Dear Mr. Kirchheimer:

It is a pleasure to inform you of your selection for a grant to participate in the International Educational Exchange Program of the United States Government. You have been selected by the Board of Foreign Scholarships under the authorization of Public Law 584, 79th Congress. As you know, the basic purpose of this program is to increase good will and understanding between the people of the United States and the people of other countries through the exchange of students, teachers, university lecturers and research scholars.

There are enclosed with this letter the United States Government Grant Authorization and the terms and conditions of the grant. It is requested that you read these documents carefully. Please note that this grant is not a contract. The amount authorized in it is provided to facilitate the plans which you have for accomplishing your educational project abroad. You will note that under the terms and conditions controlling this grant the recipient participates in a private, non-official capacity.

It will be appreciated if you will indicate your acceptance of the grant by signing the copies of the Grant Authorization in the space provided and returning them promptly to the International Educational Exchange Service, Department of State, Washington 25, D. C. You should retain the original of the Grant Authorization together with the statement of the terms and conditions controlling the grant.

If you find it impossible to accept, you should return all of the enclosed documents promptly in order that the grant may be utilized for an alternate candidate. A brief statement giving the reasons which make your declination necessary will be appreciated. If your acceptance is not received within 21 days from the date of this letter, the grant will be considered cancelled and there will

Dear Mr. Kirchheimer:

Your acceptance of the United States Government grant awarded you by the Department of State and authorized under Public Law 584, 79th Congress, the Fulbright Act has been received.

The binational Educational Commission (or Foundation) named in your award will arrange your travel and will inform you as soon as transportation arrangements are made. Any questions you may have about your travel, living conditions in the host country, or details of your assignment or institutional affiliation should, therefore, be directed to the Commission. You should also keep the Commission informed of any changes in your address or plans.

Awards made under provisions of the Fulbright Act are a part of the educational exchange program of the International Educational Exchange Service, Department of State. The objectives of this program are to promote better understanding of the United States abroad, and to increase mutual understanding between the people of the United States and the people of other countries through educational exchange. Americans receiving awards should recognize their responsibility to further the basic objectives of the program as well as to carry out their particular projects or assignments.

In this connection, you will undoubtedly wish, through reading or in other ways, to prepare yourself for your stay by adding to your knowledge of the host country. The bibliographies included in the information supplied to you from the Department and the binational Commission will supplement your own background reading in preparation for the grant.

Reports of former grantees emphasize how important it is for Americans to be prepared to answer all kinds of questions about
