year round. The record augurs well for equal success for this worthy goal.

Promotions a Keystone

PROMOTIONS cost money. The promoted employee's salary increases, as a rule. There are anomalous exceptions, peculiar to civil service, and difficult to prevent, though the cases become fewer if one gets "promoted" to a job at lower pay than he was getting in the lower title. The reason, if you can call it that, may be overlapping grades. The employee was getting more than the minimum of the new grade. Some jurisdictions guarantee an employee against any pay loss on promotion.

The main consideration is that government must become more and more promotion-minded, provide more promotion opportunities, and not let fiscal policy dictate personnel policy. When employees in a lower grade are assigned to duties of the higher grade, while provisional promotion arises, it often arises both without any additional pay for the employee, and raises both legal and ethical objectives to the denial of opportunities promised to promotion eligibles. There may be special reasons in some instances for conferring higher duties on employees in lower titles but we'd rather leave the defense of that practice to others.

We have said before that every public employee organization should appoint a promotion committee, so that one group will be constantly alert to the necessity of spurring officials—civil service commissions and appointing officers—to fulfill the promise of promotion opportunities. Advancement is obtained as a rule through examinations, and in the competitive service certainly so, therefore unless promotion is made and kept a live issue, what was advertised as a career could easily become something quite different, and we wouldn't want anything like that to happen.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

ROSSITER AYS TRIBUTE TO CSEA'S EFFECTIVENESS

For the past 48 years the Civil Service Employees Association has been representing the interests of State employees. Most of our gains have not come the easy way. Nothing has been handed to us on a golden platter. The CSEA has never stopped fighting for its members and has doggedly clung to its principles of devotion, dedication and fair play.

For the past several years another organization has stepped into the picture, signing up a few members, mostly in the institutions, and sniping at us. Now in a democracy, this is the exercise of an acknowledged right.

Recently the Nohr bill for State employees became a reality. We had fought for years for this legislation. It was a CSEA bill. Everyone was happy.

Our competitor began to take credit for this bill.

All of a sudden that same competing organization is worried about the Mental Hygiene attendant. Why? The CSEA understands the attendant's problems and for years has striven to improve the lot of these devoted public servants who are the backbone of the Mental Hygiene institutions. We feel that the attendants will not be misled by the tactics of the opposition.

The CSEA is an organization of 80,000 members, the largest of its kind in the United States.

Lately we have been reading more about the non-members. Some organizations compel workers to become members and dues are deducted from pay checks. Although we dislike non-members and slackers who ride on the coat-tails of their fellow employees (whose dues made legislative advances possible for slackers also) we do not subscribe to this practice.

In New York State, the civil servant is not compelled to become a member of any employee organization. Threats, insults, coercion cannot be used. Membership is entirely voluntary. Thus the large membership roll is an added tribute to the CSEA, and shows where the employees stand.

CSEA membership is increasing each year. The deduction of dues, made from payroll, only 30 cents a pay day, is very low when one realizes that every honest effort is being made to help him. Chapter, Conference and Association officers and committees devote many long hours of work without pay.

BILL ROSSITER,
Mental Hygiene
Representative,
CSEA

WISELY APPOINTED TO PUBLIC HEALTH COUNCIL

ALBANY, Aug. 11—Governor Harriman appointed William H. Wisely of 12 Windsor Lane, Scarsdale, as a member of the Public Health Council to succeed Dean Thorndike Saville of Riverdale, who resigned. Mr. Wisely is executive secretary of the American Society of Civil Engineers. A sanitary engineer, he was graduated from the University of Illinois. Members of the council receive $1,710 a year.

TIFFANY RETIRES

ALBANY, Aug. 11—Stewart D. Tiffany, superintendent of the Schenectady Armory, has retired after 20 years of state service. In addition to his state career, Mr. Tiffany has had a distinguished military record dating back to 1906. He joined state service in 1938 when he was named as an armory laborer. He became assistant engineer at the Schenectady Armory in 1944, engineer in 1950 and was appointed superintendent in 1954.

