

CRIMSON AND WHITE

Friday, February 19, 1937
THE MILNE SCHOOL
Albany, N. Y.
Volume VII, Number 16

JUNIOR NEWS

George Washington B.H.D.F.
A.B.

HOMEROOM NEWS

Since the last issue of the "Crimson and White" many incidents have occurred to draw the attention of homerooms. The Ohio Valley flood caused hustling in the homerooms as pupils brought food in "hermetically sealed cans" to be packed and shipped to the flood area. Then along came St. Valentine's Day Parties, etc. originated. Then with the beginning of the second semester, elections of officers began. Below you will find many of the new executives:

PLATS OF 320

We're not mentioning any names (they haven't been given yet) but 320 has four new plats. This new addition to 320's menagerie is the first since the death of one of their guinea pigs.

Walter Griggs is 320's new president, while Joseph Jarvis is vice-president.

(continued on page three)

NEW TEACHERS

Last Monday, February 8, the second semester began and to almost every one in Junior High it meant new teachers. Our new teachers are:

7a	Miss Shearer	Social Science
7b	Miss Dickenson	English
7c	Miss Resk	Mathematics
7d	Miss Morrow	Social Science
8a	Mr. Schaffer	Social Science
	Miss Studabaker
8b	Mr. Campbell	Mathematics
8c	Miss Jamber	Mathematics
8d	Miss Garmischal	Mathematics
9a	Mr. Hurwitz	Biology
	Mr. Erwin
9b	Mr. Edwards	Biology
9c	Miss Brandin	General Science
9d	Miss Sutton	Latin

BOOK PRINTING DISPLAY

An exhibit showing how books are printed is on display in the conference room this week.

Crimson and White Staff

NEW ADDITION TO MILNE

Editor-in-Chief	Estelle Dilg
Associate Editors	Jean Bushe Edward Langwig
Composing Staff	Betty Hoyt Miriam Boice Van Varner
Humor Editor	Frank Hewes
Girls Sports Editor	Betty Mann
Art Editor	Charles Golding
Club Editor	Gilbert Dancy
Mimeographing	David Fuld
Reporters	Walter Griggs Kenneth Gypson James Haskins Jerome Levitz

Work has begun on the addition of a new building to Milne. The building will be constructed on Washington Avenue and new rooms in it will be a shop, a home economics room, an art room, and a stage for small class presentations. In the new shop there will be leatherwork, jewelry, art metal work and pottery. The building is expected to be complete and ready for use by students in one year. This will enlarge the school and give more teachers a chance in different kinds of work. Everything in the building will be new and the students should make an effort to keep it new as long as possible. While the building is being constructed, students are requested by Professor Sayles to stay away from the work.

Student Council Correspondent
Donner Atwood

Faculty Adviser--Miss Ruth Moore

New club members also contributed to this issue. New staff members will be listed in future issues.

TO THE STUDENTS

Dear Student Friends,

A new semester is under way. It will be a busy half year, for there are lessons to be done, newspapers to get out, clubs to make go, an excursion and a big party. It is my earnest hope that all will have a pleasant and happy semester. Keep your chins up, your manners worthy of a Milne student, and at least until spring, your health in tip top shape for the grind.

Cordially
Robert W. Fredrick

DO YOU KNOW?

Do you know how many different kinds of fire apparatus there are in Milne?

How many waste containers there are in Milne?

That Ethele Gould does not dislike Dexter Simpson?

How many doors there are in Milne ?

That George Proper and Corrine Edwards are hitting it hard these days?

Did you know that more bread is being eaten today in Britain than at any time during the last ten years. The increase was attributed largely to the power of press advertising.

BIOGRAPHY OF MR. FOLSE

Mr. Folse was born in Labodieville, La. and graduated from Donaldsonville, La. In 1924 he got his Bachelor of Arts degree and in 1926 got a Master of Arts degree at George Washington University. He received a Bachelor of Arts in Education degree in 1931 at Chicago Art Institution.

