

CRIMSON AND WHITE

Friday, January 10, 1936
THE MILNE SCHOOL

Albany, N. Y.
Volume VI, Number 11

JUNIOR NEWS

HOMEROOM 127 ELECTS OFFICERS

Homeroom 127 has elected new officers for the rest of the year, despite fact that usually new officers are chosen at the beginning of the second semester. The officers are as follows: president, John Fink; treasurer, Preston Robinson; and secretary, Eleanor Parsons.

STUDENTS VISIT PRESS, SUPPLY COMPANY

The eighth grade Social Studies group visited the Knickerbocker press on Friday. Saturday they visited the Fro-Joy ice cream plant and the Paramount Moving Picture Supply Company on Broadway.

At the Press they observed how our daily paper is made. Each pupil received a lineotype stamp of his name through the courtesy of the Knickerbocker Press.

At the Fro-Joy plant they enjoyed ice cream after a trip through the building. At the Paramount they saw what they had been studying in class about movies.

CLUB NEWS

The Excursion club is planning to visit the Western Union station on Monday. The next Monday it is going to attend a meeting of the Senate in the Capitol. There the members will see and hear how the laws of the state are discussed as bills and voted as laws.

* * * *

The Model Airplane club has been studying about the parts of a plane during the club periods. Now the members intend to form a squadron.

* * * *

The Boys' Cooking club is learning to do difficult cooking. On Wednesday the boys made pigs-in-blankets.

* * * *

The Cartoon club was greatly disappointed when no one entered the contest which was announced before vacation. The president said, "Let's forget there ever was a contest".

ART STUDENTS ADVERTISE TRAVEL

The girls in the seventh grade art classes are completing posters advertising travel in various parts of the United States and Europe. Some of the best of the posters are now on exhibit in the case outside the library. These include scenes of the Adirondacks, Yellowstone National park, California, Mexico, Holland and Egypt.

The boys in the seventh grade art classes have just finished making flags and pennants for the ships they recently completed in shop.

DANCING AND ART CLUBS WILL PRESENT PLAYS

The Girls' Beginning Dancing club will present a play, "Dancing in School", written by Laura Ann Lyon next Wednesday during the club period. The cast of characters is as follows: Betty, Shirley Smith; John, Helen Norris; Ruth, Catherine Morrison; Glory, Helen Cooper; Nancy, Laura Ann Lyon; Bob, Helen Culp; Mother, Marianne Adams; and Father, Helen Hutchinson. Della Carvel will be the announcer, and Anne Loucks will direct the play. The Dramatics club, Etiquette club, and the seventh grade Dancing club have been invited to attend the play.

The art club is going to present a play called "Snow White and the Dwarfs" in assembly soon. The chairmen of the committees in charge of the production are as follows: scenery, Arthur Bates; costumes, Emily Sanderson; advertising, John Schamberger and Sidney Stockholm; and typing, Eleanor Parsons and Marilyn Smith.

DO YOU KNOW?

How much do you know about Milne? The following list of questions may help test your knowledge.

1. How many members has Milne faculty?
2. How long has Milne been established?
3. How many students are there in Milne?
4. How many windows are there in Milne?

Answers to question will appear in next week's paper.