RESTRICTIONS ON JOBS FOR PENSIONED PUBLIC EMPLOYEES

By JAMES QUINLIVAN

PENSIONERS and future pensioners of public employee retirement systems are concerned with the problem of supplementing their retirement allowances by taking full-time or part-time employment after retirement. Many prefer to do this in public service; however, the rules do not always permit.

Rules of New York City Retirement systems vary as to what jobs a pensioner may take. There is a maximum salary he may accept, and there is a restriction against the agencies or units of government with which he may accept employment.

A check with the New York State Employees' Retirement System revealed that employment of one of its pensioners by the Federal government, or any State or local government outside New York State, is permitted without limit. Pensioners may take jobs with New York State or its communities if the aggregate of the employer-paid pension and the compensation from the new job does not exceed $1,800 a year. If the two together do exceed $1,800, the pension part of the retirement allowance (of course, not the annuity) only will be forfeited. This rule does not apply to jobs as inspector of election, poll clerk, or ballot clerk under the election law, or commissioner of deeds, or notary public, or jury duty.

Exception Provided

An exception to the $1,800 a year maximum was enacted this year for teachers under the New York City Teachers' Retirement System. The aggregate of salary and pension must not exceed $3,000, a new high. This exception was made because of the shortage of Teachers in New York City.

Virtually the same rules apply to those retired under the New York City Police Department and Fire Department Pension Funds, except that police pensioners may accept employment with one of the New York City Authorities (e.g. Housing, Transit) without jeopardizing any part of their pension. The Fire Department Pension Fund provides no such exception.

There are no restrictions against holding jobs in private industry.

Federal Scene

Retirees under the Federal system may accept employment with any state, city, or local government, without limitation. They may even return to work for the Federal government, but the amount of the pension they are receiving will be deducted from the salary allocated to the job, so that, in effect, they will receive only the job salary. Federal employees retired because of disability should take care that their new employment is acceptable under the provisions of their disability retirement.

State Provisions

The New York State law provides that employees on retirement from the New York State Employees Retirement System whose annual retirement allowance is less than $3,500 may earn up to $1,800 in part-time or casual public employment without it affecting the retirement benefit provided by the State Retirement System.

Now that many public employee pensioners are also becoming Social Security pensioners, the job income, whether in private or public employ, could reduce the Social Security pension. The maximum earnable without reduction, or suspension, as it's called, is $1,200, but one may earn as much as he can in any one month. Only those months in which income from gainful employment exceeds $80 invoke the suspension rule, and then only after the $1,200 figure is reached.

Law Cases

Sidney M. Stern, counsel, reported to the New York City Civil Service Commission on the following law cases.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

Court of Appeals.

Mandle v Brown. The court pointed out that petitioner did not challenge the plan of reclassification and the designation of positions, but attacked merely the slotting into those positions of the present incumbents, claiming that this should not have been done without a promotional examination. The court held that a reclassification which conforms the civil service structure to the realities which obtained in the operation of the agency prior to reclassification is valid and if assignments were made pursuant thereto they would not constitute promotions within the meaning of the Constitution and the Civil Service Laws. In the present case, the court said, there is a triable issue as to whether the assignment of incumbents to positions of senior attorney, supervising attorney and principal attorney in the corporation counsel's office was actually a recognition of the facts as they existed prior to reclassification. If upon a hearing it is found that there was no rational basis upon which respondents could determine that one or more persons had prior to reclassification performed the duties assigned after reclassification, the appointment of such person or persons may be invalidated without disturbing appointments which were validly made. The matter was remitted to Special Term for further proceedings not inconsistent with the court's opinion.

Supreme Court, Oswego County

Corsall v. Gov't. The court in this case held that employment as a teacher and coach in a public school system did not terminate automatically upon assumption by the teacher of office of mayor of the city, since the two offices are not incompatible.