Mr. Folse's favorite sports are tennis, ice skating, hiking, and swimming. His favorite food is Italian spaghetti. Some of his paintings are on exhibition at the Corcoran Art Gallery, National Art Gallery and Art Center in Washington, and Dallas Art Gallery at Dallas, Texas. He also is represented in many private collections and was recently commissioned to paint a landscape. Brenau College at Gainesville, Ga. has requested him to send an exhibition of his paintings to their college.

THIS WEEK'S CHARACTER SKETCH

This week's victim has blue eyes, short light brown hair, is medium height and is plump. He or she is in the 7A class and is a member of Home room 130. He or she is known among the Ninth Graders as "Machine Gun". He plays the guitar very nicely. All answers for this week's Character Sketch are to be put in the Crimson and White drawer in Miss Moore's office.

STRANGE AS IT SEEMS

The storm that saved an empire.-- A fleet of 3500 ships carrying 100,000 Mongol warriors to invade Japan was destroyed by a typhoon in 1281.

(continued on page three)

GIRLS' SPORTS

Basketball will last until March 6 when a championship game will be played at the "Gym Nite". On March 6, "Gym Nite" (instead of Annual Antics) will be given by both boys and girls. Tickets will be 35¢ except for those in it who will have to pay 25¢. Tumbling, dancing, badminton and basketball will be given in the program. Dancing will go on afterwards and orchestra will be provided.

In the spring, tennis golf and baseball will be the program. All three may be taken if desired, said Miss Hitchcock.

(continued from page one)

LAWS

According to the new laws of 121 you cannot leave homeroom on Tuesday and Thursday and you must have homework completed to leave on Friday.

121 has sent away for six new scripts of the "White Phantom", the play to be presented in assembly in the near future.

* * * *

HOBBIES ON PARADE

135 is planning another hobby show like the one the eighth year presented last year. Martin Edwards, Dorothy Ball, and Ernest Dixon head the committee in charge of it.

Norman Andrews was elected president of 135 recently.

* * * *

FOLSE ASSISTANT

Mrs. Crelin is assisting Mr. Folse in directing homeroom 130.

Recently Joseph Hunting was elected president of 130. Ethel Baldwin is vice-president.

* * * *

ANOTHER ELECTION

Edward Langwig is president of home room 126, while Lawrence Mapes is vice-president.

* * * *

RETURN

Katherine Schul is president of 224.

HUMOR

New Office Boy: "You told me to file these letters, Sir."
Fosse: "Yes".
Office Boy: "Don't you think it would be easier to trim them with scissors?"

LOST AND FOUND

Lost:

One Quin pin with initials M.J.P. on it. If found return to Marjorie Rand in Room 333.

Small green change-purse, the contents of which are three keys, a ten cent piece, one school token, to be returned to Beverly Kemp in Room 130.

A dark, green Parker Fountain Pen and Gregg Shorthand Book, Part One, on Functional Methods, which are to be turned in to Miss Nicos.

Found:

Durell and Arnold, First Book of Algebra, eleven various colored fountain pens, one pen knife in a case, a key case, three keys with a lock attached, one necklace, two locks, and eight pencils all of which are to be found in Miss Nicos' office, but the most important thing found is some nice new teachers for some good (we hope) pupils.

VERSE

It happens that a certain person bought a Latin book and found a poem in it giving the first owner's opinion. It goes as follows:

Latin is a dead language
As dead as dead can be;
It once was killing the Romans
But now it's killing me.

STRANGE AS IT SEEMS

(continued from page two)

The piano has only 88 notes, there are 10,000 distinct tones within the human range of hearing.

Woodrow Wilson was once a football coach.

REMEMBER?

When Harriet Gorden was a baby and couldn't talk?

Them days are gone for ever.

When we thought the fifth grade Arithmetic was hard?

Those days are gone forever.

When school was out at 2:00 o'clock?
Those days are gone forever.

When one English book was sufficient?
Them days are gone forever.

Judge: "Did you say you were fooling?"

Chinamone: "Yes me Foo Ling."

Judge: "Well, we don't stand for fooling here. Five dollars, fine, please."