Study Aid for NYC Fireman Exam

The following continues the questions and answers in the last fireman test held by New York City.

14. A fireman has complained to his lieutenant about drafts from loosely fitting windows in the bunk area of the firehouse. Several weeks pass and the condition has not been corrected. Of the following, the most appropriate action for the fireman to take at this time is to (A) ask the captain if the lieutenant has reported his complaint (B) ask his lieutenant how the matter is coming along (C) circulate a petition among the other members of the company to have this condition corrected (D) write to the office of the Chief of the Department about the matter (E) write to the Uniformed Firemen's Association about the matter.

15. In answering an alarm, it is found that the fire has been caused by "smoking in bed," setting fire to the mattress. The man is safe but the mattress is blazing. After putting out the flame, the mattress should be (A) turned over and left on the bed (B) immediately ripped open and the stuffing examined (C) taken into the bathroom and soaked in the tub (D) taken to the street and the stuffing examined (E) thoroughly soaked in place by means of a hose stream.

16. As a probationary fireman, you get an idea for improving equipment maintenance and mention it to an older member. At the next company inspection, your superior officer publicly praises this man for his excellent suggestion — but it is your idea. The action you should take in this situation is to (A) tell the other members of the company the whole story after the inspection (B) ask for advice from another older member (C) forget about the incident since this man will probably be helpful to you in return (D) do nothing about it but next time make your suggestion to your superior officer (E) warn the older man that you won't permit him to get away with stealing your idea.

17. The first rule of hosemen is to place themselves in the line of travel of a fire whenever possible. Of the following, the most valid reason for this rule is that (A) danger to firemen from heat and smoke is reduced (B) shorter lines are necessary (C) the opportunity to control the fire is increased (D) danger to fire equipment is reduced (E) life-saving rescues are facilitated.

18. Of the following types of fires, the one which presents the greatest danger from poisonous gas fumes is a fire (A) in drugs (B) in groceries (C) in cotton cloth (D) in paper (E) in unfinished furniture.

19. Fires in prisons and mental hospitals are particularly dangerous to life chiefly because their inmates usually (A) live under crowded conditions (B) live in locked rooms (C) ignore fire safety regulations (D) deliberately start fires (E) cannot be trusted with fire extinguishers.

20. "In fighting fires, use the smallest amount of water sufficient to put out the fire." In general, this advice is (A) good; mainly because it will conserve the water supply (B) bad; mainly because it will increase the danger of the fire spreading (C) good; mainly because it will require the use of fewer hose lines (D) bad; mainly because it will take longer to put out the fire (E) good; mainly because it will reduce water damage.

21. The Fire Department has criticized the management of several hotels in New York City for failure to call the Fire Department promptly when fires are discovered. The most probable reason for this delay by the management is that (A) fire insurance rates are affected by the number of fires reported (B) most fires are extinguished by the hotels' staff before the Fire Department arrives (C) hotel guests frequently report fires erroneously (D) it is feared that hotel guests will be alarmed by the arrival of fire apparatus (E) many fires smolder for a long time before they are discovered.

22. A fireman, taking some clothing to a dry cleaner in his neighborhood, noticed that inflammable cleaning fluid was stored in a way which created a fire hazard. The fireman called this to the attention of the proprietor, explaining the danger involved. This method of handling the situation was (A) bad; the fireman should not have interfered in a matter which was not his responsibility (B) good; the proprietor would probably remove the hazard and be more careful in the future (C) bad; the fireman should have reported the situation to the fire inspector's office without saying anything to the proprietor (D) good; since the fireman was a customer, he should treat the proprietor more leniently than he would treat other violators (E) bad; the fireman should have ordered the proprietor to remove the violation immediately and issued a summons.

23. Traditionally firemen have attacked fires with solid streams of water from hose lines. A new development in fire fighting is to break up the solid water stream as it leaves the hose nozzle into a large number of tiny droplets, called a fog stream. Of the following claimed advantages of a solid stream, as compared to a fog stream, the one that is most valid is that a solid stream (A) has greater cooling effect per gallon of water (B) causes less water damage (C) results in less drain on the water supply (D) involves less risk of walls collapsing (E) can be used at a greater distance from the fire.

24. A fireman caught a civilian attempting to re-enter a burning building despite several warnings to stay outside of the fire lines. The civilian insisted frantically that he must save some very valuable documents from the fire. The fireman then called a policeman to remove the civilian. The fireman's action was (A) wrong; it is bad public relations to order people about (B) right; the fireman is charged with the responsibility of protecting lives (C) wrong; the fireman should have explained to the civilian why he should not enter the building (D) right; civilians must be excluded from the fire zone (E) wrong; every person has a right to risk his own life as he sees fit.

25. A lieutenant orders a fireman to open the windows in a room filled with smoke. He starts with the window nearest the entrance and follows the wall around the room until all the windows are opened. The most important reason for using this procedure is that he can (A) avoid stumbling over furniture (B) breathe the fresher air near the walls (C) locate unconscious persons at the same time (D) avoid the weakened floor in the middle of the room (E) find his way back to the entrance.

26. "One purpose of building inspections is to enable the fire department to plan its operations before a fire starts." This statement is (A) incorrect; no two fires are alike (B) correct; many fire-fighting problems can be anticipated (C) incorrect; fires should be prevented, not extinguished (D) correct; the fire department should have detailed plans for every possible emergency (E) incorrect; fires are not predictable.

27. A recent study in New York City showed that false alarms occur mostly between noon and 1 P.M. and between 3 and 10 P.M. The most likely explanation of these results is many false alarms are sent by (A) school children (B) drunks (C) mental defectives (D) arsonists (E) accident victims.

28. A superintendent of a large apartment house discovered a fire in a vacant apartment. After notifying the fire department, he went to the basement and shut off the central air conditioning system. In so doing, the superintendent acted (A) wisely; escape of gas fumes from the air conditioning system was prevented (B) unwisely; the fire would have been slowed down by the cooling effect of the air conditioning (C) wisely; the air conditioning system was protected from damage by the fire (D) unwisely; the air conditioning system would have expelled smoke from the building (E) wisely; spread of the fire by means of a forced draft was prevented.

14.B; 15.D; 16.D; 17.C; 18.A; 19.B; 20.D; 21.D; 22.B; 23.E; 24.B; 25.E; 26.E; 27.A; 28.E; 29.

The Manhattan State Hospital chapter officers and members welcome into the CSEA the following new members: Almeda Gardner, Barbara Robinson, Murray Colmer, Agnes Rimann, and Arlene M. Fong.

The next regular meeting of the chapter will be held in the Assembly Hall at the Hospital during the second week of September. The date will be announced. This will be one of the most important meetings of the year because the legislative matters which affects our salaries, pensions and other benefits will be the topic of discussion and preparation. Your delegates will be going to Albany in October, and they must be advised and directed as to your needs. We all have known that every trip to the grocer is a strong reminder of the inadequate pay we are receiving these days. It is also good to keep in mind that election time is rolling around again for the politicians, and our bitter disappointment when our pay increases were juggled around until there were no pay increases.

Deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs. Margaret Pfaff on the recent death of her husband, and to Erick Eich, on the loss of his wife.

The following employees are on the sick list and we hope they will recover soon: Chris Sullivan, Anthony Sayers, Matt Walsh and Ed. Fletcher.

The recent death of Henry Schumborn has left an empty spot. Deepest sympathy is extended to his wife and family.

The chapter's blood donor program will be resumed in September, and it is hoped that the usual fine response will be given by the employees.

Ray Brook

About 200 members and friends enjoyed Ray Brook chapter's annual picnic at the Ray Brook Picnic Grounds. The main feature was barbecued chicken, prepared by a crew headed by Emmett Durr. Everyone enjoyed the various games which were available for the young and old.

One of the highlights of the picnic was the softball game between various members of the CSEA chapter. The round and square dancing in the evening in the open pavillion proved to be entertaining for all; music was provided by the Rhythmeers. Much of the credit for this successful picnic should be given to the picnic committee, consisting of Harry Sullivan, chairman, Eugene McAuliffe, Marion Schroeder, Rose Johnson, Arthur Johnson, Emmett Durr, Eunice Cross and Nina Perry; this committee worked very hard preparing for this event. Also, thanks should be given to Marguerite Sweeney and her crew of nursing staff for their fine job in serving the food, and for all the other volunteer workers who did so much to make this picnic the success it was.

President Eugene McAuliffe has appointed the following new committee chairmen for 1953-1954: membership, Evelyn Brady; sick, Eunice Cross; ways and means, Mr. Emmett Durr; publicity, Rose Johnson, resolutions, Mr. Emmett Durr. The television committee is a standing one, consisting of Mr. Durr, Harry Sullivan and Nina Perry. The grievance committee chairman will be appointed later.

The membership committee for 1958-59 consists of Evelyn Brady, chairman; Nina Perry, Mildred Bean, Loreita Bala, Elsie Patterson, John Bala, Harry Sullivan, and Orlin LaFleur.

Congratulations to Fred and Harriet Lupino who recently won a two-week trip to Japan on an area TV show.

Dr. John Eisenhower, a member of the medical staff at Ray Brook, his wife, Mary Jo, and their son, Johnny, have recently returned from a trip to the West. Dr. Eisenhower attended the American College of Chest Physicians' Meeting in San Francisco. The family travelled to San Diego and Apple Valley where they visited relatives, and then to Post Falls, Idaho, where they spent the remainder of their vacation visiting their families.

Also just returning from vacation is Rose Mary Post, chief dietitian. Miss Post spent most of her time while on vacation at Miami Beach, Florida.

Welcome to the following new employees: Wylda Hall, Marion Witherill, Shirley Fromaget and Joseph Bilow.

CSEA Counsel Report On Legislation

The following continues the serial publication of report by counsel to the CSEA of the Association's activities and accomplishments at the last session of the State Legislature:

EXTENDED ELIGIBILITY FOR SOCIAL SECURITY

A measure introduced by Senator Cuite and Assemblyman Marano to give public employees another opportunity to express their desire for Social Security was vetoed by the Governor on the recommendation of the Attorney General with a self-explanatory veto message which reads as follows:

"The Attorney General, in recommending disapproval of this bill, writes in part as follows:

"This bill amends the Retirement and Social Security Law to provide another opportunity for members of public pension and retirement systems in this State to determine whether they desire Social Security coverage.

"Our understanding of the Federal law is to the effect that a second opportunity of members of retirement systems to indicate a desire for Social Security coverage may not be extended in this way. Once desires have been expressed, the necessary referenda held and the contracts executed, those who did not express the desire for Social Security coverage become part of a group where the Federal law presently provides that such group may be brought under Social Security hereafter only as a group and without any individual choices on behalf of the employees included therein. If, for example, the State were to poll the group and find that a majority desired coverage, such coverage could only be extended to the group as a whole and not just to those who vote in the affirmative.

"... In view of the fact that the instant bill pending before you does not appear to comply with applicable Federal law, I am constrained to recommend disapproval thereof." The bill is disapproved.

EFFECTIVE DATE — REALLOCATIONS OR RECLASSIFICATIONS

A budget bill which became Chapter 325 of the Laws of 1958 was passed amending the Finance Law to provide that any reallocation or reclassification which would otherwise become effective on April 1, shall be effective on the first day of that bi-weekly pay period which is nearest to April 1.

This provision is a housekeeping provision to insure that reallocations will become effective as do salary increases and increments on the first day of the payroll period nearest to April 1 in order to avoid the necessity of computing two sets of salaries for each employee in any payroll period which April 1 occurs.

PAYROLL DEDUCTION OF DUES POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS

Pilgrim State Nurse Alumni to Picnic

The Nurses Alumni Association is giving their annual picnic for the employees of Pilgrim State Hospital on August 20, at Heck-scher State Park to raise money for a scholarship fund for worthy student nurses. The festivities will include games, races, a beautiful baby contest, and a unique hat contest, refreshments. There will be prizes galore.

Generous support of this venture was extended to the Alumni Association by the contribution of many gifts by merchants of the Bayshore and Brentwood area.

The tickets are $1. Children under 10 will be admitted free. Every one is to meet at parking field No. 2 at the park. Time: from noon until closing.

from the salary of employees the amount of dues in any duly organized association or organization of civil service employees provided the employees authorizes such deduction in writing.

The provision parallels the dues deduction authorization obtained for State employees through legislation enacted in 1956.

The legislative history of this bill was made particularly interesting by reason of the fact that it was one of the first measures introduced by Assemblyman John J. Conway, Association regional attorney, prior to his election to the Assembly which necessitated his resignation on January 1, 1958. The dues deduction bill was introduced by Mr. Conway on January 22 and was sponsored in the Senate by another legislator from Monroe County, Senator A. Gould Hatch.

It was fortunate that the measure was sponsored in the Assembly by one so familiar with the purpose and determination of the dues deduction legislation since it was the subject of sharp debate in the Assembly and was carried by a slim majority of affirmative votes. The opponents of the measure mistakenly believed that the bill would (1) force deductions on political subdivisions and would (2) force employees into association or organization membership. As ably debated by Mr. Conway it was pointed out that the measure was permissive with respect to political subdivisions in that they could either elect deduction or dues or not as the governing body might wish and also permissive with respect to employees. It has always been maintained by this Association that just as all employees should have the right to join any bona fide civil service association or organization, so they should also have an equal right not to join such organizations. Similarly just as membership is permissive so the employees who elect to join should be free to pay his dues either by payroll deduction or by direct payment.

To those employees and chapters in the political subdivisions who are interested it should be pointed out that the statute gives to the fiscal or disbursing officer authority to deduct dues. As a practical matter this would mean that the focal point of employee moves to obtain dues deduction authorization should be the comptroller, treasurer or other fiscal officer of the particular subdivision. In most instances we suspect that such officer might wish to obtain a resolution or direction further authorizing this action by the County Board of Supervisors, governing board of the particular

WINS ANOTHER IDEA PRIZE

This is Miss Bunk's second Merit Award. From left, T. B. Rogers, supervising maintenance engineer; E. J. McGinnis, assistant district engineer, Miss Bunk, Clementine M. the Common Council or other subdivision.

It is also well to point out as a practical matter that in any such negotiations the field men and Executive Director of the Association, Mr. Lochner, should be kept informed in order that the requirements of the political subdivisions and of the Association with respect to working out details should all be considered before any irrevocable steps are taken.

MERIT AWARD BOARD — POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS

A measure introduced by Senator Desmond and Assemblyman Dannebrock relating to the establishment of Merit Award Boards of certain political subdivisions was approved by the Governor as Chapter 51 of the Laws of 1958. The measure parallels the legislation enacted 10 years ago for State employees and authorizes a Merit Award Board for the purpose of rewarding employees for suggestions which result in a more efficient and economical operation of the government of the particular subdivision. It also authorizes an appropriation and expenditure for the purpose of a Merit Award Board.

PAYROLL DEDUCTION — RETIRED EMPLOYEES

Another measure introduced by Senator Helman and Assemblyman Malcolm Wilson which became Chapter 555 of the Laws of 1958 authorizes the Comptroller to deduct from the retirement allowance of any retired member such amount as the retired employee may authorize for the payment of insurance premiums to the cost of which the employer contributes.

This legislation was deemed necessary to specifically legalize the deduction of charges toward premiums of the State Health Insurance Plan from those employees already retired from the Employees Retirement System who elected to participate in the State Health Insurance Plan.
